Dainty Dawlz - Holding Fee Terms

1. Reservation of Puppy

The holding fee reserves the puppy identified in this Agreement exclusively for the Buyer and removes that puppy from public availability. The holding fee is credited toward the total purchase price if the purchase is completed.

2. Non-Refundable Holding Fee

Buyer understands and agrees that the holding fee is NON-REFUNDABLE if Buyer cancels, changes their mind, is unable to complete payment, encounters housing or landlord restrictions, travel problems, family or relationship changes, financial difficulties, pet allergies, or otherwise decides not to complete the purchase. The holding fee compensates Seller for taking the puppy off the market and for lost placement opportunities.

3. Failure to Pay or Take Possession

If Buyer fails to pay the remaining balance by the agreed due date or fails to take possession by the agreed pickup or delivery date without a written extension approved by Seller, Seller may cancel the reservation and make the puppy available to another home. The holding fee remains non-refundable except where applicable law requires otherwise.

4. Seller Cancellation

If Dainty Dawlz cancels the placement for reasons unrelated to Buyer breach, or Seller is unable to provide the identified puppy, the holding fee will be refunded. Seller may decline or cancel a placement if Seller determines that placement is not in the puppy's best interest.

5. No Transfer Without Written Approval

The holding fee applies only to the puppy identified in this Agreement and may not be transferred to another puppy, litter, buyer, or future purchase unless Dainty Dawlz approves the transfer in writing.

6. Remaining Balance and Transfer

The remaining purchase balance must be paid in cleared funds before the puppy is released unless Seller agrees otherwise in writing. Payment of a holding fee does not transfer ownership or possession of the puppy.

7. Entire Agreement

This document contains the parties' agreement concerning the holding fee and reservation. Any change must be in writing and accepted by Buyer and Seller. If one provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain effective to the fullest extent permitted by law.
