FOREWORD

Rev. Dr. Jayme Mathias

I have no problem admitting that I'm a geek and that I possess an excessive enthusiasm for many subjects, including Old Catholicism in Europe and Independent Catholicism in the U.S. For this reason, I was excited to attend this year's Utrecht Summer School, a five-day program in the "Cradle of Independent Catholicism," where attendees from throughout the world drank deeply of the universal spirit of Independent Catholicism, deepened their understanding of the history, theology, liturgy and ecumenism of the Old Catholic tradition, and enjoyed a number of resources on Old Catholicism.

With a theological journal, a yearly bibliography, an impressive corpus of works, and recognized faculties at accredited institutions of higher education, European Old Catholicism is light years ahead of U.S. Independent Catholicism. The present work is the fruit of my own desire to better understand the breadth and length and height and depth (Eph. 3:18) of the Old Catholic corpus of English works, as well as the works published about U.S. Independent Catholicism and by Independent Catholic clergy and laity.

The first section of this work is a compilation of the bibliography provided at the Utrecht Summer School, with the English works of the International Working Group for Research on Old Catholicism [Internationaler Arbeitskreis Altkatholizismus-Forschung], organized by theme. This is the only section of the present work organized by theme, but it is imagined that future editions of this work might be entirely organized in such a way. The online link to the Working Group's 2010 bibliography is currently broken, so the works from that year remain to be added. To ensure consistency and to shorten some excessively long online links, all links to online sources have been shortened through bitly.com.

Here in Austin, we attempted our own bibliography of Independent Catholic works in 2018 when Father Daniel Storrs assisted our parish community and created a compilation of resources that included annotated bibliographies for two works on the Independent Sacramental Movement, five works on European Old Catholicism, four works on Independent Catholicism & American Old Catholicism, and 13 additional Independent & Old Catholic sources.

Like Father Daniel's compilation, the present bibliography contains a section on Old Catholicism & Independent Catholicism outside of Europe, followed by bibliographies for Independent Catholic clergy who have authored five or more works. All other authors are included in a subsequent section. To assist the discerning reader, annotated bibliographies are included for a number of works.

For seven years now, various Independent Catholic clergy have worked to publish an online magazine titled “Convergent Streams.” The present work contains a bibliography of all contributions to “Convergent Streams” that are currently available online. We have reached out to Bishop Gregory Godsey to see if we might include in this work a more comprehensive listing of all articles from all editions of “Convergent Streams,” so that readers of this work will have a clearer idea of the treasures shared by “Convergent Streams” through the years.

Finally, St. Alban’s Press merits its own section in this work, due to the number of resources it has published.

A caution may be warranted: The present work contains a wide array of works, with disparate theologies & world views, ranging from the highly-researched and peer-reviewed works of European Old Catholicism, to the “readers beware, you’re in for a scare” self-published works on the occult by some U.S. Independent Catholic voices. For better or worse, all of these works are part of the incredible mixed salad of Independent & Old Catholicism in the English-speaking world. Hence, all are included here.

Obviously, the present work is merely a first attempt at organizing a set of disparate works in time for a convocation of Independent Catholic clergy and laity here in Austin, Texas. Complete publication information is not available for all works at this time. Please help us improve this work by sharing your comments with pastor@HolyFamilyACC.org, or by sending them to P.O. Box 2386, Austin, Texas 78768. Together, we can improve this resource for one another!

Other Works on Old & Independent Catholicism

Anson, Peter F. (Reprinted in 2006). Bishops at large. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

The story of one of the strangest and most fantastic religious movements to be found in the whole range of the erratic “goings on” of the ecclesiastical underworld, this work details the history of the various successions claimed by most independent jurisdictions and urges academic attention on the independent Catholic movement.

Byrne, Julie (2016). The other Catholics: Remaking America's largest religion. New York, NY: Columbia University Press.

The remarkable history and current activity of independent Catholics—the “other Catholics,” not connected to the pope and often affirming communion for the divorced, women's ordination, clerical marriage, and same-sex marriage—who present an unusually liberal, mobile, and creative version of America's largest religion.

Caruso, Robert W. (2009). The Old Catholic Church. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

An informative work on the theological richness of the Old Catholic churches of the Union of Utrecht, a Catholic tradition that is unknown and misunderstood by many in North America. Caruso focuses on the historical origins of Old Catholicism to better explain the eucharistic nature of the local catholic Church and its real struggles.

Owles, R. Joseph (2013). Catholic but not Roman, orthodox but not eastern: An introduction to the Old Catholic Church. Amazon Digital Services.

A presentation of the Old Catholic Church as another valid church that is 100% catholic, more in line with the beliefs of many, and with differing perspectives from the Roman church on such issues as married and female clergy, the divorced and remarried, birth control and contraception, and other issues of conscience, Plummer, John Paul (2004). The many paths of the Independent Sacramental Movement (Independent Catholic Heritage Series). Dallas, TX: Newt Books.

An exploration of independent denominations and their adherents, who often long for the sacraments but have been alienated by intransigent dogma and cookie-cutter churches, this work examines the rich tapestry of churches, ranging from archconservative to New Age with esoteric and occult teachings—all holding fast to individuality.

Plummer, John Paul, & Mabry, John R. (2006). Who are the Independent Catholics? An introduction to the Independent and Old Catholic Churches. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

A compact and concise introduction to the wonderfully diverse Independent Catholic movement—the fastest-growing variety of Catholic in the West—in a friendly, easy-to-read style, this work focuses on the most common varieties of Independent Catholicism in hopes of providing a short, useful orientation to the newcomer.

Richard, Christopher (2019). The Old Catholic Church: A viable alternative. Amazon Digital Services.

All churches began simply as the 'Christian Church', but centuries of scriptural misinterpretation, politics, greed, hunger for power, and human ego contributed to a number of splits affecting the people of God. This book explores the separation of churches from Rome throughout the centuries, and the viable alternative that exists.

Bibliography of Wynn Wagner, III of the North American Old Catholic Church

- Wagner, Wynn (2010). A catechism of the Liberal Catholic Church. (2nd edition). Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

An easy-to-read introduction to the Liberal Catholic Church, a branch of the church catholic that welcomes everyone—especially sinners—and whose Liberal Rite brings together all sorts of people. The first edition was written by a rookie priest with Holy Water behind the ears, and the 4th edition by a my-incense-don't-even-stink archbishop.

- Wagner, Wynn (2010). Recovering Catholic: How to be Catholic without being Roman Catholic. CreateSpace.

An enlightening, compelling and often humorous work for those who've questioned or considered leaving the Roman church, this work acknowledges the schism between the Roman church and Old Catholic churches, advances choices as freely made without guilt or threat of damnation, and envisions a world where Christians don't judge or ban others.

- Wagner, Wynn (2010). The complete liturgy for independent, mystical & liberal Catholics. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

A book of rituals for independent priests and bishops, containing the Liberal Catholic Mass, Holy Week services, blessings and benediction, Baptism, Confirmation, Confession, Marriage, Holy Orders, viaticum and unction, funerals and burials, prayers and creeds, and more.

Wagner, Wynn (2010). Vamp camp chronicles, Book 1: Vamp camp. Dreamspinner Press.

Mårten Larsson didn't want a sissy circle over the å in his name, and he didn't want to be a vamp—but one day he woke up dead, with a piece of paper that said, "Dude, you're a vampire. Drink some blood. Don't suntan." Luckily, another vampire teaches him how to live with his boyfriend (well, not live, exactly), without getting staked or baked.

Wagner, Wynn (2011). Commitment issues. Dreamspinner Press.

The tragic end to Sean Roberts' first real love affair hurled him into alcoholism and destroys his career. Five years sober, he's rebuilding his broadcasting career and has met the man of his dreams. Fate now threatens to snatch Wyatt away from him—but Sean is ready to fight for his life and his love.

Wagner, Wynn (2011). Vamp camp chronicles, Book 2: Obscurati. Dreamspinner Press.

100 years after his turning, Mårten and his lover Oberon have created an empire that brings balance to vampire society around the world. Once two giddy young vamps, now they're the Obscurati, the most formidable vampire hit squad in history, enforcing vamp law with anti-vamp firepower, while pushing their steamy relationship to the next level.

Wagner, Wynn (2011). Vamp camp chronicles, Book 3: The vamp in the silver mask. Dreamspinner Press.

In their quest to save the world from exsanguination one vampire-bad-guy at a time, Mårten and his husbands—plural—unearth a stone coffin and a decades-old plot to polish off the pope. If Mårten wants to save their unives—and their marriage—he needs to solve the mystery of the vamp in the silver mask before the Illuminati turn out the lights.

Wagner, Wynn (2012). A pilgrim's guide to the Old Catholic Church. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

Larger groups that use the word "Catholic" rarely admit it, but the Old Catholic Church has been around for hundreds of years and is completely Catholic—even without the pope, the Inquisition, and all the guilt. If others assail you with arguments against gay marriage, women priests or a married clergy, this is your book!

Wagner, Wynn (2012). Brent: The heart reader. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

An explicit New Age adult fiction M/M romance of a young tarot reader whose adopted family looks down on gays, tarot readers, Swedes, and anything else he brings up in discussion. A new life of wonder & adventure begins when this wounded healer does a tarot reading for a Sioux man and reads his own heart. Viking meets Sioux: fireworks!

Wagner, Wynn (2012). Divine and healing path: An Old Catholic catechism. (2nd edition). Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

No ordinary, dry catechism, this work shares the story of a Californian who took a journey toward God, invites others to join him, and warns fellow sojourners of various pitfalls. His conclusion: It's possible to be part of a legitimate and traditional Catholic church and refuse to act like a modern-day Pharisee with gobs and gobs of rules.

Wagner, Wynn (2012). influential. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

The tale of two opposites who should never have met: a street kid with an amazing talent for business, and a clairvoyant Swede with a take-no-prisoners PFLAG mom. Thrown together by tragedy, their tender romance thrives despite their best efforts.

Wagner, Wynn (2012). Recovering Catholic: How to be Catholic without being Roman Catholic. (2nd edition). Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

An enlightening, supportive, and sometimes irreverent book for all who are disillusioned by "the Church," this work seeks to help people discover an entirely new way of looking at and participating in the Christian world they once loved. A loving and accepting religion exists that is 100% Catholic and 0% Roman Catholic.

Wagner, Wynn (2012). Tarot for Christians: Lessons from Christ's fool. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

Like the Fool, the innocent wanderer on the first tarot card, Christians are vagabonds who learn and grow as they travel through the "deck" of life. The "flash cards" of tarot are a meditation on life, not an attempt to peer into the future, with the major tarot cards being stations on the Fool's journey. Humor and wisdom are found in each image.

Wagner, Wynn (2012). Vamp camp chronicles, Book 4: Fangs over America. Dreamspinner Press.

Mårten Larsson is one of the richest bloodsuckers ever, but his unlife isn't exactly a flight in the park. There are some things money can't buy – like an instruction manual on what to do when the vampire queen quits and leaves you in charge of Europe. Mårten's German still sucks, but a little responsibility should be no problem... right?

Wagner, Wynn (2017). Time flies. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

A snarky, laugh-out-loud, LGBT adult romance of a gay kid who learned karate in small-town Texas. Society and its machinery won't stop him: He's going to fall in love, and he's going to save the world. His life is one of hope. Society tells Andreas that he's substandard, so he's going to change the standard.

Wagner, Wynn. A book of prayer.

Wagner, Wynn. Pax et fides.

Wagner, Wynn. The rites of the Old Catholic Church, Volume 1: Sacramentary. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

Wagner, Wynn. The rites of the Old Catholic Church, Volume 2: Lectionary. Dallas, TX: Mystic Ways Books.

Bibliography of Lewis Keizer

Keizer, Lewis. (1976). The wandering bishops: Apostles of a new spirituality. Home Temple Press. Available at <http://bit.ly/2MxdRw9>.

An overview of apostolic succession and the history of the episcopi vagantes, including the clandestine Gnostic and Templar successions of Europe, the Order of Corporate Reunion, the transplanting of Orthodox and other non-Roman Catholic episcopal lineages to America, and the secular & canonical court battles for validity.

Keizer, Lewis (1988). The authentic Jesus: A guide to Aramaic idioms, recent research, and the original message of Jesus Christ. Home Temple Press.

The basic textbook for Home Temple Diaconate Studies, this work introduces Aramaic concepts and the historical background of Jewish mysticism for Jesus' teachings. Originally written in 1976, this work anticipated many of the conclusions of the controversial Jesus Seminar, which sought to debunk Christian theology through the recovery of the historical teachings of Jesus.

Keizer, Lewis. (2009) Mother Jennie's garden: The life story of a great theosophical sage, saint and psychic. Available on Amazon.

The autobiography of Mother Jennie, a psychic & pioneer feminist of the early twentieth century. Compiled from taped conversations with her before her death, this work highlights the classic pattern of all shamans, saints and mystics: unusual psychism during childhood, a period of testing and shamanic illness, a "dark night of the soul," and inevitable appearance of tutorial spirits.

Keizer, Lewis. (2009). The astral man: An occult odyssey. Available on Amazon.

A retelling of Keizer's 2000 work with Whitworth on a young man's attempt to develop out-of-body psychic warfare to protect the U.S. from telepathic spies.

Keizer, Lewis. (2010) The kabbalistic teachings of Jesus in the Gospel of Thomas. Available on Amazon.

The Gospel of Thomas preserves a core of Yeshua's oldest, authentic Aramaic sayings. This study of forgotten sacred literature allows modern scholars to understand and reconstruct the oral kabbalah of Yeshua in the Gospel of Thomas.

Keizer, Lewis (2010). The new humanity: The forgotten kabbalistic teachings of Yeshua and the evolution of global spirituality, Available on Amazon.

Yeshua's teaching was based on a modality of spiritual practice known as halakah, and his goal was the spiritual rebirth of a new archetypal humanity—a second or new Adam. This work explores the bar-enash, the Son-of-Man messiah prophesied by Daniel, revealed by Enoch, and destined to liberate the old humanity from its self-created spiritual bondage.

Keizer, Lewis (2011). Incarnating the new humanity: Practicing Yeshua's lost halakah for spiritual rebirth. Available on Amazon.

Yeshua's teaching was based on a modality of spiritual practice known as halakah, and his goal was the spiritual rebirth of a new archetypal humanity—a second or new Adam. This work explores the bar-enash, the Son-of-Man messiah prophesied by Daniel, revealed by Enoch, and destined to liberate the old humanity from its self-created spiritual bondage.

Keizer, Lewis (2012). Yeshua: The unknown Jesus. Available on Amazon.

A fictional biography of Jesus designed to introduce readers to the forgotten world of Jewish messianic, kabbalistic, prophetic, wisdom, and the merkabah mysticism familiar to the Jewish disciples of Yeshua. This work illuminates teachings & spiritual practices that were lost in the emergence of gentile Christianity.

Keizer, Lewis. (2013). Abbaun: The authentic Aramaic meaning of the Lord's Prayer. Available on Amazon.

Recently-published Aramaic versions of the Lord's Prayer are not authentic to Yeshua, the historical Jesus, but are second-century Syriac translations from flawed Greek versions of the prayer in Matthew & Luke. This work shows how a poor translation of the Aramaic was created to make sense for gentile churches that shared Paul's theology.

Keizer, Lewis. (2013). The pneumatikon: A twenty-first century introduction to the soul, reincarnation, and spiritual realities. Available on Amazon.

A guide on meditation and spiritual practice based on ancient ideas on the soul, reincarnation, parapsychological phenomena, death, and after-death states, as reinterpreted through 21-century cosmology and quantum science.

Keizer, Lewis (2015). The pre-Christian teachings of Yeshua. Available on Amazon.

This work is a compilation of the authentic sayings & teachings of Yeshua as compiled by his Jewish disciples and remembered in the earliest oral traditions—before they were translated into Greek, misunderstood and Christianized. They are presented within the context of Second Temple messianic haggadah, merkabah, and the prophetic & wisdom traditions.

Keizer, Lewis. Initiation: Ancient and modern. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

This work analyzes the meaning and methodology of initiation, with detailed examinations of shamanic, Osirian, Eleusinian & Hermetic, mystery schools, with a particular focus on the initiations mentioned in Alice Bailey's Initiations: Human & Solar.

Keizer, Lewis. Keys of the master: Aramaic key words and divine concepts in the authentic historical teaching of the master Jesus. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

The basic textbook for Home Temple Priesthood Studies, this work contains an alphabetical listing and detailed interpretations of basic concepts and words spoken by Jesus in Aramaic and Hebrew.

Keizer, Lewis. Priest in the new age. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

This work traces the development and many precursor movements of a universal lay or non-professional apostolic priesthood against the historical background of contemporary spiritual developments contributing to the Home Temple movement.

Keizer, Lewis. Prophecies concerning the new church. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

This work translates and analyzes the prophecies of Nostradamus and other Western mystics about the future of esoteric Christianity, shedding light on twenty-first century world spiritual events.

Keizer, Lewis. Sepher ha-razim and its tradition: An inquiry into the interrelation of Jewish, Greco-Egyptian, and Chaldean magico-mystic practices in the Roman-Hellenistic period. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

This work explores the magical and gnostic theurgical traditions that were contemporaneous with the life of Jesus, with an examination of Margalioth's reconstructed book of Hebrew kabbalistic magic, portions of the Greek magical papyri, the Mithrisliturgie, and other sources.

Keizer, Lewis. Simplified Coptic grammar with comprehensive texts and glossaries. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

A textbook of Coptic grammar with a wide selection of Coptic gnostic and other recently-recovered manuscripts for translation, this work includes comprehensive Coptic and Greek glossaries specific to included texts.

Keizer, Lewis. The gospel of Jesus Christ: The simple word of the master Jesus. Home Temple Press. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

Following the structure of the gospel of Mark, this work translates and paraphrases Jesus' teachings, amplified with extant logia of Jesus from canonical and non-canonical sources. This work illuminates a level of spiritual meaning not accessible in standard translations of scripture.

Keizer, Lewis. Ultra-fundamentalism: Assault on democracy. Available at: <http://bit.ly/2M9BkEL>.

Illuminating the phenomenological characteristics of religious fundamentalism in Christianity, Islam, and Judaism, this work explores the origins of Christian millenarianism, biblical fundamentalism in the post-Civil War South, and the rise of the religious right in post-Vietnam America. The author exposes the ultra-fundamentalist agenda for education and government.

Keizer, Lewis, & Storlie, Timothy (2001). Initiation into the grail mysteries. iUniverse Press.

A training guide for the Home Temple Episcopate, this work guides initiates through seven first-order empowerments that are performed on lunar cycles after Easter-Passover Vigil.

Keizer, Lewis, & Whitworth, Eugene. (2000). Astral man to cosmic Christ: A metaphysical odyssey. Available on Amazon.

The fruit of two lifetimes of learning in occult wisdom and technique, this fast-paced, fictional mystery-drama centers on a Knovovich Norris, a young metaphysician bent on developing astral projection (out-of-body travel) for national defense at the end of the Vietnam War.

Bibliography of Joseph R. Owles

Owles, R. Joseph (2008). A little book of prayers. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Paul tells us to constantly pray, and James suggests that Christian prayer produces results. This work is a collection of traditional and non-traditional prayers from different sources, as well as psalms and biblical prayers, intended both for those new to the faith and for those who are confident in their ability to pray and are looking for new prayers.

Owles, R. Joseph (2013). A sheep among wolves: One man's stubborn commitment to the idea that God is love. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

How different our world and our church would be, if those of us who claim to be Christian constructed our lives on the simple ideas that God is love, that God is patient, kind, and forgiving. This work is a collection of "blessays" (meditations) centered on the one, simple idea that God is love.

Owles, R. Joseph (2013). Biblical faith: What is it and how to use it. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Building on the thesis that faith is like money and has to be spent to have power, this short work aims to help the reader learn to "pray with power and get results." Having faith is important, but using faith is power. What is faith, and how are you "spending" it?

Owles, R. Joseph (2014). The Didache: The teaching of the twelve apostles. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A contemporary translation of "the Teaching" attributed to the Twelve Apostles, which continues to serve as a manual for contemporary Christians, answering such questions as whether one need be dunked during baptism, or whether water can simply be poured over the head.

Owles, R. Joseph (2015). Apostolic prosperity: The guide for receiving God's wealth, healing and abundance. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Only you can decide whether you'll be the hard road, the rocky ground, the soil filled with weeds and thorns, or the fertile soil that allows the Word of God to grow an abundant harvest in your life. Regardless of the type of “soil” you’ve been in the past, what matters is what you choose to be from this moment on.

Owles, R. Joseph (2015). A song to my soul: An experiment in Christian Sufism. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Too often we fail to notice that life is a mystical experience. This work is a reminder of how mystical and magical every day in this world is—and how we often confuse the lamp of religion with the light of Christ. Topics include the nature of the Trinity, the humanity of Christ, the nature of truth, and the world as the womb for our souls.

Owles, R. Joseph (2016). A guide to grief & mourning. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

The death of a person is an event, but the acknowledgement of that death is a process. Intended for those who are grieving and for those attempting to comfort them, this handbook is a quick reference for common issues and experiences with grief, mourning and bereavement.

Owles, R. Joseph (2017). Awake. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Continuing on the theme of A Song to My Soul, this work of poetry is a result of the author’s meditation on Buddhism and the Rule of Saint Benedict, and focuses on the mystical mundane and the sacred ordinary. Themes include creation as a means of fostering our relationship with God, and how we are always on God’s mind.

Owles, R. Joseph (2017). How to live a spiritual life without leaving your day job: Spiritual principles for daily living. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Based on the Rule of Saint Benedict and Benedictine spirituality, this work provides 365 short and simple, daily spiritual principles for those seeking to live a spiritual life. Benedictine spirituality encourages radical hospitality, justice and peace, and stability in an anxious, uncertain world—and you don’t have to be a monk to live these.

Owles, R. Joseph (2018). Spiritual kindergarten: The Rule of Saint Benedict for everyday life. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

An abridged version of the Rule of Saint Benedict for beginners, this work provides entry-level spirituality—the spiritual “arithmetic” of adding and subtracting that makes possible the more advanced spiritual “calculus” of religious maturity. Words like “monastery,” “abbot” and “monk” are replaced with words that apply to everyday life.

Owles, R. Joseph (2018). The disciple's handbook. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

Disciples are apprentices who spend time with their mentors, watching them and attempting to mimic their skills and expertise. This work presents the numerous parables and discourses that Jesus shared with his “apprentices,” for those who might wish to be Jesus’ apprentices today.

Owles, R. Joseph (2014). The gatherer of wisdom: An honest translation of the book of Ecclesiastes. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A gritty and vulgar translation of Ecclesiastes for people who live with ambiguity and for down-and-out, honest seekers

Owles, R. Joseph (2007). The new peace treaty (between God and humanity). CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A new translation of the New Testament, with basic language and common slang instead of misunderstood theological & religious terms, and with numbers for chapters and verses are removed.

Owles, R. Joseph (2016). The new peace treaty. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A bible that says what it means, intended to be what first-century Christians would hear if they lived in the 21st century.

Owles, R. Joseph (2009, republished in 2015). The process of power: Lao Tzu's guide to success, politics, governance & leadership. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A new translation of the Chinese classic Tao Te Ching, providing advice for achieving social, governmental, and corporate success.

Owles, R. Joseph (2017). The Rule of Saint Benedict. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A discipline and wisdom for living in a world of sin, distraction, suffering & death, where the “monastery” is understood as people living together in “oneness.”

Owles, R. Joseph (2014). The writings of Luke: The good news as Luke tells it and what the apostles did. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

An easy-to-read translation of Luke’s two volumes, intended for daily reflection.

Owles, R. Joseph (2015). Time expired and other stories. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

A collection of short stories, including ghost stories, paranormal thrillers, fantasy, horror, and the occasional, difficult-to-define story.

Owles, R. Joseph (2016). Your daily bread: The New Testament in 365 daily readings. CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform.

365 daily readings of The New Peace Treaty: A New Translation of the New Testament for a New Millennium.

Jarvis, Edward (2018). "God, land & freedom." The true story of I.C.A.B.: The Brazilian Catholic Apostolic Church: Its history, theology, branches, and worldwide offshoots. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

With some four million members, the Brazilian Catholic Apostolic Church (ICAB) embraced religious freedom, redefined the pope as just another bishop, and abolished Latin & celibacy 20 years before Vatican II. This work explores ICAB founders & theology, as well as purported links to freemasonry, communism & the occult.

Jarvis, Edward (2018). Sede vacante: The life and legacy of Archbishop Thuc. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

A painstaking reconstruction of Sedevacantism, American Catholicism's only homegrown "new religious movement," at the extremes of Traditionalist Catholicism and Independent Catholicism. Thuc is highlighted as the only Roman Catholic prelate to embrace Sedevacantism and for his role in launching the fanatical Palmarian cult.

Mathew, Arnold Harris (1909, reprinted 2005). The Old Catholic missal. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

The classic translation of the Roman Catholic Mass adapted for Old Catholic use in English parishes by the first Old Catholic bishop consecrated for missionary work in the British Isles, Arnold Harris Mathew, this long-out-of-print edition is a copy of the original 1909 edition.

Mathias, Jayme (2019). Extraordinary celebrations, extraordinary growth: Ideas for Independent and Old Catholic communities during the year of Matthew 2020. Austin, TX: Extraordinary Catholics Press. Available at <https://amzn.to/32bEGg2>.

Plummer, John Paul (2012). Living mysteries: A practical handbook for the independent priest. (2nd edition). Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

Acknowledging that priests in the independent sacramental movement all too often have to rely on ministerial resources from other traditions, Plummer offers clear instructions for the celebration of the sacraments, as well as advice and meditations for cultivating an ever-deepening spiritual life.

Queen, Andre' J.W. (2004). Credo: The catechism of the Old Catholic Church. iUniverse.

An introduction to the Old Catholic Church of the United States, a sacramental, catholic, apostolic family of faith with a rich theological heritage, this work emphasizes the timeless message of Christ in Old Catholicism, in contrast to those who yield to the "spirit of the age."

Rake, Kristina (2015). God and the paranormal: Mediums, ghosts, and the afterlife in the Bible. (Vol. 1). CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Available on Amazon.

A tongue-in-cheek work with a provocative title and plentiful humor, this book presents first-century Jewish beliefs of the coming messianic age for those who have died as a foundation for the defense of the Catholic teachings on the afterlife (e.g., saints, purgatory, prayer for the dead, the Septuagint).

Saint, Rick (2007). A short catechism of the Old Catholic Church. St. Hildegard's Press.

Borrowing from a variety of historic church resources, this catechism provides basic instruction in the faith and is designed for use as a resource in preparing for the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation.

Storrs, Daniel (2018). An Invitation to Explore Catholicism Freely as a Modern Catholic Christian.

Theriault, Serge A. (2008). Msgr. Dominique M. Varlet: Originator of the Old Catholic episcopal succession, 1678-1742. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

Now a symbol of Christian freedom and church autonomy, Roman Catholic bishop Dominique-Marie Varlet commented on scripture, theology, and ecclesiastical abuses in a way that shaped early Old Catholicism. This work sheds light on the missionary priest, bishop, theologian and church reformer who birthed the Old Catholic Church episcopate.

Theriault, Serge A. (2012). Msgr. René Vilatte: Community organizer of religion, 1854-1929. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

Leaning on historical documents, this work recalls Bishop Vilatte's ministry in Canada, the U.S. and Europe, the role he played in the development of a new concept of organized religion, the collaborative forces from which he benefited, and the numerous difficulties arising from powers opposed to his ministry.

Theriault, Serge A., Ed. (2017). Pastoral letters and instructions, sermons, statements and circulars of Msgr. Rene Vilatte, 1892-1925. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

Theriault, Serge A., Ed. (2010). The Old Catholic Church and other writings: Msgr. Casimir F. Durand. Berkeley, CA: Apocryphile Press.

This work illumines the theological thought of Bishop Durand, who served as a priest under Bishop Rene Vilatte, succeeded him as head of the Christian Catholic Church, and later became president of the American Catholic Church (ACC). His writings shed light on the evolution and characteristics of Old Catholicism in North America.
