

Through the generosity of our worldwide Zentangle community, The Zentangle Foundation, Inc. may offer some limited financial and material support to individuals or qualified non-profit organizations seeking to integrate the Zentangle Method within their organization or into the communities they serve. We may also provide financial and material assistance to qualified non-profit organizations engaged in research concerning the Zentangle Method.

SCREENING CRITERIA

Here are some questions that the Grants Committee and Board consider when evaluating grant applications.

- Does the proposed project work to create a positive impact in the community?
- How large is the audience impacted by this project/program?
- Does the project/program have a solid plan and is it likely to be effective? Will it have measurable results?
- Are there opportunities for the project/program to increase the Zentangle Method's visibility and benefits?
- Has the organization been funded by The Zentangle Foundation in the past? Were those projects/programs successfully completed and the required reports submitted?

The Zentangle Foundation invites you to submit your request for support. Please complete this form and answer the open response questions on additional pages.
