Purpose That Pops

Samprabhav Foundation

Turning Trash into Treasure

We're not just about bags—
we're about conscious purpose.

Every bag you rock is made from recycled plastic waste, helping to save the oceans and flex your eco-credentials.

Corporate gifting? Make it meaningful. Gift a story, not just stuff.

The Origin Story From Ocean Junk To Dope Bags

23 plastic bottles on a beach, about to pollute the ocean. Not on our watch. We collected them and processed them into a sleek, eco-friendly bag that carries your laptop and your values. Be the change.

Why Our Bags Are Perfect

Eco: Made from 100% recycled & ocean-bound certified plastic to keep the planet vibin'

Customizable: Your style, your rules. Make it uniquely YOU.

Purpose-Driven: Every bag supports waste collectors and environmental conservation programs.

Insta-Worthy: Sleek designs that pop in your #OOTD posts.

Flex Your Impact

15kg of CO₂ Offset Per Bag

Every bag you carry is your way to make the earth green and cool by reducing carbon emissions. You're not just looking good—you're saving the planet, one slay at a time..

A woman in traditional Indian attire, including a colorful patterned sari and a blue shawl, is carrying a large blue bag on her head. She is standing in front of a pile of waste, which appears to be a landfill or a waste collection site. The background is slightly blurred, showing more of the waste pile.

Social Good That Hits Different
