Excellency,

Subject: OPEN DIALOGUE AND ENGAGEMENT FOR GREATER COOPERATION.

I present to you compliments and greetings from the people of Vanuatu.

I express great satisfaction for the meaningful telephone conversation between us on matters of mutual interests to the people we each represent in our respective jurisdictions.

The basis of our relationship is rooted in the common desire to see the wellbeing of every citizens of the world including our very own, attain positive progress, freedom and peace.

Contained in the MOU are the principles upon which such dialogue could happen, in order to realize exchanges in various forms including the support for each other.

I look forward to maintain further dialogue with your office and should support be available in terms of funding for projects we will follow due process of the law of our Governments to make this happen.

I thank you and express appreciation for your highest consideration.

Truly,

Hon. J. Koanapo Nies RASOU (MP),

Deputy Prime Minister & Minister of Finance and Economic Management
