

VOLUME 23 NUMBER 6

MARCH 2026

OLH WELCOMES NEW LIFE

As we study the Scriptures, we learn that Jesus and His apostles observed the Passover seated around the dinner table. The OLH community followed this tradition and celebrated the crucified. Gathered at the table were our local priests Fathers Steven Maddaloni, Ryan Creamer, Peter De-Sanctis, James Calledo and Peter Garry with Special guests Sister Anne Lynch, Sister Marianne Sennick, as well as Board member annual Seder Meal and prayer service complete with lamb, matzoh, apples, egg and the four sips of wine.

Prep 8's Paul Ryan, Ella McCue and Declan De Souza were the lectors who read the Old Testament story of the Passover. The four questions were asked by kindergartners Pax Doerfler, Parker Brennan, Aitana Faras and Cristopher Macas with the Seder plate presented by the senior Dance Troupe: Victoria Gomez, Massiel Mejia, Ariana Guazhambo, Ayla Cass, Nicole Cardona and Sofia Sisalima.

Catherine Allan, special friends Gina Arresta and Robert Howard.

At the conclusion of the Seder, the sweet treat was served as the members of the Joyful Noise led spirited songs "Go Down, Moses" and "Easter People".

We are truly grateful for all the work done in preparation and service by our moms and dads.

OLH WALKS THE WAY OF THE CROSS

In a very moving and reverent ceremony, Prep 6 entered the OLH Wellness Center following the OLH Strings playing the Pachelbel Canon in D and the Prep Dance Troupe with Be Not Afraid. The entire class portrayed the apostles, soldiers and villagers as Jesus started the evening in the Garden of Gethesemane and ended it after being entombed .

Mis Crumlish enlisted the help of other Prep students to be the crowds before Pilate. The role of Jesus was undertaken by Easton Mills who was completely immersed in the seriousness of his role. This traditional presentation signals the beginning of Holy Week for our students.

KINDERGARTEN LEADS IN PRAYER

It was a study in contrast as the East End's tallest priest, Father Liam McDonald, was the celebrant for the March liturgy prepared by Miss Cuzzola and led by the youngest...and shortest...members of the school community.

Each kindergartner did his or her part in the "readings" of the day as well as presenting the offertory gifts. Among the lectors were Camilla Maimone, Karim Zhiminaycela and Patrick Weglein.

Note that Father Liam is always willing to go to the students' level to accept the gifts.
