EILEEN

Long before you entered nursing
The Lord had played His part,
Planting seeds of love and kindness
In the portals of your heart.
For it's clear that you've been gifted
With a sympathetic ear,
And blessed from the beginning
With a willingness to cheer.
And the people who you care for
Are better off by far,
When they're touched by
your compassion,
By the person that you are.
For in times of woe and worry
When they're frightened
or they're blue,
No one could be more consoling than the friend they'll find in you

A NURSE'S PRAYER FOR RENEWED STRENGTH AND DEVOTION

When I falter, give me courage. When I tire, renew my strength. When I weaken because I'm human, Inspire me on to greater length. If doctors and patients become demanding, And days are too short for all my duty, Help me remember I chose to serve, To do so with grace, and spiritual beauty. In humility, Lord, I labour long hours, and though I sometimes may fret; My mission is mercy. Abide with me, that I may never forget.

A

s I care for my patients today
Be there with me, Oh Lord, I pray.

Make my words kind –

it means so much.

And in my hands place your healing touch.

Let your love shine through all that I do,

So those in need may hear and feel You.

I

pray I do my part

to lift each downcast spirit

and to soothe each heavy heart.

May my touch bring reassurance.

May my voice be soothing too,

May my gentle care remind them

Of the love they have in You.

B eing a NURSE means.....

You will never be bored.

You will always be frustrated.

You will be surrounded by challenges.

So much to do and so little time.

You will carry immense responsibility and very little authority.

You will step into people's lives and you will make a difference.

Some will bless you. Some will curse you.

You will see people at their worst-and at their best

You will never cease to be amazed at people's capacity for love, courage, and endurance.

You will see life begin-and end.

You will experience resounding triumphs and devastating failures.

You will cry a lot. You will laugh a lot.

You will laugh a lot.

You will know what it is to be human and to be humane.

*Dear Father,
I'm coming to You today as a tiny child.
One who too often tries
to hold all of her belongings alone.
The burden is too large to bear...
My frail shoulders weaken with the weight
And my heart grows anxious.
You said we would have trouble in this world.
But You also said: Take heart;
I have overcome the world.
Would you help me remember that You are the Overcomer
while I am the overwhelmed?
Would you give me the grace
to accept my own limitations
And the faith to accept your unlimited power?
Would you reveal your incredible love once again
that I might soak up its glory?
For it is when your love and power and glory
saturate my spirit
that I am revolutionized from overwhelmed to overjoyed.
In the name of Jesus, Amen.*

Thank you, Eileen, for service

“above and beyond the call”!

We know that the past few years have been packed with “special circumstances” for you
...personally.....medically.....professionally!

Know that we are deeply grateful for everything!
May your lamp keep burning brightly!

Even nurses take time out
to support the team!

...and enjoy the festivities of Halloween!

This year: 195 pounds of Halloween candy collected...as part of the Candy Buy Back for the troops!

OUR SCHOOL NURSE ENJOYS A NIGHT OUT ONCE IN A WHILE!

Shimkins Thank you, Mrs.
