

Christmas

Christmas is here,
Spread all the cheer.

It's snowing,
Your eyes are glowing.
The Christmas tree is up,
Drink wine from your cup.
All the town is celebrating,
Why are you hesitating?
Don't look at your phone,
Celebrate at home.

The presents are under the tree,
Your face is filled with glee.
Snowmen are melting,
To save it, you're pelting.
Your elf has gone away,
You're filled with dismay.
It's nearly the end of Christmas,
we're putting all the decorations down,
And all the children are starting to frown.

It's New Year's Eve,
I've decided my resolution,
It's to reduce pollution.

January is here,
Drink some beer.
Now it's coming to an end,
Farewell my friend.

By Sid – age 10