

Read & Reflect Paper #1: Patience or Understanding?

Article by Nancy Weber-Schwartz

Due: Mon. May 5th, can submit on paper or email to bujnakdm@laccd.edu

Read the article and respond to each question below. Use full sentences and thoughtful responses. Your paper should be approximately 1–2 pages typed, double spaced. You can submit on paper in person, or digitally to bujnakdm@laccd.edu

Section 1: Summary

- How does the author define "understanding" vs. "patience"?
- In your own words, what is the author's main idea or argument?

Section 2: Reflection

- Have you ever been told to be "patient" with a child? What does that look like?
- How does the idea of understanding change your thinking about guiding young children?
- What strategies might help you build understanding of a child's behaviour?

Section 3: Connection to Course Concepts

- How does this article relate to what we've learned about Positive Guiding and Caring?
- How does this article relate to what we've learned about Developmentally Appropriate Practice?