Glass Class Waiver and Release of Liability

I, _____, do hereby acknowledge that I desire to participate in the Glassblowing course being taught at the Woodhaven Glass Studio, which is operated by Larry Zapf, Owner of Woodhaven Glass LLC.

I hereby acknowledge that I am an at least eighteen (18) years of age or the legal guardian of the minor named above who will be taking the course, are fully aware of all the dangers involved in participating in said course; that I will be dealing with explosive gases, hot and sharp glass, hot metals, and other types of potentially dangerous materials and equipment necessary to the course. Further, I hereby acknowledge and understand that I will be dealing with glass and materials having a temperature of 2000 degrees or more; that failure to wear safety glasses during the class may result in injury.

I hereby acknowledge and understand that using the equipment is inherently dangerous and that I can be severely or permanently injured or fatally injured by accident, which would not be the fault of any other person; that being fully aware of the risks, I understand fully the inherent dangers in using the equipment and materials necessary for the course.

I do hereby save, hold harmless and indemnify Woodhaven Glass LLC, their respective servants, agents, instructors, and employees from any and all liability of whatever type of nature that might arise from my use of the equipment and materials required in the above described course.

I knowingly and willingly assume all such risks, both known and unknown, even if arising from the negligence of the agents, servants, or employees of Woodhaven Glass LLC. I assume full responsibility for my participation in this course and any injury which may be received by me.

This instrument shall be binding upon my heirs, assigns, executors and administrators and this document may be used as an estoppels or plea in bar to any claim make by me, my heirs, assigns, executors or administrators due to injuries sustained during my participation of the above described course.

I do hereby execute this waiver even-though I am paying a tuition fee to participate in said course.

This the _____ day of _____, 20_____.
