One-of-a-Kind Items

Often, we will sell an item that is made and donated by a member. These items are unique. We may or may not have these items available at the time you may want to make a purchase. When they are gone, they are gone. Our inventory of these items is totally dependent upon member donations. We never know what creative and beautiful piece will be available, so stop by the shop on one of our open days to see what treasures you may find!

What we show in the catalog is a sampling of items members have made and donated in the past. These are some examples of what you may find.
