§ 73-1. Raising or maintaining livestock restricted.

From and after the effective date of this chapter, it shall be and hereby is unlawful for any person or persons, corporation or association to raise, keep, maintain or stable livestock within the Borough of Curwensville except as set forth hereinafter.

§ 73-2. Nonapplicability.

- A. This chapter shall not pertain to stables heretofore erected or in the process of erection at the time of the enactment of this chapter, except as to the sanitation requirements set forth hereinafter and the penalties for the violation thereof.
- B. With the exception of the sanitation requirements as set forth hereinafter and the penalties for the violation thereof, this chapter shall not pertain to the raising, keeping, maintaining and stabling of livestock at least 100 feet from the property line of any residence, home, business establishment or office not entirely owned and occupied by the owners of said livestock.

§ 73-3. Conditions for the maintenance of livestock.

Where livestock is now or may hereafter be kept, maintained or stabled within the limits of the Borough of Curwensville, said stables must be kept clean and be free from all vermin and disease carriers. Manure piles must be covered at all times and must be removed completely once a week during the period of April 1 to November 1 of each year and at such times as weather may permit during the period from November 1 to April 1 of each year. All buildings, fences and retaining walls shall be kept in good maintenance and repair. Any and all of said stables will be subject to inspection by the Board of Health of the Borough of Curwensville or any duly authorized public health officer of said borough or of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Health and Sanitation. Said Board of Health or said public health officer, as the case may be, shall be and hereby is authorized to prosecute any violation of the provisions of this section as provided by law or in behalf of the Borough of Curwensville in summary action before the District Justice of said borough.

§ 73-4. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

LIVESTOCK — All horses, ponies, donkeys, mink, chickens, cattle, goats and sheep, regardless of the purpose for which they are raised, kept, maintained and stabled.

STABLE — Any enclosure for the purpose of the raising, keeping and maintenance of livestock. Said word shall not be limited to a covered enclosure but shall include, in addition to any buildings for said purpose, all the land within the walls or fences established to prevent said animals from running at large.

§ 73-5. Violations and penalties.¹

Any person or persons, corporation or association violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine not exceeding $300 and costs of prosecution, or in default of the payment thereof, shall be sentenced to not more than 30 days in the Clearfield County Jail.
