

ORDINANCE 300

GARBAGE, RUBBISH AND REFUSE ACCUMULATION

Accumulations [Adopted 5-9-66 as Ord. No. 300; revised 6-9-80 by Ord. No. 356]

§ 56-6. Prohibited accumulations; nuisances.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, corporation, partnership, unincorporated association or any entity whatsoever to accumulate or permit the accumulation of garbage or rubbish within the limits of the Borough of Curwensville, and the accumulation of garbage and refuse on private or public property is hereby declared to be a nuisance.

§ 56-7. Burning.

The burning of garbage, rubbish and other refuse in any residential area of the Borough of Curwensville or in any area within the limits of the Borough of Curwensville where such burning creates a harmful, noxious or offensive odor or gas injurious to the health and well-being of the public is hereby declared to be a nuisance. This provision shall not apply to existing practices of commercial establishments nor shall it apply to the burning on private property of leaves, grasses and like refuse in the exercise of normal practices in the care of lawns and gardens unless the same is injurious or offensive to the health and well-being of the public.

§ 56-8. Failure to abate or remove.

In the event that any person or persons, corporation, partnership, unincorporated association or any entity whatsoever shall conduct on any private or public property any nuisance in violation of the provisions of this Article or shall in any way violate any of the provisions of this Article, the Borough of Curwensville shall order the removal or abatement of any such nuisances or violation of this Article from public or private ground after ten (10) days' notice to the owners or occupants of the premises so to do, and upon default of the owners or occupants of the premises to remove or abate such nuisances or violations, the Borough of Curwensville may abate or remove the same or may institute proceedings in courts of equity for the removal or abatement of any such nuisances.

§ 56-9. Violations and penalties.

Any person or persons, corporation, partnership, unincorporated association or any entity whatsoever who shall maintain on premises owned or occupied by him or them any nuisance in violation of the provisions of this Article or who shall violate any of the provisions of this Article shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than three hundred dollars ($300.) and costs of such proceedings, or in default of payment of such fine and costs, be imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days.

§ 56-10. Repealer. [Added 8-8-83]

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
