District #23 Meeting

Read Resolutions

Greetings brothers,

I hope everyone had a fantastic holiday season. Before I get into recapping travels, I just wanted to take a moment to talk about gratitude. I have made it through half my president's term, and I am so grateful for everything thus far. My visits have been a lot of fun. I have had fantastic meals. I've shared in fellowship with my brothers. I have accumulated donations for my charity. I have been made proud by my fellow state officers, it has been such a fulfilling and satisfying 6 months. If the rest of the year goes as well, I am truly blessed. I also want to reflect on service and volunteering. We all have our reasons for joining this organization. We all have our reasons for staying. But the thing I want to remind everyone reading this, we are lucky to be a part of this great organization. The most important thing to remember is that we are all volunteers. None of us have to be here. We should do our best to appreciate each other. We should be generous with our thanks. We should praise each and every member, officer, and volunteer that shows up. Thank you is such an amazingly simple set of words. We don't use it enough. It is easy to get complacent and forget to say it. Don't! Be generous with your thanks. It makes a world of difference.

My first stop was in Twenty-Nine Palms. It has been years since I was able to visit that Aerie. They served a delicious Salisbury steak, with veggies and salad, and I really enjoyed it. They held an auction and raised a great amount for their local charities. I had a blast in that part of the desert. Officers attending were PWRP Tim Weber and Kim, PWRP/Treasurer/Eagle Village Director Richard Harder and Justine, and Conductor Danny Collins.

Next was on to Barstow. I had some of the best ribs I've ever had. Bob Densmore was not playing around. Barstow had a ton of Christmas raffles and I won an antique lamp/scented wax melter. They were kind enough to not only present checks to the City of Hope, but I got a beautifully embroidered bag from Kat Densmore, which was filled with gummy bears. It was a fantastic Christmas treat. Attending officers were VP PWRP Tim Weber and Kim, PWRP/Treasurer/Eagle Village Director Richard Harder and Justine, VP Rick Hart and Stephanie, Trustee George Lopez, Conductor Danny Collins, Inside Guard Jeff Brown and Jeri, and Outside Guard Bob Densmore and Kat.
