

CORE COMPETENCIES

- Planning services to local and state government agencies and as a subconsultant to other prime consultants in capital facility and strategic planning, environmental assessment, master planning, asset evaluation, port and transportation planning, land use, zoning, construction management, grant management, hazard mitigation and stakeholder outreach.
- Construction services including demolition and repair, excavation, earth work, utility location, installation of military security fencing, electrical conduit and specialized military locking systems for communication and access control and installation of landscaping for a flood control project.
- Certified expert witness in land use and zoning in Louisiana since 2004.
- Five years as planning manager for the Board of Commissioners of the Port of New Orleans.
- Fifteen years in the Jefferson Parish Planning Department in comprehensive/master planning and zoning, specializing in land use controls, landscaping and design standards, and the analysis of physical development This involved extensive public stakeholder outreach with property owners, civic associations and activists, businesses, public local and state agencies, and public officials.
- Eight years on the Jefferson Parish Planning Advisory Board, five years as chairman, conducting hundreds of public hearings to resolve master planning, land use, zoning, site plan review and other development issues.
- President of the American Planning Association Louisiana Chapter (APA LA) from 2014 - 2016, an organization of 400 professional planners throughout the State of Louisiana. Taught Planning Commissioners Training to planning commissioners throughout the state on behalf of the APA LA since 2008.