

Foreword

The 1942 Loudspeaker Staff is happy to present the first year book in the history of Carteret High School. It has been a lot of fun—planning, collecting, and assembling these pictorial and written records of the happy days spent in C. H. S.

Those happy days are over now, and for most of us school days are a thing of the past. Literally, the class of 1942 buckles on its armor and goes forth to fight real battles in a war-torn world. May the lessons of courage, of good sportsmanship, and of loyalty, that we have learned in school, assist us to carry the torch to victory.

We hope that you will regard this book as a precious memento of your school days; that often in the future as you turn the pages you will live over again in memory the happy hours spent studying, practicing for plays, marching with the band, singing, cheering, or playing football, basketball, baseball; that you will experience again the pleasure of comradeship, the joy of achievement, and the thrill of victory. May you find in these reminiscences inspiration to carry on until lasting peace has been restored to our beloved country, and long after!

With heads high, hearts aflame, banners flying, let us go forth Ad astra per aspera!

Presented By the Staff

Dedication

Because she is sympathetic and understanding, wise and tolerant, because she is our friend, we, the Loudspeaker Staff, are honored to dedicate this, our first yearbook, to our principal, Miss Anne Drew Scott.

MISS ANNE DREW SCOTT

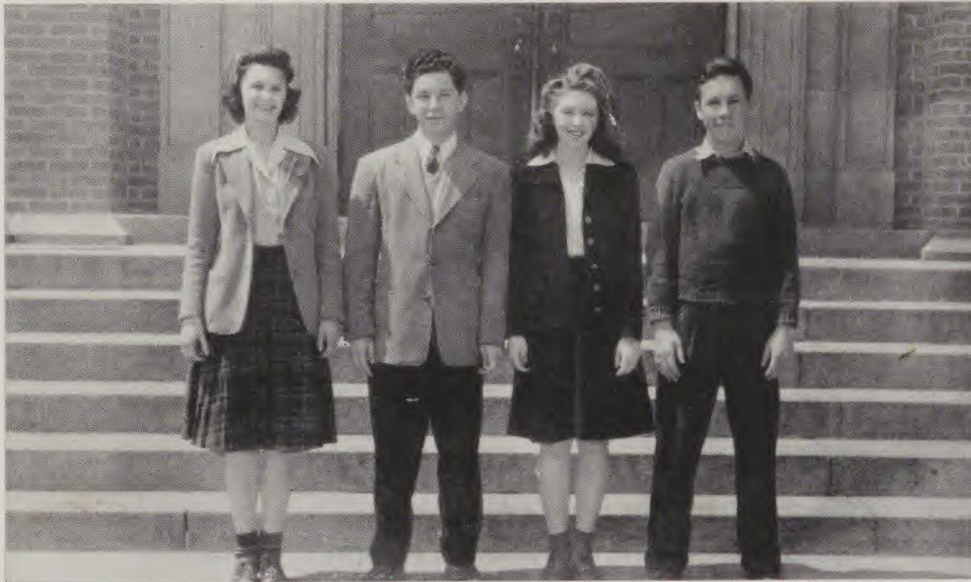

Miss Scott is a native of New Jersey. She attended the public schools of Westfield, but when a senior in high school she moved with her family to her present home in Milford, Delaware. After being graduated from Milford High School, she matriculated at the University of Delaware, where she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. Later she did post graduate work at Columbia and Rutgers, receiving the degree of Master of Education. This year, she has found time to take courses in Vocational Guidance at Columbia, as she is interested in building a first-rate guidance department.

Miss Scott is a charming and versatile woman, not at all like the conventional type of school principal that one sees in the movies. Besides being an able administrator, she has a talent for writing light verse, also stories, many of which have been published in well-known children's magazines. A few years ago she was asked to write a group of stories for a new series of first readers.

Her executive ability has received recognition outside our own community. Three times during the last two years she has been invited to serve on committees making surveys of New Jersey high schools for the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

An ardent sportswoman, she is an excellent swimmer and plays a good game of golf. As if that were not enough, last summer she received a Red Cross certificate for Life Saving. She is an enthusiastic baseball, basketball, and football fan, and she is present at almost every high school game to cheer our teams to victory.

Miss Scott has always been interested in journalism, and it was through her efforts that the Loudspeaker was established. Her assistance and encouragement have been important factors in maintaining a school magazine that has received many awards from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

DR. WAYNE T. BRANOM

Supervising Principal

Dr. Branom, our supervising principal, hails from Big Rock, Illinois, and he has all the vigor, enthusiasm, and friendliness that characterize the people of the great Midwest. He has a Bachelor of Education degree from Illinois State Normal University, Master of Science from Northwestern, and Doctor of Education from New York University. He also has to his credit one year of graduate work in Chicago University.

Before he came to Carteret, Dr. Branom was a junior high school teacher, an assistant principal, a superintendent of schools, an assistant county superintendent of schools, and superintendent of schools in Big Rock, Illinois.

All this sounds rather formidable until one meets Dr. Branom personally. Then one learns that, although education is his calling, he has many and varied interests.

In college he played football, basketball, and baseball. He still plays a mean game of basketball, and is often an interested spectator at high school games.

He is active in civic affairs, and, in the short time that he has been in Carteret, he has become a recognized leader in the community.

His primary interest, however, is the education of youth. He has boundless energy and he is using it unsparingly to provide the boys and girls of Carteret with the best possible training for happy, useful lives in a great democracy.

Dr. Branom exemplifies the adage, "The busier a man is the more leisure he has," and any student who wishes to take his problem to the office of the supervising principal has only to make an appointment. There he is received in a friendly way that at once puts him at ease, and before the interview is over, the student has not only found a satisfactory solution to his problem, but has also made a friend.

Dr. Branom has two brothers who are listed in Who's Who in America, and we predict that some day he'll be there, too. But whether he is or not, we think he's "swell"!

In Memoriam . . .

WALTER OVERHOLT

MY HERO

He was no Colin Kelly
Who sank a battleship,
And spread the fame of his very name
On every American lip.

He did not sell 10,000 bonds
As Carole Lombard did,
Who homeward bound was later found
To have crashed to death so horrid.

Nor was he a General MacArthur
Whose skill's a mystery—
To make a stand down in Bataan
That shines in history.

My hero was not one of these
Though heroes they surely be;
My hero was a sailor, just a gob,
Who doing his job,
Was washed overboard—
Lost at sea!

SENIORS

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1938, a group of reluctant little fresh-boys and fresh-girls, destined to become the Class of 1942, entered Columbus School. Looking back, we find that they elected C. P. Perkins, president; Ethel Kaskiw, vice-president; Andy Shymanski, treasurer; and Rose Marciniak, secretary.

In that first year, we were saddened by the death of two of our members, Joseph Fedak and Erhardt Anderson. Joseph and Erhardt were active and popular students, and their memory will always remain in the minds and hearts of their classmates.

The next year, we finally entered the portals of C. H. S. Now we were sophomores! No longer did we have to endure the snubs of the upper classmen whose delight it is to ignore all insignificant freshmen. The officers of the class that year were William Suto, president; Helen Boraczewski, vice-president; Eleanor Galbraith, secretary; Ernest Brechka, treasurer.

The next year, under the able leadership of John Kolibas, we became, after the seniors, quite the most important unit in the school! The prom, of course, was the outstanding social event of the year.

Time marched on, and almost before we realized it, came our senior year. This year, the girls took over and elected Rita Levy, president; John Timko was chosen vice-president; Shirley Donovan, secretary; and C. P. Perkins, treasurer.

What a busy year it has been, crammed full of work and play! In order to finance the senior trip, we sold Christmas cards, ran a movie, and presented a play, "Cross My Heart."

Wallace Durst won first prize in an essay contest sponsored by the Lions Club of Carteret on the topic, "George Washington." Lillian Koblentz and Ethel Hudak shared second place. Gerald Mausner won the contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Star Landing Post with his essay, "Unity for Victory." Marie Medwick won a scholarship to Wood Secretarial School: several working scholarships at Rider College will be awarded. Penn, Bucknell, Temple, William and Mary, and Fordham have offered scholarships to John Timko, John Ginda, John Pelc and Nicholas Semak.

This year, many of our alumni left to join the service. Carteret High School is proud of these boys and also of Mr. Sidun, the first member of our faculty to be called to the colors.

The Class of 1942 contributed much to the athletic fame of C. H. S. In 1940, the football team won eight games, and tied one. In 1941 they won all games but one. Both years, they added trophies to our already crowded trophy case.

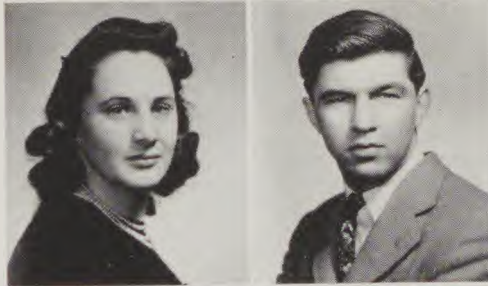

In basketball, too, an excellent record was made. Winning all games but two, the team proved itself one of the best that C. H. S. has ever had.

We shall always remember with a smile the first days spent in Columbus School; the day we finally entered C. H. S.; the victories won on the gridiron, the court, and the diamond, and all the pleasures of the four years spent working and playing in C. H. S. We take our leave regretfully, hoping that the faculty of C. H. S. will always have a place in their hearts for the Class of 1942.

C L A S S P R O P H E C Y

Operator, please get me the Perth Amboy News. Hello, city desk? Oh, it's you, Joe. How are you, Joe? Say, I want to give you some dope on the reunion we had last night. Boy, the class of '42 sure raised the roof off Ben Marden's Riviera. What a time! Music was furnished by Murray Brown's Swing Band. He has Joe Hoos and Joe Hiriak on the clarinets and John Dumansky is still getting credit for his last miserable notes. Gloria Deats did a swell job vocalizing.

Remember William Suto? He's press agent for Viater and Van Pelt Three Ring Circus. It features Michael Magella's Mighty Midgets, John Milyo, the Strong Man, and Stephen Resko, the Clown, who recently got an offer from Barnum & Bailey. Florence Overholt is the trapeze artist while Joseph Bamburak, John Medwick, and John Medvetz hold the net underneath.

Listen, Joe, you know that big apartment house that went up recently. Well, it's being shared by Agnes Szymborski, Jean Snell, Rose Rusinak, Elsie Adams, Mary Paszowski, Florence Bialowarczuk, Wanda Rogowski, and Vicky Ruzala, who are all happily engaged in housekeeping.

You know, Joe, our class produced a horde of celebrities. Wesley Catri danced himself into the limelight and Rita Levy talked herself into it. She's New Jersey's popular Senator down there in Washington. Wallace Durst succeeded John Kieran and is now writing a sports column in the Times. Harold Etheridge is showing Einstein a thing or two down at Princeton. Andy Shymanski is catching for the St. Louis Cards and Fred Staubach is coming up fast in the league. And Joe, guess who's playing pro football for the New York Giants. That's right—Timko, Pelc, and Kolibas. And what a mob of coaches we had down at the reunion last night. C. P. Perkins is assistant to Crowley; Tommy Ginda is at Seton Hall, and Frank Nadolski is coaching track at Albright.

Sam Binstein was down last night taking pictures for Life Magazine. He has a swell studio and Eulalie Beech, Mary Raskulinecz, and Rosalie Kloss are his ace models.

You know who else entertained for us last night? Mary Feryo sang and was accompanied by Lois Doscher, and those top commediennes Koblentz and Dowdell, new discoveries of Red Skelton, kept us in stitches.

And Joe, I spoke to Tommy Medvetz, the new prosecuting attorney. He gave me the low-down on the case between Joe Dolan's Movie Heuse and Rudolph Trnowsky's Pretzel Factory. It seems that Rudy wanted to sell pretzels during the intermission of the revival of "Keep 'Em Flying," starring Dorothy Czaplinski, David O'Rourke, and Dewitt Doscher. Dolan didn't approve of the idea and kept him flying, right out in front of Joe Petrocy's Meat Market—hams invited!

Ethel Kaskiw recently opened a secretarial school. The faculty includes Mary Korpita, Helene Neiman, Elizabeth Bok, and Rose Wizna. Speaking of teachers, since Carteret High School expanded, Eleanor Jacob, Eleanor Harkiewicz, and Ethel Hudak have been added to the faculty.

Diken & Dikun, Umbrella Manufacturers, have done such good business since the rainy season started that they have hired a new staff of secretaries in addition to Mary Brechka, Sophie Bartko, Margaret Kerekgyarto, Elizabeth Kosci, and Helen Maskaly, their conscientious aides. The new girls hired are Mary Truhan, Irene Spisak, and Cecelia Sul.

Tony Pusillo, head of Tony's Pickle Works, suggested the idea of a hospital in Carteret and said he would be willing to finance it. Evelyn Dobrek, Lillian Knorr, and Margaret Skitka are good nurses and we could easily change Robert Graeme's mind about being a butcher and make him chief surgeon. Seymour Schwartz and Edward Wojtkowski could be his able assistants.

Well, Joe, I guess you're curious to know about what some of the others are doing. Eleanor Galbraith is doing some swell makeup work at MGM, and Rita Nelson is doing hat designing at Lord & Taylor's. Virginia Price gives skating exhibitions at Rockefeller Center. Carroll Sofield is in the U. S. Air Force. Stephen Fistes is concert master of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra. August Neumann is designing airplanes at Glenn L. Martin's in Baltimore, while Ambrose Wadiak is designing boats at the Kearney Shipyards.

Jimmy O'Donnell is still with the "Fighting 69th." Other boys who simply couldn't leave the service because of the USO dances are Sandor Horkey, Stanley Sosnowski, and Zolton Varga. Maybe it was because of the pleasing personalities of the dance hostesses—Margaret Chek, Catherine Conlan, Theresa Churilla, Rose

Waselewicz, Josephine Milik, Sophie Marciniak, and Sophie Zawacki. Other officers remaining in the Navy are John Bednar, John Brechka, Stanley Hadam, Charles Morris, John Toporowich, and Walter Kurek. Still with the Marines are William Colgan, Stanley Wojcik, and William Kurdyla.

What did you say, operator? Another nickel? What do you think I own—a mint? Okay. Speaking of mints, Joe, did you taste the new mint-flavored pills recently put on the market by Dr. J. Zucker? It seems that he had trouble getting a backer, but the millionaire Leon Tarnecki finally came to his rescue.

You know, Joe, you'd be surprised as to how many business men we have. Ernest Brechka took over a business which has the most solid foundation of any business I've ever seen. The Palehenki Brothers and Henry Dumansky are giving you competition, Joe. They founded Carteret's third newspaper, the Carteret Dispatch which comes out daily, by the way. Stanley Hayduk is head cartoonist. Charlotte Britton writes the beauty column, and Hilda Sokler handles the love interests. Ann Belinsky is doing quite well with her bakery shop. Salesgirls are Margaret Karney and Mary Rayho. Steve Kovacs is business manager at Sokler's and his private secretary is Irene Sefcik. Mary Kilyk has opened a gymnasium for girls. In training for a professional volley ball team are Catherine McKissic, Irene Santos, Stella Szymanfka, and Sophie Cap. Another successful business woman is Marian Ohlott who recently opened a beauty salon in Grand Central Station. Her best beauticians are Ethel Reider and Ann Dolinich. Hyman Chodosh and Gerald Mausner have established an engineering concern. They're in South America now. They took a powder after their first bridge collapsed. The most successful enterprise is Gleckner, Prokop, and Gregor's "Paradise-on-the-Arthur Kill Hotel." Carteret has changed a lot, you know. Head receptionist is Edythe Chodosh. Head Clerk is John Kennedy who keeps bellboys Frank Brown and John Capik on the run. With Helen Butkocy as Chief Dietician the guests needn't worry about indigestion. The hotel looks very attractive outside, because of Geza Comba's efforts as a landscape gardener, and inside because of Michael Sarik's work on the interior under Edward Wadiak's direction. The hotel features sports as the main part of its recreation program with John Kachur and Donald Staubach as directors. As head of the women's division is Marcella Kahn and Gladys Christensen, Antonia Ilk, Sophie Kravetz, Edith Jabs, Allegra Donnelly, and Esther Kielman as counsellors. You know, Joe, I stayed at the hotel a week and had a swell time. The room next to me was shared by Alice Ginda and Madalyn Grohmann. The rates were reasonable, the meals were swell—milk coming from Skiba's Deluxe Dairy, but oh, the beds! The mattresses must have been from Stephen Fodor's Mattress Factory. While taking a boat ride (on the Arthur Kill) with Sophie Zabudowski and Victoria Wyskowski I met with some old friends, Sophie Wasylyk, Ethel Johnson, Eugenia Downs, Josephine Nesterwitz and Gretchen Maier. They send their regards.

Here are some more odds and ends, Joe. Shirley Donovan opened a dancing school and is giving Arthur Murray stiff competition. Her staff includes Josephine Jackson, Sophie Krupa, and Helen Pallagi. Here's the best news of all, Joe—some of our graduates have hit the high spots in Hollywood. Sarah Berg is quickly acquiring Billie Burke's style, and Marie Medwick is Hollywood's first great woman director. Gussie Molnar is property manager at Warner Bros. and Henry Mioduszewski heads the stage crew. Script writers at the studio are Annette Steinberg, Olga Korneluk, and Mildred Mandell.

Remember those track stars we had—Stanley Maliszewski, Clifford Johnson, and Tony Sankner. They're now barnstorming the country and running circles around each other.

Well, let's get back to the subject of the reunion. Seen last night on the dance floor was Nick Semak smiling with pride at the success of his new engineering job. John Ginda was a regular lady's man with his new officer's uniform. He's at Annapolis, you know. The laugh of the evening came when John Debrei lit a cigarette and almost set the place on fire. Michael Sarzillo came running in with all his fire equipment and saved the day.

Joe, it really was surprising to see how many people turned out to the affair last night. What's that you say, operator! Another nickel! Well, Joe, my time's up but I hope this gives you an idea of what our class has done since those memorable days at C. H. S. back in 1942.

CLASS POEM

L'ENVOI

*Memories are sacred treasures,
From which we draw smiles or tears;
But the choicest jewels of all,
Are the memories of high school years.*

*These treasures recall countless joys,
Experienced in days gone by;
We'll regret only memories remain,
But rejoice that they never die.*

*All good things meet an end;
And sadly now do we say:
Of all the fine years of our lives,
The best have passed away.*

BAND

The rhythmic beat of drums! The shrill sound of the whistle, and then the thrilling music of the band! The tall drum major leads the parade, followed by the flag-bearers, proudly carrying the Star Spangled Banner, the state flags and the band's own flag. "Our Director" walks beside the musicians, baton in hand. After that, we see the colorful drum majorettes.

President	C. P. Perkins
Vice-President	Ernest Brechka
Secretary	Frank Nadolski
Treasurer	Andrew Shymanski
Advisers	Mrs. Conway and Mr. Quin

The Bunsen Burner Club was organized in 1931 to promote interest in chemistry, but it has been a notable social influence in the school. All chemistry students may join and practically every one does. The Bunsen Burners meet once a month. Their annual spring initiation is an outstanding event of the year.

One of the fine features of this club is that it carries over after graduation. Every year the annual Bunsen Burner Reunion is a highlight of the Christmas vacation. Alumni from years back always make it a point to attend.

France, often and rightly called the "Crossroads of the World," has given to the world priceless possessions. In its literature, its art, its sculpture, its magnificent architecture, its music, its religion, its dress and customs, in the French Revolution, and in Napoleon is found the very heart of France itself. It is to the appreciation of this heritage that "Le Cercle Français" is dedicated.

France is not dead; it has only been paralyzed. Its culture will never die. As Napoleon himself found out,

"There are only two powers in the world: the spirit and the sword. In the long run the sword will always be conquered by the spirit."

COMMERCIAL CLUB

At the time Mrs. Kobrin formed the Commercial Club in September 1936, it was ruled that only freshmen taking the commercial course could join.

Each year the club has made an educational trip by bus. November 17, 1941, the group went to the Statue of Liberty and then to Radio City where they saw a Photographer's Exhibit.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Although the Home Economics Club has been in existence for only one year, it is one of the most active clubs in the school. Its success is due in large measure to its adviser, Miss Olive Gundersen.

The officers are Jean Ward, President; Mae Bonjorno, Vice President; Helen Slinsky, Secretary; Rose Lenart, Treasurer.

BOYS' COOKING CLASS

Four years ago several boys who wanted to learn how to cook requested Miss Olive Gundersen to start a cooking class for boys. As they were really in earnest their request was granted. At first the other students were amused at the idea, but the boys were not to be daunted, and today the cooking class is one of the most popular classes with the boys.

This year's chefs include Andy Shymanski, Fred and Don Staubach, Leslie Van Pelt, Stan Maliszewski, Frank Brown, Francis Lukach and Alex Palehonki.

President—John Kolibas

Vice-President—George Heil

Freshman Representatives—Charlotte Larkin and William Riedel

Advisers—Miss Bess Richey and Mr. F. C. McCarthy

Treasurer—Ethel Kaskiw

Secretary—Marion Suto

Each member of Carteret High School interested in athletic activities, intramural or interscholastic, automatically belongs to the Athletic Association, the purpose of which is to stimulate interest in games, to support loyally all athletic contests, and to promote true sportsmanship.

CHEERLEADERS

The girls of the cheering squad are literally cheering to both eye and ear as they coordinate the enthusiasm of the Rambler fans and direct it into channels of tremendous concerted sound.

Whirling, leaping, "fish-jumping," to exhaustion each Saturday afternoon, they personify the excitement that the spectators, sitting in the stands, feel but can hardly express.

In spirit they fight Carteret's battles as mightily as the most energetic halfback.

GIRLS' SPORTS

What does the sound of cheering girls bring to your mind? Ladies' Day at Dodgers-Giants game? Perhaps, but here at school it means that the girls are enthusiastically participating in a game of volleyball, basketball, cageball, or softball.

The girls, dressed in their blue gym suits and white sneakers, take part in class games just for fun, for health, and for the development of good sportsmanship.

ARCHERY

President—FLORENCE OVERHOLT

Vice-President—WILLA WALSH

Secretary—WILMA SPEWAK

The Archery Club was formed in 1937 and given the name, "The Flying Arrows." The aim of the group is to promote the sport of archery and provide for social activities for its members. Each year a team of five has been delegated to attend archery meets and shoot their best for C. H. S.

Their other activities have included roller-skating, bowling, and bicycling.

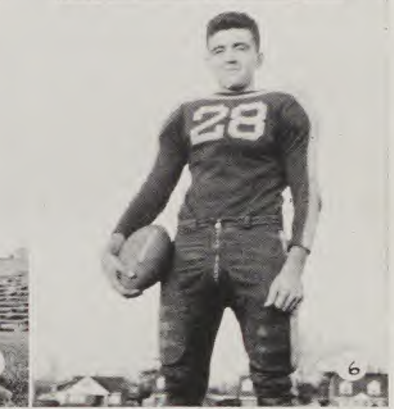

THANKSGIVING DAY CLASSIC

Another successful season was written into the record by the 1941 Carteret High School football squad. A powerful line and a hard running backfield had prevailed over eight opponents before the Blue team finally bowed to Perth Amboy in a hard-fought Thanksgiving Day encounter.

It started with a night game against Rumson—the first opening home game in the school's history, a Carteret victory by an 18-6 score. In quick succession, our Ramblers rolled over seven other squads. Hackettstown was downed in another night encounter at home. Next came Union, again at home. In the fourth contest of the season, Long Branch proved accommodating hosts, 13-0. After Long Branch came South River. Again the Blue eleven prevailed by a 27-0 count. Then Thomas Jefferson succumbed in a thrilling 7-6 affair. Woodbridge came after Jeff; again our team played the Barons in a pouring rain and this time triumphed, 9-0. Linden was next on the list, fighting hard but finally yielding a fourteen-point victory to Carteret. The Perth Amboy game brought to an end a victory string that had stretched over a three-season span and included nineteen games. This time the Panthers were victorious, 16-0.

BASKETBALL

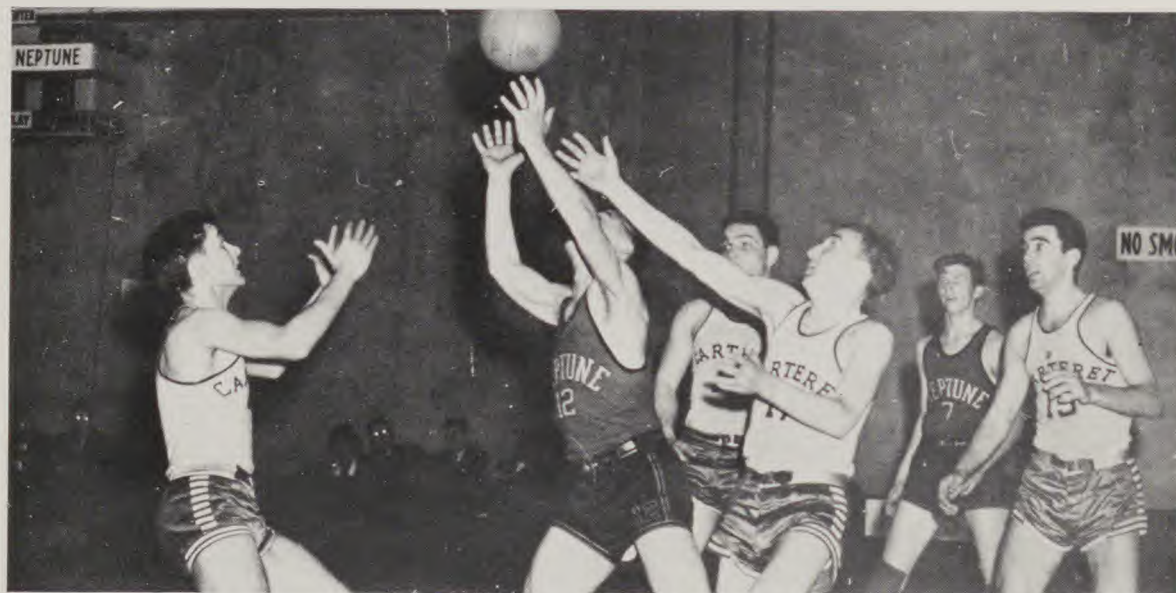

The Ramblers had a highly successful season on the basketball court, winning nineteen games and dropping only four contests to their opponents. One defeat came in the State Inter-scholastic Tournament.

Coach Comba's starting five consisted of Tom Ginda, Stan Maliszewski, Fred and Don Stau-bach, and Andy Shymanski. Sophomore John Litus, up from the junior varsity, came through to give the first quintet an added punch. C. P. Perkins, Harry Gleckner, Andrew Perry, and Lou McKies rounded out the varsity squad.

The Carteret cagers again participated in the Central Jersey Group III Conference, and again had a good record in Conference play. They reached the semi-finals in the state tournament, beating North Plainfield and Dunellen before bowing to Neptune.

In Conference play the Ramblers lost three encounters, two to South River and one to Long Branch, Conference champions. They evened their account with Long Branch in their second encounter, however.

BASEBALL

The 1942 Carteret High baseball squad was rounded out into a well-organized combine under the able direction of Coach McCarthy. Although the team did not see action at the local diamond, they appeared in several encounters throughout this area.

The mound staff boasted two southpaws, Tom Ginda and Andy Perry. Two right-handed flingers, Lou Mikics and C. P. Perkins, filled out the starting staff. Andy Shymanski was behind the plate again this year appearing with several other veterans including John Ginda, Fred and Don Staubach, Stanley Maliszewski, and John Kolibas.

TRACK

Coach Horn's track candidates reported in early April to train for a full schedule of track and field events with several schools in this section.

This year's team has a good chance to continue the winning streak enjoyed in the latter half of last year. Starting inauspiciously with three defeats, the 1941 team decisively defeated its last three rivals. Only two members were lost by graduation.
