Anne Drew Scott

For twenty-three years, Anne Drew Scott directed the policies of Carteret High School. Under her brilliant and resourceful leadership, Carteret High School became recognized as one of the most progressive secondary schools in the state, and Miss Scott herself enjoyed a statewide reputation as an educator of scholarly attainments.

A wise, tolerant, far-sighted leader, an inspiring and understanding teacher, a generous and loyal friend, Miss Scott guided the destinies of hundreds of Carteret boys and girls. Nor did her interest in them cease when they were graduated. Alumni were frequent visitors at the school, and they were always assured of a gracious welcome.

Had Miss Scott not chosen to devote her life and talents to the education of youth, she might have won fame in the literary world, as she was gifted with creative power. She was the inspiration of the first Loud-speaker, published by the class of 1926, and school publications were always among her favorite activities.

Miss Scott's untimely death is a great loss to the school, to the community, and to hundreds of loyal and devoted friends upon whose minds and hearts she has left the imprint of a great personality.

With affection and gratitude, the class of 1947 dedicates this book to her memory.

MISS HETTY JEFFRYS

Service With A Smile

When you dial Carteret 8-5128, the pleasant voice that answers "Carteret High School" belongs to Miss Hetty Jeffrys, our switchboard attendant. One glance at the above picture is enough to show you why there is a smile in her voice.

Miss Jeffrys is at her post every minute of every day from eight to four. On the rare days that bad weather closes the school, she is there at seven relaying the sad (?) tidings. Each day in addition to her regular duties, she performs countless little acts of kindness for everyone.

The class of 1947 salutes Miss Jeffrys in recognition of her helpfulness, her kindness, and her devotion to duty.

IN APPRECIATION

In September, 1943, Mrs. Gerek and Mr. Horn took over the advisership of the freshman class. We were one hundred forty-five strong then, but young and inexperienced. For four years, our advisers guided us through the devious paths of knowledge, supervised our activities, and, in general, looked after our welfare.

Now we are seniors. Our number has dwindled to ninety, and we are old and very wise. Before we leave the beloved halls of Carteret High School, we wish to express our deep appreciation to Mrs. Gerek and Mr. Horn for their devotion to our interests and their untiring efforts to make our high school years the happiest of our lives.

Thank you, Mrs. Gerek and Mr. Horn!

SENIOR OFFICERS

Joseph Magella

Scientific

Joe possesses all the qualities of a good leader — an engaging personality, good judgment, and a fine sense of humor. He is fond of all sports, but excels in baseball. Best of luck, Joe!

Edward Bonnell

Scientific

Ed, our best looking boy, is tall, shy, and, as any girl would say, "utterly adorable." Ed is headed for the engineering field; but his real ambition, he says, is to find a very pretty girl.

Irene Barbara Koval

Secretarial

Blonde, hazel-eyed Irene is versatile — she possesses a charming voice; she is an accomplished actress, and she dances beautifully. Her ambition is to become a famous actress.

Pauline Dobrowolski

Secretarial

Pauline, who moves with grace and speaks with gentleness, is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand. She has all the qualifications of a good secretary, and that's what she wants to be.

Doris Anderson                      General Clerical

Doris's sunny smile reveals two deep dimples. She is outstanding in music, both vocal and instrumental. The Metropolitan Opera House is the star to which she has hitched her wagon.

Robert Balewicz                      Scientific

Bob is full of mirth and fond of quips. If you want to find the way to his heart, girls, give him cabbage rolls and French fried potatoes. Bob loves to take things apart and put them together again. He hopes to be head of the mechanics department of General Motors.

Helen Bamburak                      Secretarial

Helen is sweet and petite. Her natural curls are blonde and she has a winning smile that bespeaks a pleasing personality. She will someday be the pride of her employer.

Ann Marie Balewicz                      Secretarial

Toots is one of our sweetest girls. We shall never forget her performance in our senior play, "Janie." An ardent sportswoman, she is particularly interested in football. (We wonder why!)

William Balog                      Business

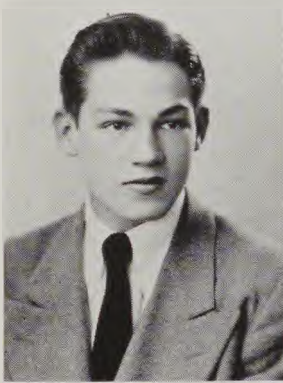

Bill reached the height of six feet before he reached his senior year. This was a serious handicap, because the teachers expected him to act according to his size. In sports, however, it was a real asset and he easily made the varsity in football and basketball. Naturally this handsome athlete is a popular fellow.

Alice Bohacs                      Secretarial

Although Alice is one of the quieter girls of the class, she has a charm all her own. Her beautiful black hair and dark eyes accentuate this charm. Alice will make a wonderful secretary.

Raymond Bodnar                      Scientific

Ray is suave, dignified, and handsome. All this and an athlete, too. The morning after the senior play he awoke to find himself famous. When Ray stops loafing at Kocheck's, he may become a famous coach.

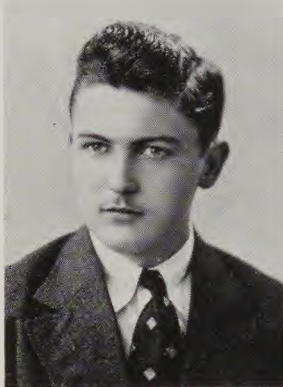

Paul Borsos                              Scientific

This lad from Pennsylvania was a welcome addition to our class when he came to Carteret High in '45. Usually, after school hours, his tall figure is draped over the fountain at Kocheck's. He always has a cheerful greeting for every one. Paul is a general favorite in school and out.

George Brechka                      Civic Social

George is one of our returned vets. He left us in his junior year and spent two years as a S I/c in the navy. His pet peeve is girls. After two years in the navy, we can't understand that dislike. George!

Catherine Campbell                      Secretarial

Lovable Kate is one in a million. Her generosity and sincerity make her ace high among her classmates. Her favorite radio program is Make Believe Ballroom. If you invite her to dinner, be sure to have roast chicken; then, to top off the evening, take her to see Cornel Wilde.

William Carney                      Scientific

Good-natured William is co-operative and helpful. He is interested in drafting, and he hopes to excel in that field. Building model airplanes is his favorite pastime.

John Cherepon                      Scientific

John's football career was cut short by a broken collar bone; he had to give up learning gridiron strategy to devote himself to parliamentary law in order to serve the A.A. as president. Come spring, you will see him playing baseball. His ambition is to be a big leaguer.

Pauline Crews                      Secretarial

Although Pauline is somewhat shy, she has not been able to hide her talent. She sings very sweetly, and she is very active in musical affairs. Humphrey Bogart is her secret passion.

Josephine Dombroski              Secretarial

Good things come in small packages — just look at our Jo. She may be small but she's cheerful in a big way. Jo can be seen at all dances, because cutting a rug is her favorite past time. She's headed toward the secretarial field — no doubt about her success, is there?

Irene Fazekas                      General Clerical

Irene is interested in all sports and active in many of them. She is gifted with a sweet voice. Although she is of the artistic temperament, she admits to a weakness for chocolate cake. Designing is her chosen career.

Mary Dikum                      Secretarial

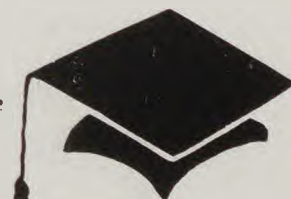

Mary is an exceedingly pretty girl. There is something about her that conjures pictures of exotic maidens of the South Seas. It is hard to picture her in so mundane a place as a business office, but she prefers a secretarial career to Hollywood.

Mary Dusko                      Secretarial

"Dusty" and jitterbugging are inseparable as Harry James and his trumpet. She has big blue eyes and an infectious grin. Dusty wants to be a topnotch photographer. Life has something to look forward to!

Charles Fazekas                      Scientific

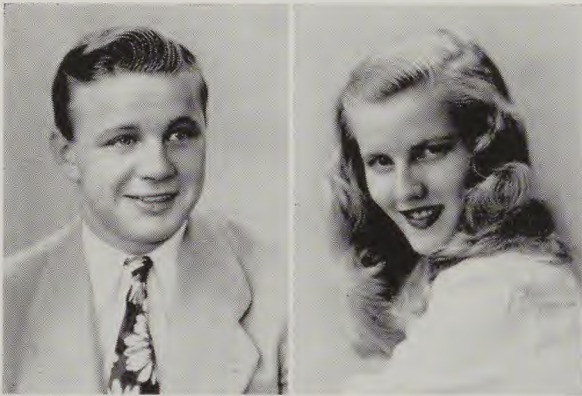

This clean cut blond, blue-eyed, young giant was captain of the 1947 football team. He was a formidable foe on the gridiron, although by nature he's as gentle as a lamb. Charles went in for dramatics, too, and proudly wears a Thespians pin. He hates to get up in the morning, and quite frequently he doesn't. His immediate future is an engineering course in college.

Walter Felauer

It is a pleasure to have "Dutch," a veteran of World War II, in our class. His good looks and attractive personality instantly made him a favorite; his sartorial perfection won him a place in the Hall of Fame.

Ann Marie Ference                      Secretarial

Sky-blue eyes and a halo of golden hair describe our Ann. This girl is not only clever at books, but she is also quite handy with a needle and thread. Nymphlike and graceful, she finds her greatest enjoyment in dancing. With all her appealing charms, Ann should succeed in life.

Russell Ferguson                      Scientific

Russ is very good-looking, and Oh! so tall! Photography is his hobby and he has been Mr. Quin's right hand man for four years. He dislikes an excess of homework. Who doesn't?

Edward Furian                      Civic Social

Ed is reserved and courteous. Motor boating is his hobby, and he is never so happy as when he is building or driving a boat. Ed can always be found in shop or the mechanical drawing room, so there's certainly no doubt about what he wants to be.

Walter Gasior                      Scientific

Moe's wit and engaging personality make him popular with his fellow classmates. A lover of sports, he played varsity basketball and football. He can act, too. Remember how we laughed at his portrayal of a German professor in the junior play, and how we sympathized with a soldier in "Janie?"

Jo Gavaletz                      Secretarial

Soft-spoken Joe enjoys dancing and drawing. Her sweet smile is like a gentle zephyr. This is one girl who will not be frightened by a squeaking door; her favorite radio program is Inner Sanctum.

Mary Beatrice Gaydos                      Secretarial

Mary is a cute little girl with deep dimples that are natural magnets so far as the boys go. Mary is petite; it hardly seems possible that she is going out in the world to become a secretary. Yet we are sure she will make a good one.

Martin Goldstone                          Academic

Scholarly, courteous, and wise is Martin. His name can always be found on the honor roll. The twinkle in his brown eyes indicates a keen sense of humor. Some day he'll be compounding your prescriptions for you.

Ella Held                                        Secretarial

Ella is the fair-haired gal with a pleasant air about her. Have you seen Richard, her little white mouse? Always full of pep, Ella attends all the sports activities to cheer the boys through to victory. She does her work conscientiously; she will be a good secretary.

Benjamin Goedsky                        Civic Social

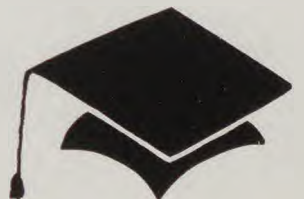

Benny is very courteous, amiable, and industrious. These virtues are the perfect description of him. He is mechanically inclined, and he will doubtless realize his ambition, which is to become an auto mechanic.

Claire Gurney                              Secretarial

Give Claire a dancing partner and some good music and she's all set for a happy evening. She loves sports, good food, and "parties". Claire hopes someday to own a business of her own, undoubtedly in the pottery field. (jugs)

Julia Held                                      Secretarial

Julia is agile — remember her cheering? She has another kind of agility. She has been active in almost every type of extra curricular activity. Anyone who can keep up with her enjoys her wit and good nature, but she must root for the Dodgers!

Margaret Herega Academic

Margaret has tact, brains, and sympathy. She's a real girl, sweet and feminine. The aim of this ambitious young lady is to be an air hostess.

Florence Hlub Secretarial

Flossie's radiant smile and charming disposition have gained her numerous friends. She loves to dance, and the mere sound of music sets her toes tingling. Her pleasing personality will make her an ideal nurse.

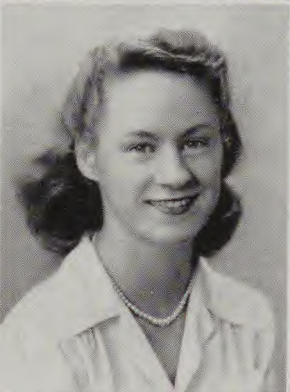

Lois Hopp Academic

Lois is quick-witted and gay. Her ready smile shows deep dimples; there is always laughter in her brown eyes. She loves pretty clothes — that is why buying is her choice of a career.

Eleanor Ihnat Secretarial

Though there is magic in music, there is a greater magic in a smile. Eleanor's smile seems to sprinkle this magic about and leave everyone gay and light-hearted. Her many charms plus her intelligence will lead her to success and happiness in whatever she undertakes.

Martha Kasha Secretarial

Generous Martha is sincere and friendly. Reading is her favorite pastime. Martha's ambition is to be secretary to the President.

Michael Kalnok Scientific

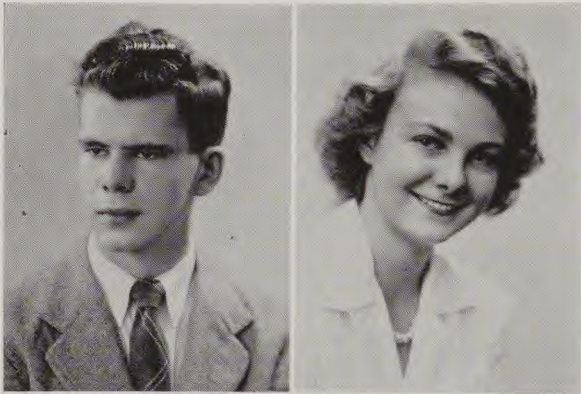

Mike's good nature and good looks make him a "must" at every party. He is fond of sharp clothes, especially sweaters. He is already laying a firm foundation for his future in the Carteret Post Office.

William Lawlor

Academic

Bill, who has a charming personality and a smooth style in dancing, has one great love — music! We expect him to rank with Gershwin and Iturbi.

Irene Lenart

Secretarial

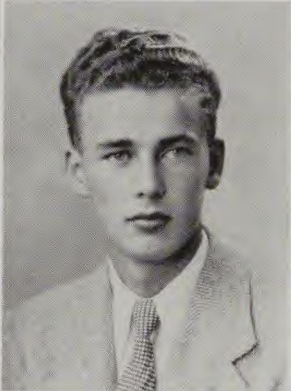

This winsome maiden has very expressive eyes of brown and a lovely natural glow that no cosmetics could enhance. Irene's hobbies are dancing, reading, and cooking. She is going in for secretarial work, but we predict that it won't be for long.

Julia Machyshyn

Academic

Julia is one girl who is not to be outdone by the men. Not only does she know her planes inside out, but she can fly them, too. Her real vocation is art, and, with her talent, she should fly high in that field, too.

Frank Marcy

Scientific

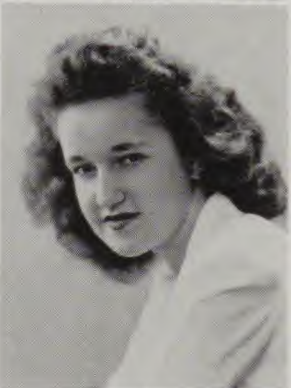

Frank's curly hair and flashing smile have made him a favorite of the girls. When he donned a sailor's uniform in the senior play, the girls fairly swooned. Talented in art, he plans to become a draftsman.

Olga Matwy

Secretarial

Olga's happy-go-lucky manner and perpetual smile have made her one of our favorite students. As Elzbeth in the senior play she stole the hearts of everyone. Loquacious as she is, she will have no trouble whatsoever talking her boss into a raise!

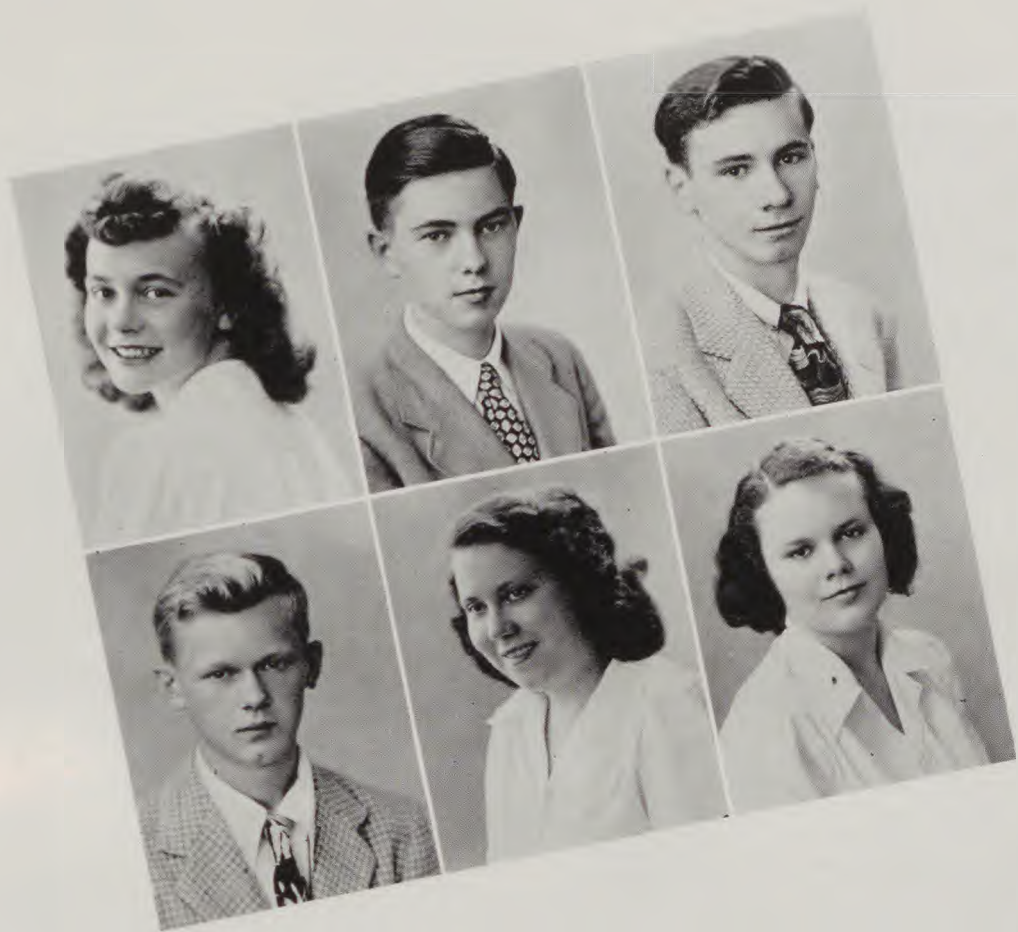

Johanna Medvetz

Secretarial

Johanna is the lucky possessor of a crown of shining copper-colored hair and a most attractive smile. Sincerity is one of her outstanding characteristics. She likes to read and to dance. She will add color and efficiency to any business organization.

Helen Dorothy Melnick      Secretarial

Helen is one of the fairest in our garden of girls. Brown eyes, brown tresses, and the most piquant little nose you ever saw. When she has her hair in an up-do, she looks like Mary Astor. Helen is another aspirant for success in the secretarial field.

John Michael      Scientific

In case you want the address of a pretty girl, just see John — he has loads of them. Yet he claims that his ambition is to stay single. What do you say girls? Are you going to let him get away with that? His favorite hang-out is the Industrial Arts room.

Estelle Nagyvathy      Secretarial

A friendlier girl than Estelle would be hard to find. An honor roll student, she is never too busy to lend a helping hand. She will undoubtedly make some lucky executive a wonderful secretary.

Eugene H. Mesaros      Scientific

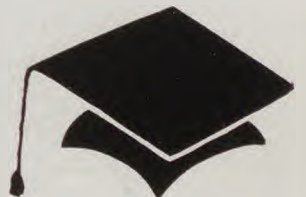

With a song in his heart and a tune always running through his mind, Eugene finds there is magic in music. His deep interest and outstanding ability in his chosen field are only the beginning of a tuneful lilt through life.

Edward Misko      General Clerical

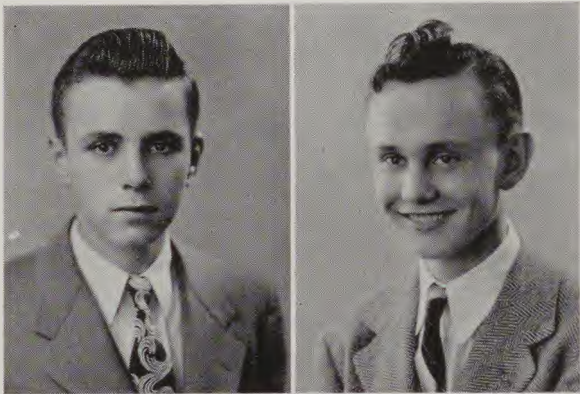

Ice cream — Buck Jones — The Fat Man. These may not mean much to other people, but Ed just loves them. Ed is a quiet boy with straight blonde hair. Being quiet didn't stop him from taking part in school activities. He played football, and he went out for track for four years. And say, have you seen that boy in mechanical drawing? He's a wizard with a capital W!

Edith O'Brien      Academic

Dark-eyed Edith has a heart of gold. Her hobbies are all on the distaff side — knitting, cooking, and taking care of the sick. What a wonderful nurse she will make!

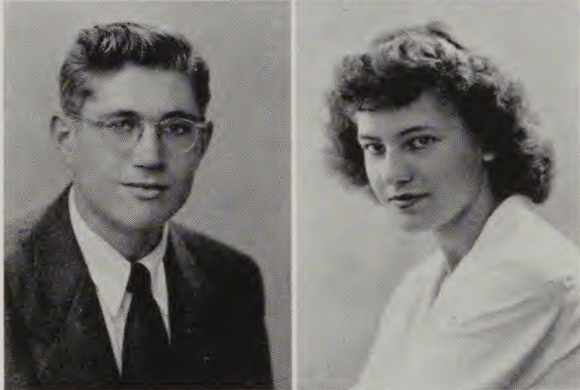

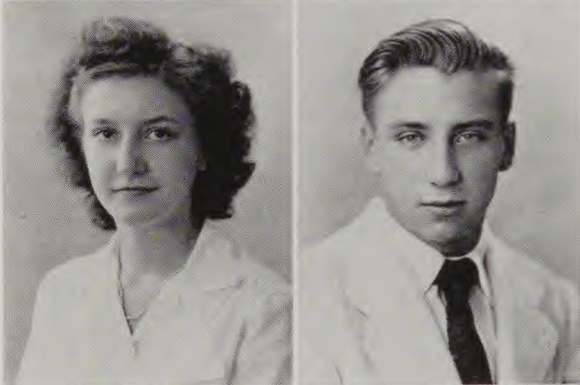

William O'Brien Academic

Bill is going to study medicine. With his deep blue eyes, wavy hair, and manly physique, he will definitely attract myriads of feminine patients.

Vincent Paisel Scientific

Vinny, a shifty, hard-running halfback, is one of our football "greats." For his distinguished record on the gridiron, he was awarded the John Markowitz Trophy presented by the Ukranian Social Club. Since Vinny hates to get up in the morning, he has decided to be a pharmacist and work nights.

Irma Paul Academic

Petite Irma has an engaging manner and a sweetness that is always refreshing. Irma's dream is a trip around the world with a "Happy Landing". May your dream come true, sweet maid.

Edward Ogarek Civic Social

Ed lives in a world all of his own. Once in a while he comes down to earth to make a droll remark. He loves nothing better than to tinker around his old jalopy. His ambition is to keep Cadillacs and Packards purring.

Margaret Mary Pancza Secretarial

Tall, slender Margaret is friendly and jovial. She's an efficient typist. As head of the Business Department of the Loudspeaker, she has done a most creditable job. Her clever sense of humor brings ready smiles even to glum faces.

Wendell Philips Scientific

Windy was so named because of his loquacity. However, he is not a man of words alone — he's the man-mountain of the wrestling team, and he gave a good account of himself as a varsity halfback.

Walter Pavlowski                      General Clerical

This slight fellow with a shock of yellow hair hanging over one eye is Chicken Teddy. He and Ripper are inseparable companions. They like the same people, enjoy the same activities, even support the same baseball team — The Brooklyn Bums! Chicken Teddy can't decide on his future.

Joseph Poznanski                      Scientific

Joe is another Carteret boy who couldn't wait until graduation to enlist. In his junior year he joined the Merchant Marine and spent nine months seeing the world. When the war was over, he decided that Carteret High looked pretty good to him, so he came back to get a diploma.

Elizabeth Rohaly                      Secretarial

Betty is the girl with a twinkle in her eye and a happy-go-lucky smile on her face. She likes ice cream, but wishes she didn't. She wants to have a business career and she will be successful.

Joseph Poll                              Scientific

This young man of serious mien sowed all his wild oats during his freshman and sophomore years. Then he settled down to show what he could do. Genial Joe is a clever boy whose heart is in his drums. Some day we may see his name in lights as the chief attraction of a famous orchestra.

Gertrude Prokop                      Secretarial

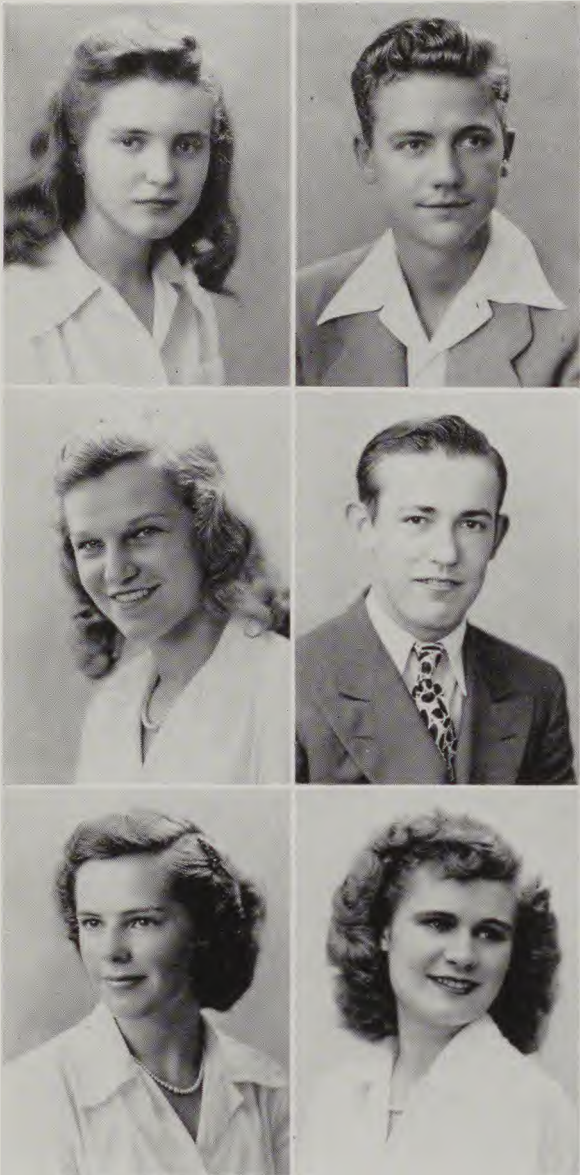

Our hats are off to Gert for her portrayal of Bernadine in the senior play! And that is not all! She is one of the most active members of the class, yet she always makes the honor roll. Her favorite leisure time activity is keeping up the morale of a certain sailor.

Florence M. Romanowski              Secretarial

Florence bubbles over with health and happiness. Her smile reveals two engaging dimples. She loves to trip the light fantastic. Her ambition is to be Van Johnson's private secretary.

Loretta Romanowski      Secretarial

How would you like to have your house decorated by an attractive young lady who works quietly but very efficiently? Then wait until Loretta finishes her course, because anything she does, she does well and her chosen field is interior decoration. Loretta's hobbies are looks and the theater.

Joseph William Rytel      Civic Social

This good-looking young man is a seasoned veteran. When he came home from the wars, he decided to return to high school, so that he might realize his ambition to be an X-Ray technician. Joe loves to dance and play shuffle board. In his relaxed moments, he enjoys sports programs on the radio. In case you'd like to steal his heart, plan your campaign in the kitchen — he loves soups and steaks.

Elaine Marie Sabo      Academic

Blonde hair, blue eyes, and a charming personality describe lovely Elaine. Lucky will be the boys and girls that have her for a teacher! Besides rating high scholastically, Elaine edited the yearbook, supervised girls' patrol, and participated in dramatics.

Paul Sarik      Civic Social

Paul is a jovial senior who likes to play practical jokes. He claims that he hates the thought of working for a living, yet he has a part time job after school. After graduation, he is going to be a machinist.

Isabel Sloan      Secretarial

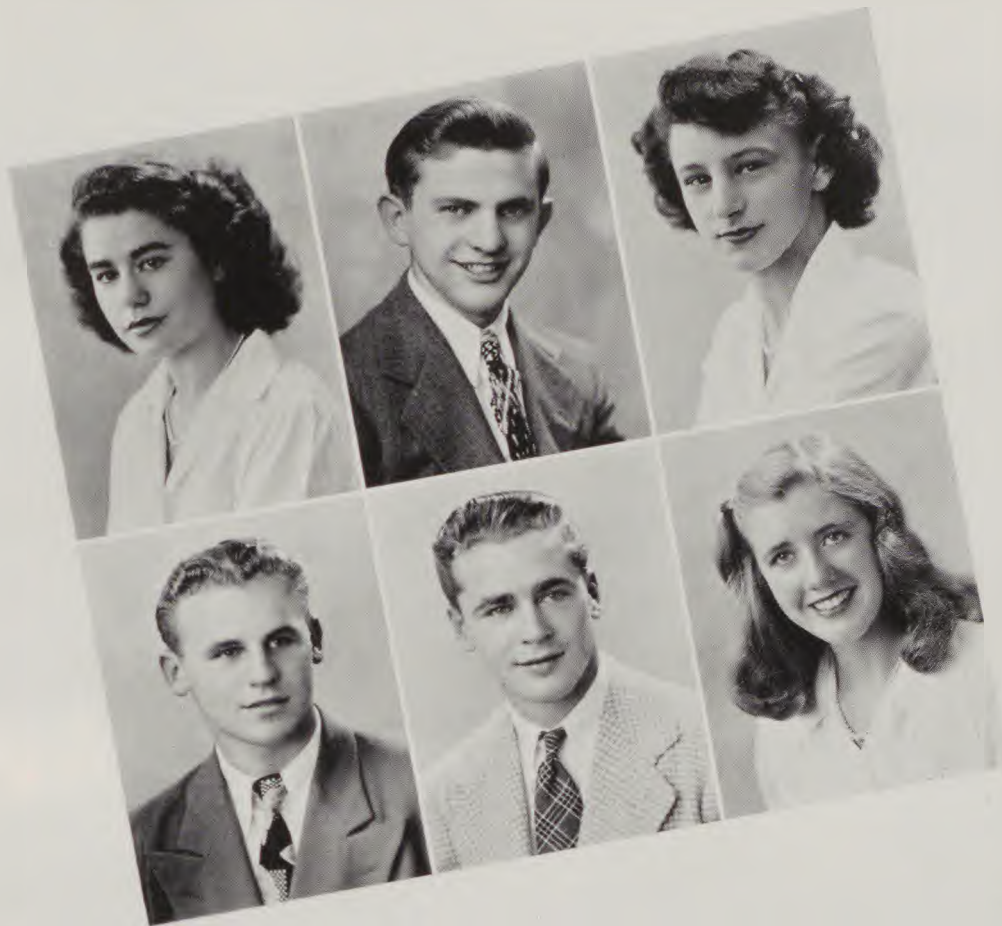

Rosy cheeks and tiny feet, and a smile that can't be beat! Here is Isabel, 1947's prettiest maiden, and we compliment the class on its choice. In addition to maintaining honor roll standing, Isabel has been a leader in all school activities.

Marian Catherine Slotwinski      Secretarial

Although Marian is going to become a beautician, she could be a gorgeous model. She is tall, good-looking, and well-poised — a perfect ad for a beauty salon.

Elaine Solomon Academic

Dark-eyed Elaine has a seriousness of purpose that augurs success in her business career. Her desire to be helpful and her willingness to shoulder responsibility have endeared her to all of us. We all felt happy when she was chosen to represent C. H. S. in the American Legion Contest. We're rooting for you, Elaine!

Elizabeth Mary Soltesz General Clerical

This gifted young lady with the sweet voice draws and paints very well. Active in sports, she has been on the cheering squad for two years. Some day Betty will be a clever cartoonist.

Stephen Suhay Scientific

We can't understand how we ever got along without Steve while he was doing his bit as a pharmacist's mate for Uncle Sam. We welcomed Steve with open arms and he has fitted in perfectly. His good looks, his sparkling personality, and his smooth dancing cause many a feminine heart to flutter. The future looks bright for Steve in the X-Ray field.

Henry Szymborski Scientific

Henry wanted to have a share in making the world safe for democracy — so in January 1945, he enlisted in the Navy. After serving eighteen months, he decided that he wanted a real diploma instead of a legislative one. Back he came to C. H. S., and the doors swung wide for the drummer boy. We hope that Henry will realize his ambition — success.

Joseph Stroin Scientific

Joe cuts some very smooth steps on the dance floor and that's why he's our choice for the best dancer and jitterbug. His blithe spirit is in inverse proportion to his solid physique. Who knows what the future holds for him — maybe Jane Russell!

Dorothy D. Uhouse Secretarial

Dorothy's blue eyes are fringed with intriguing black lashes (real ones). A distinctly feminine type, she possesses quite a flair for clothes. Dot is looking forward to a business career.

Mary Zofchak

Secretarial

If you see a tall, dark-eyed lass dashing through the halls with an armful of books — that is Mary Zofchak, one of our top-ranking students. Even Mary's hobbies, reading and classical music, are high-brow. However, she finds time for many activities — notably the Rambler. Journalism is her field.

ALMA MATER

In every heart there is a love
Splendid and true, wrought from above;
Sing, every son and daughter sing!
Loyal to you we'll ever be;
To you we raise this melody;
Let every voice in glory ring.
All hail, all hail your glorious name,
Dear Carteret High, we love you!
Courage to you, that you may bring
Courage to us in everything.
Hail to your glorious name!

Commencement

*As fate has willed, the time draws near,
For us to part from things so dear.
A thousand days, carefree and gay,
A heaven on earth, too short a stay!
We know not what the future may hold,
It's still a story remaining untold.
Yet with anxious mind and pounding heart,
Our journey along Life's highway we start.*

*One night in dreams some comfort we found,
There was heard in the distance a deafening sound;
Reality spoke in a voice calm and clear,
Softly, soothingly, overcoming all fear.
Awake, my children! Awake and rise!
Beyond the horizon a new world lies.
Its vistas are bright. Come, travel with me;
Let us meet Life, to man an eternal mystery.*

*Now the air is filled with a touch of spring,
Recalling sweet memories of unforgettable things.
As we sing Alma Mater with heads held high,
Heartfelt joy beclouds each tear-dimmed eye.
Though we must leave, our affections will remain,
As we go to tempt fortune for earthly gain.
Salve et vale, we say with a sigh;
We'll never forget you, Dear Carteret High!*

DOROTHY LAUTER

CLASS PROPHECY

Scene: Boulevard Section, the year, 1957.

As this scene opens, our old S. O. President, Rip Van Wilgucki, is just awakening from one of his habitual naps. Little did he know, when he lay down under that tree in the summer of '47, that he wasn't going to get up for a long time. He lazily picks himself up, brushes himself off, and starts the long walk toward town. As he walks down the boulevard, he is amazed at the number of houses that have been built.

The one thing that surprises him most is the huge stadium that has taken the place of the old park recreation field. He walks through the turnstiles and takes a seat. The first person he sees is a tall, curly-headed man standing in the coach's box. Because there is something about this man that attracts Rip, he asks a group of attendants who the man is. To his surprise, the stranger is that great coach, William (Horse) Balog. While Rip tries to signal "Horse," the Carteret team comes onto the field, and Rip is once again speechless. Out on the mound is that 30-game winner, Joe Magella, and the man who is keeping the infield alive is none other than John (Sonny) Cherepon, the league-leading batter for three consecutive seasons. Out on the left field wall there is an advertisement which reads, "After the game, come and be the guest of that famous actor, Ray Bodnar, at Bodnar's playhouse, now presenting Olga Matwy and Ann Marie Balewicz in the Broadway production 'Janie'; also that famous comedy team, Julia Held and Moe Gasior; music by that name band, Mesaros' Music Makers, featuring William Lawlor at the piano, Joe Poll at the drums, Henry Szymborski at the trumpet, and Eugene Mesaros at the saxophone. With this band are those song birds, Doris Anderson, Irene Koval, and Irene Fazekas."

Still very much confused, Rip picks himself up, and starts to walk out of the stadium when he hears an advertisement coming over the loudspeaker. "Are you a shrimp? Do you have to look up to your wife? Why not try Vivicros' Elevator Shoes? They make you look bigger and feel bigger. This announcement has been brought to you by Windy Phillip's Propaganda Service."

As Rip comes out of the stadium he is nearly run down by one of George Brechka's "You drive it" cars, manned by his ace chauffeur, Pete Kucaba.

At last Rip reaches town and heads for the old hang-out. Yes, there's been a change or two here, also. The sight that greets Rip's eyes is a huge neon sign. "Maple Street Social Club, Walter Pavlowski - General Manager, House Man, and Janitor." Rip walks into the club and sees John Michael, that great pin-ball magnet showing the line points of the game to Ann Ference, Martha Kasha, Eleanor Ihnat, and Margaret Panca, all successful secretaries.

When Chicken spies Rip he picks up a noise maker, (made exclusively by Loretta Romanowski and Estelle Nagyvathy) and whirls it around his head. The two old buddies leave to paint the town red. Instead of the old city dump that was located next to the Social Club, he sees Lauffenberger's brick factory. Coming out of the plant he meets Doc Misko, Steve Suhay, and William Carney. A little farther up the street is the private dancing school of those smoothies, Pauline Dobrowolski and Joe Stroin. If your muscles ache after the dancing lessons, Isabel Sloan's liniment factory is right next door. Working as secretaries for Isabel are Helen Bamburak and Mary Gaydos.

Finally the two friends arrive at the old corner. Instead of Kockek's, Rip sees Ferguson's Drug Store; working in the store as head pharmacist is Martin Goldstone. Across the street in the New Ritz, co-owned by Ella Feld and Josephine Dombroski, a beauty contest features those famous Powers models — Lois Hopp, Marian Zatik, and Doris Wilson. Showing at the Ritz is Walter Felauer playing in the Van Johnson Story. This picture was taken by that famous photographer, Josephine Gavaletz. Collecting tickets is Gertrude Prokop, taking the place of a certain sailor.

In place of Harrigan's, he notes Herega's Candy Kitchen. Above the shop are the offices of those famous psychiatrists, Ronald Shanley and William O'Brien. Looking out the windows are their two nurses, Irma Paul and Edith O'Brien. Along comes Ronald and with him is his regular patient, Robert Balewicz. In place of Ulman's is one of the many bakeries owned by Florence Romanowski, Florence Hlub, and Johanna Medvetz.

A gust of wind blows a newspaper toward Rip, who picks it up and finds that it is "The Daily Bugle" and that Mary Zofchak is the editor. On the first page smiles a familiar face — the new mayor of East Rahway, Eddie Ogarek. When he opens up the paper, he enjoys a comic strip, entitled "The Nose" drawn by Frank Marcy. On the same page appear subscription blanks to Pauline Crew's Book of the Month club, advertising books by Lois Lamons and the famous authority on etiquette, Edward Bonnell.

There is a picture of the new Postmaster-General of the United States, Michael Kalnok. On the next page he reads the following advertisement "Is your house cold in the winter? Do you have goose pimples all over? Why not use coal direct from Borsos' coal mines in Pennsylvania, the best coal at the lowest price". Under that ad come the words of the new song hit "My big brown Gyug", written by Claire Gurney.

Rip tells Chicken that he would like to go bowling. On their way to Kijula and Wasio-wicz's alley they pass the farm of Pete Molnar. Working on his farm is that famous scientist, Michael Walko. A little farther down he observes Ed Furian, owner of the Carteret Ferry Service and his mechanic, Benny Goedesky, Joe Poznanski, Harry Wolansky, and Albert Koskoski. After bowling a while, the friends stop in at Sarik's shirt factory. In the employees' lounge, Rip puts a nickel in the candy machine for that new concoction, "Tootsie Tooth," made by Charlie Fazekas. Chief chefs for Charlie are Helen Melnick and Mary Dusko. On the wall is a large portrait of that famous football player, Vinny Paisel, painted by Betty Soltesz and Julia Machyshyn.

As they leave the factory, they meet the new principal of Carteret High School, Elaine Sabo. With Elaine are Alice Bohacs and Mary Dikun, co-owners of the new skating rink. After walking a while they meet Elizabeth Rohaly, Dorothy Lauter, and Marian Slotwinski, who are now working in Campbell's soup factory.

The next friend they greet is William Kelemen hurrying down to see Joe Rytel, manager of Weiss's tinsmith shop. William is placing an order for some fenders for his bicycle shop.

The two friends continue walking and talking; after a while Chicken Teddy decides to have a party to celebrate Rip's home coming. They go into Solomon's tailor shop and order Rip a new suit for the party. On the way home they stop into Lenart's Ice Shop to get some ice for the drinks. After all the trotting around, Rip is tired. He is just about to relax, when he hears a sharp yell "Geronimo." He looks up and whom does he see, but his old classmate, John "Bugo" Kovacs, giving the neighborhood kids instructions in parachuting.

Well, it's been a hard day for Rip, and he can hardly take it; he's had many surprises today, and he wants to go to sleep. There is only one thing that's stopping him — he's afraid he won't wake up for ten more years. And so, we leave Rip, tired and befuddled, and are on our way. "See you again in 1967."
