NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-NINE

In Memoriam

JOHN JOSEPH GINDA, JR.

March 14, 1931—May 14, 1948

*"In years to come, when we shall reminisce,
And slowly turn the pages of this book grown old,
There will be many memories of silver,
But just one, dear John, of very brightest gold."*

In every heart there is a love
Splendid and true, wrought from above;
Sing, every son and daughter, sing!
Loyal to you we'll ever be;
To you we raise this melody;
Let every voice in glory ring.
All hail, all hail your glorious name,
Dear Carteret High, we love you!
Courage to you, that you may bring
Courage to us in everything.
Hail to your glorious name!

L'Envoi

A moment of joy to each girl and boy—graduation!
Laughing eyes, demeanor gay, proud heads high,
All mask the heavy heart.

O'er high hopes, long dreams,
Reality begins to cast its spell—
A strange and silent feeling!
We grasp with eager hands, and not in vain
Each pleasant memory to retain.

Good-byes and promises, wishes sincere!
The time has come—this is our year!
Farewell, dear teachers, classmates all.
We must obey the world's clear call.

SCENE..... Class reunion, 1959
PLACE..... Sitar's Ocean View Inn

"Winnie! How are you? I haven't seen you in ages!"

"Why, hello, Joan! How nice to see you!"

"You know, Win, seeing all these familiar faces brings back memories of our four years at C. H. S."

"How well I remember that September day that we heard the clang of the first bell! The milling horde stampeded through the three foot door and overflowed into the assembly to be assigned to homerooms."

"Yes, do you remember our freshman class officers — Chippy Cutter, Lillian Fedlam, Ruth Orban, and Joe Litus? Miss Gundersen and Mr. Semenza were appointed our Mom and Dad."

"That was the year we discovered that we had some excellent talent. What a big hit the boys made as balloon dancers in our Freshman Revue, coached by Miss Kelly and Miss Wilson!"

"Didn't the canteens start that year?"

"Yes, they did, and they were great!"

"Vacation came and went. Another September rolled around, and again we gathered on the front steps of C. H. S., heard the same old bell, and squeezed through the same old door, but this time as sophomores. That year we held our heads high and puffed our chests out to the limit. After all, we were not freshmen any more!"

"We chose four steady hands to keep our "ship of state" on course in our sophomore year. John Ginda was captain; Lorraine Rapp, first mate; Joe Litus, purser; and Ruth Orban, scribe. That year Carteret scored a triumph over Perth Amboy on Turkey Day."

"Christmas came, leaving the sad memory of Miss Scott's death. January and February, as I recall, were uneventful months."

"Remember the Sophomore Revue featuring songs and dances of the Gay Nineties?"

"Then came S DAY! Carteret High students welcomed the opening of Sitar's Sweet Shop."

"Another summer came and went, and once again on a clear September morning we made our way to C. H. S., upperclassmen at last!"

"In our junior year we were more cocky than ever. Henry Turick, John Godleski, Ludwig Ilk, and Eva Sierota did a fine job as leaders of the class. One of the big events of the year was our Christmas Dance."

"Our junior play "Date Bait" was a roaring success. I can still remember Harley running around after his worms."

"One of our patriotic classmates, George Kollarik, joined the Marines and landed somewhere in Korea."

"We were all saddened by the death of our beloved classmate Johnny Ginda. What a valiant fight he made for life! We'll never forget his courage."

"Nor his good sportsmanship and his friendly smile."

"Came May and the Junior Prom! It seems only yesterday that the girls went shopping for gowns. It seemed to get awfully hot when we walked through the crowd of people outside the doors of the Nathan Hale School on that eventful night. Buzzy Barber and his band played for us, and we had a good time, even though it rained."

"Then we took our final exams, and our last summer vacation started."

"The next year our egos were really inflated; after all, we were seniors."

"To hold the reins during our last year, we again chose Henry Turick as president; Agnes Anderson as treasurer; Ernest Weber as vice-president; and Ruth Orban as secretary. Ruth must have eaten Wheaties to last as class secretary three of the four years."

"Our first money-making scheme was the senior movie. Remember the delightful presentation, "Little Lord Fauntleroy?"

"The senior play was a great success, even if the butler did get shot ahead of time on opening night. The name of the play was "The House Nobody Lived In." Talk about thrills and chills—well, that play really had them!"

"Our Senior Prom was wonderful. Everyone was there and everyone had a good time. Al Kalla and his band played for us."

"Well, Joan, I guess that covers our four years in high school pretty well."

"Yes, they were four wonderful years, and they passed too quickly. Let's join the rest of the gang, Winnie, and get something to eat."

LINCOLN

Carteret traveled to Jersey City to clash with the powerful Lincoln High School aggregation in the initial game of the season for both clubs. The Ramblers managed to hold their own during the first half, tying the home team 7-7, when Donovan made good a conversion following his touchdown pass to Joe Medwick. However, the Blues were outplayed in the second half and Lincoln tallied once in each remaining period to set the final score at 21-7.

SOUTH RIVER

Playing against South River at Campbell Field, Carteret drew first blood when Medvetz passed to Merelo for the first tally of the game. Dick Miglecz kicked the extra point. However, South River tallied in the second period to tie the score at the end of the first half. The Maroons came back strong in the second half and scored three times. The final score was 28-7.

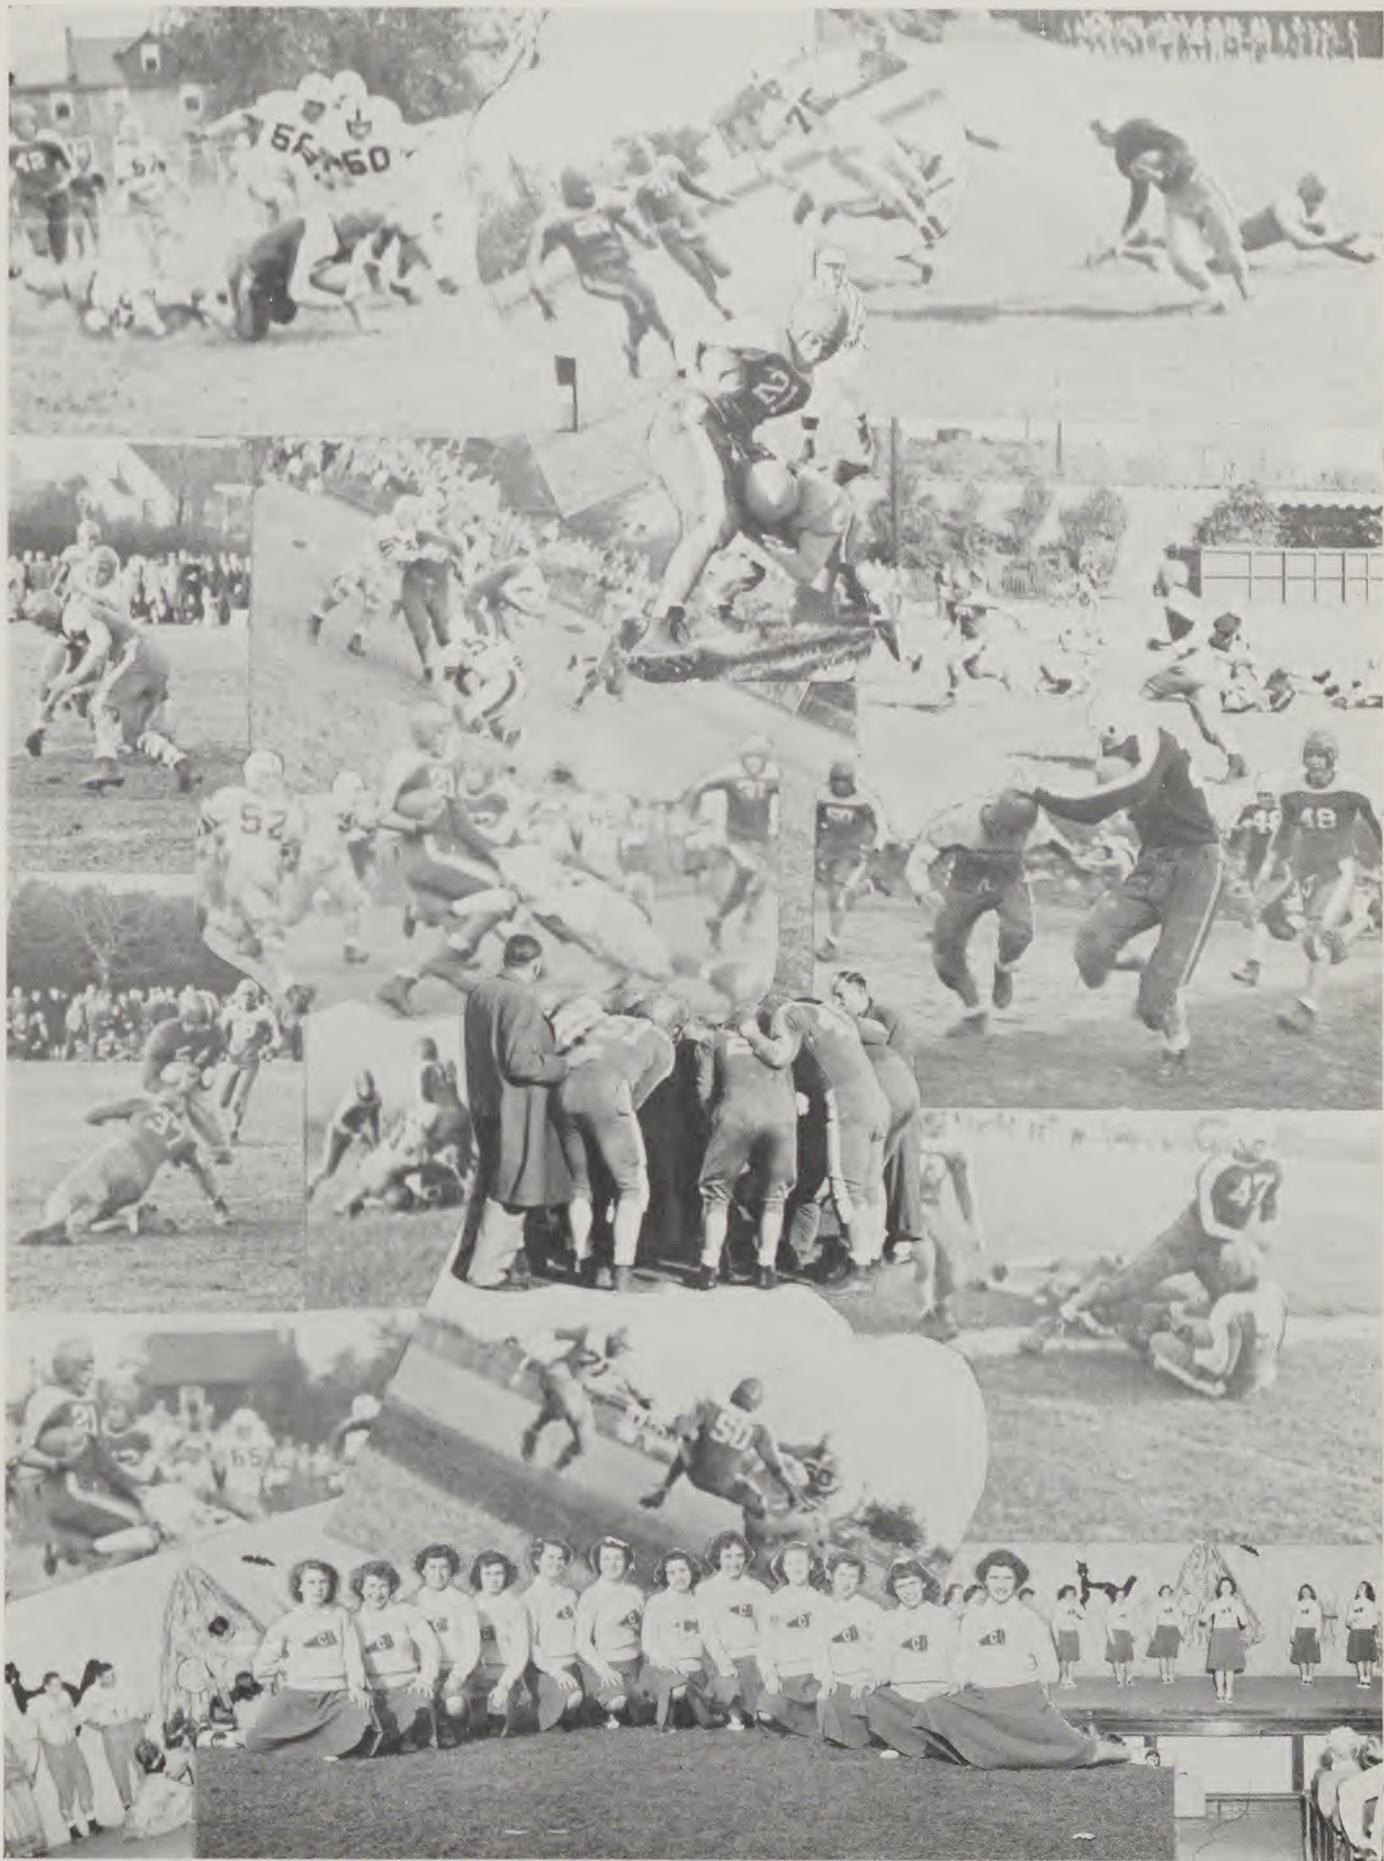

WOODBIDGE

Carteret met Woodbridge in a grueling grid-iron battle at the Walter B. Overholt, Jr. Stadium before a fairly large crowd. Carteret scored the only tally of the game. A beautiful kick by Donovan was downed on the two yard line. A bad pass from center went over the Barron kicker's head, but he quickly retrieved it, only to be tackled behind the goal by Carteret's alert line to give Carteret the only score of the game. Carteret 2 — Woodbridge 0.

PERTH AMBOY

On Thanksgiving Day, a hard-fighting Carteret aggregation traveled to Waters Stadium to meet their holiday rivals. Greeted by wonderful football weather, the Ramblers surprised the Panthers with a quick opening pass from Medvetz to Donovan for a 60 yard touchdown play. The Panthers came back to score on a disputed lateral pass. In the second half, Joe Medwick, playing alert at left end, intercepted a flat pass for a Panther flanker and went the distance for a touchdown. Carteret's final score of the season was made on a hand-off from Medvetz to Nix who fought his way over the goal after a beautiful run. Carteret 18----Perth Amboy 7.

You're upside-down.

BASKETBALL

EAST SIDE, WEST SIDE

East Side, West Side

All around the Town.

Dribble, shoot, and pass

The ball around.

Pivot to your left

And pivot to your right.

Ramblers, Ramblers.

Fight, Fight, Fight.

WE'VE GOT PEP

We've got pep

And we've got vim.

We got what it takes to win.
