PROLOGUE

'Tis ten to one, this book can never please
All that read it; some open it to be amused,
To leaf the pages idly one by one;
Others will criticise; so, 'tis clear;
They'll say 'tis nought; others, who hear the book
Abus'd extremely, will cry,—"it's witty!"
To both we say 'tis neither: thus we fear,
All the expected good we'd like to hear
For this book at this time is only in
The heartfelt praise of loyal classmates.
For those we worked, and if they smile,
And say "'twill do," why then we're satisfied.

Class History

Last night as I sat watching an antiquated movie on my television screen, I dozed off. Half sleeping, half waking, I was carried back to the year 1947. It was September and I found myself standing on the stairs of Carteret High School along with the eager horde of the freshman boys and girls. When the doors opened, in we surged, one hundred and fifteen strong, to be welcomed with open arms by the smiling faculty and the supercilious upperclassmen.

Miss Wilson and Miss Kelly were appointed our class advisers. At our first class meeting we elected John Little president. His aides were Janet Ginda, Robert Mullan, and Emma Fedorco. We had a most auspicious start—a gala dance. Later we presented an entertaining movie.

That first year our class was well represented on the football squad by Lou Tami, John Little, Lou Nagy, Bruddy Dominguez, Neil Zullo, Richard Tracz, and Hugo Marocchi; on the basketball team, by Gene Kas-kiw, Richy Tracz, Lou Nagy, and Frank Medvetz. Our freshman baseball team came through with a brilliant season with Uncy Nagy, Bob Mullan, and Hugo Marocchi leading the way. That year, water guns were the scourge of the school. However, we were treated with kindness, and soon we became working members in the organization that has given our school such a good name.

Suddenly I was fully awakened by a lively commercial. But it was wasted on me, because I began to think of the fun I had when I was a freshman. Slowly, my eyes closed; my mind started to spin; I was wandering again in the land of Morpheus. Instead of my comfortable parlor chair, a hardbacked, uncomfortable seat in the assembly at C.H.S. was my throne. On the stage were my classmates cavorting in the Sophomore Carnival. Everyone seemed to be enjoying himself, especially Tony Spumoni, who captivated the audience with his boisterous antics. I awoke again—this time it was the telephone (wrong number!). I settled myself again; my thoughts traveled back to my sophomore year. Our Class had elected Richard Tracz, president; Dolores Neder was our vice-president; Dorothy Rigler, secretary; and Richard Mandichak, treasurer. We sponsored a movie and a dance. Amadeo Dominguez was elected treasurer of the Student Council. Frankie Medvetz, although only a sophomore, rose to glory on the gridiron in Carteret's victory over Perth Amboy on Thanksgiving Day. Now we had arrived—we were an important group in our school.

Again I dozed, and again I dreamed. It was the year 1949. Ah! What memories! Juniors at last! This year was one of the most eventful years in the glorious history of Carteret High School. Dolores Neder was elected president of our class; the other officers were Richard Mandichak, John Nagy, and Emma Fedorco. We held a card party that year. Miss Kelly and Miss Wilson were tireless in their efforts to make this, as well as all our other events, very successful. Our junior play, "Meet Me in St. Louis," was highly lauded. Many thought it the best play ever presented at C.H.S. There was much ado that year over Junior Prom, but it proved to be an outstanding success—a superb example of what careful planning can accomplish. Everyone who attended it enjoyed himself.

In our junior year, too, John Little added new laurels—he received the John Markowitz Memorial Trophy for his football achievements. He was also chosen as our representative to Boys' State; Agnes Capik, attended Girls' State, and Irene Rakovic went to N.J.C. for a week through the efforts of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Woman's Club. In May the Student Council elections were held, and John Little was elected president. Hugo Marocchi was a very close second in a heated campaign. Marlena Lozak was a surprise victor in the vice-presidency race, which was also close. Three of our number—Charlie Russo, Micky Litus, and Bob Curran—left in our junior year to join the service.

In June, the Honor Society was inaugurated in C.H.S. Four juniors were chosen because of their superiority in scholarship, leadership, service, and character. These students were John Little, Florence Minue, Stephen Bilinsky, and Charles Kereluik. Our junior year will never be forgotten because of the brilliant achievements of our members.

My dream became rather somber. This time a cloud seemed to hang over me; gone was the joy that had pervaded the other three years, probably because we knew that very shortly we were going to leave C.H.S. Our happy school days would soon be over and we would have to go out into the world to earn a living. Dolores Neder was again elected president, thus establishing a precedent in C.H.S. annals. Ralph Russo was chosen vice-president; John Nagy, secretary; and Florence Minue, treasurer.

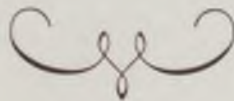

There was, however, a bright side to that year. We had our moments, such as our senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen." That will be remembered for years to come by those who were in the cast and those who saw it. Who will ever forget Papa "P.P." Price as the father of that lively dozen? Paulie was also the moving spirit in inaugurating Students' Day. We took over the school. Ralph Russo did a splendid job impersonating Mr. Horn. Then there was the Loudspeaker, of which we are so proud. What fun we had working with Miss Powers and Mr. Bareford to produce our yearbook! Thanksgiving was a red letter day! Carteret, an underdog in the annual turkeyday classic, routed a vaunted Perth Amboy team. Hugo's magic toe and Frankie's mighty arm highlighted a contest in which the blocking and tackling of nine other stalwarts were really inspired. The huge crowd was thrilled to frenzy. All in all, it was a great day! John Little and Hugo Marocchi made the All-County Football team. Lou Tami was honored with the John Markowitz Memorial Trophy.

In March, a delegation headed by Mr. F. E. Stengel ("Happy") surveyed the finest student body in the state of New Jersey. At long last there were new shades for everybody except Mr. Donatiello. Mr. Waron and Miss Kramer entertained with one of their usual outstanding performances. The visiting committee appeared to be favorably impressed.

I awoke—my dream was over—so was the movie! I shall never know what the movie was, but I shall never forget our four wonderful years in Carteret High.

“What News Abroad in the World?”

TIME.....June 13, 1961 PLACE.....The living room of
Mr. and Mrs. C.H.S.

Hugo is now a famous baseball player, and Mary is a registered nurse. As we look in on the “M’s” we see Hugo going to the television set and turning it in to station 51 for the latest news from that famous newscaster and cowboy yodeler, Willie Fedorcsak. “Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This is William Fedorcsak bringing you up to date on the latest news. There certainly is a lot of it today. My first news item deals with the navy. Admiral Dominguez states that we now have the biggest and best-equipped navy in the world, and that the Waves, headed by Commander Dorothy Fales, are a very important part of it. In an address to Congress, General Fahey expressed his utmost confidence in the army. . . . Now to the local scene. Tonight on Fifth Avenue, there will be a fashion show at Lee Dalton’s exclusive new department store, which has just been completed. The interior decor of this swanky shop was created by Andrew Dobrovich, and the fixtures were made exclusively by Frank Buzas. The ultra-modern electrical scheme was installed by Herbert Heil. All the dresses on display were designed by Audrey Conyack, Marlene Lozak, and Florence Minue. The models will be supplied by Albert Kopil, owner of Kip’s Model School. Our station photographer, John Beres, will take pictures of famous celebrities, such as Alice O’Donnell, one of the nation’s ten best-dressed women, who will be there. . . . Flash—A bulletin has just been handed to me. The thief who stole ‘Mona Lisa’ from the art gallery has just been caught. This prize-winning picture was painted by Mary Windos, Mary Kovacs, and Rose Paloczic. The officer who captured the culprit is Andrew Kotis of the N. J. S. P.

Now for a word from our sponsor. Read the paper all America is talking about, The Weisman Gazette, edited by Walt Weisman, with syndicated columns by Paul B. Price and featured cartoons by Irene Ferenchiak. To be well informed read The Weisman Gazette. Back to the news! Robert Wyman, the big oil tycoon from Texas has just flown to Washington to confer with President John Little. Barbara Andrasz, the president’s secretary, had been down in the Lone Star state for some time, investigating the oil situation. That’s all the news from home right now. Stay tuned for the sports round-up by Bill Murray.”

“This is William Murray, bringing you the latest in sports, both local and national. Here is a resumé of today’s baseball. There was only one game scheduled in each league today. First let’s take a look at the National League, where the Dodgers defeated the Giants 1-0 under the superb no-hit, no-run pitching of Jimmy Kiraly. The one run was accounted for by Dick Tracz, who powered a tremendous homer over the left field wall. In the junior circuit, John ‘Uncy’ Nagy of the Yanks broke the all-time record by striking out 27 men. He gave up four hits, but no runs. The winning blow came when Bob Mullan hit No. 3. It looks very much as if the Yavorsky brothers will face each other in the World Series, but which one is the better manager? John, by the way, is the owner of the World’s Billiard Parlor. In football today, it was announced by Richard Mandichak, owner and coach of the championship Cleveland Browns, that quarterback Frank Medvetz and tackle Lou Tami have inked their contracts for record-breaking sums. Gene Kaskiw and Lou Nagy were highly commended publicly today by Governor Solomon for reporting an attempted basketball fix.

On the local scene, there will be a dog show tonight at Carteret Square Garden, run by Ilsa Frey. Mary Irving, manager and pitcher for the world famous Ramblettes baseball team, world champs for the past five years, is giving Leo Durocher a hard time. Robert Moore, president of the Stock Car Racing Association, says there will be racing tonight. The feature race is a match between Albert ‘Crash’ Arva, and Richard ‘No-Fenders’ Malowitz. Tomorrow night at the Garden, the Chiefs meet the Jolters in the roller derby, headed by the flash of the team, Joan Dziak. Flash . . . Eleanor Kutcy just bowled her fifth consecutive 300 game. Wow! That ends the day’s doings in sports and so until tomorrow evening, this is Bill Murray saying good night.”

“And now a C.H.S. T.V. feature program. The grand opening of Gabriel Suto’s new nightclub, ‘The Copper Horseshoe.’ The golden strains of a special all-star band reach us from the floor. The stars include Jimmy Skitka, Charles Kereluik, and Bill Magella, to name a few; featured are Irene Rakovic and Bob Pusillo as vocalists and

Richy Elko as arranger. Gloria Donoghue, world-famed comedienne, has just finished her act. The twirling twins, Audrey Ward and Joan Gaydas, are next on the program. The general manager of the club is world-famous Stephen Bilinsky. Dorothy Dalton is the head chef and Eleanor Kukoski is the chief hostess. Mary Medwick is the hat check girl. And now our head cameraman, Stephen Sipos, will try to spot the celebrities at this festivity. Seated at table number 2 is Rosemarie Moravek, the lady senator who has just completed three weeks of filibustering in Congress. Also seated with her are Janet Ginda, the woman fashion expert, and Evelyn Cheress, owner of a technicolor dye company. At the table to the right of them are Elaine Toth and Doris Zelenak, who have discovered the key to the secret of nuclear fission. It seems as if the scientists are assembled at one table, for Mary Karsnak, the president of the X-Ray Drug Stores chain, and John 'Sneeze' Heightchew, the inventor of 101-way cold tablets are there. Across the dance floor are Emma Fedorco, Miss Rheingold of 1961, and Betty Marcy, Miss America. The model airline hostess, Agnes Capik, who has been table hopping all evening, is sitting now, talking with them. Audrey Mesaros of Arthur Murray dance schools is at the head table, just to the right of the band. Actress June Donnelly, movie director Theresa Gimbar, and millionaire and part owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, 'Zeke' Wawrzynski, are seated with her. The girl on the left hand side of your television set is Dolores Neder, creator of 'Curly Home Permanent Wave.' Coming in the door are the two deans of N.J.C., Rose Dominguez and Joan Jacoby. Florence Serson and Joe Sabol, co-owners of Adler Shoe Company, are coming in now, too. They are joining the table where Dot Rigler, physical culture expert, Andy Hamadyk, owner of General Motors, and Julius Mate, builder of the new super highway from New Jersey to California, are sitting. At the press table are Jeanette Marci and Helen Kurdyla. Ever since Louella Parsons retired, Jeanette has been filling her shoes very nicely. She is also the editor-in-chief of the local newspaper. Her roving reporter is Helen Kurdyla, who always has the right news at the right time. Also at this table is Alice Karweski, who has been appointed assistant to the Secretary of War. Alice now helps by writing to the service men to improve morale. Now we see the celebrated playwright, novelist, and story teller, Miss Stella Matway, joining those at the press table. I now see a latecomer to the party tonight; he is William Malovetz, owner and operator of the world famous 'Frog Club.' Bill just dropped in to pay the competition a friendly visit. Right behind him is Helen Skitka, the M.C. on the Skitka Shoppers, a one hour T.V. program every Monday, Wednesday and Friday on this station. There are many more people packing the 'Copper Horseshoe,' but time is running out. Before we conclude this telecast for tonight, however, here's a listening reminder. Set your dial to Channel 10 tomorrow night at 8:00 p.m. for the Ralph Russo theatre of hit plays. It's a great hourful of entertainment. Well, thanks for listening and . . . Good Night, Folks!!!'

"O BRIGHT, NEW WORLD!"

Four glorious years have come to an end;
Comes the end of the road beyond a bend.
We shall ne'er forget these wonderful years,
Filled with joy not unmingled with tears.
A new life is bright with anticipation—
Sometimes of sadness, sometimes of elation.
Our careers are before us, choose as we will
In a world of dreams, which we hope to fill.
Our path is set—our way to be trod.
Let us face the future with faith in God.

ELIZABETH MARCI

FAREWELL

How can our simple words express
What we shall cherish 'til we die,
The wealth of human happiness,
We found in you, dear Carteret High?

For happy hours we have spent with you,
Our deepest thanks to you we give;
From you we learned the Golden Rule,
By your ideals we'll try to live.

"The thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts,"
As the future we survey;
Our thoughts are sad and happy ones
On this, our graduation day.

IRENE FERENCHIAK

FORGET-ME-NOT

There stands a flower left alone
That once did have a happy home.
See how it grows out in the lot,
Just a lovely forget-me-not.

WILLIAM FEDORCSAK

JUNE THIRTEENTH

A thrill, a hope, a moment of joy!
A new life ahead for each girl and boy!
Out into the wide world, all of us go;
What the future holds, we do not know.
We shall often think of our loved school
And thank the teachers for enforcing the rule.
We are the future men of this nation
And this, the year of our graduation.

MARLENA LOZAK

GRADUATION

Graduation is a day of joy
For every senior girl and boy.
It comes but once in all our years
Filling hearts with gladness
And eyes with tears.
In years to come, when on our own,
Let us remember C. H. S.
Was once our home.

MEMORIES

Although we leave with deep regret,
There are memories we'll not forget.
Our school whose doors were open wide
We leave, to face the future with steady stride.

Farewell, we say, to C. H. S.;
Within our hearts are memories pressed
Of days spent here, so filled with joy.
To all we say Aloha Oe.

HARRIET DALTON

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was formed to encourage the development of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. It provides an incentive for good scholarship, and it encourages the students to continue their education.

The National Honor Society has met with approval among the secondary schools of the country and has enjoyed a continuous growth. There are now more than 3700 chapters in the United States.

Candidates eligible to membership in a chapter of this organization must have a scholarship rank in the first third of their class. They must show willingness to render service to the school and community. They must demonstrate leadership in promoting school activities.

Last June, through the efforts of Miss Richey and the Student Council, Carteret High School was granted a charter in the National Honor Society. The officers of Perth Amboy High School conducted an impressive induction ceremony. The following are charter members:

Vice President—MARLEN LOZAK

The Student Council of Carteret High School was organized for the purpose of maintaining high standards of personal conduct and thus raising the ideals of the school. The official student representatives are the officers, the presidents of the four classes, editors of the Loudspeaker and Annscoot News, chief of the fire patrol, homeroom chairmen, captains of the indoor and outdoor patrol, and president of the Athletic Association. Every student in the school has a voice in the Student Council through the representatives whom he elects.

During recent years the Student Council has initiated many projects and activities. Last year the group joined both the National and State Associations of Student Councils and attended the N.J.A.H.S.C. convention at Princeton. Annual exchange programs with other high schools were instituted. One of the highlights of the year was the installation of a Chapter of the National Honor Society; another, the variety show put on as an assembly program.

..... C O U N C I L

Treasurer—HOWARD ROZELLE

Secretary—ALICE LAUTER

This year the greatest achievement was the inauguration of Student Day. On this day the students took over the government of the school. The experiment was highly successful. The Council again attended the New Jersey Association of High School Councils, this time at Rutgers. At this meeting two of our students, Emma Fedorco and Gabriel Suto, headed panel discussions.

On the fifth Wednesday of every school month the council sponsored sock dances in the gym during club period. Another innovation was a regular Student Council Meeting held in assembly.

Under the inspired and enthusiastic leadership of Miss Richey, the Student Council has given new meaning to the motto of our school, "Facta Non Verba."

PERTH AMBOY vs. CARTERET

The annual Turkey Day game between the Ramblers and Panthers was played at Perth Amboy before a crowd estimated at 6,000.

First Quarter: This period produced quite a bit of bruising line play, with the Ramblers getting the better of it.

Second Quarter: With Frankie Medvetz doing the throwing and Ronnie Medvetz doing the catching, the Ramblers stopped the drive on the 16 yard line. After an exchange of punts, Amboy was backed up to their one-yard line on a 60 yard kick by Hugo Marocchi. On an attempted end run, Bob Pusillo tackled the Amboy player behind the goal line for a safety. An that was the margin at half time 2-0.

Third Quarter: By now the people were rubbing their eyes in utter amazement, as Carteret was shoving the highly favored Amboy team all over the field. With Little and Marocchi doing the carrying, the Ramblers brought the ball to the one-yard line from where Frankie Medvetz took it over on a quarterback sneak. The try for extra point was good and the score stood at 9-0. The Panthers took advantage of a good break as they recovered a Carteret fumble on the 27 yard line. In three plays they had a touchdown and the score was then 9-6. The period ended shortly thereafter.

Fourth Quarter: Proving that he is a great quarterback, Frank Medvetz took charge and threw and ran the team down to the six-yard line. There Johnny Little took it over on two plunges. Then Hugo Marocchi took over with his educated toe. He kicked the ball out of bounds in the coffin corner time and time again. Thus setting up the last two safeties for Carteret, which brought the final score to 19-6.

UNION vs. CARTERET

The Ramblers started off their 1950 football season by playing a heavily favored Union team to a 12-12 tie. With Union ahead 6-0, Carteret recovered a fumble deep in Union territory. Carteret tied the score as Medvetz threw the ball to Pusillo for the touchdown.

Early in the last quarter, with the Ramblers once again behind, Medvetz threw a long pass to Marocchi, who caught it and took it to the one-yard line. On the next play Dominguez plunged over for the tying touchdown. Carteret 12—Union 12.

LONG BRANCH vs. CARTERET

In the opening home game the Ramblers scored a 7-0 win over Long Branch. Carteret's scoring drive started on their own 42-yard line. The drive was climaxed by a beautiful 30-yard pass, Medvetz to Marocchi. Marocchi made a spectacular catch at the 5-yard line while being cross-bodied in mid-air by a Long Branch defender, and scored as he walked a tight-wire along the sideline.

The extra point was made on a pass from Medvetz to Pusillo. Carteret 7—Long Branch 0.

SAYREVILLE vs. CARTERET

With a great display of aerial power, Carteret High's Ramblers stopped a hard fighting Sayreville team 13-6.

After the Bombers had taken a 6-0 lead on a 50-yard scoring play, the Ramblers really started moving. Taking over on their own 35, they brought the ball down to the Bombers' two-yard line on two passes, Medvetz to Little and Medvetz to Marocchi. Little then skirted end for the remaining 12 yards. The score at that point was 6-6.

Late in the third quarter Sayreville attempted to kick out of danger, but the kick was blocked by Bob Pusillo, who also recovered on Sayreville's 25-yard line. A series of ground plays brought the ball down to the one-yard line. There Medvetz took it over on a quarterback sneak. A pass from Kaskiw to Marocchi was good for the extra point. Carteret 13—Sayreville 6.

LINDEN vs. CARTERET

Carteret scored its third straight victory as the Ramblers nipped Linden 13-7.

With the score at half time 7-6, in favor of Linden, things did not look too bright for Carteret; but an aroused and inspired team took the field for the second half. Early in the third quarter Linden was forced to kick, deep in their own territory; but they forgot one thing, to block out Ronnie Medvetz. Ronnie came charging in, blocked the kick, and recovered the ball on Linden's one-yard line. On the next play, Frank Medvetz took the ball over on a quarterback sneak. A pass from Kaskiw to Marocchi was good for the extra point. Carteret 13—Linden 7.

SOUTH RIVER vs. CARTERET

Well, it finally happened! The Ramblers lost! Not taking any credit away from the Ramblers, they were just outfought and outcharged by an inspired team from South River. It was no contest after the first half as the Maroons took a 26-0 lead.

The game was high-lighted by a 93-yard touchdown run by the South River halfback on a kick-off return. The Ramblers were spark-plugged to their touchdowns in the second half by the quarterbacking of Kaskiw. Carteret 12—South River 32.

WOODBRIIDGE vs. CARTERET

Carteret lost to Woodbridge as the two teams battled on a muddy field. Woodbridge took an early lead; at half time the score read 20-0. Frankie Medvetz, coming into the game in the last period, threw two touchdown passes, one to Marocchi and one to Pusillo. Johnnie Little and Pusillo scored the extra points but Carteret just could not win out over an inspired Woodbridge team. Carteret 14—Woodbridge 33.

PLAINFIELD vs. CARTERET

After dropping two games by quite a wide margin, Carteret came back to show a great improvement. They held a highly favored Plainfield eleven to a 0-0 tie during the first half. Carteret not only held Plainfield scoreless, but they also outplayed and outran them. In the third quarter, Carteret made a valiant one-yard stand, but then Plainfield got rolling. They scored twice and converted once before the game ended. Carteret 0—Plainfield 13.

THE EPILOGUE

We come now to the end of the book; thing now
Do bear a weighty and a serious brow.
Some feel joy and glee; and others, woe.
Such noble scenes as drew the eye to flow,
We have presented. Those that are sad here
May, if they think it well, let fall a tear;
The occasion well deserves it. Those that feel joy,
Let them weep as a man may weep upon his graduation day.

We leave behind us many an understanding friend.
We'll remember these, the happiest years of our lives.
With this, we yearbook editors and staff,
Salute you with a final word.
Farewell to every classmate, teacher, critic, friend!
May happiness through long years you attend!
