A BOY AND A GIRL LOOK AT GRADUATION

THE GIRL

Graduation day will soon be here, Time to leave our school so dear. Memories will come to us that day Deep within our hearts to stay.

Some will weep and some will not, But in every heart there'll be a knot; And as the day draws to a close, We'll wonder what the future holds.

The workaday world will seem so new Some days will be happy; others, blue; But never for a moment shall we forget Our wonderful years at C. H. S.

Yolanda Ternyila

THE BOY

There's a pain in my heart; there's a tear in my eye; For it's time for us to say goodbye. The past is gone; the future approaches, We must say goodbye to our teachers and coaches. Some of the boys will be off to war, To bring peace to our land forevermore. To all the gang we wish success— To all the gang we wish only the best. We'll cherish our memories, 'til the sea runs dry; We'll cherish our memories 'til the day we die.

HISTORY

On the third day of September in 1949, a hundred or so strong, we entered the portals with mingled feelings of joy and apprehension. We were rather quiet and unassuming at first, but after the three upper classes had been organized, we held our first meeting. Tom Gibson was elected president; Stanley Litus, vice-president; Rudolph Stark, treasurer; and Irma Trosko, secretary. Mr. Donatiello and Mrs. McCabe were appointed to lead us through our perilous four year course. To prove that we were really alive, we sponsored a dance and a movie. Our class was well represented on the various athletic teams. Before we knew it, our first year at C. H. S. was drawing to a close, and we were looking forward to our summer vacation.

Vacation over, we reported back in September to begin our sophomore year. This year was a "waiting" year—waiting for next year when we could sponsor the Junior Prom. Meantime, looking for leadership, we chose Bob Lehrer as president; Joe Melick, vicepresident; Rose Marie Rusznak, treasurer; and Veronica Medvetz, secretary. The proceeds from a dance, movie, and cake sale made the pile of pennies in our treasury grow and grow.

A brief recess during the summer months preceded our entry into our junior year. This was the year in which various members of the class distinguished themselves in many fields. Tom Gibson was elected treasurer of the Student Organization; Jerry Brown was chosen representative to Boys' State; Elizabeth Del Vacchio was representative at Citizenship Week at N. J. C.; and Bob Springer was chosen to represent C. H. S. at the U. N.; Bob Springer and Anna Mae Sholtesz were elected to the National Honor Society. During this year our officers were Stanley Litus, president; Tom Lawlor, vice-president; Violet Kovacs, treasurer; and Alice Lauter, secretary. Many of our boys starred on the athletic teams and made quite a name for themselves. We staged a play, "The Little Dog Laughed," which everyone agreed was the funniest production ever produced at C. H. S. Spring came and the long-awaited day arrived. The Junior Prom was the realization of our dreams. Few will forget that wonderful evening. Student Organization elections were held in the spring, and Joe Melick was elected president after a very heated campaign.

Our last summer vacation went all too fast, and in September we found ourselves on the threshold of our senior year. We elected Tom Zuccaro, president; Jack Hila, vice-president; Rudy Stark, treasurer; and Shirley Litowchak, secretary. The first big event was our play, "Annie Get Your Gun," which featured an unusually large cast and outstanding performances by the Thespians. Still in a dither, we held our dance a week after the play. Joe Melick and Tom Lawlor received all-state recognition; and Joe Melick, Thomas Lawlor, Joe Medvetz, Richard Czajkowski, Tom Gibson, Bob D'Zurilla, and Robert Meyers were all mentioned for county honors. Mid years came, and after they were over a great many of the senior students. especially the boys, "relaxed," to put it mildly. The long-awaited senior trip came, and everyone had a wonderful time. The reign of the senior class was coming to an end. We were about to be graduated. Our high school days were over. Commencement Day came.

Once again with mingled feelings of joy and apprehension, we pass through the portals of C. H. S., this time looking outward, ready for a new adventure the world. —John Hila

CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1968. Awaiting the take-off of the Rocket XII, Richard Czajkowski and I meet for the first time since our graduation from Carteret High School in 1953. Richard and I board the rocket which is bound for the planet Mars. We discover that we are assigned to the same compartments; so Chi and I begin to reminisce. Naturally our thoughts turn to our school days and classmates, all of whom hoped to accomplish many great things. Suddenly the door to our compartment opens, and in comes a huge robot bringing us food. He tells us about the new pastascope which can bring back anything which has happened in the past. The robot leaves and soon returns with the pastascope. He tells us to dial Carteret, 1953, and we shall see what the Class of 1953 has accomplished. After the robot explains how to operate the machine, Chi and I decide to give it a try. We put on our visionscopes, and Chi inserts a dollar into the slot. Immediately we see our former classmates on a three dimensional news reel.

Rose Marie Rusnak, former Miss America, has been signed by MGM Studios to a contract calling for $25,000.

Joseph Hamadyk, famous hunter, has returned from Africa after a hunting trip. Only one thing went wrong: Joe shot himself in the leg.

Irma Trosko has expanded her father's business all over the country; she is reported doing well.

Joseph Kettyle has been signed to replace Johnny on the Philip Morris cigarette advertisements.

Rose Sosnowski, after many years, is happily married to a successful business man.

Fran Lelesi now controls over 52% of the stock for that famous chewing gum concern, Forever Blowing Bubbles Inc.

Violet Kovacs and Veronica Medvetz have signed semi-pro baseball contracts with the All-Girl Yankees.

Richie Ryan has signed a movie contract with Republic Studios in Hollywood to replace Cheeta, the monkey, in future Tarzan pictures.

Captain Ron Raymond has opened a super-duper fish stand along Brownie's dock in Sewaren.

Famous Little Cotton Club performer, Nobbie Tharrington, has been signed to appear as a special guest on the Spotlight on Mercer Street Talent Show.

Elizabeth Del Vacchio and Shirley Litowchak have established the greater West Carteret Farm News, and give a helping hand to all the farmers in that locality.

Eleanor Yellen inherited her father's glass enterprise and has as her secretaries, Rose Zebrowski and Eugenia Milewski.

Matilda Filip has replaced Mary Hartline on the Super Circus TV Program.

Joan Chomicki, Genevieve Gluchoski and Lillian Pancza have bought that great newspaper, the Carteret Press, circulation of which has increased to 800,-000 since they have taken over.

Jean Riedel, after several years of experience at the Perth Amboy General Hospital, has been appointed head nurse.

Helen Kiefer and Evelyn Sharkey have opened a huge hot dog concession along the New Jersey Turnpike and are taking business away from Howard Johnson.

Arlene Nudge is now appearing in the great production, Annie Get Your Atom Bomb, which is currently at the Imperial Theatre in New York City.

Nancy Fariss and Marion Ference were the first women ever to pass their test for membership to the New Jersey State Police and may daily be seen patrolling the hill section of Carteret.

Marilyn Herlofsen has passed her bar exam; she will be the first woman lawyer in Carteret and will open her office on Salem Avenue.

Janet Megyesi has been elected to the House of Representatives.

William Hemsel and Robert Springer were appointed by President-elect John Hila as our representatives to the United Nations General Assembly and Security Council. This completes the appointments of the new president. His cabinet will have Donald Turk as Secretary of State; Bruce Nelson as Secretary of the Treasury; Stanley Litus as Secretary of Defense; Robert Meyers as Postmaster General; Kenneth Sandor as Attorney General; Anne Mae Sholtesz as Secretary of Labor; Marilyn Gordon as Secretary of the Interior; William Nagy as Secretary of Agriculture. Yolanda Ternyila is our ambassador to Hungary.

Anthony Laurich has opened a chain of bowling academies all along the Eastern seaboard.

CLASS PROPHECY

The credit for the founding of the Greater West Carteret Farmerettes goes to the efforts of those spirited-minded citizens: Alice Johnson, Doris Collins, Barbara Hembree, Marianne Coleman, Edna Hendricks, Mary Gormley, Mary Ann McCarty. They have made this community a better place in which to live.

In sports, Carteret may be proud of itself. Thomas Gibson and Ray Wizna, all time greats of C.H.S., have signed to play with the Minneapolis Lakers in the N.B.A.; Richard Czajkowski of Muga-Muga University, along with Joe Melick, Inky Peters, and Tom Lawlor, has been drafted by the Cleveland Browns; Joseph Medvetz has just received a new contract to coach football at Notre Dame; little Johnny Meyers has broken almost every fielding record in the books for a shortstop. Johnny is with the New York Yankees; "Wild Bill" Kolibas has been named by manager Tom Zuccaro of the Yanks as one of the best players in the past twenty-five years; Rudolph Stark has purchased the Montreal Canadians and is transferring the team to Carteret come next season; Zoltan Milak, well-known weight-lifter, smashed all records when he lifted 916 pounds with his neck; Ronald Ihnat, the great miler, established a new world's record when he ran the mile in 4 minutes flat; Robert Andres, Princeton's great drop-kick artist, established a record when he kicked six goals against Cornell in the lvy League; Robert 'Dee" D'Zurilla was named the "Rookie of the Year" and "Most Valuable Player" in the National League when he won 30 games and lost 3 for the Giants. "Dee" led the league in every pitching department.

Robert Lehrer, Larry Farkas, and Donald Szymborski have formed their own band and have signed noted stars, Frank Chizmadia and Joanne McLeod, as vocalists and Joan Yaros as dancer. They will tour under the name of "the Three Mugas." The band will also feature the famous accordionist, Phyllis Wozny.

Charles Hadyniak and George Bilak have opened a model agency along Fifth Avenue in New York City, and have such lovelies on their staff as Selma Harnick, Dolores Kazmeirski, Judith Kuhn, Joyce Johnson, Alice Lauter, Virginia Galamb, Arlene Aleck, Theresa DeRuosi, Blanche Marci, and Barbara Fischer.

Michael Kruppa and John Windos have opened a chain of beauty shops in downtown Chrome.

Stephen Bernath has purchased Ulman's Bakery; he is doing a tremendous business.

The three Minues, Richard J., Richard W., and Michael, otherwise known as the Minue Trio, have opened a Super Duper Market in Greater Hagaman Heights.

Florence Siekierka, well-known Hollywood movie director, won the Academy Award for directing the picture "Behind the Iron Curtain."

Catherine Kralich has been signed with the ever popular Johnny Ray as president of his junior fan clubs in South America.

Nancy Dube, star of the New Jersey Jolters, broke all records when she scored 1,000 points in a single season. Doris Biddulph, famous artist, is now touring central Italy and South Africa where she intends to paint pictures of wild life.

George Fischer, owner of Lou's Bakery, has retired with a lot of dough on his hands after ten years of hard sticky labor.

Beverly Jewers has opened a jewelry store in Beverly Hills, California.

Yolanda Weber and Elaine Gensci are sewing instructors for the Singer Sewing Center.

Marlene Heightchew is the owner of Barbizon School of Modeling.

Louis Driemel, the head designer for Saks Fifth Avenue, will soon open a dress shop on Park Avenue.

Jean Turco is happily married and living in Parkview.

Irene Bilak, Princeton's great scientist, has found a cure for cancer, and for this great achievement, she has been awarded the Nobel Prize.

Joan Hudak, who was proclaimed the outstanding actress of the year, is now appearing in that great MGM production, "The Greatest Show on Mars"; also featured in the production is Elizabeth Lenart.

So ends the tale of the class of 1953. At this point, the robot enters and tells us to don our space suits and prepare for the landing. Once upon Martian ground, Chi and I shake hands and depart for destinations unknown, hoping that some day we shall meet again.

> William Kolibas plus Richard Czajkowski

Rahway-September 27, 1952

A confident Carteret club traveled to Rahway to engage a strong Rahway team. Carteret scored first when Tom Lawlor, outstanding left end, scooped up a fumble and outdistanced a speedy Rahway pursuer. With seconds to go in the first half, Rahway scored on a desperation pass into the end zone. Late in the fourth quarter, this strong Union county club scored their final touchdown on another long pass play. The Ramblers' stubborn defense was sparked by Tom Lawlor, an All-State end.

Union-October 4, 1952

Suffering a letdown, and hampered by the loss of three regulars, Carteret succumbed to an inferior foe. A blocked kick gave Union the ball deep in Carteret territory. A number of charges through the middle of our forward wall resulted in a Union touchdown. Hampered by numerous penalties, the Rambler defense buckled and the Farmers pushed across another touchdown. Late in the final period, the Ramblers drove the entire length of the field to push over a meaningless score. Lou Kasha circled right end from six yards out for the touchdown. The bright spots for Carteret were the outstanding charges of Dick Czajkowski and the defensive work of Bob D'Zurilla.

Long Branch-October 11, 1952

A powerful, undefeated Long Branch ball club, sparked by the offensive thrusts of Howie Williams, marched over a spirited but overmatched Rambler club. Carteret fans were impressed by the fine play of their two fine guards, Joe Melick and Jim Gilrain.

Sayreville-October 17, 1952

Coach Doug King's Ramblers played their first night game in three years. They found it very much to their liking as they downed a previously undefeated Sayreville team. Taking advantage of a Rambler fumble, Sayreville tallied first as Paul Herrick went off tackle from the five-yard line. The Kingmen bounced back as Dick Czajkowski scored on a beautiful thirty yard run, after taking a pitchout from Joe Medvetz. The second half was featured by the beautiful broken field running of Lou Kasha. Late in the third quarter, after a sustained drive, Kasha wormed his way over from the five. The last period was a battle of the two strong defenses. Although the whole team played good ball, the offensive feats of Czajkowski and Kasha were the talk of the county sports circles.

Linden-October 25, 1952

The Ramblers rambled to their second straight victory at the expense of a baffled Linden aggregation. In the first period, the Ramblers broke the ice as Joe Medvetz's pass floated into the waiting arms of Tommy Lawlor in the end zone. Early in the second period, climaxing a downfield drive, Joe Medvetz circled his own left end on an option play and romped unmolested to paydirt. Both offenses stalled in the second half as the defenses strengthened. Outstanding in this Rambler victory were two fine Joes, Melick and Medvetz. Time after time, Melick spilled Linden ball carriers behind the line of scrimmage. Offensively, it was the fine signal calling and passing of Medvetz.

South River-November 1, 1952

Two spirited county ball clubs clashed at Campbell field before a large gathering. The first break of the game came when, after a bad pass from center, Sid Robinson circled Carteret's left end for a twenty-five yard gain, setting up the Maroon's first score. It was strictly a defensive battle on the part of the Dennymen, stopping several Carteret drives wthin the ten yard line. In the fourth quarter, cutting through substitute linemen, Bill Petry scampered forty yards for the final score of the ball game. Tom Gibson and Frank Peter played the best games of their careers, their many scintillating catches thrilling the crowd.

Woodbridge-November 8, 1952

The Carteret Ramblers, superior in every department of play, completely stymied the Woodbridge offenses with consistent line play. Bob Meyers, smashing through the Woodbridge forward wall, smothered Pat Lamberti's punt on the Barron's nine yard line, with Bob Kent recovering the ball. With eight seconds remaining in the half. Carteret lined up in a field goal formation. Woodbridge, unaware of Bob Andres' passing ability, was completely fooled by a pass to Tom Gibson in the end zone. The second half was a battle of two huge forward walls. Coach Doug King was especially pleased with the all-around play of Bob Meyers and Tom Gibson.

Bound Brook-November 15, 1952

After forty-eight minutes of bruising football on a rain-soaked turf, Bound Brook emerged victorious by a one point margin. Early in the first quarter, Tom Gibson pulled down a Medvetz aerial in the end zone. The Crusaders bounced back quickly on a downfield drive, featuring the running of Ken Washington, who climaxed the effort by scoring from the ten. In the third quarter, a long pass set up the visitor's second score. The Ramblers, in an effort to tie the game, pushed over a score midway in the final period, with Lou Kasha scoring on a lifteen yard end run. However, Bob D'Zurilla's conversion attempt was blocked by the entire Bound Brook line. The charges of Ken Washington through the middle of the Rambler line were turned back time after time by Bob D'Zurilla and Bob Meyers.

Perth Amboy-November 27, 1952

In a fumble-filled game, the Carteret Ramblers were edged by the Panthers of Perth Amboy. In the first quarter the kingmen came up with some fine defensive play to thwart Perth Amboy within the ten yard line. The Carteret offense perked up in the second quarter and kept the State Street eleven penned up in their own territory. Just before halt-time, Joe Medvetz carried the ball to the Panther goal line before being tackled. The decision that no touchdown was scored was disputed by the entire Rambler club. The tension mounted in the second half when neither club was able to score. Finally, with three minutes to go in the contest, Perth Amboy scored when Bob Gatyas took a flat pass from Nick Mauro and ran five yards for a score. Bob Andres was responsible for most of Carteret's ground gains, while Tom Lawlor was outstanding on both offense and defense.
