A Light-hearted Account Of A Serious 4 Years...

FOREWORD

A Trip to Disneyland

The Class of 1960 wishes you a pleasant trip through the "Disneyland" of our four years at Carteret High. Each of the four lands represents a phase of our happy and memorable life at C.H.S.

Frontierland represents us, the Seniors, on the borderline of a new stage of our development. We know that through the efforts of our teachers, these past four years have helped to prepare us for the future.

Fantasyland represents our extra-curricular activities which have helped us to develop well-rounded personalities.

Adventureland represents our dauntless boys who, through their untiring efforts in the field of sports, have brought fame to Carteret High.

Tomorrowland represents the upper classmen of the future. We hope that you, tomorrow's seniors, will work just as hard as we to have your own "light-hearted account of a serious four years."

Our Own Animated Story...

CLASS HISTORY

Gather 'round everybody, we're going to tell you a little story about one of the best classes ever to enter Carteret High School.

Once upon a time, there came to C.H.S. our scared little class called the Class of 1960. Shyly we walked up to two big giants, Mr. Bohn and Mr. Zimmerman, our advisers. All the big bad wolves in the upper classes looked at poor "1960" rather disparagingly, but we were brave and undaunted. We even elected our first class officers: Papa Bear—Jimmie Hawkes, Mama Bear—Barbara Koch, Baby Bear—Robert Pettus, and Goldilocks—Joyce Sitar.

As inexperienced as we were, our first year was successful. Because of our cake sale and informal dance, we entered vacationland with a porridge pot full of money.

Father Time finally rolled Sophomore year around. Soon we found that Mr. King and Miss Snyder had replaced our first advisers. Eager to impress them, we went right to work. We replaced our little bear pack with the four little dwarfs: Dave Spewak, Joyce Sitar, Kathy Carroll, and Steve Kondrk. Then as all good things must, sophomore year came to an end. Vacation time had come once more!

Finally, our Fairy God-mother made "1960" upper classmen—juniors. "Not in a Thousand Years" did we ever expect this! We were so surprised that we even chose this to be the title for our junior play. The play, starring Gloria Banick and Kenny Rocky, and directed by our student director Irene Kalapos, was a huge success.

Then, the long awaited day, May 15, came. Led by Cinderella's pet mice—Joseph Bodnar, Eileen Gilbert, Barbara Koch, and Tommy Koch—we visited a "Teahouse of the August Moon," complete with a golden "Buddha." Each couple felt just like Cinderella and Prince Charming.

Many new found honors were bestowed on our Class of 1960. Peggy Fedlam was chosen to attend the 13th annual Citizenship Institute and Irene Kalapos and Campbell Richardson attended Girls' and Boys' State, respectively. We were also thrilled to learn that the National Honor Society was increased by ten members of our junior class.

We left this year for vacationland, clutching our long awaited junior rings; and, believe it or not, seniors we were. Our little class of 1960 finally reached its goal! We quickly elected our new officers—Donald Duck (Ray) Zazworsky, Hewie (Maryann) Panek, Lewie (Maryann) Kleban, and Dewie (Kenny) Ward, to start the year off with a bang!

Our wonder boys of the year were the football team. Not only did we attain the coveted position of Central Jersey Champs, but we also won the first home game against Perth Amboy in twenty years.

Our senior play, "Come Out of the Closet," under the direction of Joyous Moore, and starring Jeri Jenkins, Betty Powers, and Eileen Gilbert, was a huge success.

And, as long as we're talking about successes, our basketball team must be mentioned. We enjoyed a glorious season and won the Central Jersey Group II title.

Barbara H. Sabo and Carole Anne Capp were chosen to be co-editors of the Ann-scott News, and Irene Kalapos, editor and Louise Cheslak, assistant editor of the Loudspeaker.

Well, kiddies, we're sorry to say that our little class of 1960 is nearing the end of its story. In January the measuring of caps and gowns, in May and June our Senior Trip, Dinner Dance, Baccalaureate, and finally Commencement will bring the last chapter to a close. Hopefully, but also with sad hearts, we leave our beloved C.H.S. and go on to live, we hope, happily ever after. But we know we'll never forget the most wonderful four years of our lives.

IN MEMORIAM

Mary Sowirka's untimely death has left a void in our ranks. Within a short time, Mary would have been graduated; but God, for some mysterious reason, chose to take her.

Her exceedingly short life was as a flowering bud about to blossom.

Mary's pleasant smile glowed constantly, for she was blessed with a cheerful and kind nature. All who came within her sphere sensed a feeling of happiness and love.

Mary has parted from us, her relatives, and her friends; but she will ever remain in our memory a wonderful classmate and friend.

In every heart there is a love
 Splendid and true, wrought from above;
 Sing, every son and daughter, sing!
 Loyal to you we'll ever be;

 Let every voice in glory ring.
 All hail, all hail your glorious name,

SPECIALIZING IN SCHOOL AND COLLEGE YEARBOOKS FOR OVER THIRTY YEARS

miss Jackway. and how I forgot me noise I made in the library. I will miss you next year. I will miss you always Jill <sup>02,</sup>

miss Jackway
I'll never forget the wonderful hours
I spent in your library
I think from those hours of reading I have learned a great deal. Thank you for being so nice to me
Irene Carter
8/1"

Mrs Jakenway,
be as happy as you were when I spent my Jr. year with you in C.H.S.

I will never forget the many times I had a problem and came to you for your help. I just hope that I will be as lucky next year as I was this year to have someone as nice to help me.

May God Bless and keep you another 39 years as a good wife and friend Reminds all the help and pleasure we had together.

Always Remember,
never forget.

Carol

Mrs Jakenway,

God Bless you always Teronica Frey

Mrs Jakenway, Best of luck and fine teacher. We'll all miss you next
