

LOUDSPEAKER 1962

LOUDSPEAKER

FOREWORD

We, the Class of 1962, proudly present our Loudspeaker.

In the past four years we have obtained knowledge which will enable us to meet the challenge of the future.

Soon after graduation most of us will be attending colleges or pursuing careers. Although we are leaving our Alma Mater, we will never forget the memories of our days in Carteret High.

We hope in years to come this Loudspeaker will be a reminder of the many, happy times we have had.

Seniors

We spent our freshman year eating pineapples in Hawaii with our advisors, Miss Hila and Mr. Mucha, and our officers, Robert Sisko, Carol Shupper, Robert Skiba, and Joyce Woodman. Our successful dance, "Hawaiian Serenade" provided us with enough money to visit Alaska in our sophomore year.

The Alaskan weather was too cold for Mr. Mucha, so we added Mr. "Eskimo" Gilrain as our other advisor.

"Mush! Mush!" Our sled was pulled by Robert Skiba, Marilyn Curcy, Thomas Pukash, and Barbara Szigeti.

We used the proceeds of our dance, "Alaskan Holiday" to finance our junior trip to the "Tropical Gardens."

On the way to the gardens, our officers, Dennis Kopin, Ellen Brown, Pete Sosnowski, and Kathy Judkas, distributed our new rings. We were proud to be the first class to display the new rings.

We temporarily left several members of our class in New York for the renowned stage production, "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis," directed by Gail Slotwinski. The critics raved about the performances of Dorothy Stein and Fred Breslow.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS and ADVISORS

We held our prom among the colorful flowers of the "Tropical Gardens." Underclass slave girls waited on us, and Barry Miles' band serenaded us.

We took a ship back to the U.S.A. so we could spend our senior year at home. Stanley Wielgolinski steered our ship. He was assisted by Anne Marie D'Zurilla, John Skiba, and Pat Mankos.

When we reached the shores of home, we heard the news that Anne Marie D'Zurrilla and Dan Harmer had been awarded Oscars for their performances in "Holiday for Lovers," a sophisticated comedy, directed by Micheline Malwitz.

We caught up with the news of the school by reading the Annscoth News, edited by Dorothy Stein and Gail Slotwinski; then we recorded our four year trip in the Loudspeaker, with the help of Ellen Brown and Robert Sisko, co-editors.

Our dinner dance, senior trip, Baccalaureate, and, finally, graduation concluded our senior year.
