*Afresh, the rose re-blooms each spring.
But the rose is blind to his beauty,
Deaf to the nightingale above his head.*

*Not so the man, who lives to see and hear
And taste and smell and feel.
He walks for a time in a burst of sunlight,
Explores varied wonders,
Drinks deep the joys of life
Countless joys, that the rose could never guess
And departs on the breath of a summer's evening
To delight in another wilderness.*

HISTORY

In our four years at CHS we have built a class. To help us in constructing this class and a better life, our architectural advisors were Mr. Howard D. Rozzelle and Mrs. Barbara O'Gorman. We started slowly, adjusting ourselves to the challenges of high school life. The steps did not all come easily, digging a foundation; raising the girders and laying the bricks to finally construct a wing of which we may be proud, a wing which symbolizes the foundation for our futures.

As freshmen members of the Class of 1965, we entered the halls of Carteret High School. We were only second rate apprentices and were we scared! Thoughts of elevators and swimming pools raced through our minds as we fumbled through the maze of hallways and classrooms. Gigantic upper classmen cast their shadows on our crew-cuts and pony-tailed heads. We stumbled our way through a cake sale and softball game, and both were amazingly successful. Our own mainstays in this year of trial and adjustment were Joe Sico (President), Marsha Lutton (V-President), Pat Tomczuk (Secretary), and Harry Burton (Treasurer). At any rate, our freshman year, different as it was, must be called a success and formed a steady foundation for the years to come.

With this firm base to build on, we became sophomores. This was our second year of learning, a year of following the blueprint laid out by our class engineers, the officers of our sophomore class; they were Harry Burton (President), Marsha Lutton (V-President), Pat Tomczuk (Secretary), and Kevin Miller (Treasurer). Our foundation completed, we started on the basement of secondary education, and boy, did we do a job! Our great Sophomore dance, "Sayonara" set a tradition of oriental themes, which we carried on through our Junior year.

Mr. Walter Gasior became our advisor, replacing Mrs. O'Gorman. With new incentive, we forged ahead in our efforts to build for the sky.

With renewed vigor, we continued working toward our ultimate goal. Here we were, one story from the top, and our Junior year was certainly one we shall never forget. We and our officers: Joe Torre, Rita Sullivan, Anne Marie Mogelesky, and Joe Sico, chose our class colors, gold and white; our flower, a rose; our class motto, "Your future tomorrow, is determined by your actions today," and the theme for the greatest social event of that or any other season, our Junior Prom, "Some Enchanted Evening." We planned and worked to make our other activities as spectacular as "Our Prom" and came very close with the "Shine on Harvest Moon" dance. The oriental theme of our Sophomore dance was carried on to our award-deserving play "Teahouse of the August Moon." This was the same year when the true heroes of the Class of '65 took to the gridiron. Padded and helmeted, out for a victory, the rough-and-tumble girls of the Powder-Puff football team played a game which heaped our school with glory. And then came the day, our day, when we officially became "under upper-classmen," the day we received our Junior Rings. Our fingers circled with this band of pride, we completed work on the main floor of our life at CHS.

We proceeded to ascend the stairs to the top floor of life at C.H.S. Chosen to help guide us through our final year were Joseph O'Reilly, Anne Marie Mogelesky, Judith Resko, and Donna Czubati. Determined to make this final year our best, we decided on the most varied program of our high school career. To get the ball rolling, we sponsored a truly theatrical event, "Little Mary Sunshine." As a class, we undertook an all out candy sale to finance our trip to Washington, D. C., and with the great salesmen in the class of '65, we made the sale an unqualified success.

Our coffers filled to overflowing, we staged our final high school dance, "Young at Heart." With the lights turned low, we bid a fond and remembering farewell to dances in our gym.

A break in the year's mounting melancholy was provided by our Senior Trip, and suffice to say, Washington will never be the same again. The broad grins and sighs of relief, expressed by the citizens of our national capitol, provided a climactic ending to our three day excursion! As the buses weaved their way along the highways of our Eastern seaboard, we rehashed all the events of our high school career. Little did we know, these our memorable events were far from over.

Our final year of construction was still to bring us one more evening of soft music and pleasant atmosphere. Our Dinner Dance at the Meadowbrook Inn added more memories to the tremendous collection we had already accumulated.

But now we were ready for graduation. Our building was complete. The structure stood tall and straight as we marched in blue and white files to receive our diplomas. The evening air was warm and the golden sunset cast long, deep hued shadows across our stadium. Perhaps our step slowed just a little as we received our diplomas. Perhaps a last look at C.H.S.'s new wing reminded us of the wing we had built, the wing of our life that was now complete.

Sing, every son and daughter, sing!
Loyal to you we'll ever be;
To you we raise this melody;
Let every voice in glory ring.
All hail, all hail your glorious name,
Dear Carteret High, we love you!
Courage to you, that you may bring
Courage to us in everything.
Hail to your glorious name!*

Remember When

- . . . Mr. Fernstrom and Mrs. McCabe cheered at the Student-Faculty Game?
- . . . Nick Oprendick broke the fire alarm?
- . . . The glass backboard was in the gym? (Bob Heightchew does)
- . . . 1300 people had a pep rally in the gym?
- . . . Mr. Tomczuk had a beard?
- . . . There was enough room in the girls' locker room?
- . . . The pigeons roosted in Miss Richey's room?
- . . . Harry Freeman fainted in Biology?
- . . . Larry Tellup didn't have accidents?
- . . . We had fat tie day at CHS?
- . . . Coach McCarthy talked on rainy days?
- . . . Rita and Pat posed for pictures in Washington?
- . . . Johnny Wig rode down the hall on a skate board?
- . . . We had assemblies?
- . . . The girls played the boys in volleyball?
- . . . We almost ate in Washington?
- . . . Bill Slivka knocked over the fire extinguisher?
- . . . Mrs. McCabe carried a "keep right" sign in the hall?
- . . . The hard working Liberal Party lost the election?
- . . . Mr. Clancy had control of period one English?
- . . . We almost lost three seniors in the Capitol building?
- . . . We had enough gym equipment to go around?
- . . . Jean Slotwinski got a souvenir from Washington?
- . . . Seniors had privileges?
- . . . We were Freshmen?

ARE THERE ANY ANNOUNCEMENTS?

A regular assembly will begin tomorrow morning at 8:35. All Juniors and Freshmen will pass to the auditorium at a triple bell after the late bell. Seniors and Sophomores will pass to first period class at a double bell which will be followed by a single short late bell. At a triple bell following the assembly the Juniors and Freshmen will pass to second period while the Seniors and Sophomores line up on the main floor. No one else will be allowed on the main floor until the assembly is filled. After the assembly everyone will pass to homeroom at a short double bell and remain there until a short triple bell followed by a long single bell which will signify dismissal. There will be no third period.

The bells in the high school are out of order. Everyone will pass to classes and assemblies at the sound of the police whistle which will be blown on the front stairs by Mr. King.

Students: No smoking in front of the building or on Louis Street. All smoking must be done in classes.

The baseball game scheduled between Carteret and Recky Teck which was to be played at Carteret at 3:30 is postponed. It has been suddenly realized that we have no baseball field.

Students: Please do not park your cars on Louis Street. Use teachers' parking lot.

Bids for the Junior Prom will go on sale today at 3:20. Bring your birth certificate, drivers license, description of your car, registration, social security card. . . . Better bring your autobiography.

Seniors: Please do not congregate on the front steps. Underclassmen find it hard getting through the front door!

Tryouts for the Senior play are open to everyone but Seniors. Report to the auditorium at 3:20 and bring your underclassman card.

As of April 26 there will be no more heat in the school (As if we ever had any)!

Students have voted July 2 as teachers' day. Teachers will then take complete control of their classes.

Note to teachers: One hour parking meters will be installed in the faculty parking lot next week. All overtime cars will be towed away.

We the class of 1965 being of sound mind and body do leave:

- . . . A set of neckties and an acre of land in Buttsville to Mr. Farrell.
- . . . A year's supply of razor blades to Mr. Tomczuk.
- . . . Mr. Fernstrom still looking for Ed Kinish and Selma Wheeler.
- . . . Mr. Gonczlik a drawing board.
- . . . Mrs. Mosca answering those senior's questions.
- . . . Mr. Gilrain still saying, "Pay the price."
- . . . Mrs. Salvatoriello trying to organize a yearbook staff.
- . . . Mr. Rozzelle a stuffed bell.
- . . . Mr. Esposito his fondest wish, a college prep class.
- . . . Mr. Nelson hollering.
- . . . Stationery for French notes to Mr. Clancy.
- . . . Mr. Salvatoriello and Mrs. Hajkowski cleaning up the lab.
- . . . A book on communism by J. E. Hoover for Mr. Szigeti.
- . . . Miss Kennedy a "Silence" sign for the library.
- . . . The athletic department paying for Bill Slivka's doctor bills.
- . . . Mr. Gasior telling the seniors not to worry.
- . . . Mr. Feula???
- . . . Miss Hila waiting for Honor Society book covers.
- . . . Mr. Miglecz hoping for a baseball field.
- . . . Mrs. Gerek with a clean homeroom.
- . . . Mrs. Shyers trying.
- . . . Miss Wilson still trying to cure "Senioritis."
- . . . Mr. King and Mr. O'Donnell happy.
- . . . These hallowed halls.

...and we leave YOU!!
