OF SPLENDOUR in the grass, of glory

in the flower;

We will grieve not, rather find

Strength in what remains behind:

In the primal sympathy

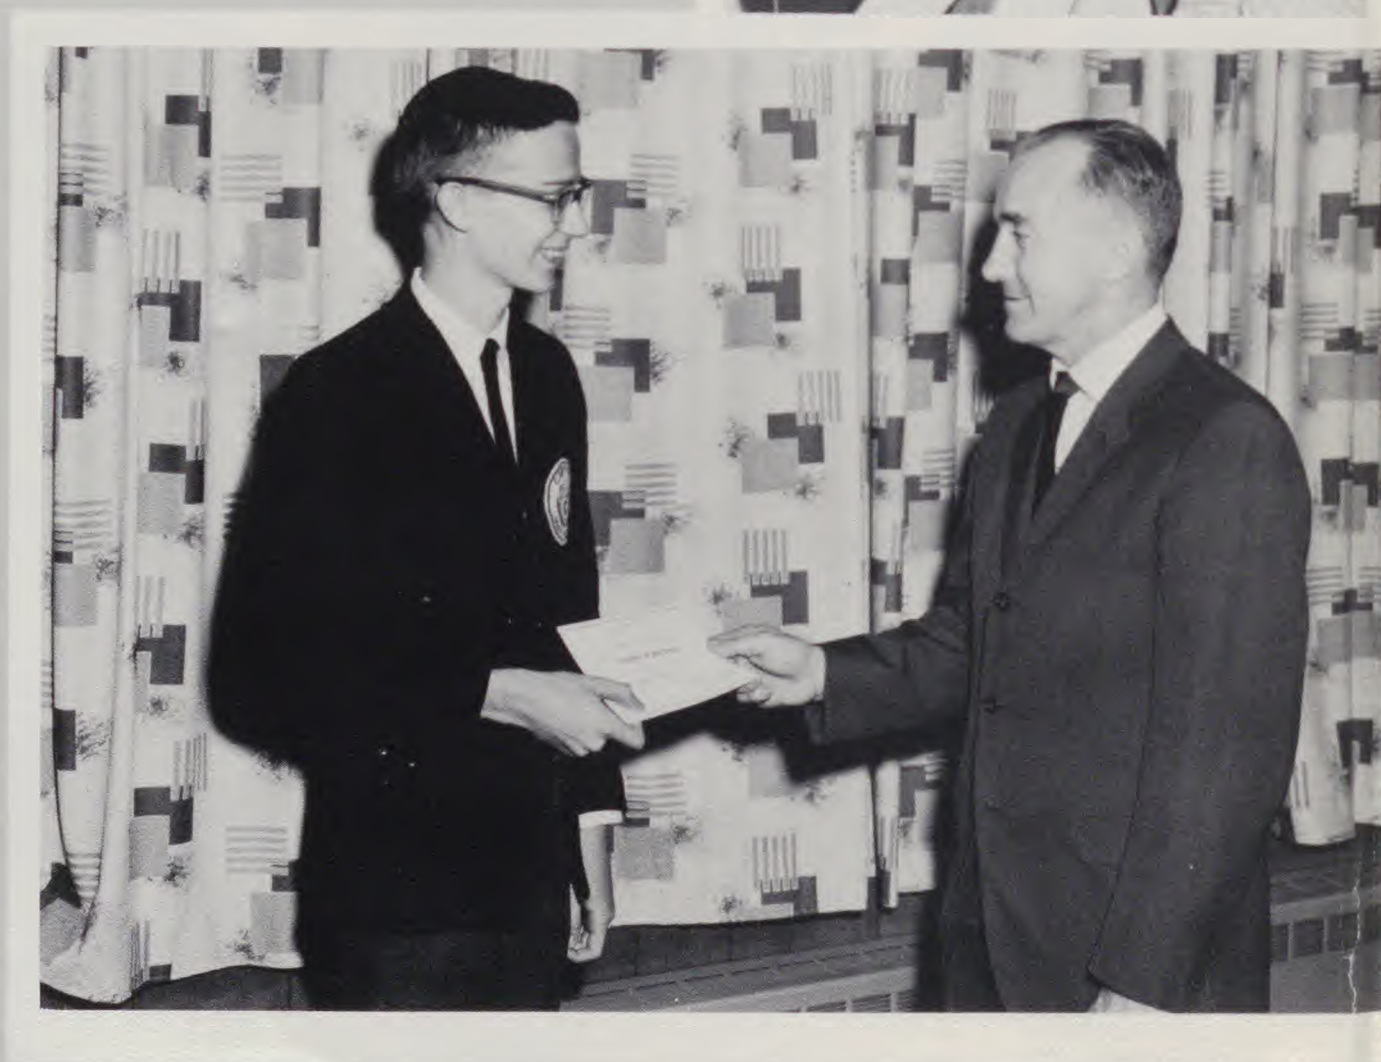

Which having been must ever be;

In the soothing thoughts that spring

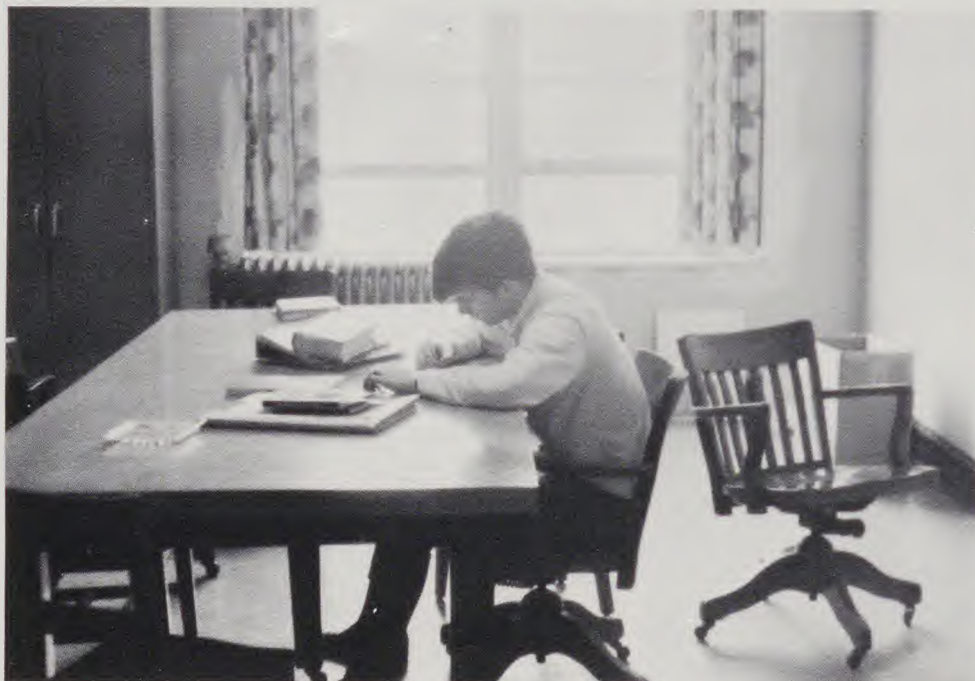

Out of human suffering.

In the faith that looks through death.

In years that bring the philosophic mind.

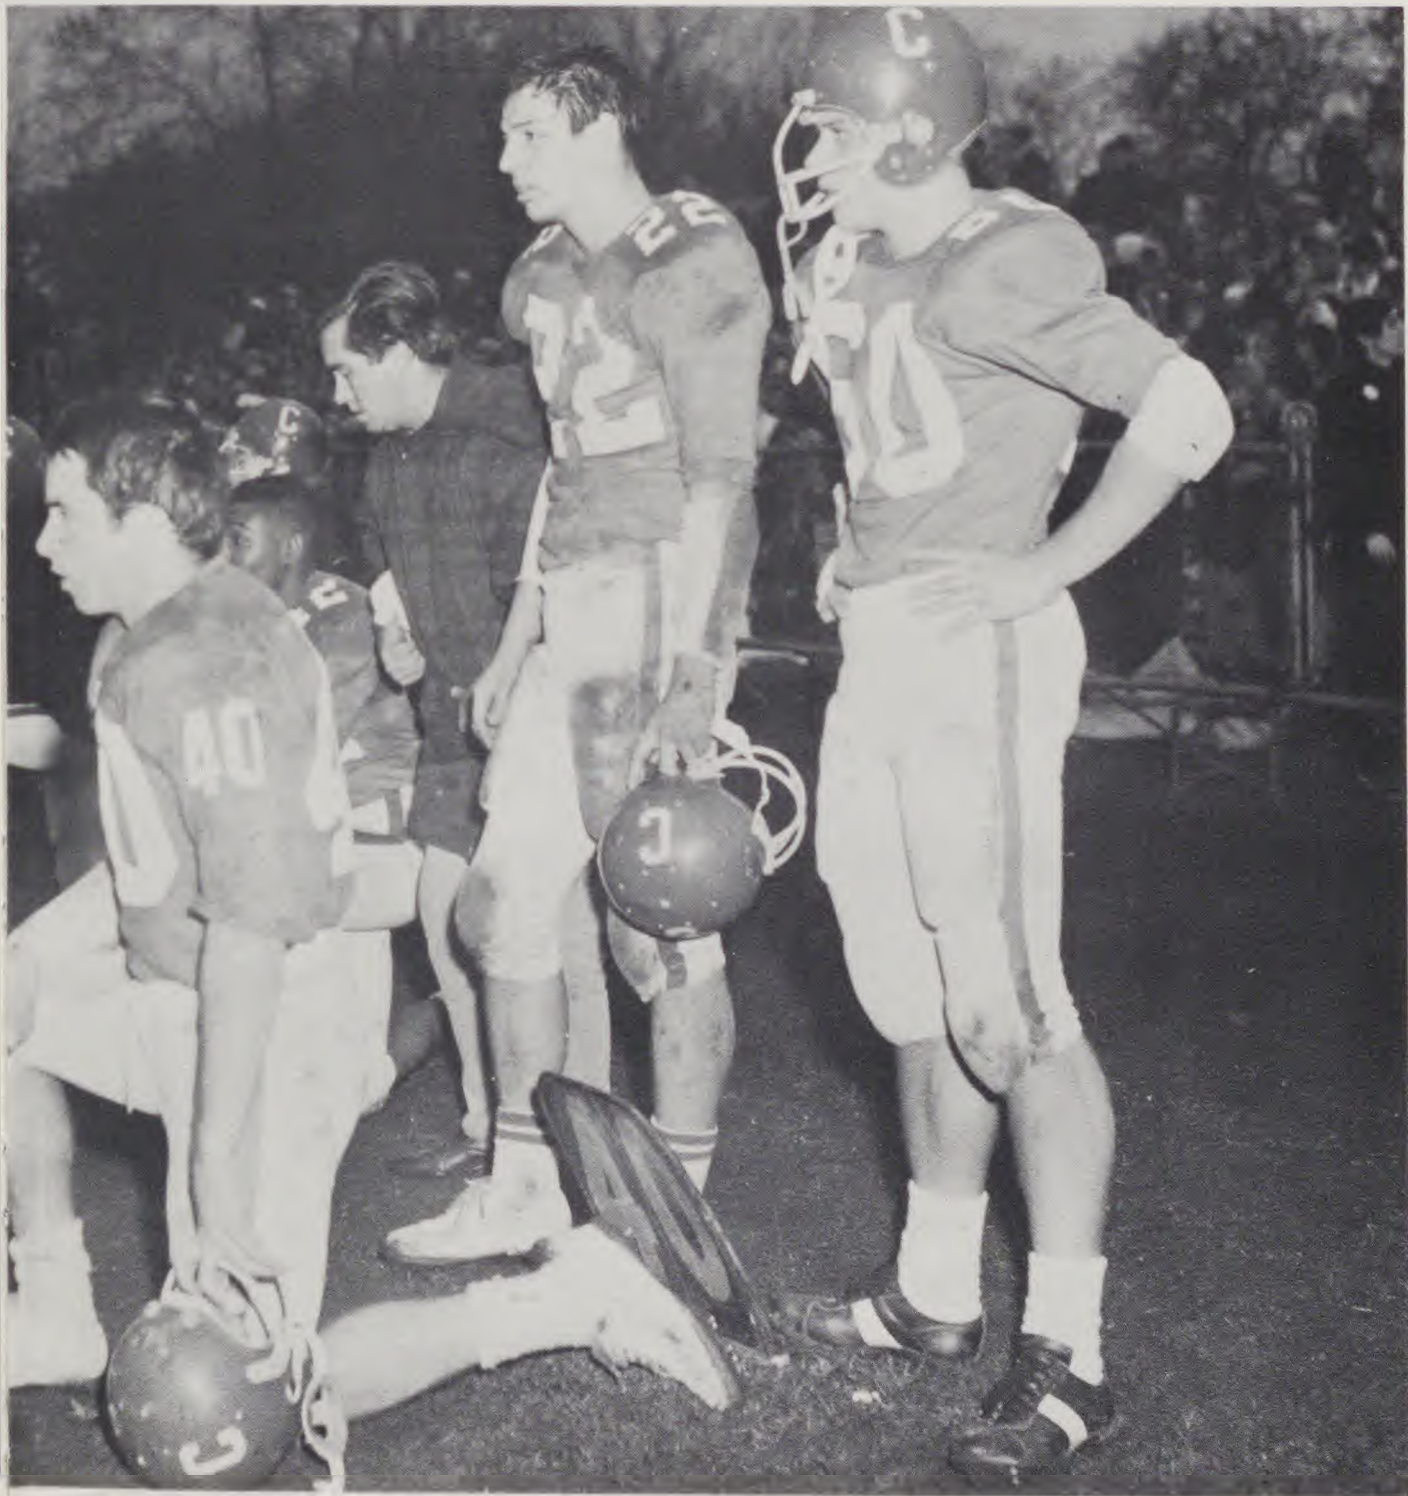

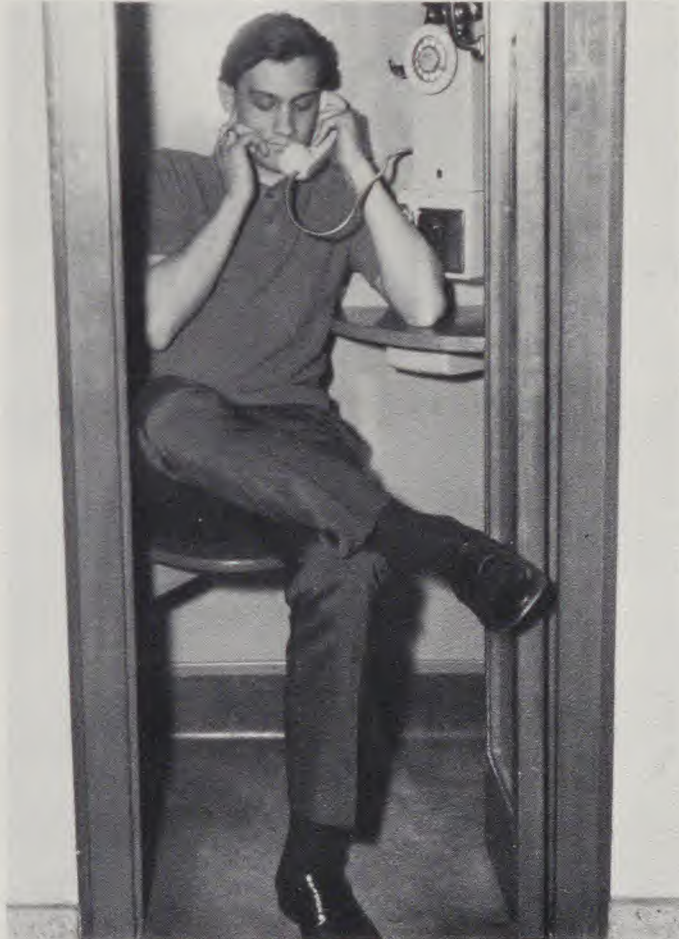

There was a time when meadow, grove, and stream,
The earth and every common sight
To me did seem
Apparelled in celestial light,
The glory and the freshness of a dream.
It is not now as it hath been of yore;—
Turn wheresoe'er I may,
By night or day,
The things which I have seen I now see no more.

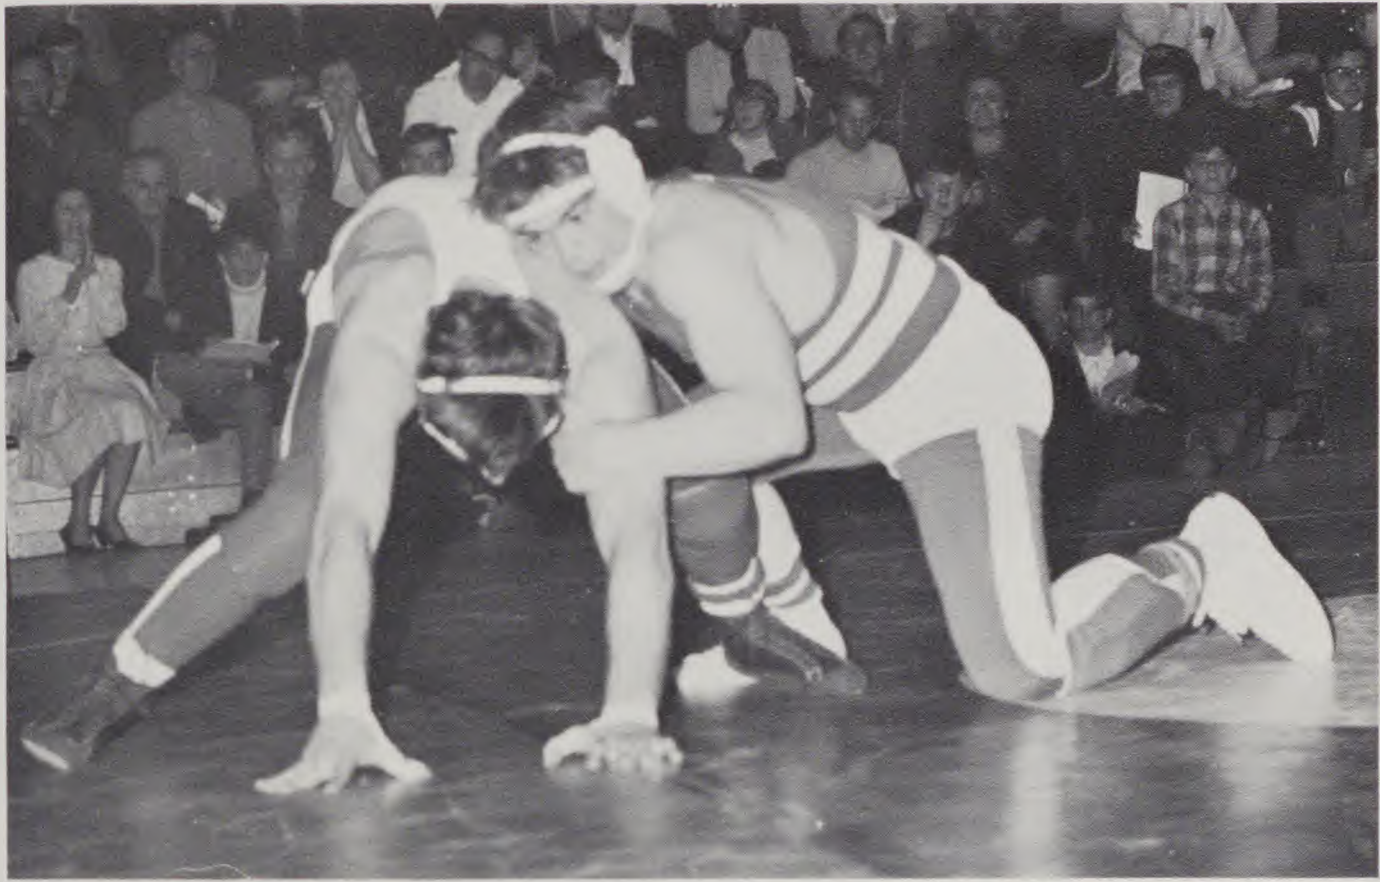

—WORDSWORTH

SENIORS

NOTHING CAN BRING BACK THE HOUR of our reign as Seniors. For three long years we struggled onward in the hope of someday becoming Seniors. The hours we spent as such were filled with laughter and heartache, triumph and defeat, hope and despair. We cherished the hours of living together, for we learned to give a part of ourselves to each other. By giving a part of ourselves, we received everlasting memories of Senior year. This hour has passed. We must now look ahead to a new hour, knowing that we can never forget our former glories.

Class History

Nothing can bring back the hour of September 1965. Our humble Freshman status offered us an air of often-forgotten importance. We entered Carteret High with fear and with hope. Our fear was for the unexpected—our hope for a new future. We were like babies learning to walk—struggling. We needed leaders to guide us through those first uncertain hours. John Spoganetz was chosen as our able President. He was aided by Vice-President Peter Spewak, Secretary Susan Szakacs, and Treasurer Gloria Wilk. Four hundred inexperienced Freshmen offered them support. Mr. William Olear and Miss Margot McGurn provided our class with the knowledge and experience it lacked. Our lone venture of Freshman year was the successful spring dance, "Surfin' Surfari." Our Freshman year ended with a feeling of accomplishment. We had passed the hour of being lowly Freshmen.

Sophomore year widened our spectre of experiences. Desmond Abazia, Terry Rheinhardt, Barbara Stemkowski, and Lynette Hamara guided the Class of '69 through a second profitable year. We danced at our "Winter Carousel" in January and washed cars for the Junior Prom in May. But more importantly, we worked and we dreamed. Our class was no longer a toddling baby. It had learned how to walk, how to work, and how to conquer.

Junior year marked the dawning of a new era. Led by Mary Lynne Keating, John Demeter, Kathy Weltner, and Kevin Knight, we were now upperclassmen. On January 9 we walked proudly through these hallowed halls. Our Junior rings had arrived. No longer was there any doubt as to our status in the school. We had achieved a place for our class. Under the supervision of William Olear and Judith Shuster, we conducted another successful dance and cake sale which supplemented our swelling treasury. Paula Costanzo, Linda Kish, and Gary Hoos emerged as thespians in our Junior Play, "Lil Abner." The highlight of our Junior year came on April 17 with the long-awaited prom, "The Impossible Dream," held at Diamond Jim's in Matawan. Thus, Junior year ended at the hour of success. The final hour yet awaited us.

The final hour began with the election of Mary Lynne Keating, Robert Mester, Kathy Weltner, and Kevin Knight as our dynamic leaders. William Olear and Margaret Sutto advised us in our final hour. Our pace was now no longer a baby's crawl. The Class of '69 surged ahead in achievement. We had gained a long-sought prestige as Seniors. Our November dance, "Thanksgiving Is . . .", was another success. Our Thanksgiving turkey was all the sweeter after a Rambler victory over Perth Amboy. It definitely was "The Year of the Ramn." In February, our class again proved its athletic ability. The Seniors again emerged as the victors, this time of the Interclass Basketball Tournament. The profits from our October candy sale enabled us to embark on a three-day tour of Washington, D.C. on March 5, 6, and 7. Upon our return the Senior Play was scheduled on our agenda. Seniors again displayed their resourceful talents in "Bye Bye Birdie" on March 14 and 15. Miss Joan Bressman and Mr. John Sotak devoted many long hours in making the play a successful production.

Our last month together began with the Senior Dinner Dance on June 2. We dined and danced at the Shackamaxon Country Club in Scotch Plains. It was a night for laughing. Our baccalaureate services were held on a sunny Sunday afternoon. It was an afternoon for meditating upon past experiences.

As we walked across the grassy football field on graduation night, we realized that we were no longer babies learning to walk. Our footsteps never faltered. Our heads never fell. The only signs of insecurity or fear were a tear in our eyes, a wavering in our voices, and a subtle ache in our hearts. We were sure of only one important thing—nothing could bring back the hour of splendour in the grass.

ACTIVITIES

NOTHING CAN BRING BACK THE HOURS devoted to numerous high school activities. We divided our moments among tutoring, singing scales, painting posters, decorating gyms, and baking cakes. Crowded into a busy day were the hours of working—working for a club, a class, or a friend. We devoted our time and talents with the thought of our school foremost in our minds and hearts. Although the hour of our activities is gone, the self-satisfaction we gained in participating in school affairs still lingers.

NOTHING CAN BRING BACK THE HOUR of our hard-earned victories and heart-breaking defeats. The hour for woolen mittens and benchwarmers as we watch our team score touchdowns has passed. We have seen a basketball player fighting for a rebound, a wrestler struggling for a pin, (we have seen) a home run, a tennis match, a hole-in-one, and a running track star. The hour of high school sports has faded into the background. The turmoil and excitement we experienced will never fade.
