LOUDSPEAKER 1971

Editor's Note

What is the function of a yearbook? Primarily, it is just a book published by the graduating class of a high school or college. It contains photographs of class members and commemorates school activities, studies, and athletics. However, is a yearbook just that, a book? A yearbook IS people, faces, emotions . . . YOU tell the story. You, the students of Carteret High School, put new dimension into the personality of your school. Without people, a yearbook has no function.

In order to convey that story, a theme or a continuing central idea, is needed to clarify and show depth and meaning to the year. Therefore, the Loudspeaker Literary Staff has selected the theme of "Traces . . . "

Upon graduation, the Seniors of Carteret High School will begin a new chapter in the story of man. Only by tracing back in time and by reference to their yearbook, can they pause and reflect on the days at Carteret High. The 1971 Yearbook Staff has encased four cherished years into a lasting memory by selecting the theme "Traces . . . " It is with the intention of illuminating the recollection of the past that we have created this year's Loudspeaker.

ROBERT J. DOPKO

TRACES . . .

Life . . . the universal concept of human existence.

Death . . . the end of life.

Time . . . the interval between life and death.

We exist!

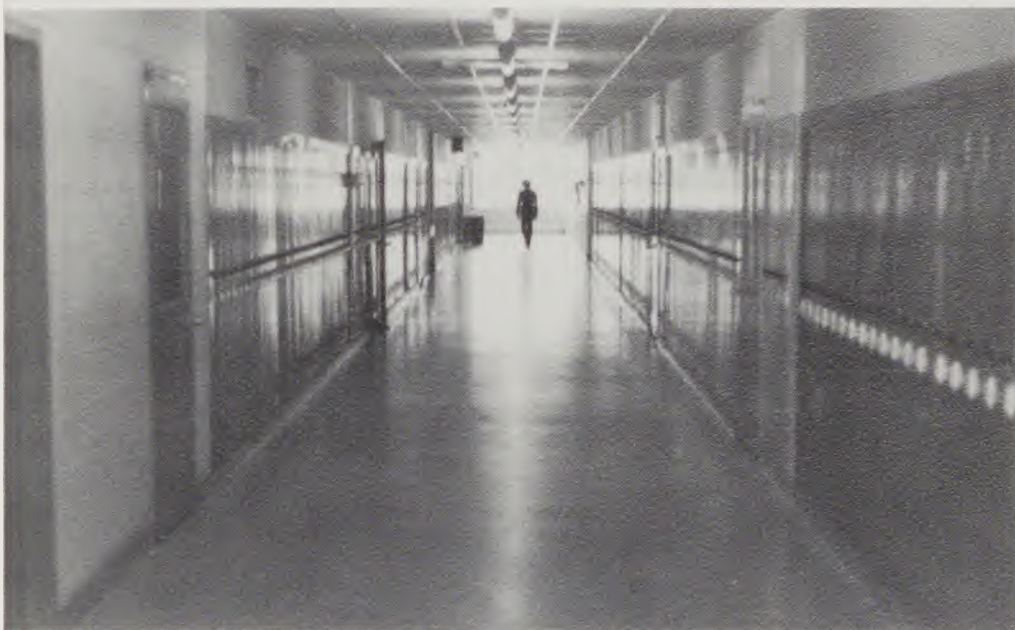

We behold the last stages of life.

Pause and reflect.

The essence of the past lingers within . . . traces of entity.

Loudspeaker

Carteret High School

Continue . . .

Mankind endures, maintains, retains.

*We are a part of that uninterrupted multitude
... aware of an environment ... an awakening of being.*

Yesterday comes but once. Tomorrow always anew.

Today is now . . . at this time We exist; and time is our only enemy.

1971

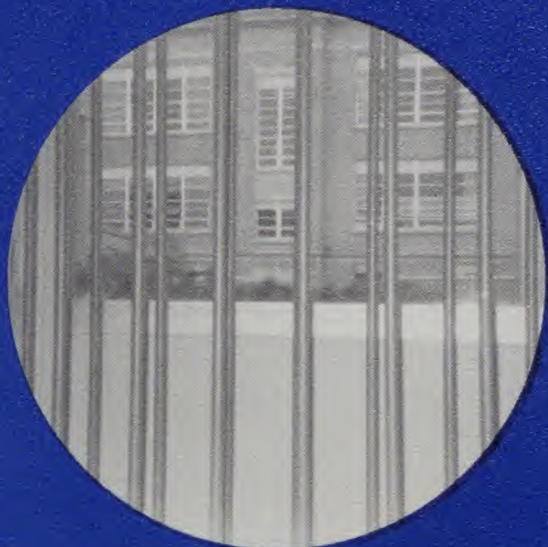

Traces of places . . .

A place of direction and order . . .

but . . . in the midst of confusion . . .

simplicity is comforting.

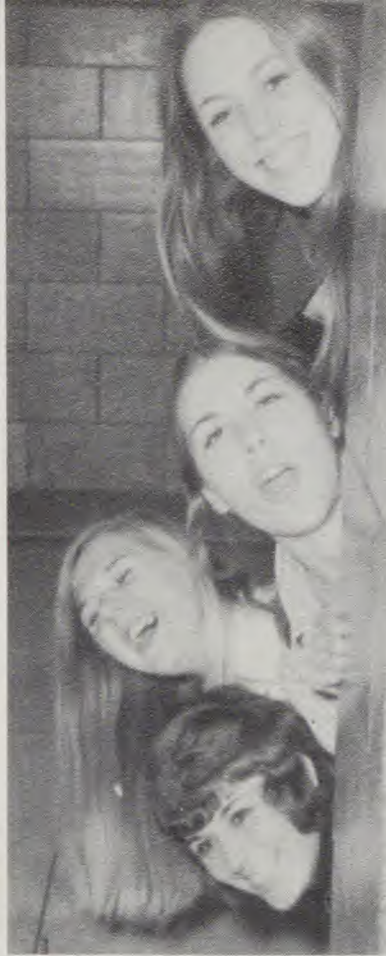

*As day turns into night . . .
confusion passes . . .
rendering solitude.*

Traces
of faces . . .

*Expressions of Feeling, Spirit, and Character . . .
Emotions . . . Essence of Awareness, Life, and Reality.*

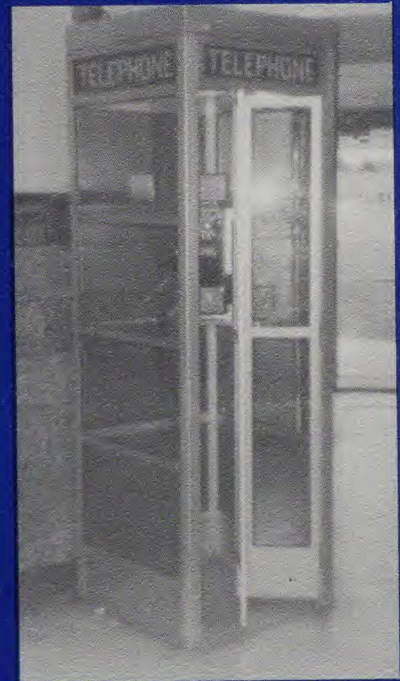

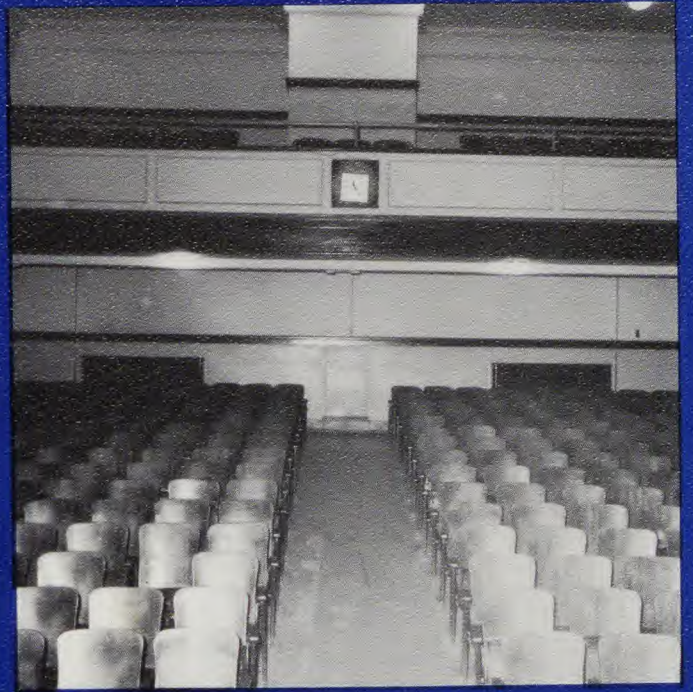

Traces of spaces . . .

an empty place . . .

time allowed for a purpose . . .

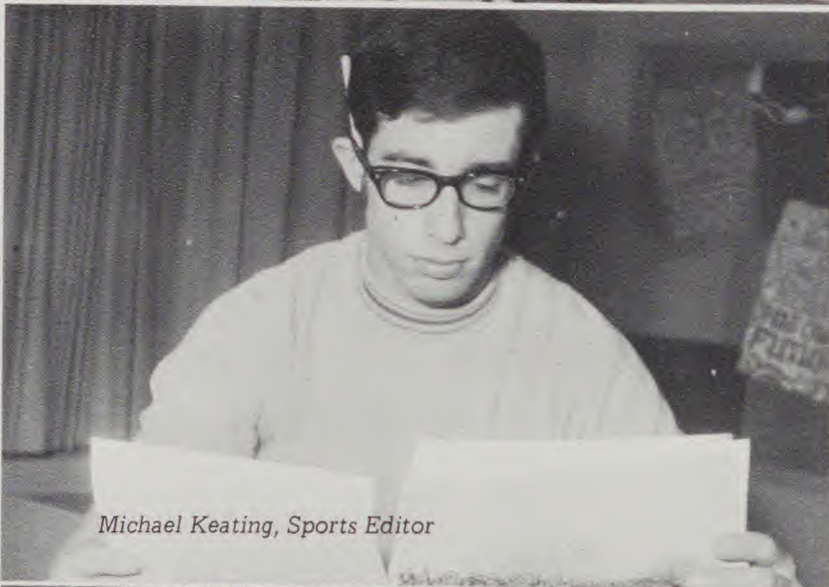

*unlimited silence . . .
extending in all directions . . .*

Class History

Traces of time . . . of hopes and dreams and silent fears. Traces of past years set back in the distance as the dawn of new memories have become a part of our present lives; we, in our time of glory, can look back at our four years with new awareness.

A trace in time . . . the time was September, 1968. Uncertain Freshmen, we sought our acceptance in a world flanked by upper classmen. There was a long struggle ahead, but we were well guided. Able leaders were chosen to take the first necessary steps for us. They were Mary Kaskiw, President; Michael Keating, Vice President; Linda Lynch, Secretary; and Cheryl Huber, Treasurer. Mr. Walsh and Mrs. Checki advised and guided us. New horizons were opened to us: Clubs, dances, sports, elections, schedules, and unique friendships made lasting impressions. The initial year was only a partial awakening . . .

After a nervous but successful Freshman year, we found ourselves beginning our Sophomore year. Our chosen class officers President, Philip Guiliano; Vice President, Cheryl Darowski; Treasurer, Josephine Gago; and Secretary, Linda Lynch provided able leadership, along with Mrs. Checki and Mr. Walsh. We held a cake sale, along with our successful dance "Cloud Nine." After selling refreshments at the football scrimmages, no one could doubt the Class of 71's enthusiastic school spirit. We were undoubtedly well on our way.

Junior year we accepted a new role— that of upperclassmen in a quest of success. Michael Keating, President; Daniel Dempsey, Vice President; Linda Lynch, Secretary; and Josephine Gago, Treasurer helped make it our third successful year. Our class thespians made their debuts in the Junior Play, "Curtain Going Up" on December 11 and 13. The production was under the creative direction of Mr. John Sotak. We received, as a symbol of newly acquired "status" our Junior rings in January.

In an April dream, our Junior Prom, "A Time For Us," was held at the Seven Arches in Perth Amboy. April 2 will always hold fond remembrances. Our Junior dance "Spirit of the 60's" was a night tinted with memories of years gone by. Squaring our shoulders for the expectations that lie ahead, we now impatiently awaited our last memorable year . . .

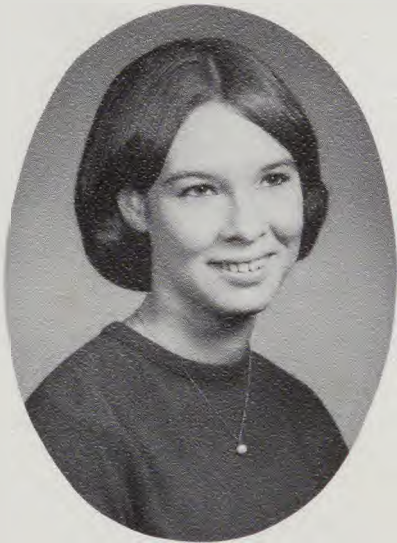

Senior year opened the door of challenges. At last, attaining our goal, we had reached the threshold of our future and our entrance into the adult world. Success was ours, starting with the Senior candy sale, which helped to finance our trip to Washington, D.C. on March 24,25,26.

Our boys in blue and white jerseys brought us down the path to victory with a 7-1-1 season in football. Winning and victorious, game after game, we became the Garden State Conference Champs, an honor to be long remembered.

On April 2,3, and 4, the Senior Class proudly presented the musical comedy, "Damn Yankees," under the direction of Mr. Anthony Spaldo and Mrs. Joan Snider. The play was an exhibition of much creative talent.

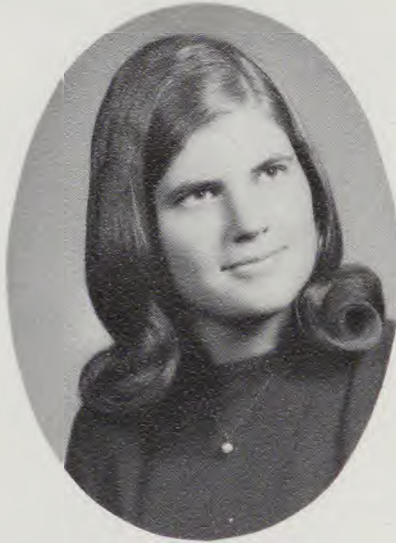

Enchantment was a dream come true on June 3rd at the Manor in West Orange, where the Senior Dinner Dance was held. All too quickly, the final day in our train of memories was approaching in the distance, and we began to realize that soon they would only be traces.

When that day came, we held our heads high and walked across a grassy field on a quiet day in June.

At first glance, the definition of what a principal is seems direct, concise, and simple. However, a principal is not just a figurehead. Every student, teacher, and administrator has become aware of the inspiring job that Mr. Douglas King is doing. He appears direct in his authority, concise in his decisions, and simple in his sincerity, honesty, and understanding.

Beneath the complexity of his outward appearance, Mr. King possesses the patience, self-reliance, and will necessary to work efficiently with teacher and student alike. Between the innocence of infancy and the dignity of maturity, one falls under the influence of many dedicated individuals. One such individual is Mr. Douglas King.

The educational trek of a high school student is one of advancement and awareness. Self-betterment is the end result of long, tedious hours of studying, reading, writing, researching, and listening. Depending on what curriculum is selected by each individual, his gamut of ideas will be projected within that spectrum.

The emotional, mental, and physical transformation of a mature human being from an unorientated Freshman is the ultimate result of educational awareness.

How is this change possible? Due to the dedicated efforts of the vital Guidance Department — the gateway to knowledge — each student has the opportunity to obtain the key to open the gateway directing him to his destiny.

The goal of the English Department is to increase the four communication skills of reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Students at Carteret High have the unique opportunity of choosing which of these important skills they wish to emphasize in their academic career. A student may select one or more courses in the areas of Poetry, Drama, Novel, Research and Writing, thus enabling him to have a variety of English courses during a single school year.

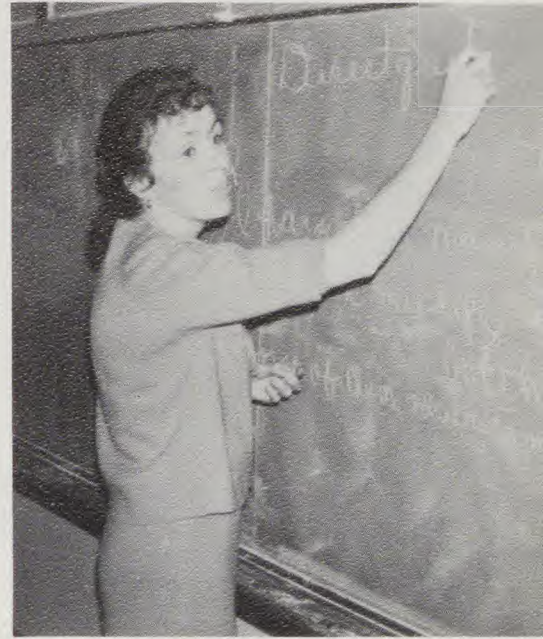

Although this semester program is presently in effect for college prep students only, it is the hope of the English Department that a similar program will be initiated for all students.

The Business Department has a multi-purpose in the educational process. The first aspect is to develop the vocational skills of a student which will prepare him to either secure employment after graduation or to further his business education in a specialized area. Students are equipped with the necessary potentials, knowledge, and attitudes for achieving success in initial employment and advancement in responsible positions.

The other aspect of the business department is basic general business education, which provides students with the knowledge to manage their personal business affairs and to solve intelligently economic problems which they will encounter in our society.

The History Department of Carteret High School sets their objectives at developing: an awareness of heritage, an analysis of the present, and an insight into the future. New courses added to the curriculum are: Contemporary Problems – centering around student-selected areas of interest, Latin American Afro-Asian Cultures – whose main thrust is to broaden the non-western cultural orientation of the student, and A Revised American History II – for senior students centered around a problem approach to current affairs.

The goal of the department is to instill in each of its students the ability to recognize and appreciate our heritage, to be aware of our current complex society and to encourage the individual student to seek answers to our problems.

Teachers come in assorted sizes, weights, and colors. They have various interests, hobbies, religions, and beliefs; but they share one creed: To help each child to reach the highest possible degree of personal development.

The teacher is a composite. A teacher must have the energy of a harnessed volcano, the efficiency of an adding machine, the memory of an elephant, the understanding of a psychiatrist, the wisdom of Solomon, the tenacity of a spider, the patience of a turtle trying to cross the freeway in rush-hour traffic, the decisiveness of a general, the diplomacy of an ambassador, and the financial acumen of a Wall Street Wizard.

The most amazing thing about a teacher is that he would not trade jobs with anyone he knows. He likes to teach.

A teacher may possess beauty, or grace, or skill; but most certainly, he must possess love – a deep abiding love of, and respect for, children individually and en masse.

The language program has offerings for all students in Latin, French, Spanish and German. Studying modern foreign languages fosters in students an understanding and love of the history, culture, and civilization of other people and the relationship these aspects have on them.

Listening, speaking, reading, and writing a language enables a student to understand more elaborately the relationship our native language has with them. The teachers on our language staff are the channels through which students receive the knowledge associated with language learning.

Desire + Pride = 1

Mountains of size and strength cannot measure up to one hill of courage; it was this little hill of courage that provided the impetus for the 7-1-1 season of the 1970 C.H.S. Football Squad. The season opened with four unsuccessful scrimmages, which did not tear the team apart, but actually unified them. This was team effort, primarily led by fourteen seniors, driven by the will to win.

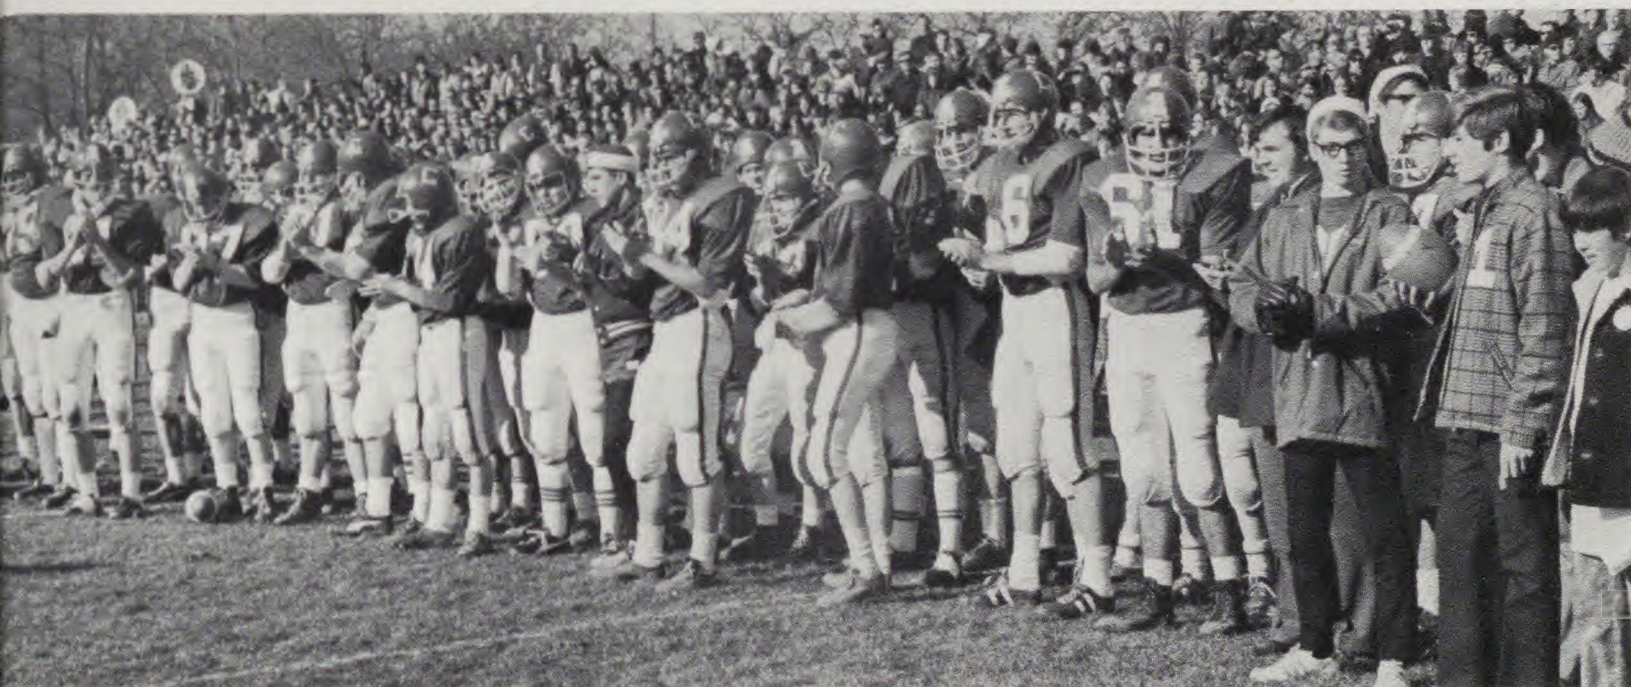

The first two games were played in the blistering heat of late September. The two conference favorites, Rumson and Roselle Park did not alter nor abolish plans for winning the conference. Each team was defeated, 13-8 and 20-8, respectively. The third and fourth games were against Metuchen and Roselle, two other conference rivalries. Carteret pulled through again with 33-6 and 14-0 victories, giving the team an undefeated record going into the fifth game. The only defeat of the season was against Matawan 14-6. The defeat injured the pride but only increased the desire.

The two most eventful games were the Highland Park and Woodbridge games. Highland Park, a 7-year old nemesis, was vying for the conference title, and Woodbridge was a strong Group 4 team out to run over Carteret with a fifteen game winning streak. The challenge was great and the team accepted. They had to be stopped!

Carteret played their hearts out in the Highland Park game, which was perhaps the most emotional game ever. Hitting, hurting, and halting, Highland Park was defeated 12-7 on a last two-minute touchdown by the driving Roadrunners. Happiness radiated from the team members as they carried Coach Gilrain from the field. The toughness of the Wolfpack again pulled together a fine game against Woodbridge and, with the aid of another thrilling two minutes to go touchdown by the Roadrunners, an 8-7 victory was claimed. Two great games back to back!

Clifford Scott, the last home game of the season and the last home game ever for fourteen seniors, was a pounding triumph of 30-0. The last game was a heart-breaking 6-6 tie with Perth Amboy as the traditional Thanksgiving Day game. As the team sat outside the locker room, the words of Coach Gilrain lingered in their minds: "You are the finest bunch of men I have ever had the pleasure of coaching. Let us thank God for the successful season that we have had and always remember that one is never too almighty to get down on his knees to thank God."

The past seven years at Carteret High School have been special. Music is the universal language and Mrs. Joan Snider has taught her choirs how to speak to the world. Her friendly smile and warm personality made the C.H.S. combined choirs one of the highlights of our school years. Not only has Mrs. Snider served in the capacity of musical co-ordinator, but she has also demonstrated her talents in assisting in the production of many of the school musicals. Her sincere devotion will be missed by both student and faculty alike.

"A Little Brains, a Little Talent . . ."

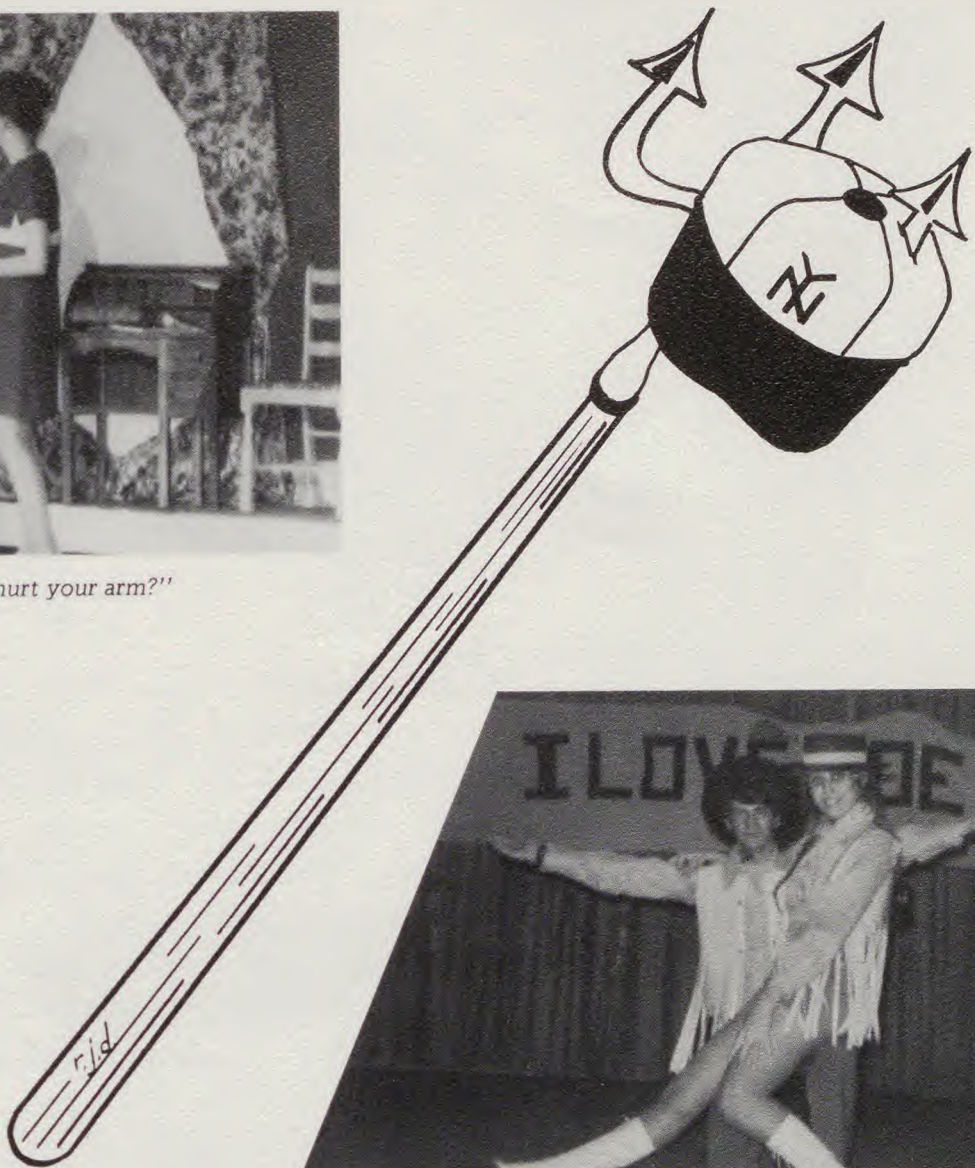

"Six months out of every year . . ."

"Look out Tom Jones, here comes the new sex symbol of Carteret High!"

"Was he trying to loosen you up, did he hurt your arm?"

"Who's Got the Pain?"

"And you can put that in your newspaper!"

"The lights were low and she slipped off her dress."

... Traces of the Final Curtain ...

*Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.
It was but yesterday we met in a dream.
You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.
But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over,
and it is no longer dawn.
The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream
we shall build another tower in the sky.*
