The word "renaissance" is a term derived from the French renaitre, meaning "to be born again". Within the pages of the yearbook of 1974, this Renaissance takes on an extended, contemporary connotation. The Renaissance of today is captured in the expressions of the Class of 1974 as the vitality and eager determination of an entire generation born to a new, modern age of enlightenment.

One goal of this enlightened age is the fulfillment of the human mind: the full development of both mental and spiritual faculties in the individual. It is the goal, then, of this yearbook to illustrate this same development in the students of Carteret High. No longer sheltered by the confines of a close-knit peer group, the individual graduate is now free to incorporate his own new philosophies into the world around him.

Through the emphasis of the unique world of new opportunity that faces the young it is hoped that their youthful qualities and hopes may not be abandoned at the threshold of maturity, but rather be brought to fruition with the passing years. It is in the preservation of the idealism and vigor of our youth that we, as a generation, may find the courage and fortitude to develop a new and better world of the future.

Julie Jacobs

We learn to think differently every day of our lives. Whether we travel after graduation, enter a vocation, or expand our knowledge, we hope to awake one morning with a new depth and understanding unlike anyone else in the world.

In essence, we will be re-born. Our sense of awareness will become extremely acute. And as the youth of America, it is our responsibility to bring about certain changes within our society. Then will the youth support their true ideas and goals — the goals of being a knowledgeable and interested generation.

Graduation does not end the last chapter of our lives. New novels shall be written. We must allow our dreams to survive and make them a reality because we must shape our own futures and determine what is best for ourselves.

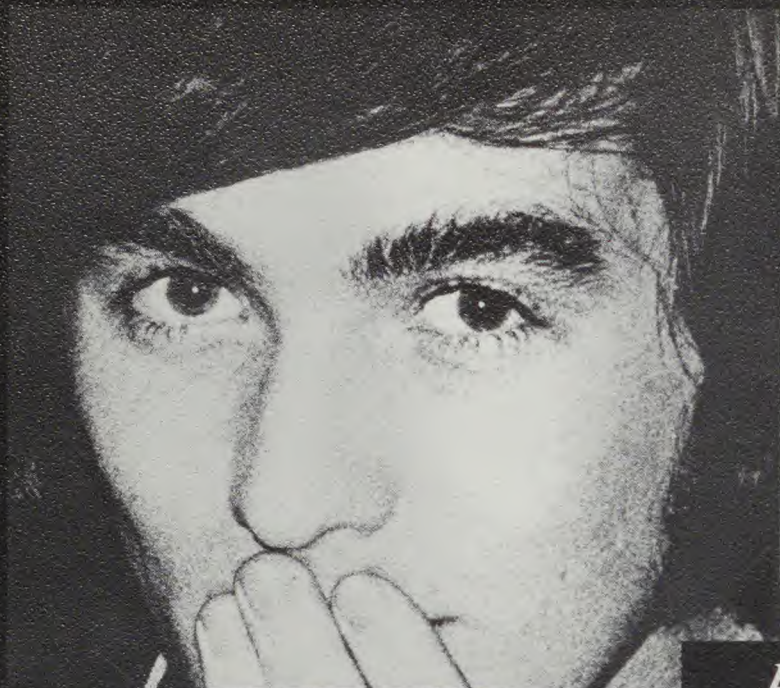

We are our hope. Intelligent and mature individuals, we can break out of the mold, change from within, and use the change to our advantage.

Jean King

*The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide;
Above the world is stretched the sky,
No higher than the soul is high.
The heart can push the sea and land
Farther away on either hand;
The soul can split the sky in two,

In remembrance of Mrs. Julia Hila

An individual of countless talents and seemingly inexhaustible energy, Mrs. Julia Hila has played a fundamental role in the advancement of the school system of Carteret. Before her untimely death on September 2, 1973, Mrs. Hila had served on the Carteret Board of Education for a total of thirteen years. In addition to this post, she served as Secretary of the Borough Planning Board, past President of the Carteret High School PTA, a member of various women's groups and an advisor to the St. Elias Catholic Youth Organization.

Mrs. Hila held a particular interest for the youth of this and other communities, and succeeded in bridging the chasm of the generations with rare ease and genuineness. To all those who knew her, she emitted an aura of friendliness and eagerness to further any and all causes of particular value to her church and community.

It is with a grateful remembrance and pride that we, the students of Carteret High School, pay tribute to a woman who embodied hopes and aspirations common to both the young and old of our community; a woman who possessed qualities of progressiveness and enlightenment to which we all strive.

In remembrance of Mrs. Marion Kelly

The loss of Miss Marion R. Kelly on March 2, 1974 inflicted all at Carteret High with a deep sense of sorrow and emptiness. A dilligent worker as well as an understanding counselor, Miss Kelly was well known to be both an asset and a joy to all those with whom she worked.

During her thirty-two years at Carteret High, Miss Kelly rose from teacher to guidance counselor and then to Director of Guidance.

There can be no doubt that the loss of Miss Kelly will leave its scar with her many close friends and associates at Carteret High. The absence of one so genuinely helpful and kind will never be totally forgotten.

Being a Homeroom Chairman, Library Assistant and Student Teacher and on the Loudspeaker Staff, Annscott News, Varsity Choir, F.B.L.A., Drama Club, Tennis Team, Jr.-Sr. Play and Decorating Committees made "Kat" a great asset to the Class of '74. She plans to become a stewardess and travel around the world.

Thomas Joseph Walsh

"TOM"

An active member of the Yearbook staff, Tom exhibited his vocal talents with the Varsity Choir. His membership in the F.T.A. is an indication of his desire to become a special education teacher.

Keith T. Ward

"WARDY"

"Live free or die."

Keith's desire to live life to its fullest will be a stimulus to his college career.

Deborah Lynn Ward

"FARMER"

Debbie was our Junior and Senior Class treasurer, a Cheerleader, a Soccer Manager, and joined the Unkle Ramn Society, the Spanish Club, Christmas decoration and dance committees, the Gym Show and Girls' Track. She plans to be a lab technician.

Marilyn Deborah Wein

"MAR"

"The most useless day of all is that in which we have not laughed."

Marilyn played tuba and flute in the C.H.S. Band. She was also the Band's vice president and secretary. She participated in the Ski Club, F.T.A. and the International Relations Club. Her future plans include college, where she will major in special education.

James Warren

"MONK"

Always seen helping around our school, James dedicated his time to Freshman Wrestling. He will diligently work on a truck platform and serve the community as a volunteer fireman.

Helen Warianka

"HELA"

"Let no one who loves be called altogether unhappy. Even love unreturned has its rainbow."

Helen was a participant in the fashion show and the Freshman Tea. Helen's goal is to live on a farm and to always see people smiling.

Gregory Joseph Werthwein IV

"HASHISH"

"Now is the time for the entire population to come together to form a new society."

Wendy Lou West

"WEND"

"Live for today, dream for tomorrow, learn from yesterday."

Wendy belonged to the F.B.L.A. and Spanish Club, and was on the staff of Le Reve. Wendy loves children and would like to work in a nursery school.

Robert J. Whittet, Jr.

"WIT"

"Winning isn't everything, but it sure beats losing."

Bob showed his leadership as president of the Varsity Club, and while at C.H.S. he was a Student Teacher and participated in Winter, Spring and Cross Country Track. Bob hopes to continue running track in college.

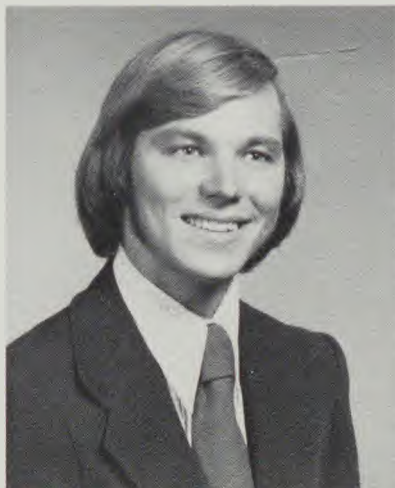

John Leo Wood

"WOODY"

"There comes a time when you must take the bull by the tail and face the situation."

John showed his athletic ability on Cross Country, Winter and Spring Track, and was active in the Camera Club, Annscott News, Yearbook Photo Editor, and Ski Club. College bound.

Roy E. Zemanovich

"There is no expedient to which a man will not resort to avoid the real labor of thinking."

Roy served as Science Club president and Annscott News Photo editor, as well as being an active member in the Photography Club, Loudspeaker staff, Ski Club, Cross Country and Tennis. Roy will attend college and pursue graduate study, hopefully leading to a career in research.

Nicholas Ziccardi

Nick participated in Freshman and Varsity Football, Freshman and Varsity Wrestling, J.V. and Varsity Baseball and Track, the Varsity Club and Interclass Night. He was also vice president of the Student Council and a Student Teacher.

Alexander Wood

"WOODY"

"Next to me I like B.V.D. best."

A real athlete, Alex excelled as a Varsity Tennis M.V.P. and as a Varsity Cross Country and Winter Track member. He belonged to the Camera Club, Ski Club, Yearbook staff, and Annscott News. A friendly and likeable senior, Alex's future plans include college and biology.

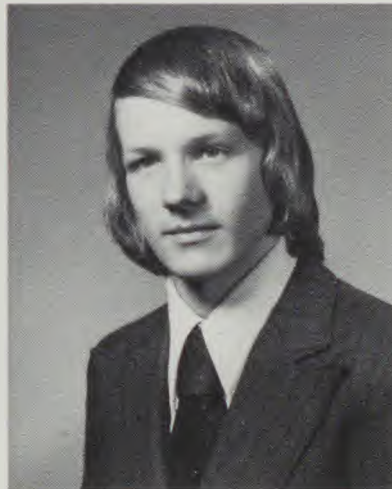

Joseph Anthony Zzeski

"ZAZESK"

"The gull that sees the farthest, flies the highest."

Joe was a member of the C.H.S. Soccer Team, Biology Club, Science Club, Latin Club, Ski Club and Le Reve. Plans after graduation include medical school.

Robert Russell Worden

Robert was a member of our football team. He plans on entering the field of computers.

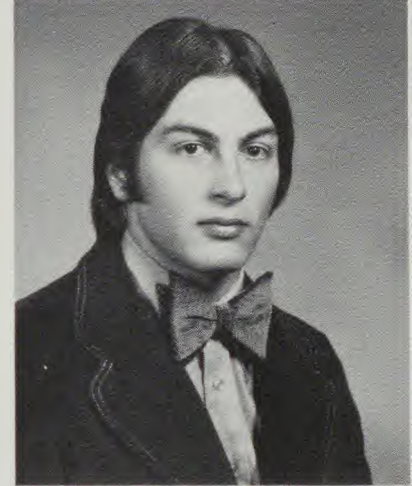

Joanne Wilgucki

"GUCK"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

In addition to being one of the C.H.S. Cheerleaders, Joanne was a member of the Unkle Ramn Society, Girls' Track Intramurals, participated in Interclass Night and was the Varsity Club secretary. Her future goal is to be a Registered Nurse.

Al Zima

"AL"

"Life is a fatal adventure. It can only have one end. So why not make it as far ranging and free as possible."

Eileen Annette Zita

"q"

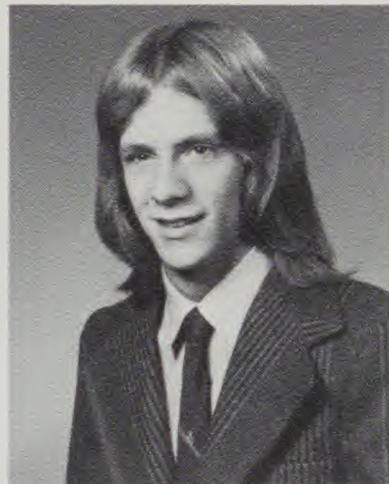

Eileen was on the Bowling Team, Decorating Committee. She plans to travel and meet new people, and hopes to someday become a store manager and enter the marketing field.

Kathryn Francis Zywiec

"KATH"

"How short our happy days appear; how long the sorrowful."

Kath was interested in gymnastics and was involved in Gymnastics Intramurals and in the Gym Show. She was also a member of the Track and Bowling Intramurals. A secretarial career and travel are her future ambitions.

Nicholas Raconza

Cheryl Appello

"CHE"

"You give but little when you give of your possessions; it is when you give of yourself that you truly give."

El Espanol seemed to be a field of interest to Cheryl during her High School years. She belonged to the Spanish Club and tutored Spanish. Cheryl plans to enter college and possibly become a C.P.A.

Camera Shy

Raymond Alena

"RAY"

Attendance at a small technical school will fill one of life's many goals.

Judy Bolte

Bernita Gillian

"NITA"

"Time is too slow for those who wait, too swift for those who fear, too long for those who grieve, too short for those who rejoice, but for those who love, time is eternity."

Nita's main goal in life is to become a sociologist.

Kathleen Hendricks

Bruce Hough

Class History

For most seniors of C.H.S., this year has been filled with emotional paradox. As seniors, we have reached the end of our high school days and await the experience of life outside the restriction of school and home. We feel the joy of the culmination of high school and feel the sadness of ending friendships.

We remember the past four years . . .

Freshman year, 1970, marked our orientation into the hectic routine of high school life. We elected class officers: Janet Lynch, President; Judy Thompson, Vice President; Kathie Giblin, Secretary and Bob Molarz, Treasurer. With our officers' leadership and the assistance of our Advisors, Mrs. Rafft and Mr. Watkins, we recognized the need for money and initiated our first activities: a dance entitled "Aquarius," and a freshman cake sale.

With the same officers leading the way Sophomore year, the need for funds was again evident. We sold pens and cakes and held our official "St. Patrick's Day Dance." With the close of Sophomore year came the transition from underclassmen to the prestige-filled position of upperclassmen.

Junior year offered many experiences as well as many changes. Mr. Cowan replaced Mr. Watkins as advisor, and we also had our first change of officers. Bob Molarz was now President and Debbie Ward was made Treasurer. The late arrival of our Junior Rings and the excitement of the Junior Prom brought the celebration of our being upperclassmen. Many students displayed their talents as Mr. Spaldo directed the Junior-Senior Play, "Bye-Bye Birdie." Others attacked the difficult college boards and enjoyed the new Distributive Education Program. We left school in June anticipating summer, yet also aware that we had but one more year at C.H.S.

Senior year, 1973. Mark Russo, President; Bud Burkhard, Vice President; Kathy Sabol, Secretary; Debbie Ward, Treasurer. Our advisor Mrs. Rafft was replaced by Mrs. Tomaino. With the exception of the traditional senior trip to Washington D.C., senior year ran smoothly and successfully. The Junior-Senior production of "Wonderful Town" was held in March, its success being followed by the senior candy sale, and our grand finale, the Senior Dinner Dance at the Shore Casino.

The completion of our four years at Carteret High has left us a wealth of memories, friendships and developed talents for our entrance into the world of tomorrow. As young adults it is our responsibility as well as our privilege to shape that world through the application of our developing, untapped potentials.

"The soul walks not upon a line, neither does it grow like a reed.

The soul unfolds itself, like a lotus of countless petals."

— Gibran

Julie

*"Such thanks
As fits a king's remembrance."
William Shakespeare*

It is with the utmost regret that the students and faculty of Carteret High School surrender to retirement a most devoted and respected member, Miss Helen Wilson.

Miss Wilson has served Carteret High first as a teacher of physical education and then as a guidance counselor. In addition to these duties, she has devoted free time to past Carteret High School plays and has coached the C.H.S. cheerleading squad. Altogether, Miss Wilson has devoted an astounding thirty-eight years toward the education of Carteret's youth.

A graduate of Savage School of Physical Education (now a part of New York University), Miss Wilson completed her post graduate work at Seton Hall University. Following retirement it is her plan to devote more time to personal interests too long neglected by the pressing duties of her former posts as teacher and counselor. Among these interests are the study of voice, art, the organ, gardening and Bible study.

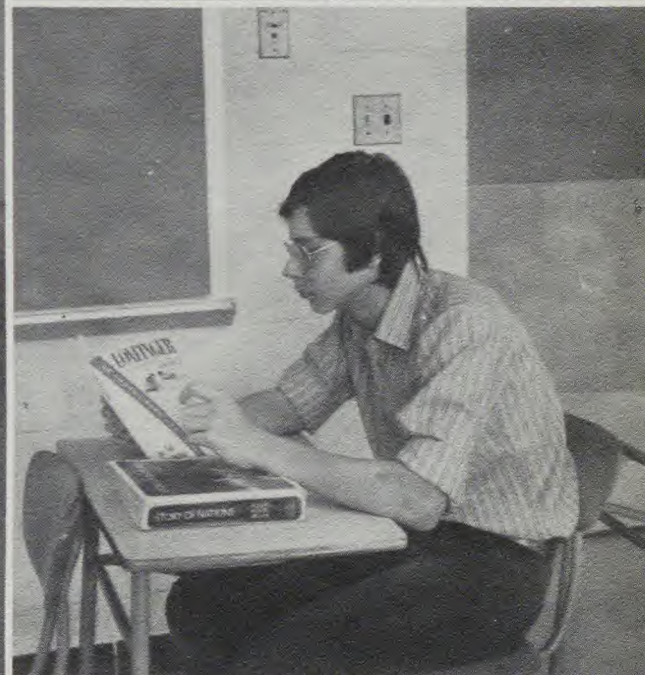

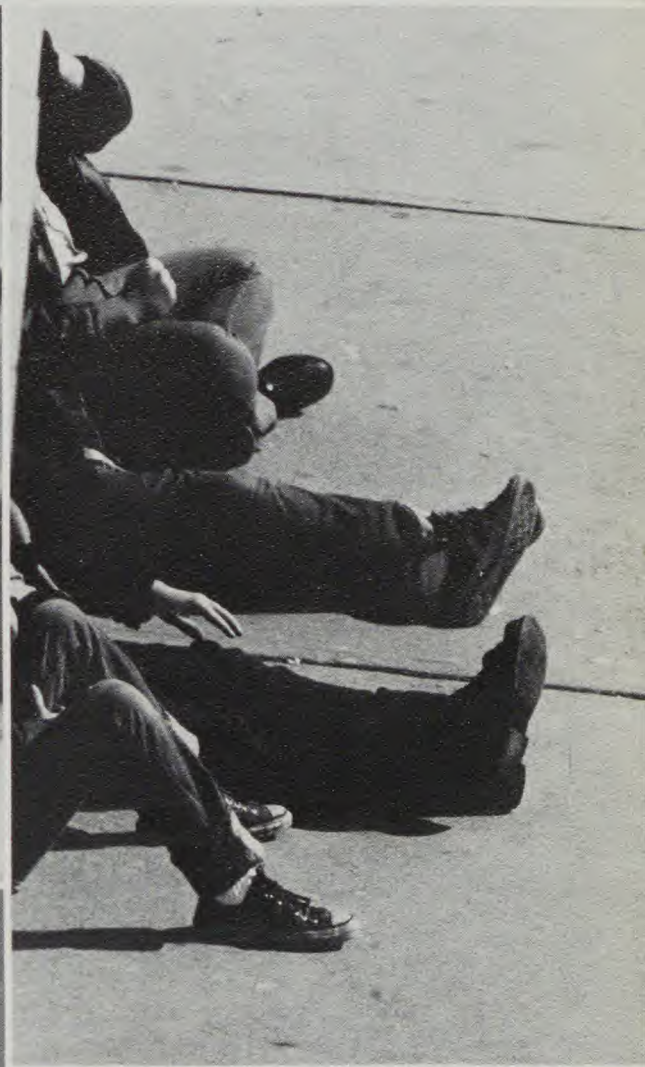

Miss Wilson, being a woman with great appreciation for people in general, has remarked that her most memorable and rewarding experience at C.H.S. has been her students, themselves. In remembering her students over the years, Miss Wilson happily described them as "simply delightful . . ."

Having been with C.H.S. for so many years, Miss Wilson has had a great opportunity for observing the many important changes in the structure of our youth. The youth of today, in her view, is opinionated but changeable, and is one of our most exciting future prospects. Many of her students will agree that it is Miss Wilson's fascination for the young that makes her one of the most receptive and enlightened members of Carteret High's faculty.

There can be no doubt that Miss Wilson's departure from C.H.S. will be a loss not only to her students but also to all who worked with her in the past. A friend and instructor of so many years is not so easily given up to private life. It is the most sincere hope of the faculty and students of Carteret High that her future be filled with happiness and fulfillment, and that Miss Wilson holds the same warmth and appreciation for C.H.S. that it most certainly holds for her.

FOOTBALL

The 1973 football season was marked by many changes. We entered the football wars minus 3 coaches, with deflated egos and with a one-platoon system of playing.

Our real work began in June. Each player and coach knew that only hard work and dedication would make Carteret respected once again in Middlesex County. The first competitions of the year were successful. We began by winning our three scrimmages and our first three regular season games.

Unfortunately, this was not the season to finish unbeaten. Still, the Ramblers proved themselves a fine, strong, physical team and let each opponent know that Carteret was out to play. The sophomores and juniors tasted their first varsity victories. Hopefully, these first few victories will lead to many more.

"From 80 to 9" tells the story of the dedication and affinity among the seniors. Our freshman football team started with 80 players. In our final senior game only 9 remained. We were not as successful as we had hoped, yet the 36 games and numerous practices contain memories which will always be ours. For these 9 seniors – Ed Bittner, Pat and Brian Crilley, Jerry Hughes, Stan Keleman, Bob Kulick, Bob Molarz, Nick Ziccardi and Al Zima – the work, the trouble, the friendship and the fun will always be remembered.

To the coaches we owe special thanks for the past four years. Our debt to you is an intangible one. Your help, concern and dedication were most important to us. All we can offer in return is our respect and appreciation.

Thank you to the coaches and best wishes to the 1974 Ramblers.

Coach Kindzierski accepting 2nd place trophy in Christmas Tournament.

The Carteret Basketball team concluded their most successful season in many years. Not since the 1959-60 season has a Rambler team finished with a winning record. Included in its accomplishments was a second place finish in the Holiday Tournament.

The highlight of the "74" season was a thrilling 68-66 victory over heavily favored Perth Amboy. This win represented Carteret's first victory over the Panthers in 14 years. Bob Molarz's last second shot provided the margin of victory.

Carteret's success was truly a team effort. With five seniors and four juniors, Coach Kindzierski blended his winning formula.

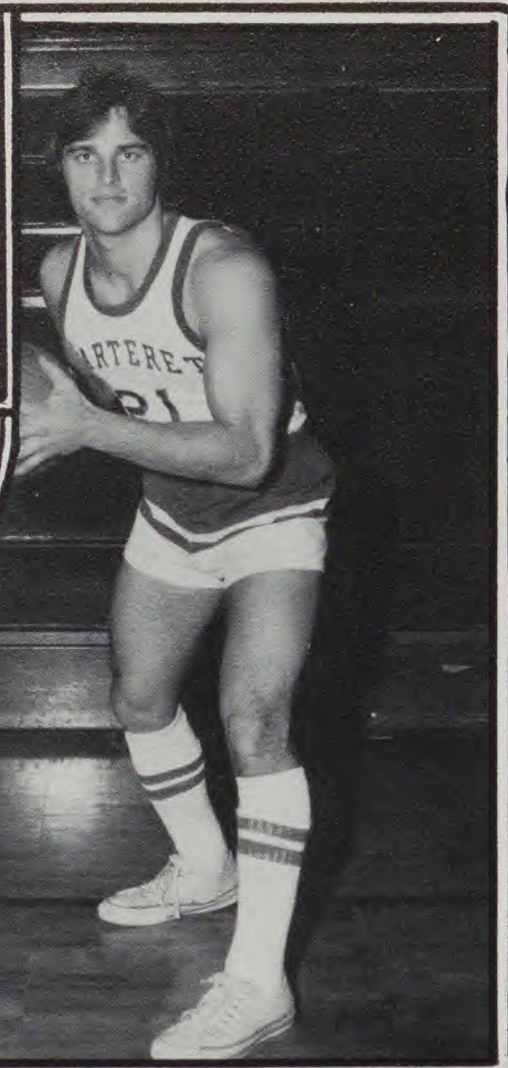

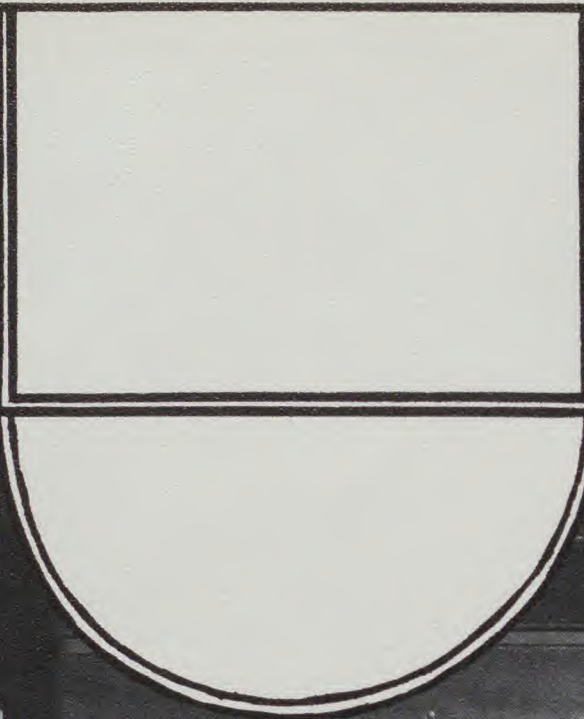

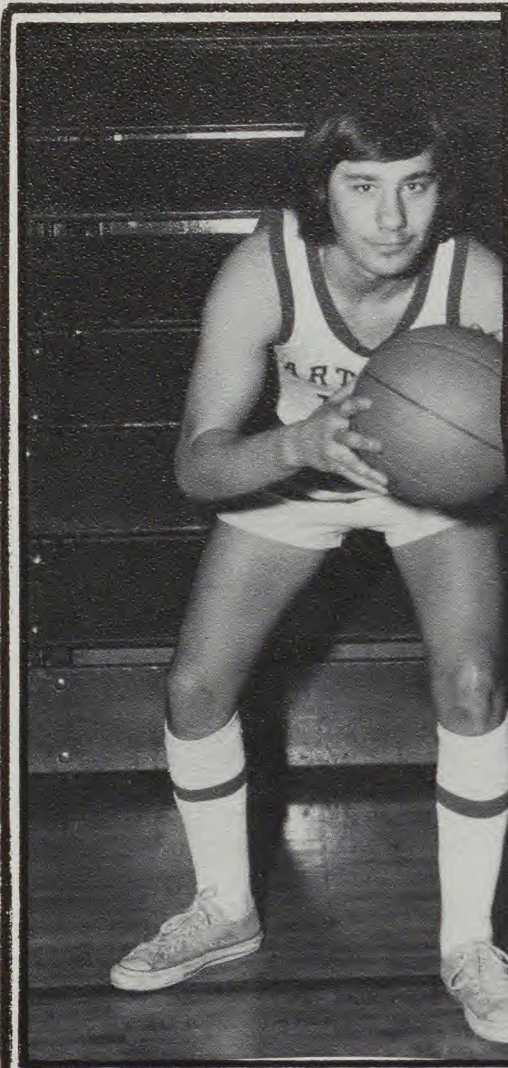

Offensively the Ramblers displayed a well balanced attack while defensively they played a tough physical game.

Led by seniors O'Connor, Sheridan, Stone, Molarz, and Dylag, Carteret defeated many of the top teams in the tough county conference.

The Basketball fortunes of Carteret seem likely to continue. Along with the returning lettermen, Coach Kindzierski will be able to choose from a Junior Varsity team that completed a 20-1 Season. The J.V. season included a Middlesex County Championship.

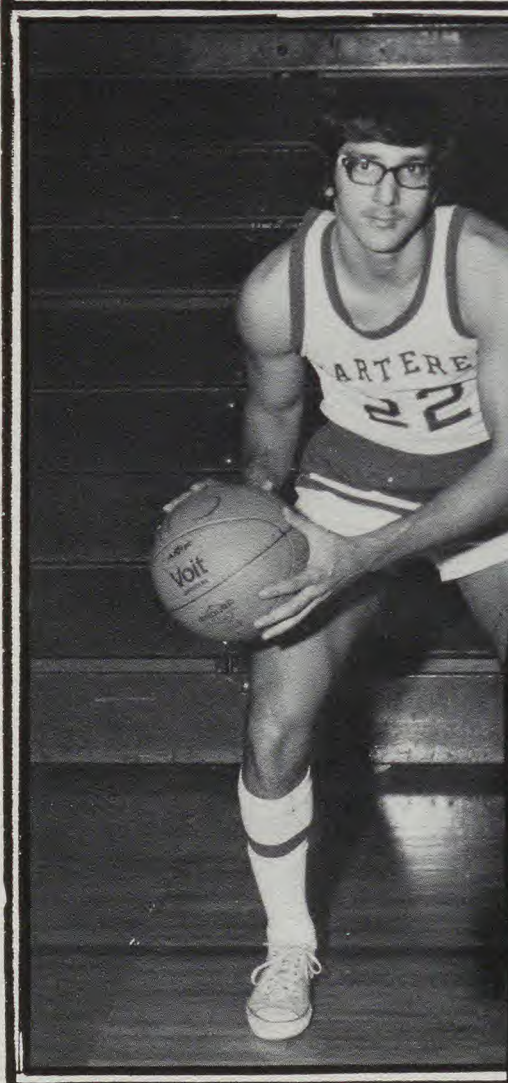

The Carteret Frosh also completed a successful 13-3 season.

SOCCER

Although in its initial season campaign the Carteret High School soccer team proved themselves to be tough competition for the best of Middlesex County.

The Varsity Booters posted a successful seven wins, nine loss record in their first season. The record included a tough 4-3 loss to Conference Champion -- East Brunswick.

The Junior Varsity Soccer Team posted a 9-2-5 record which indicates a bright future for the Carteret soccer program.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The Carteret High School Athletic program took another step forward this year with the advent of a Varsity and Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball program. The "Ramblerettes" competed in the Middlesex County Conference along with other area schools.

Due to a lack of experience and other limitations, the Carteret entry was not expected to play exciting basketball. However, this was not to be. The Ramblerettes opened their season with a spectacular 36-35 overtime win over conference rival Cedar Ridge. This victory alerted Carteret foes not to take us lightly. Other victories followed at the expense of J.F.K., Perth Amboy, and South River.

The Ramblerettes were led by Co-captains Janice Selinsky and Darnell Carter. Much of the fire power came from underclassmen Jane Lawlor and Doreen Spogantz. The Junior Varsity finished a fine campaign with eight wins and a single loss.

Congratulations to the girls who played exciting basketball and brought recognition to Carteret High. Hopefully many lasting friendships were gained in this new venture.

CROSS COUNTRY

Carteret cross country team concluded its finest season ever with an eleventh place finish in the N.J.S.I.A.A. Group III Championship. The team qualified for the meet by virtue of the outstanding performances the previous week at the N.J.S.I.A.A. Central Jersey Championship run over a hostile 2.9 mile course at Buccleuch Park. The cold chill of the bleak November wind froze not the harriers enthusiasm. John Wood, with a ninth place medal winning effort, led the team to a second-place finish. He was closely followed by twin brother Alex (14), Bob Whittet, co-captain, was not far behind in 18th place. Joe Strucich in 22nd and Gary Gasior in 26th place climaxed the teams highest finish in this event.

BASEBALL

Carteret Baseball coach Steve Nelson entered this season with as much optimism as any of his past years. "We have enough talent on this squad to win a conference, county or state championship. All that remains is for them to go out and prove it."

This year's squad is made up of a blend of proven veterans and talented new faces.

Captain Gerry Hughes returns for his third campaign of varsity baseball. Bob Molarz, Nick Zicardi, Mike Misko, Joe Barone, John Szatkowski, and Tom Coffey are all returning lettermen.

The new comers to varsity competition are Mike MacDonald, Jim Keating, Andy Frolich, Randy Krum, Jim Molnar and Bruce Reibus.

Where shall you seek beauty, and how shall you find her unless she herself be your way and your guide?

... beauty is not a need but an ecstasy ...

It is not the image you would see not the song you would hear,

Renascence

All I could see from where I stood
Was three long mountains and a wood;
I turned and looked another way,
And saw three islands in a bay.
So with my eyes I traced the line of the horrizon, thin and fine,
Straight around till I was come
Back to where I'd started from;
And all I saw from where I stood
Was three long mountains and a wood.
Over these things I could not see:
There were the things that bounded me.
And I could touch them with my hand,
Almost, I thought, from where I stand!
And all at once things seemed so small
My breath came short, and scarce at all.
But, ~~sure~~, the sky is big, I said:
Miles and miles above my head.
So ~~here~~ upon my back I'll lie
And look my fill into the sky.

And so I looked, and after all,
The sky was not so very tall.
The sky, I said, must somewhere stop . . .
And-sure-enough! – I see the top!
The sky, I thought, is not so grand;
I 'most could touch it with my hand!
And reaching up my hand to try,
I screamed to feel it touch the sky.
I screamed, and-lo! – Infinity
Came down and settled over me;
Forced back my scream into my chest;
Bent back my arm upon my breast:
And, pressing of the Undefined
The ~~definition~~ on my mind,
Held up before my eyes a glass
Through which my shrinking sight did pass
Until it seemed I must behold
Immensity made manifold:
Whispered to ~~me~~ a word whose sound
Deafened the air for worlds around
And brought unmuffled to my ears
The ~~gossipping~~ of friendly spheres,
The creaking of the tented sky,
The ticking of Eternity:
I ~~was~~ and heard, and knew at last
The How and Why of all things, past
And present, and forevermore.
The Universe, cleft to the core,
Lay open to my probing sense,
That, sickening, I would fain pluck thence
But could not, – nay! but needs must suck
At the great wound, and could not pluck
My lips away till I had drawn
All venom out. – Ah, fearful pawn:
For my ~~omniscience~~ paid I toll
In infinite remorse of soul.
All sin was of my sinning, all

Atoning mine, and mine the gall of all regret. Mine was the weight
Of every brooded wrong, the hate
That stood behind each envious thrust,
Mine every greed, mine every lust.
And all the while, for every grief,
Each suffering, I craved relief
With individual desire;
Craved all in vain! and felt fierce fire
~~About a thousand people~~ ~~perish~~
Perished with ~~ash~~, – then mirrored for all!
A man was starving in Capri;
He ~~moved~~ his eyes and looked at me;
I felt his gaze, I heard his moan,
And knew his hunger as my ~~own~~
I saw at sea a great fog bank
Between two ships that struck and sank;
A thousand screams the heavens smote;
And every scream tore through my throat.
No hurt I did not feel, no death
That was not mine; mine each last breath
That, crying, met an answering cry
From the compassion that was I.
All suffering mine, and mine its rod;
Mine, pity like the pity of God.
Ah, awful weight! Infinity
Pressed down upon the finite Me!
My anguished spirit, like a bird,
Beating against my lips I heard;
Yet lay the weight so close about
There was no room for it without.

And so beneath the weight lay I
And suffered death, but could not die.
Long had I lain thus, craving death,
When quietly the earth beneath
Gave way, and inch by inch, so great
At last had grown the crushing weight,
Into the earth I sank till I
Full six feet under ground did lie,
And sank no more, – there is no weight
Can follow here, however great.
From off my breast I felt it roll,
And as it went my tortured soul
Burst forth and fled in such a gust
That all about me swirled the dust.
Deep in the earth I rested now.
Cool is its hand upon the brow
And soft its breast beneath the head
Of one who is so gladly dead.
And all at once, and over all
The pitying rain began to fall:
I lay and heard each pattering leaf
Upon my lowly, thatched roof,
And seemed to love the sound far more
Than ever I had done before.
For rain it hath a friendly sound
To one who's six feet under ground,
And scarce the friendly voice or face,
A grave is such a quiet place.
The rain, I said, is kind to come
And speak to me in my new home.
I would I were alive again
To kiss the fingers of the rain,
To drink into my eyes the shine
Of every slanting silver line,
To catch the freshened, fragrant breeze
From drenched and dripping apple-trees.
For soon the shower will be done,
And then the broad face of the sun
Will laugh above the rain-soaked earth

Until the world with answering mirth
Shakes joyously, and each round drop
Rolls, twinkling, from its grass-blade top.
How can I bear it, buried here
While overhead the sky grows clear
And blue again after the storm?
O, multi-colored, multi-form,
Beloved beauty over me,
That I shall never, never see
Again! Spring-silver, autumn-gold,
That I shall never more behold! –
Sleeping your myriad magics through,
Close-sepulchered away from you!
O God, I cried, give me new birth,
And put me back upon the earth!
Upset each cloud's gigantic gourd
And let the heavy rain, down-poured
In one big torrent, set me free,
Washing my grave away from me!
I ceased; and through the breathless hush
That answered me, the far-off rush
Of herald wings came whispering
Like music down the vibrant string
Of my ascending prayer, and – crash!
Before the wild wind's whistling lash
The startled storm-clouds reared on high
And plunged in terror down the sky!
And the big rain in one black wave
Fell from the sky and struck my grave.
I know not how such things can be;
I only know there came to me
A fragrance such as never clings
To aught save happy living things;
A sound as of some joyous elf
Singing sweet songs to please himself,
And, through and over everything,
A sense of glad awakening.
The grass, a-tiptoe at my ear,
Whispering to me I could hear;
I felt the rain's cool finger-tips
Brushed tenderly across my lips,
Laid gently on my sealed sight,
And all at once the heavy night
Fell from my eyes and I could see! –
A drenched and dripping apple-tree,

A last long line of silver rain,
A sky grown clear and blue again,
And as I looked a quickening gust
Of wind blew up to me and thrust
Into my face a miracle
Of orchard-breath, and with the smell, –
I know not how such things can be!
I breathed my soul back into me.
Ah! Up then from the ground sprang I
And hailed the earth with such a cry
As is not heard save from a man
Who has been dead, and lives again.
About the trees my arms I wound;
Like one gone mad I hugged the ground;
I raised my quivering arms on high;
I laughed and laughed into the sky;
Till at my throat a strangling sob
Caught fiercely, and a great heart-throb
Sent instant tears into my eyes.
O God, I cried, no dark disguise
Can e'er hereafter hide from me
Thy radiant identity!
Thou canst not move across the grass
But my quick eyes will see Thee pass,
Nor speak, however silently,
But my hushed voice will answer Thee.
I know the path that tells Thy way
Through the cool eve of every day;
God, I can push the grass apart
And lay my finger on Thy heart!
The world stands out on either side
No wider than the heart is wide;
Above the world is stretched the sky, –
No higher than the soul is high.
The heart can push the sea and land
Further away on either hand;
The soul can split the sky in two,
And let the face of God shine through,
But East and West will pinch the heart
That cannot keep them pushed apart;
And he whose soul is flat – the sky
Will cave in on him by and by.

– Edna St. Vincent Millay
