Positively Perfect

P OSITIVE OUTLOOK OF CHS

As another summer came to an end, thoughts began to focus once again on Carteret High School. The students thought many questions; Did they clean it? Any new additions? What's new within the school?

One positive addition to the school was the new announcement board in front of the school. This was designed and constructed by shopteachers Mr. Tucker and Mr. Comba. And how do the students feel about it? "It's Great", said junior Shannon Smith, "because all the other schools have it. You can't forget the events. Since it's up, you actually know what's going on."

As with new students, come new teachers. The English department has a new leader. Mr. Niccoletti was hired to replace Miss Pullen. He is sure to be a positive addition to the staff.

A new attendance policy was introduced this year. A student is allowed 20 days absent per year or 10 per semester or 5 days a marking period before no credit will be given for the class. Also after three late's to school, a student will be assigned makeup.

Another new arrangement was all lunch periods were switched to fifth period. All students have the same lunch with the exception of students scheduling difficulties or students with eight straight classes. Some students feel that this creates a problem with lunch arrangements because the "lounge is too small and the only other place to eat, Cosmos, is too crowded." Others feel it is beneficial because they are not given lunch eighth period.

The change that causes the most friction is the elimination of the Thursday activity period. Students feel that this is restricting them from getting as involved as they could. "I have lab on Wednesday so I can't even attend any meetings," said Junior Carol Colby. "It's not fair to those of us who really want to be involved but can't." Many teachers agree with the situation but the school board wants the students to tell them themselves.

With the whirl wind of events this year and adjustments to be made to the new systems this is guaranteed to be a history making year.

LOUDSPEAKER A BRIEF HISTORY

How would you like the yearbook without senior pictures in it? Or without a sports section? What if it had articles or puzzles in it?

You may ask, "What are you talking about?" but yearbooks dating as far back as 1933 are kept in the yearbook room and these items or, lack of them are found in past yearbooks.

The Loudspeaker probably started out as the school magazine. It was sold for 10 cents or a year round subscription for 50 cents.

There were no senior pictures, team pictures, clubs or teachers in early editions. It was composed of all stories, puzzles and a few articles about various activities within the school.

So, next time you criticize someone's work in the Loudspeaker, think of what it would have looked like in 1933 and be proud of the quality we produce today.

PERFECT SUPPORT FOR A POSITIVE CAUSE

Last year, a young boy named Danny Traschler died of a form of leukemia that strikes young children. Never had a town banded together to raise money for an operation to help rid him of this disease.

Various organizations sponsored blood drives, spaghetti dinners, and other such fundraisers to help raise money to deflate the cost of the operation.

Danny died before the operation could be performed.

However, his parents were still faced with outrageous hospital bills. A group of people in this town united and formed The Danny Traschler Memorial Fund. This fund not only helped defray the cost for his parents, but is set to aid any other child if they are stricken with a disease such as this.

In October, the DTMF sponsored a carnival held on Sullivan Field. All proceeds went to the fund.

This carnival brought out many of the residents. There was food, games, and rides as well as stands selling different items.

For the teenagers, it was taken as a "night out," a chance to share good times while supporting a good cause.

"I thought the carnival was a very nice idea because it gave the kids in town something to do," said Junior Lori Lourenco, "and it went to a good cause."

A damper was put on the week when Hurricane Gloria hit and brought in rains and high winds. But the ride company came to the rescue and extended it one more week.

The carnival was a needed and special week in Carteret. It helped support an important cause. The next time someone asks you to support the DTMF, remember you may need the help one day.

P POSITIVELY PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION

DECA, Distributive Education Clubs of America, is a vocational organization for students in Marketing and Distributive Education programs.

DECA is a national organization with local chapters in all fifty states. Canada, the Virgin Islands, Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico all participate in DECA activities.

The emblem of DECA is diamond shaped with the words "Distributive Education Clubs of America" surrounding a wrapped package. The four points of the DECA diamond symbolize: Vocational Understanding, Civic Consciousness, Social Intelligence, and Leadership Development. The wrapped package symbolizes a job well done, achieved by cooperation of school officials, students, parents, and business persons working together.

The Marketing Education program offers members the opportunity to attend many conferences, local and nationwide competitions in which awards are given in recognition to students and advisors for outstanding achievements.

The MDE program at Carteret High School is open to those junior and senior students who wish to pursue a career in the marketing field. The junior students receive instruction in marketing occupational competencies such as Apparel and Accessories, Finance and Credit, General Merchandising, Hotel/Motel Management, Food Industry, Food Marketing, and Service Station Retailing.

The juniors also operate a school store which is open to the students and staff in school. The money raised is used to bring down the cost of traveling to competitions.

The senior students have a related class that covers discussions of job activities and reinforcement of skills. They also receive on-the-job training with positions they are placed in that are in line with the career area they have chosen.

Left: The DECA banner, shown here, has a picture of the DECA ensignia and also the name of the high school to which the banner belongs.

A WINNER ON ANY LEVEL

The DECA program, however, is not only the school store. The students work hard all year, becoming ready to compete against other schools.

In the past few years, the program has met with much success in competitions. The students won many awards last year in three major competitions. The 24th Annual Distributive Education Clubs of New Jersey State Leadership conference, the Central Region DECA Mini-Conference and two of our seniors from last year even competed nationally in the National DECA Conference in San Francisco, California.

The awards won are as following:

PERFECT BLENDING OF CULTURES

If there is one class in the high school that works as hard, if not harder, than anyone else, it is the ESL class-English as a Second Language. This class is composed of students from nine different countries learning regular subjects as well as English.

The object of the class is to teach them the best possible English they can learn so that they can function in regular classes. One student, Liana Torres, started in ESL and is now continuing her education in other classes.

The students are often referred to as the International Students. This title fits for they come from Colombia, El Salvador, Haiti, India, Korea, Peru, Poland, Puerto Rico, and Spain. Their teacher, Mrs. Niemiec, said that the students work very hard and the work is not easy.

To help them better understand themselves as well as each other, each year they celebrate Christmas Around the World. Each student writes a report and presents pictures of the holiday as it is celebrated in his country.

"If they do not celebrate Christmas in their country, they must report on a holiday that is important to that particular country," said Mrs. Niemiec.

Other areas of study aid in bettering their English. The students read plays and perform a selection from one for the faculty. "We also watch movies and do other wacky things," said Mrs. Niemiec.

Trips are also a necessity to the class. In the past they have traveled to Waterloo, the Franklin Institute, and New York. This year, there is a possibility of traveling to the United Nations building in New York in the spring.

The big event of the year is International Day. Here the students report on the customs, cultures, people, and foods of their native lands. Some of the students even wear native costumes on that day. The preparation takes time, but when everything is set, it is a memorable day. All classes in the school are invited to attend. Each country is given an area of the classroom and the ESL students are there to answer any questions anyone may have about his or her country, culture or heritage.

This class may be one of the most important in the school. It helps the new students adjust to the English language as well as their new life style. It is not easy, but with hard work, they have become very successful.

PERFECT PRACTICE FOR POSITIVE PERFORMANCE

Practice makes perfect, right? Right! This familiar saying is the basis for all sports. It is that dedication all participants must have in order to excel. It is a vital part of being involved in a sport, for if one did not practice, one's abilities to play would be weakened.

All of Carteret High School's athletes practice very hard in order to play their very best. There is no doubt that practice is hard work which takes up much of the time of the individual participant. This shows a dedication resembling no other. It is only after practices when the athletes think of other things.

Practice not only involves the athletes. It also involves the coaches. They keep the practices structured and help train the athletes. They are there to instruct them in things which they are doing wrong and show them what should be done in order to correct these mistakes. Practice builds endurance so that the participant will be able to withstand the rigors of the sport. It helps by getting one in shape for the season and keeping him that way. Along with endurance, practice builds confidence. Having a good practice will help the participant get psyched and ready to play in the real event. It becomes a great asset to the individual and the team.

A positive practice is a definite plus. It builds confidence, shows dedication along with keeping the athlete healthy and in shape. Practice becomes the origin of proficiency and excellence in sports.

Practice: Not Just For Sports Anymore

Practice is the name of the game-or should I say activity? Anytime teenagers are involved in activities, it is more than often done on their own time.

Cheerleading and Marching Band are two examples of this. Cheerleading offers the girls a chance to shine on their own as well as serving as spirit leaders for the school. Beginning in September, the cheerleaders practice everyday. Then, after the first few games, they practice a couple of days of the week.

Marching Band, however, is a different story. Here the members strive for perfection. The band not only performs during half-time at football games, but travels to state-wide competitions. Practice begins a week before school with band camp. The day begins at 9:00 a.m. and ends at 2:00 p.m. Once school starts, practice lasts from 2:30 to 5:00 or 5:30 and continues 5 days a week until the last competition.

So, beyond the athletes, there are others searching for perfection through hard work, determination, and practice.

P

OSITIVE PREPARATION FOR WHAT . . . A HURRICANE?

We prepared. It came. Nothing happened. In the midst of all of the excitement of school, a warning was issued on September 26, "Hurricane warning in effect for the Tri-State area." "Hurricane, what's that?" many asked. Hurricane: a violent, tropical, cyclonic storm of the Western North Atlantic having wind or speeds in excess of 73 mph. What this meant to the students of C.H.S. was a day off from school; to their parents, preparation for possibly the worst storm to hit the area in years. When a warning is issued in our area, it means business. How many other times has this happened in years? Not often.

Preparation for this "hurricane" consisted of taping windows, buying stores out of batteries and candles, filling tubs with water, etc.

But what happened? Nothing that was expected. Yes, there was a wind and rain storm, but not knocking down trees and floods all over.

On Washington Avenue, electrical lines were knocked over. "We didn't have electricity for 8 hours," said senior Joan Bosze.

A lot more flooding occurred at the high school than at other areas of town, but once the sewers were able to handle the abundance of water, the streets dried out.

Lower left: The High School looks as if it were built near a river as business owners tried to force water into drains. Above: Carteret "Swamp" Park. The park at the corner of Washington Avenue and Cypress Street had people wondering if a street was supposed to be there.

Above right: Is this Carteret River or Carteret Avenue? This is the corner of Pine Street and Carteret Avenue, but where are the curbs or sidewalks? Lower: The corner of Louis Street and Washington Avenue under water that was knee deep, forcing all traffic to be detoured away from the high school.

Q: Do you feel that you are ready to face the world with what you have accomplished at CHS?

A: The past four years at Carteret High School have been an enriching and fulfilling experience for me, but I don't feel as if I am ready to face the world just yet. There is just so much more out there to conquer, and so many mountains to climb.

I am really looking forward to my next four years at Penn State, for the opportunity to build on the foundation that I have established over the last four years in high school. During the next few years, I also hope to attend a school of law and pursue a career. Then, I feel that all of my ambitions and hopes will be fulfilled and I will be able to face the world.

Q: What are you planning to do after high school?

A: After high school, I would like to go to college to further my education. I hope to pursue a career in criminal justice because I would like to become a state trooper.

Along with my job as a state trooper, I plan to attend some target shooting schools to help improve my shooting. Who knows? Maybe you'll see me in the '88 Olympics in Seoul, Korea. On my days away from my busy schedule, I'm going to play golf. I seriously doubt I'll turn pro because I wouldn't want to give Mr. Olear a heart attack. As for the rest of my life, well, I just plan to take it as it comes — one day at a time!

Q: What will you miss the most about CHS?

A: Even though I will see them after high school, I will miss my good friends, Ray Villano and Herb Lowrance. They have really helped me through the tough times and I probably wouldn't have made it without them. When I look back on these last four years, I will always remember all the fun times we had together and the wild things we've done.

I will also miss my teammates and the people in the different clubs to which I have belonged over the last four years, not necessarily just my friends but everyone that I have had the pleasure of associating with. Having to face going to Arizona State alone will be rough, but I'll always have the memories of my friends and the last four years at CHS to fall back on.

One other special thing that I will remember forever was the great time we all had at Spruce Run after the prom. All of my friends were there and we all rented boats and went for a ride. Q: Who do you feel influenced you the most during high school?

A: First off, I would say that my parents were the most influential people during my high school years. They were always there when I needed them, supporting me and always wanting me to do my best. They have always looked out for me and my best interests and I am very grateful to have parents like them. They're the best.

My friends were also an influence on me, especially by best friend Bob Marino. Even though we may go astray sometimes, we always manage to get right back on the right track. Between my parents and my friend, maybe I'll end up somewhere in the middle and will do all right.

Q: What are you planning to do after high school?

A: After high school, I plan to learn the culinary arts, which I will be taught by the chef where I presently work, the Holiday Inn.

I really enjoy this kind of work, and hope that someday I'll be able to run my own kitchen. Last, but not least, I hope to turn my baseball card collection into a profitable business someday. Also, I will always be a fan of the New Jersey Devils, rooting for them as they advance to the Stanley Cup.

Q: What will you miss most about CHS?

A: Now that my senior year is coming to an end, my high school years will soon become just memories of the past.

Like so many others, the one thing I'll miss will be the friends I have made. I would like to say thanks to Judy, my most influential friend. The times that we spent together will be unforgettable. Friends forever, Judy! To Cheryl and Vicky who were always there to listen and cheer me up. Billy, you're the best thing that's happened to my life. I Love You!

I would like to thank you guys for making my senior year the best of my life. I love you all, and wish you the best in the future.

Q: Who do you feel influenced you the most throughout high school?

A: I feel that my parents have influenced me the most through high school, especially my father. Everytime I had some doubts about high school, he would always support me by saying, "You made it through grammar school. You can survive high school." He encouraged me to take the business course in high school so that I can go on to become a secretary or business officer.

My mother has also discussed my future with me and told me that no matter what I choose to do in life, she will always be proud of me. Well, I owe a lot to my parents, and I love them a lot. Thanks, Mom and Dad, for everything!

Q: What will you miss the most after high school?

A: After high school I will miss my friends that I have made over the last four years at CHS. There have been many different people that I have become acquainted with who will be greatly missed. There are certain friends who do stand out above the others, the ones who have always been there through the good times as well as the bad, especially Lori "Pollock." Thanks a lot for always being there when I needed to talk to you. All of the fun times that we've had throughout the last four years will never be forgotten.

I will miss all of my friends and good times we've had after high school, but the memories will be treasured forever. I wish you, Lori, and the rest of the class of 1986 all the luck, success, and happiness in the world.

THE OFFICERS:

A group of sixteen students who are selected for their Service, Scholarship, Leadership, and Character make up this prestigious organization. These students must maintain a B average and be able to perform services for the community as well as the school.

The National Honor Society, which is advised by Mrs. Chiravalle, sponsored various fundraisers such as their annual Turkey Shoot and Valentine Candy Kisses Sale. The N.H.S. plans to make their services available for students of C.H.S. They plan to start a College Corner in the library which will contain information on various colleges. The Honor Society also provides tutoring services for students who need additional help.

This year the N.H.S. is very active in providing this variety of services. At their annual luncheon at the end of the year, the members will be honored for their service to the school community.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS:
D. Dolan, Secretary; J. Bosze, President; R. Villano, Vice President; R. Ryan, Treasurer; Mrs. Chiravalle, Advisor.

The C.P.R. Crash Unit is a group of trained individuals that will help in the case of a medical emergency. This group consists of the school nurse, members of the teaching staff, and members of the student body.

This group is trained to treat any cardiac difficulty that occurs during school hours. Mrs. Bodnar and Mr. Gonczlik, the originators of the program a few years ago, will enlist the services of all students and teachers who hold valid C.P.R. Certificates to provide emergency assistance during school hours until the rescue squad arrives.

This organization is credited with saving the lives of two members of the teaching staff during the last year. Carteret High School is very thankful that we have such an organization and we wish them the very best in the future.

CARTERET HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

Carteret High School's main body of government is the Student Council. This organization offers its members a first hand experience in the world of politics and encourages the enhancement of our school's environment to help promote better attitudes about the school.

This year the Student Council has been reorganized by its advisor, Mr. Charles Simon. First on his agenda was the election of officers. In addition to the election of officers, there were elections for Senate which would be comprised of three representatives from each class and an Assembly which would be formed by a representative from each club and athletic organization. The student body votes for the election of officers and for the members of the Senate.

Once the officers, Senate members and Assembly members were elected or appointed, Mr. Simon turned the meeting over to the council. Committees were formed for the projects the council planned to undertake. Among these projects were the composition of a Constitution, the establishment of the activity period that was taken away and the selection of a charity. The Council has also formed smaller committees for projects such as the Shirt Committee and a Committee for the Battle of the Classes.

The Student Council began the year by sponsoring Homecoming. Nominations were made by the Senior class in order to determine the five contestants for Homecoming Queen. The five nominees were voted on and the winner was to be announced at halftime during the football game and was kept a secret from everyone, including teachers. It turned out well as Celena Hill became our Homecoming Queen for the graduating class of 1986. Mr. Simon would still like to see Homecoming a little more exciting in order to encourage more school spirit.

The Student Council's biggest project and second on its agenda was the establishment of our lost activity period. The first step was to get the petition signed. Members were assigned a homeroom in which they were to obtain the signatures from everyone in the homeroom, including teachers. After the petitions were collected, a list of reasons as to why we should have an additional activity period were formed. Officers, members and anyone else interested attended a Board of Education Meeting where the Council presented its petitions and reasons to the Board.

The Student Council is there for the students' benefit and it needs the support of the student body in order to work. Hopefully, the students will be able to work together as one and the council will develop into a hard working student government.

Who invented the automatic flush? If a competitor chose the general knowledge category in a Tournament of Excellence competition, this question could be one asked. This activity, advised by Mrs. Krugman, consists of Junior and Senior students who excel both in scholastic studies and general knowledge.

The team practices during activity periods to prepare for competition. This past year TV-3 was fortunate enough to have Senior members Joe Polanin, Ray Villano, and Steve Haiser compete in the televised trivia game show CHALLENGE. The team competes in similar events with different schools. (By the way, the answer is Thomas Crapper.)

The ANNE SCOTT NEWS is a group of skilled and creative writers who produce the school newspaper. Every three months, the reporters contribute articles about events at Carteret High School to create the school's only newspaper. The club's advisor, Mr. Bihuniak, sets deadlines and aids the club with any problems that they might encounter. Under the able leadership of Editor-in-Chief Joe Polanin, the NEWS fills a void in the high school curriculum for those students who have a serious interest in journalism.

REFLECTIONS is Carteret High's literary magazine. This publication offers an opportunity for those with creative writing and artistic talents to have their work published. The members of the organization write various pieces for inclusion in the magazine. In addition, they prepare all materials for publication, a tedious job that requires many hours at the typewriter. Anyone in the school may contribute his own work to the magazine, from short stories to crossword puzzles. The advisor, Mrs. I. Silverman, offers prizes to help encourage more students to participate in the magazine.

THE C.H.S. LOUDSPEAKER

This year the LOUDSPEAKER staff showed their creativity and determination to change the appearance of the yearbook. The entire staff, which includes the Literary and Business Staff, worked endless hours to capture the spirit of our past four years at Carteret High School.

The Literary Staff worked hard to create new layouts and more informative articles. The Business Staff learned the use of the computer for record keeping, sold ads and boosters, and most important, sold the yearbook!

THE LITERARY STAFF: Row 1: D. Perez, K. Russo, S. Gillis, D. Dolan, D. Dohlstrom, T. Kahora. Row 2: R. Taylor, L. Grace (Advisor), A. Ruela, J. Polanin, E. Stapinski, S. Hornak, D. Pineiro, S. Plewa, D. Roche, D. Neste, V. McDonough. Row 3- C. Colby, D. Scerbo, D. Syms, K. Costanza, J. Delvacchio.

Advisor Mrs. Grace instructs a special yearbook class in the fine art of layout design.

THE BUSINESS STAFF: Row 1: B. Manson, J. Checo, M. Rodreguiz, S. Szabo, F. Lavan. Row 2: Mr. Nelson (Advisor), D. Stone, I. Lazor, J. Kruppa, K. Page, P. Dykeman, T. Bigai, S. Kamienski.

Writing good copy takes time as Carol Colby and Thereza Kahora discover.

POSITIVELY PERFECT EDITORS

Debbie Dolan, Editor-in-Chief, is responsible for the overall production of the LOUDSPEAKER.

Denise Scerbo, Senior Editor, designed the Senior section and the Senior Directory.

Doreen Syms and Kris Russo, Activity Co-editors, produced the Clubs section.

Donna Roche, Typing Editor, has the massive job of making sure that all copy is typed accurately and on time.

Joe Polanin, Faculty Editor, is responsible for producing the Faculty and Administration section of the book.

Ed Stapinski, Student Life Editor, has captured the special memories of 1986 in the various activities we shared.

Steve Plewa and Dawn Dohlstrom, Sports Co-editors, have designed a unique Sports section for this year.

Russ Taylor and Sue Gillis, Art Editors, supplied much candid photography, advertising design, and art work.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

The four language clubs in Carteret High are the Latin, German, French, and Spanish Clubs. These clubs all have fundraisers to collect money for excursions that are culturally beneficial.

The Latin Club's advisor is Mrs. Sansone. The elected President, Eun Sook Ko and Vice President Adrian Daunarummo are in charge of all the activities this year. Many times the club meets after school because the members and officers are mostly accelerated students who are not able to meet in the morning because of lab. During the spring, the club travels to different areas of New Jersey to compete in academic contests.

Mrs. Sansone is also the advisor of the German club. President Dan Saccone has set up fundraisers to help raise money for Austrian Song and Dance. At the end of the year, the club travels to a German restaurant to taste authentic German delicacies.

Dr. Foti is the advisor for the Spanish club. President Ilene Brown also initiates bake sales and lollipop sales to collect money for the trip to a Spanish restaurant in the spring. This trip allows the students to try Spanish cuisine and receive the cultural flavor of the Spanish.

For the students who find an interest in the French language, the French club is open to all students. The advisor of the club is Mrs. Holleufer.

FBLA And COE

The FBLA and the COE are two organizations that are geared to help students who will be entering the business world. Under the direction of Mrs. Cunha, the FBLA enables its members to develop their abilities by competing in regional, state, and national competitions in business skills.

The COE, directed by Mrs. Kopko, is a group of students who divide their time between school and the work place. Through this type of diversification, they have the opportunity to put into immediate practice the skills they are learning in school.

PRE-ENGINEERING AND HOME ECONOMICS

"We want to get over the stereotype of sewing and cooking."

The Home-Ec Club started in December of 1984 with a gingerbread house raffle. This year, with the dedication of its advisors, Mrs. Singura and Mrs. Lynes, along with an increase in membership, this group has great plans ahead.

This year's activities have included the selling of Halloween pumpkin lollipops, chocolate Valentines, a Christmas gingerbread raffle, and an Easter basket raffle. The club prepared a lasagne dinner for the faculty and made their own Christmas decorations.

One of the main priorities this year is to become affiliated on the State and National levels of FHA/Herco (Future Homemakers of America/Home Economics Related Occupations). With this affiliation they hope to participate in the state and perhaps the national level competitions. The activities included are interior design, nutrition, story telling, cake decoration, fashion design, modeling design, food service, banner design, consumerism, and money management. Local plans include involvement in the craft show at Woodbridge Center.

One can easily see that the Home-Ec Club at Carteret High School has surpassed instructing outdated domestic housework. The members learn values which they can use throughout a lifetime.

Chemistry Olympics

This small club only consists of four members advised by Mrs. Masterson. These four students work during the year studying various chemistry problems. Together with their solution, they compete with other schools.

It is advised by Miss Sarzillo and Mrs. Cender, and it is open to all students who have a special interest in math. The club travels to different schools to take a test consisting of ten problems, which vary in difficulty and range from Algebra I to Trigonometry. After the test is completed, the students are provided with snacks and can socialize with the other schools until the scores are given out. So far, this year's club scoring has been relatively good.

BLEACHER BUMS AND PEP CLUB

Positively Peppy

When it comes to school spirit, these two clubs THE BLEACHER BUMS and THE PEP CLUB have plenty to go around. Both of these clubs gave a new meaning to the phrase "School Spirit." This year has been filled with more school spirit than ever thanks to these two clubs.

The PEP CLUB, advised by Mrs. Olear, supported the football team by showing much enthusiasm at football games and pep rallies. In addition to cheering the team on, they also decorated the football players' lockers before the football games. The PEP CLUB also organized their own fundraisers such as selling Rambler Bookcovers and having bake sales.

The BLEACHER BUMS, whose unofficial advisor is Mr. Gasior, is a club that was started by a former student Rich Grona a few years back, and is now one of the largest clubs at school. They cheered the basketball team on to victory at every home and away game, sporting their Carteret High School Bleacher Bums shirts.

HRC And IRC

The Human Relations Committee, advised by Mr. Robinson, and International Relations Club, advised by Mr. Dotegowski, together try to promote better understanding through interpersonal relationships that will help in the community of Carteret as well as in the school. The difference between these two organizations is that HRC focuses on the feelings of individuals and their relationships with others, while IRC is more oriented toward doing tasks which will help people in the community as a whole.

INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL CLUB

The International Travel Club is one of the newest clubs at Carteret High School. Mrs. Krugman started this club just last year in one of her Junior history classes. After long term plans, a group of eleven students ventured to England during last Easter vacation.

This year the ITC is planning a trip to Paris, France. Mrs. Krugman is very optimistic that everything will turn out well despite the recent terrorist attacks in some of Europe's airports.

The group's officers, Kris Russo, JoAnne Galinis, Michaele Ulhursky, Carole Scanlon and Patty Traina, along with Mrs. Krugman, helped organize fund raisers. The group raffled off tickets to see several Broadway shows. The limited number of 100 tickets were sold only to faculty members. This fund raiser was a tremendous success.

Best wishes for a safe and enjoyable trip.

The Ski Club is one of the largest and most popular clubs in the school. The club runs day and weekend trips to ski resorts all along the north-east coast. The advisor, Mr. Peters, is well liked by the students in the club. On all the trips he gives the members a free lunch or breakfast, depending on the time of departure, free gifts and runs a free raffle with a lift ticket as the prize.

The officers of the club are Michelle Semenza, President; Karen Grabowski, Vice President; Joan Bosze, Secretary; and Anthony Ruela, Historian.

CARTERET HIGH SCHOOL

THE QUEST FOR PERFECTION

What was to begin a great climb in history for the Carteret High School Marching Rambler Band began on a beautiful autumn night in September 1983. Dramatic changes had occurred for the band with the introduction of Mr. Alan Fossa as Band Director. He lead the way with Miss Larissa Huchko as Font Advisor. The parade of students sporting their new uniforms and silks as they marched around the field was quite impressive. No one could imagine how they felt when the crowd gave a round of applause and a standing ovation. But it was only the beginning.

Throughout that season, the band practiced hours after school and were then prepared for their first challenge to enter the world of competition. With butterflies in their stomachs, they took the field on Sunday in October 1983 at Middlesex High School. Although finishing last, the Ramblers gained the experience needed to improve throughout the season. Never finishing better than last, the band had a taste of competition and traveled to Ocean City, Md. to be the first CHS band to travel out of state. Finishing again at the bottom, it was a fun three days for the band and also the beginning of an intense rivalry with J.P. Stevens of Edison.

The season of '84 offered a new twist. To be a competitive band, you had to train like the big guys. The band practiced one week before school started and hired Mr. Ralph Fair and Mr. Joe Doyle as drill consultant and front consultant respectively.

This led to improvement of scores but not in place; the Ramblers still finished last. But there was still the trip to Montreal. After an 8 hour drive, the arrival was marred by confusion at the hotel. The room assignments were not in the block as they were supposed to be. But despite these annoyances, the Ramblers came out shining. The Jazz Band took first place, the Marching Band took second in the field competition scoring their highest ever, and also took second in the parade with the silk squad taking the best overall. With J.P. Stevens also in Montreal, a dance was planned for both schools. It turned out to be a success with both schools putting their rivalry aside and relishing their victories.

Over the summer before this season began, it was decided among the staff that it was time for a new look, one that would put the Marching Ramblers above the rest. The Band Parents purchased yards and yards of material and handmade the skirts, vests, and silks. These uniforms sparked so much controversy in the community, but it didn't seem to bother the Ramblers. They began their competition season by dropping down from Group III to Group II. This began the greatest season yet. On Sunday, October 6, 1985 at Middlesex High School, the first competition of the season, the Ramblers finished fourth out of five bands. A great uplift, they then finished third in Jackson, building up another rivalry, this time with Lakewood. On Sunday, October 27 at Edison High School, a day of history, the Carteret High School Marching Rambler Band placed first, beating Bishop Ahr, Matawan, and Lakewood high schools. The hard work of the past three years had finally paid off! The pride and happiness that Mr. Fossa and Miss Huchko felt was undescrivable. They too could rejoice in this day.

Despite this win the season was not yet over. There was still the championships. Against the great Steinert High School Band, Lakewood and others, the Marching Ramblers finished third, but once again scored their best. It was because of this score that they were invited to compete in the Eastern Championships. Mr. Fossa declined the invitation, not wanting to dampen an awesome season.

As the Ramblers began preparing for their trip to Toronto, Mr. Fossa announced that he would be leaving and moving to Montana. A dark cloud hung over the band for the three weeks that they were without a band director. Mr. Pat O'Donnell was hired to replace Mr. Fossa and has picked up where he left off. As the enthusiasm increases until the day of the trip, practice still continues, waiting for that big win in Toronto once again. Eyes with PRIDE!

POSITIVE PERFORMANCES

FRONTS SPORT NEW LOOK

At the beginning of the season, a controversy raged over the new uniforms and silks that were being sported this season. No more blue and white skirts, but fancy white ones that were reversible to red, and a jazzy gold lamet vest to accent the outfit, paid for and hand made by the Band Parents. No more rainbow silks and blue and white poms, but a gold, red, and blue silk that split red and silver poms. Also was the change to everyone on silks for two of the songs, pink ones and gold and white ones. These were hand made by the Band Parents, too.

Many people voiced their opposition, but a change for the better was occurring. What was being established was a style for the girls that would stand out wherever they went and people would know they were from Carteret. The band front is no longer a bunch of girls in short skirts that go clomping up the field but a group of intense performers that perform their show on the football field for all to see. They have gained respect around the competition circuit for their fine display of professionalism even in a pressure situation, one of which earned them a First in Montreal last year. Thanks, Miss Huchko. We all love you!

FUNDRAISING WILL IT EVER STOP?

The band decided that this year it would travel to Toronto, Canada from May 8 to 11. The shock came when the Band Parents determined that it would cost $29,000. Where would we get the money? FUNDRAISERS!

Band members were required to raise $235 per person to cover trip expenses. The first fundraiser was Tag Day. Band members went door to door and raised a hefty amount. This gave them the incentive to carry on. Monthly fundraisers were planned, including the band festival, candy sale, crystal sale, Chinese Auction and spaghetti dinner. In addition to raising enough to send the band on various trips, the Band Parents have been able to purchase items such as lockers, a trophy case, and the materials needed for the new band front uniforms.

Now that the season is over, the band members can relax. Fundraising is over for now. Thank you, Band Parents, for believing in us.

When Mr. Patrick O'Donnell took over the overwhelming position of band director in late January, one of the tasks he was given was to further develop the Rambler Jazz Ensemble.

The band competes in several competitions including one held annually here at the school where other established bands perform. The band, originated by Mr. Alan Fossa, eschewed a first place trophy in Montreal last year. Veteran members include the rhythm section composed of Junior Mike Wazeka on drums and Sophomore Mary Jo Pineiro on keyboards, Junior Mike DiMartino on trombone, Junior Ray Grabowski on baritone sax, and Seniors Mike Velosin and Steve Haiser and Juniors Rob Skibinski and Jan-eeen DelVacchio on trumpet. Members of the ensemble are chosen for their experience and talent. Mixed with a lot of hard work, the group is a very successful blend of musical delight.

The Carteret High School Choir, formerly under the direction of Mr. Fossa, has been taken over by Mr. Pat O'Donnell. The choir practices during first period and designated activity periods. The group performs a Winter Concert at Woodbridge Center along with a concert here at the school. The group, although small, works very hard to produce a successful, unified sound.

CONCERT BAND

Although the Concert Band is not a major group in the musical section of our school, they do give yearly concerts at Christmas and during the spring. From the admission to these concerts, they have a Christmas Party. Their concerts are made of various selections ranging from Bach to the Police.

COMPETITIVE

POSITIVELY

“DISAPPOINTING
DISCOURAGING”

Those were the words of head coach William Olear and this year's football team fits that to a "T". Although the season was not an easy one, the Ramblers managed to go out on that field game after game and give it all they had.

The 1985 football season was the first season under Mr. William Olear as head coach. It proved, despite the winless record, a solid foundation to build upon. The returning underclassmen and the freshmen will continue to build and strengthen that foundation.

The team practiced everyday as well as watching video tapes of opposing teams to learn strategies, plays, and positions. During practice coach Olear would set goals for the players. When the goal was reached, each player would receive a football to stick to his helmet to show his achievement. This would help to encourage the players to take practice seriously and hard.

The season itself was a tough one. It tried the will and determination of each player on the team. Each player questioned in the back of his mind whether it was worth it to go out week after week and play as hard as the week before. But each player realized the importance of spirit, strength and determination and week after week, it shared in the teams enthusiasm. Led by senior captains Joe Reilly and John Mason, they pulled through a rough and trying season and will survive to fight again.

In the immortal words of coach William Olear, "It's a sport that forces a player to reach down deep inside and expose himself for what he really is."

TOM RESKO

Close-Up

Q: Why did you join the CHS football team?

A: "I joined the team because I enjoy the game and I feel that it's the most challenging sport out of all sports."

Q: Do you feel that there is an importance in practicing?

A: "Yes. I feel practice is important because we learn and go over our plays so that we are prepared for the game. Practice also trains us and teaches us how to block and tackle properly."

Q: Do you take your practices and games seriously?

A: "I take the games and some practices seriously, but I also like to enjoy my practices as well."

Q: Do you practice on your own or just with the team?

A: "I play about 6 months out of the year, excluding the football season."

Q: What is the thing that you'll remember most about your high school years?

A: "I have to say the linebacker drills against John Mason throughout the season, especially my last 2 hitting practices when we (Mason and I) kept score."

Q: What are your future plans? Do they include football?

A: "I want to go to college. If I go to a small college, I would like to play, but if I go to a large school, I don't plan on playing."

COACH'S CORNER

Headcoach
William Olear

As the 1985 football season rolled around, the team found themselves looking at a new head coach . . . William Olear. Being head coach for the first time is a subject for a lot of attention, including interviews. And here are the results of my interview with Coach Olear . . .

Q: What is your overall view of football as a high school sport?

A: "I think the overall view of football as a sport is that it's the one athletic activity that reflects life itself, it's ups and downs, and the degree of hard work necessary for achievement. It is a growth process, an experience that forces people to react within an emotional state, be it a high or low. It forces athletes to perform at a rate of success that is probably higher than any other sport. I think because of the number of people that participate, it forces individuals to be part of a group. Competition is also keener among participants because they are all fairly equal. You go through great emotional changes in a short period of time; happiness, sadness, fear and anger. It forces a player to reach down deep inside and expose himself for what he really is."

Q: How was the 1985 Football season for you as a coach?

A: Regardless of how old you are, you never stop learning. In football, you are continually being faced with different problems. I feel this year we had a full cycle; interest increased, participation increased, and we had dedicated young players. There's a saying in football, "For every sophomore you have playing, you lose one game." We had many young players and therefore, inexperience. This was very exciting season, disappointing but not discouraging and a strong foundation to build upon.

Q: How will the loss of this years seniors affect the team and do we have strong underclassmen to take their places?

A: The loss of any senior is always a devastating effect. Seniors are the basis for a solid program. This year's seniors were 3 year varsity starting. Number 1 we hate to lose them because of ability but Number 2 it is the finish of a growth cycle we have a lot of strong underclassmen to carry on the tradition. We lost 11 and have 30 returning in addition to freshmen who will move up to the ranks of Jv. and Varsity.

Q: How do you feel the Athletic Department views football and can more be done for this sport?

A: Currently from board to administration, they're doing whatever is necessary to increase the success of the program. I see nothing but a positive approach from their standing point. I feel that the support from the department and the program can only grow better from here.

Q: How did you begin as a cheerleader?

A: "My brothers were involved in Pop Warner and high school football and when I used to go and watch them play, I used to admire the cheerleaders and that's how I got involved in cheering."

Q: Why did you choose to cheer for CHS?

A: "I was a cheerleader in grammar school and I enjoyed it. I enjoy supporting the school and the football team."

Q: In your own words, do you think cheering is a sport or an activity?

A: "I'm going to say it's a sport because we do participate and practice everyday. Plus with all the extra things we do as cheerleaders, it should be counted as a sport rather than an activity."

Q: Was it hard to cheer for this year's football team?

A: "Well, I'm not going to say it was hard, but I think we would have been a little different if there were some wins. But that never stopped us from cheering them on!"

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a cheerleader?

A: "I'm a good cheerleader and I feel that I did an excellent job as the team's mascot."

Q: What are some of your main goals in the future?

A: "I would like to go to college and graduate. I also want to take advantage of all the education that is available for me to become successful."

Q: Do you think it was difficult for your cheerleaders to cheer for a winless team?

A: "Yes, it is difficult because cheers then become inappropriate, but they still gave it their all"

Q: How do you feel about cheerleaders going into competition?

A: "My cheerleaders aren't going into competition because they just don't have the time to devote to the extensive practices that are required to win."

Q: Is cheering a sport or an activity?

A: "It is a sport because they put in just as much time as any other sport."

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a cheering coach?

A: "I'm a fair coach and I'm not always their favorite person, but in order to get things accomplished, you have to do things that they don't like."

Q: How did you get involved as a cheering coach? Did you cheer in college and high school?

A: "The resigning coach asked me if I'd be interested and I said yes. I was a high school cheerleader, but I didn't cheer in college."

Coach's Corner

Head Coach Arthur Shadell

Q: What is your overall view of Cross Country as a sport?

A: "It is a demanding sport that takes time and devotion. The 1985 Cross Country season ended my 15th year in which I've been coaching the sport. The fifth win in this season turned out to be my 100th victory in cross country. This year's team was an integral part of those 100 victories. Because those runners who are graduating in 1986 had spent four years on the team, they won approximately a fifth of those 100 victories. Though the years all run together, all of my runners will always be remembered."

Q: As a coach how do you feel about practice?

A: "It is a necessity when you're dealing with cross country. It's a time where I try to get my runners to improve so that they are competitive in the meets that they run. Without practice, a 3.1 mile race would be difficult to run. Also at practice, you learn the discipline to help control the events in the competition."

Q: How was the 1985 X-Country season for you as a coach?

A: "Difficult. It was a hard season. I was looking for more out of the runners based on previous seasons and it didn't seem to materialize which made the season more difficult. By the end of the season we accomplished what could be accomplished, and overall I was pleased with the outcome."

Q: How do you feel the Athletics Department views Cross Country and can more be done for this sport?

A: "The Athletics Department just views us as one of the smaller pieces of an overall puzzle. The only way I could get more recognition is by having good seasons consecutively. A grammar school program wouldn't hurt, if it is done properly."

Q: What made you coach cross country?

A: "The 1985 season was my 15th year coaching. It was natural progression. I was coaching Winter and Spring Track 2 years prior to that and I thought coaching all three seasons would help the program. At the end of this season, I was very pleased with the past years."

Q: How did you become interested in Cross Country?

A: "Well, when I moved to Carteret in 4th grade my fellow students used to chase me. I guess they wanted to beat me up because I knew they didn't want my autograph. I realized that I had something they didn't speed. That's how I got involved with Cross Country and track."

Q: Has your coach had any influence on you as a runner?

A: "Mr. Shadell is a great coach and has coached me since my Freshman year. He has helped me through some discouraging times. I admire him, but we have our differences."

Q: Is Cross Country pure competition, pleasure or both?

A: "Cross Country is very different from Winter and Spring Track. I find pleasure in this sport. Of course, there is competition, but overall, Cross Country is a much more relaxing sport."

Q: As a runner, how would you evaluate yourself?

A: "I would say that I am a better than average runner; It has taught me a sense of self-discipline. I would like to continue running in college but I don't know what the future holds."

Q: Do you think Cross Country is a team sport or an individual one?

A: "Cross Country is definitely a team sport because one or two people won't win a meet, but you have to take into consideration that you're all alone when you're running, and nobody can make or help you run faster than yourself."

Q: What are some of your personal goals in life?

A: "I would like to attend college for a degree in psychology and being rich, famous, and successful can't hurt."

Boys Cross Country Accomplishes Another Winning Season

Under the supervision of Head Coach Mr. Shadell, the Boys 1985 Cross Country Team had another winning season with a 5 win-3 loss record.

This isn't easy in a sport in which there must be cooperation between the runners and the coach. Without that relationship, it would be very hard for a team to win at all. Mr. Shadell says that "this was a difficult season, but I was pleased with my runners overall performances."

What made the season more difficult and demanding was the changing of conferences. In the past years, Carteret competed in the Bicentennial Athletic Conference which gave them a chance to compete with other schools of the same size before entering the Middlesex County Championships. But now, unfortunately the conference has been changed and the BAC no longer exists. Rather, the MAC was established. Now Carteret was one of 20-25 teams that competed in this conference.

Overall Carteret place 13th in the MAC this season which was their best in several years. We were fortunate enough to have two excelling runners; Senior Dominick Desimone and Sophomore Jim Lescinsky who both made the All Conference 2nd White Team Division.

The Lone Runner

This season's Girls' Cross Country team had a minimum turnout this year. In the late days of August 1985, the team had a decent squad, enough to be a competitive team. But as the season progressed, the female Ramblers declined. Finally, towards the end of the season, there remained only one Rambler Runner who stuck it out: Freshman Kris Dueker. Congratulations Chris for showing your strong will and determination and good luck in the 1986 season!

DOES SOCCER HAVE A CHANCE IN CARTERET?

This year's soccer team proved to be the first team that never won a game for Carteret. "This year's team might have been the worst team Carteret ever had, but they can go down in Carteret High School Soccer history as the team that saved soccer in Carteret," says Head Coach Mr. Robert Cowan.

Over the past couple of years, Carteret High School's Soccer program has been slowly declining, meaning that the students aren't particularly interested in the sport anymore. But this year's 1985 Soccer Team turned the wheels around on Mr. Cowan's, as well as the Athletic Department's view on the soccer program in our high school.

In the last weeks of August 1985, there were individuals who were willing to work with Mr. Cowan and assistant coach Mr. Duncan to help give soccer a name in this community. "My players, even though they lacked experience, were very courageous to go out there on the field, knowing what they were up against," says Mr. Cowan.

Even though the soccer team didn't have a winning season, the community, as well as the school, can thank the Carteret High School Soccer Team and Head Coach Mr. Cowan, as well as Assistant Coach Mr. Duncan, for giving up their time and efforts for the sport they cared for the most.

Close-Up

Q: How did you become involved in soccer?

A: "I became involved in the sport after signing up the year before. I also didn't want to see the soccer program stopped because of the lack of players."

Q: What position did you play and enjoy the most?

A: "I enjoyed playing center field back the most, but being a goalie presented a great challenge to me."

Q: Has your coach influenced you in anyway?

A: "He gave me the moral support and encouragement when I first started playing and when I had no experience. This year Mr. Cowan and Mr. Duncan told me just to play to the best of my ability and not to concentrate on being perfect, because no one is."

Q: Is soccer an individual or team sport?

A: "Soccer is a team sport. You must develop yourself as an individual player, but you must be able to function also as a team."

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a soccer player?

A: "I'm not a highly skilled player, but I do have a basic understanding of the game and I feel that I can contribute to help Carteret win."

Coach's Corner

Coach Robert Cowan

Q: What did you think of this season's performance?

A: "This year's team wasn't the best, but they were one of the more courageous teams I ever had. They knew they didn't have that much experience and they did the very best they could. They go down in CHS Soccer history as the team that saved soccer in Carteret, even though they had the worst record."

Q: Does practice have any effects on the performance of your players?

A: "Obviously, you have to practice. Practice helps. Since you only have 2-3 months to practice, it's hard to improve people's skill levels. The players are an extension of the coach and if they don't know what the coach wants, it's hard for them to perform to the coaches standards."

Q: What is your overall view on soccer?

A: "Soccer is probably the greatest youth participated sport in New Jersey except for Carteret, unless your one of the participants."

Q: How do you feel the Athletic Department views soccer in CHS?

A: "The emphasis at least in the past has been on football. I think so great an emphasis has been placed that it has hurt the other sports in the school. The Athletic Department is doing everything they can to help soccer, but it all depends on whether they can get the cooperation from the Board of Education."

Q: Is there any other statement you would like to make on the behalf of soccer?

A: "Yes. I think there is one thing that is important in all sports of Carteret. That is that we try to keep athletics in perspective. I don't think that winning counts above everything else. I believe the Athletic Department has taken the right approach in keeping athletics there as an extra-curricular activity, as a part of a good educational experience."

Tennis, A Sport For The Rich, Or A Sport For Carteret?

Tennis, like other small sports in Carteret High School, has been having a difficult time recruiting individuals with some kind of experience behind them. Most people picture tennis as one of those merely additional leisure activities only the rich and famous can enjoy. That isn't so. Carteret High School offers any individual wishing to play the facilities needed.

"Tennis is a sport that takes time to master and since the high school season is such a short period of time to acquire the techniques needed, tennis then should be introduced into the grammar schools," says Head Coach Mrs. Mosca. Tennis, like most other sports, needs a sufficient amount of time for practicing in order for performances to improve.

Tennis no longer has to be a sport for the rich and famous. We the students of Carteret, can get involved even if we aren't rich and famous. But we all are unique. If in the future, the tennis program is introduced into the grammar schools, Carteret then can begin to rebuild a program that has been deteriorating with the years. We may not have a country club, but we sure can try to help build up the tennis program at Carteret High School.

Q: How did you become interested in tennis?

A: "I took a tennis course before entering CHS. It was recreational tennis at Carteret Park. One of the instructors referred me to Mrs. Mosca. Then Mrs. Mosca phoned me and asked me if I was interested in playing for CHS and I said yes. I've been playing for four consecutive seasons and I plan to continue, but on a leisurely level."

Q: Explain your practices. How are they different from other sports you have played?

A: "Along with playing tennis, I have also been a cheerleader. Tennis is very different from cheering. There is a lot more work involved in tennis. There are many different skills that must be mastered. In tennis, there is one-on-one competition, while in cheering, there is really no competition among the squad members."

Q: Is it pure competition, pleasure or a mixture of both?

A: "I would say it's a mixture of both, because, first of all there is always competition in a sport and there has to be a sense of enjoyment as well."

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a tennis player?

A: "Average. I'm good at doubles, but playing singles is a different game because you're all alone. I'm well informed about tennis as a sport because I have participated in the sport for the past four years."

Q: What are some of your personal goals in life?

A: "I want to go through and graduate college. I want to succeed in Business, Marketing and Retailing."

Coach Agnes Mosca

Q: As a coach, how do you feel about practice?

A: "It is very important . . . It's the only way to accomplish anything. Even if they don't win, they can still feel as though they accomplished something. That's what makes them feel good about themselves."

Q: How was the 1985 tennis season for you as a coach?

A: "We didn't break 500, but we won a few matches. I had one player, Sue Cackowski, who made First Team Blue Division, which was an accomplishment because it was only her second year."

Q: Are numbers a problem?

A: "No, not necessarily. Until the last 2 years, it was an individual thing for me because I had to confront students myself."

Q: How do you think the Athletics Department views tennis? Can more be done for this sport?

A: "Perhaps we could start something at the grade school level, because it really is a lifetime sport."

Q: What influenced you to become a Coach?

A: "I was asked to, about 17 years ago. I played tennis in college. I felt that the team really accomplished a lot this season and I'm looking forward to the 1986 season."

Crowned Princes And The Changing Of The Guard.

The ability, power, and aggressiveness of this year's Rambler Basketball Team couldn't be matched. Setting a school record of 25-3 for the season, the team put excitement into the heart of every fan who watched every game.

This year, the Ramblers made their appearance in the county championships and captured the title. Also, they qualified for states but their season ended when they lost to Asbury Park. It was a long and rewarding season and it seemed everyone in town supported them. Drawing record crowds wherever they went, the fans cheered on through tough games, through wins and through very few losses.

The team was led by Senior Keith Hughes, All State, All County Player of the Year. And right along side of him were Seniors Gary Smith and Bruce Hronich adding skill, shooting ability, and a lot of superb performance to the team. Junior Bob Butynes and Sophomore Corey Lowe finished off the Rambler starting line up. On the bench, first are Senior Dennis Dulin and Junior Jim Hart, always out there to play just as hard as anyone.

Q: "The changing of the guard." How did the switching of positions affect your game?

A: Switching positions from off (shooting) guard to point guard really affected my game in the beginning because I wasn't expecting Ollie Arrington to transfer. It really bothered me because that move put a lot of pressure on me, but after the first two scrimmage games, I got the swing of it. The switching of the guards wasn't that much to learn because in the summer I went to 5-star camp for a week and while I was there I played point guard for my team and led our team to the championship game and won.

The change then paid off and just like in the summer, I helped to lead the Ramblers to a 25-3 record and the conference and county championships.

The 1985-86 basketball season was a tough one for our Lady Ramblers. They ended the season with a 7-12 record. The main problem that faced the Ramblers was their size. The Varsity team had a turn out of 8 players from which 5 were seniors. Although our Lady Ramblers overcame this barrier, there was still a question of experience. Thus, our Lady Ramblers weren't pussycats when they were on the court. They gave every team that they played a game they wouldn't forget! Besides being a very competitive team, the Lady Ramblers possessed a bond between them that couldn't be broken whether they won or lost. But all of this wasn't enough it seemed because when the night came for the Spotswood game, our Lady Ramblers just couldn't defeat the opposing team which in turn disqualified them for the State Tournaments. Sorry, Lady Ramblers-Get even next season!

An Interview With Coach Niemiec

Q: What encouraged you to coach girls basketball?

A: Well, I coached boys basketball before in 1972-77. Then I had retired from coaching for about 4 years and I began to miss it. I wanted to coach again and there was a spot open for the girls' team, so I took it and I've been coaching the girls ever since 1981.

Q: Did the team face any difficulties or problems throughout the season?

A: Yes, we had anticipated a good year, but we lost 4 players due to academic ineligibility and injury. We also had girls who really weren't experienced players and at the level of competition that we were competing at, we had to play extremely well in order to be respectable.

Q: What was the team's weaknesses during the Spotswood game?

The problem with Spotswood was the same problem that we had all season; we weren't consistent on outside shooting which gave Spotswood the edge.

Q: What is your outlook for next season, knowing that 5 out of your 8 varsity players are leaving?

A: It isn't as bleak as it seems. Hopefully the girls who weren't with us this season will be back next season and we plan to have a very respectable season.

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a coach?

A: I will not evaluate myself. I believe that coaches in general will do their best to coach the kids that he/she may have. The purpose of coaching is that the coach will try to show his kids how to play the sport that he/she loves!

Joanne Galinis

Close-Up

Q: Have you participated in Basketball throughout your high school years and if so, would you or are you going to continue it in the future?

A: I've played basketball through my high school years and received three varsity letters and co-captain my senior year. People have asked me if I would continue playing through college and I wasn't sure at first, but now I've changed my mind. I'll probably play intramurals wherever I go and if I go to Lebanon Valley College, I will probably go intercollegiate.

Q: Has anyone influenced your basketball career at all. If so, who and how?

A: I can't say that anyone has really influenced me; it was just something that was fun. Since I started playing, I've made some great friends, like Dee Broughton. We've been playing basketball together since Lincoln School. Sometimes though, when it's about half way through the season or I get hurt (often) and my school work is piling up, I ask myself why I play every year.

Q: How did your interest in Basketball begin?

A: My interest in playing basketball started about a year after I moved to Carteret from Roselle. I was going to Nathan Hale and there was a clinic at Lincoln on Saturday mornings, so my mom used to drive a group of us to the clinic. I went every year after that. Then when I was in seventh and eighth grade, I played on the Lincoln School All-Star team where we hosted and won our own tournament.

- Q: As a coach how would you evaluate yourself?
A: A fundamentalist-I believe that players on the High School level should be proficient in the basic fundamentals of the game they are participating in. If we (staff and students) achieve this we, I believe, are successful. A winning team becomes only the icing on the cake.
- Q: Is the team as competitive as you would like it to be?
A: In consistent-when they attain consistency they will succeed (not particularly win regularly)
- Q: Do you see the potential for a championship team?
A: Yes, one that has enough experience and competence to permit it to succeed.
- Q: Do you think that bowling gets the recognition it deserves?
A: No, Not in the media nor in the school.

Up-Close

Q: How did you become interested in bowling and do you plan to continue in the future? If so, why?

A: I became interested in bowling when my friends took me for the first time. It is a fun sport, and I wish to continue playing it after I graduate.

Q: As a female bowler, how would you evaluate yourself? What is your best average?

A: As a beginner bowler, I feel I am doing well. When I started I was bowling 60's; now my high score is a 157 with a 107 average for the year.

Q: Is bowling a competitive sport or a leisurely sport to you? Explain.

A: Bowling is definitely competitive. When we are out there, we are out to win. Yet, it is enjoyable and leisurely.

Q: Is bowling a new experience for you or have you bowled in the past? Explain.

A: Bowling is a new experience for me. I may have bowled twice before I joined the team. I enjoyed it, so I joined the team to learn more about the sport.

Q: Is there anyone in particular that you admire or envy? If so tell us a little about it.

A: Barbara Manson, the captain of our team, is a very good bowler. Sometimes she bowls over a 200 score. I would like to achieve a score like that before the year is over.

CHEERLEADERS ARE

JUST POSITIVELY POSITIVE

As a spectator, one notices that cheering for a winning team appears easier than for a losing team. While watching a football game, one detects the continual attempts of cheerleaders to keep the crowd high and psyche up the team. At times, it seems that the girls are ready to give up, but somehow or another they manage to keep their radiant smiles. While viewing a basketball game, a spectator recognizes a sense of ease amongst the cheerleaders. Perhaps the indoor routines exhibit more gymnastics than the outdoor cheers will permit, but the basketball cheerleaders sense of ease however, could very well be developed because of the high-spirited crowds. Both football and basketball cheerleaders work their hardest to inspire both the crowd and team.

Close-Up

Q: Do you think cheering could affect a team's performance? If so, how?

A: It helps psyche the players up for their game and always lets them know that our school stands behind them. Cheerleaders bring spirit, enthusiasm, and excitement into the game which in turn gets the fans involved in the game.

Q: As a cheerleader, how would you evaluate yourself?

A: I consider myself to be a good cheerleader. On the court, I always smile and enjoy being part of the squad. I'm always on time and ready to give it my best for every game.

Q: Have you cheered for CHS in the past? If so, when?

A: Yes, as a sophomore I began cheering for the Ramblers for both Football and Basketball and I have continued to make the squad again in my Junior and Senior year.

Q: Would you consider cheering a sport or an activity?

A: I consider cheerleading to be a sport. There are try-outs, cuts, practice drills, and many hours of hard work just as with all other teams. We can be found each day after school trying out new routines and perfecting the old ones.

Q: Will cheering be a part of your future? If so, explain.

A: Yes, although the school I will be attending does not have any sport-related teams, thus making me hang up my pom-poms, I won't actually be on the floor cheering any longer, but I will continue to enjoy watching the talents of others.

An Interview With Mrs. Cunha

Q: Is cheering considered an activity or a sport?

A: I consider cheerleading a sport. It involves numerous practices and games as with any other sport and the girls are awarded letters and certificates for their participation.

Q: How important do you feel the role of the cheerleaders in the boys' Championship season?

A: I feel the presence of the cheerleaders at games contributes to the enthusiasm from the fans and gives a "lift" to the players.

Q: Do you feel cheerleaders get the respect they deserve?

A: Cheerleaders are again becoming more respected by their peers. In the past, they didn't get all the respect they deserved but it appears to be improving.

Q: Where do you get the inspiration for your cheers?

A: The girls make up their own cheers. The words are usually thought of first and then the motions follow.

P OSITIVELY P ERFECT S EASON

DIVISION CHAMPS 8-0

RAMBLER DEDICATION

The Carteret High School Winter Track Team had a very exciting season this year. Despite having a squad with only three seniors, the underclass boys worked very diligently and achieved an undefeated season as they captured the Greater Middlesex Conference Blue Division Championship with an average score of 50-27.

The strength of the team was its depth as more than one boy scored consistently in each event. Danny Aurelio did very well in the shot put and was backed up by Rick Nagy and Kevin Portington. Joe Polanin teamed with Danny to medal in the State Relay Championships at Princeton University's Jadwin Gym. High jumpers Aaron Conway and Danny Brucato combined efforts to become both state and county champions in the high jump relay with a best effort of 12 feet. Emile Hampton and Julio Gonzalo scored well in the hurdles all season in dual meets and joined by Sal Shane and Troy Chapman placed third in the shuttle hurdle relay in the State Relays. Sal was undefeated in the Blue Division dual meets in the 55 meter dash. He also placed fourth in the dash at the GMC Championships. Troy had an excellent season in the 400 meter dash in which he placed fourth at the GMC Championships. Aaron, Emile, Sal and Troy comprised the mile relay team that lost only once in dual meet competition and was third at the Championships.

In the longer distances, Julio had an excellent season in the 800 meter run, losing only one dual meet. Jim Leschinsky was a mainstay in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs where he averages seven points a meet and won both races in a single meet four times. Adding depth to the distance events were Mike Mudrak who contributed 23 points and Dom Desimone.

Several other athletes who contributed to the success this year and who will in the future contribute even more as they progress are John Maresca, Allen Carter, Kyle Carroll, Mark Hudak, and Chris Serson.

These young men all worked very hard this year and really earned their championship. Their attitude was very positive in practice and they were excellent competitors. Those returning next year will need to work even harder to improve and maintain their lofty status. This team proved that even though they might not have had as much ability as some of their opponents, they were mentally tougher than any of them.

HANG IN THERE! Senior Dominick Desimone struggles toward the finish line after the 8th lap of his two mile race.

Sophomore Danny Brucato clears the high jump bar set at 5' 10" to take first place for the Ramblers.

Senior Joe Polanin gives it his all to gain feet over the Rambler's opponent.

Junior Emile Hampton leads the Ramblers to first place over Highland Park.

DOMINICK DESIMONE

Close-Up

Q: What are your future plans and will track be a part of it?

A: I plan to attend Middlesex County College in the fall to get my associates degree in accounting. I plan to try out for the cross country team in the fall and play it by ear after that.

Q: How would you evaluate yourself as a runner?

A: I think I am a good runner. I'm not the best but I know that I can become better. Hopefully in college I'll reach my full potential.

Q: How would you describe the relationship between yourself and your coach?

A: I look up to Mr. Donnelly. He is there to bust my rump during practice and help me reach my potential.

Q: How does it feel to be on a championship team?

A: I have waited four long years for this moment. There have been many times that we came close but no cigar. It feels great to be on a championship team, but it will feel better when I get my jacket.

First time senior Steven Haiser prepares himself psychologically for his throw of the day.

Junior Michael Mudrak relaxes himself into a steady pace through the 3200 meter race.

Junior Sal Shane outsteps Highland Park to take 1st place in the 55 meter. Julio Gonzalo finishes with 3rd place.

Junior Aaron Conway expresses his techniques very nicely when doing the high jump.

Sophomore Jim Lescinsky battles it out with Highland Park and takes 2nd place in the 1600 meter run.

Allen Carter, a newcomer for the Ramblers, proves himself to be a quality runner.

Sophomore Julio Gonzalo outruns his opponent to win first place for the Ramblers.

CELENA HILL

Close-Up

Q: How has track influenced your life?
 A: Track has influenced my life by letting me know that I can achieve anything I would like in life. As long as I give a little extra effort, I know that there is something I am going to receive from life. This is an influence from track because when I give that little extra effort in practice, I win my race, but when I don't, I'm a loser. When I lose I know that I'm not giving that effort anymore and I have to try harder; it's the same in life.

Q: Is there anyone to whom you look for inspiration?

A: Yes, my sister Monica, because she is always willing to put in that extra time to help people or to learn something. She is a person who is always giving, not receiving.

Q: How did you gain an interest in running?

A: When I was in fifth or sixth grade, I began running in the AAU Olympics. From then on, I continued running through elementary school until now. The events that I like most are the 200 meters and the 400 meters. I like the 200 meters because it's a race that gives me a chance to accelerate and the 400 because I can pace myself for the first 200 and then pick up speed in the second 200 which gives me endurance.

POSITIVELY FEMININE POWER

The Carteret High School Girl's Winter Track team made a lot of progress this season. They finished with a dual meet record of 2-2 and are looking forward to next winter since there will be only one senior lost to graduation. Celena Hill will be missed because she competed well in the 55 and 400 meter dashes and was a good example to the younger runners through her consistency in meets and in practices. Also running the dashes and hurdling were freshmen Yolanda Easterling, Natasha Johnson, and Mildred Pellott. At the middle and longer distances were Amy Antonello, Kris Dueker, and newcomer Kerry Rhodes who transferred at mid-season and was a positive addition to the team. Kerry placed fifth in the mile at the Greater Middlesex Conference Championships and combined with Celena, Amy, and Yolanda to place in the mile and the sprint medley relays at the GMC Relays. The team also had good depth in the shot put led by Lynn Marci and supported by Florence Hansen, Sue Sterlacci, and Thereza Kahora. Florence won the frosh shot put at the Shore Coaches Relays held at Red Bank High School.

Next year as these Lady Ramblers return and with the help of additional members, the Girl's Winter Track Team should have an excellent season.

Senior Celena Hill recovers calmly by an official after her 55 meter warm-up race.

Freshman Yolanda Easterling edges her way toward the finishing line of her 400 meter race.

POSITIVELY OUT-RAGEOUS

A Returning Squad - Back To Attack

This year's Carteret High School Baseball team is off to a great start with a record so far of 3-1 and scoring 47 runs in 4 games, losing only to Spotswood when the game was called on account of darkness. This year's team is showing what they can do despite the lack of a home field advantage since the field is undergoing renovation. Coach Nelson had said that you "play like you practice" and although they don't have a practice field, the Ramblers are playing up to par.

No one had expected last year's Rambler Team to go as far as they did, making it to the finals in the Middlesex County Tournament. Many Ramblers are returning from that surprising team. Pitchers Vic Sterlacci and Joe Reilly, who combined for 17 wins last season, are back on the mound for the Ramblers. Catcher Jim Hart, Varsity from Sophomore year, is back behind the plate. And the field is stocked with talent. Senior Tim Irving already with 4 homeruns plays the hot corner at third base. Rich Ryan stands next at short stop.

Senior Bruce Hronich is in left field and his younger brother Glenn is at 2nd. Scott Nydick and Robert Marino are at first and Tom Lenahan is in center. All combine for a solid defense.

The Rambler offense is as powerful as the defense is strong, batting .292 last year as a team and headed for an even better season this year.

A solid team all around, the Ramblers should be a team to watch in '86.

Up-Close

Q: Do you agree with Mr. Nelson that last year you were a junior dominated team or does the loss of last year's seniors affect the team a lot?

A: Yes, I feel that last year there were a lot of junior standouts, but the seniors gave us a strong foundation. In a way, the loss affected us because they took away a lot of good bats and a lot of speed in the field.

Q: Do you feel that the team has an advantage over any other team?

A: Yes, there is an advantage because we have coaches for specific areas, like Coach Niemiec for pitching, Coach Duncan for fielding and of course Mr. Nelson, our Head Coach.

Q: Do you feel your individual performance is where you want it to be?

A: No right now it's not. With a little more work, it will come around. I have to work harder than I did before.

Q: Did being ranked #1 put anymore pressure on the team than normal?

A: It wasn't really pressure but to keep up the image of being #1. That will make you work harder.

Coach Nelson

Q: How does this year's team compare to last year's team and what are your expectations?

A: The teams are similar in that we have veterans returning and sophomores and juniors to fill the holes. I have high expectations and expect to win. But there is a disadvantage in not having a home field.

Q: Are there any exceptional individuals to watch this year?

A: I expect Bruce Hronich, Vic Sterlacci, Joe Reilly and Tim Irving to carry the team.

Q: After 19 years of coaching, did you every consider retiring?

A: Yes, I've coached 23 years, total 19 Varsity, and I would like to coach 25 years total, then seriously consider retiring.

Q: How do you view the baseball program?

A: It's a good program and my staff and I approach it like we would a class. We try to teach baseball and the fundamentals.

POSITIVELY SCORING

A Season Of Change

This year's Rambler Softball team is a team to watch. With many starters returning from last year, they have the experience needed to pull off another winning season. The Softball program has come a long way in three years under the coaching of Head Coach Nick Scheno. Last year's team tied the school record for wins and hopes this year to break it.

The team this year is working harder and longer to go further. Already off to a good start with a record of 4-2, this team should be in contention for the conference, the counties, and possibly even the states.

As each player strives to reach her best, the team should reach a strong peak and be a team to beat in the '86 season.

UP-CLOSE

Q: What is the one thing about this year's team that you like the most?

A: Basically, the fact that our team is very versatile! There is not one player on our team that could not fill a position if needed.

Q: What goal do you as an individual want to reach this season?

A: I would like to keep my batting up in the 400's like I have the past 2 years. (And not to step on any foul balls but to catch them!)

Q: How did the loss of last year's seniors affect the team?

A: Last year we lost our starting pitcher, but returning this year are 2 pitchers equal in ability who can do the job just as well. Also losing a 1st baseman and a right fielder whose positions are being filled in admirably.

Coach's Corner - Nick Scheno

Q: How does this year's softball team compare to those in the past?

A: This year's team is the most experienced team we've had in the past 3 years, and talent-wise is probably more talented than any team in the past.

Q: What are your expectations for the team of the year?

A: To give 100% effort at all practices and games, and to play to the best of their ability. If we do this, we can compete for our division championship this year.

Q: Team to Team, how do you feel the team could do this season? How far could they go?

A: I think we are capable of beating any team we play this year, however, every team we play is also capable of beating us. Mentally we have to be ready for every game.

Q: In the 3 years you've been here, how has the team progressed?

A: The team I feel, has progressed nicely. In 1984 we set a school record with 15 wins. The previous record was 11. In 1985 we equalled the record with 15 wins again. This year we have a chance to win more than 15 games if we play the way we are capable of playing. So in my three years, I think we have shown good progress.

Boy's Tennis

This year's '86 CHS Tennis Team has a great deal of potential. This year's starting line up are all underclassmen with 6 out of the 7 being Juniors. John Donovan is positioned at 1st singles and Glen Munro at 2nd. Sukyun Cho and Kevin Horak play 1st doubles, with Rick Newmark and KC Martorelli at 2nd. Pat Galino plays 3rd singles. All will all be returning next year. Even though our team lacks experience, we are still a formidable team to reckon with this year and will be even more so next year.

Positive Concentration! Junior John Donovan examines the ball accurately before he makes his move to return it to the Ramblers' opponent.

COACH MRS. KUSHNER

Close-Up

Q: As a coach, what is your outlook for tennis this season?

A: I feel that this season will be a rebuilding season. There are only 2 returning starters and a comparatively young team otherwise. My outlook is hopeful and I feel with hard work, the team will do well.

Q: How would you compare this year's team to those of previous years?

A: This team has a different attitude. They enjoy playing tennis and they work as a whole unit. They seem to understand what sportsmanship really means.

Q: What are the strengths and weaknesses of this team?

A: The strengths of the team seem to lie within the singles. The reason for that is experience. The doubles are weak at this present time; however, much practice will overcome this problem.

Q: Could additional support from the town and school help in strengthening the program?

A: At this present time, the support we receive from the school is adequate. The Recreation Department also provides a summer tennis program which helps us to gain interested young people.

Q: Who is your toughest competition this season?

A: Our toughest competition this season are Highland Park, North Brunswick, Metuchen, and South Brunswick.

WHAT A TEAM!

The Rambler Track team is a potentially powerful team this spring season. The Ramblers ended the winter track season with an incredible record of 8-0, bringing fear to all other competitive schools this season.

The squad consists of only two seniors, Steven Plewa and Dominick Desimone, who have been on the team for four consecutive years. They'll be missed but the thrust and power of the team is mainly in the hands of the underclassmen. Juniors Emile Hampton, Sal Shane, Tom Chapman, Michael Mudrak and Danny Aurelio proved themselves to be quality throwers and runners. Sophomores Jim Lescinski, Troy Chapman, Julio Gonzalo, Danny Brucato and John McCray also contributed greatly to the Rambler's overall performance.

This season will be a most interesting and exciting one for both the runners and the coaches. It's been a while since the Ramblers displayed their true potential as runners and now the time has come. So watch out! They're coming at high speed with full force!

COACH KALAS

Close-Up

Q: What are some of your responsibilities as an assistant coach?

A: I provide individual and small group attention to athletes in order to improve their performance much the same as I do in the classroom to help students improve their learning.

Q: What is the purpose of an assistant coach in the track?

A: I feel the purpose of an assistant coach in track is the same as in any other sport, to work with a specific group of individuals or skills, thus freeing time for the Head Coach to intensify instruction in areas he feels it is necessary.

Q: Is coaching a new experience for you?

A: I've become a rookie coach in two sports this school year, Freshman Football and Track. As a rookie there has been much to learn, ie. organizing practices, matching abilities to positions or events and evaluating both team performances and my own. Both coaching experiences have been enjoyable.

Q: AS a track coach, what do you feel are some the teams weaknesses and strong points?

A: I feel as a team we might be a little stronger if more girls were participating this season and if more freshman, both boys and girls were participating to give us more strength for the future.

Our present strong points, as I see them, are the enthusiasm and multiple talents of the girls and the depth of talent on the team combined with some expected and some surprising field success for the boys.

POSITIVE POTENTIAL

"The girls have a good chance to take the championship this year."

These words are in the minds of Carteret's Girl's Spring Track team and Coaches Shadell, Donnelly, Purro, and Kalas this season. So far the outlook is good because they have beaten their greatest competition, Highland Park, with a score of 64-56.

At the Falcon Relays in Brick Township the 4x400 team consisting of Celena Hill, Kris Dueker, Amy Antonello, and Kerry Rhodes placed fourth with a time of 4:47:02. The shot putters came in third with a distance of 78'7 1/4 with an effort by Colleen Sheerin, Flo Hansen and Lynn Marci. The 4x800 team (Hill, Dueker, Antonello, and Rhodes) medaled a second place with a time of 11:01:07. The discus team (Marci and Hansen) also medaled a second place with the combined distance of 164'7.

The Toms River South Relays showed continuous promise with a great effort from all the participants. The javelin throwers of Lynn Marci, Colleen Sheerin, and Joann Galinis placed a fourth place with a distance of 234'8. Discus (Galini, Hansen, and Marci) medaled a third place with a distance of 78'10 1/4.

The girls are very optimistic about the team's future and with their continuous hard work and dedication capturing the championship seems more a reality.

POSITIVELY A HOLE IN ONE

Are We Up To Par?

In recent years, there has been a lack of players. Perhaps not due to a lack of interest but to a lack of facilities. There is no program for kids who wish to play and no golf course within 20 miles of Carteret. Most of the players that compete are the sons of golfers.

At the beginning of the spring season, Carteret was still unsure of whether they had a golf team or not. It was not until 2 weeks before the first match that they had recruited enough members. Four starters from last year's team had returned, including three seniors: Don Nelson, Joe Nardi, and Ron Mardenly and one Sophomore, Joe Roche. Two more under classmen make the new addition to the team- Frank Shipman and Terry Chubenko. The Ramblers face a tough schedule this year with almost thirty matches to play in their new conference.

What a swing! Senior Ron Mardenly practices his poise and accuracy as he prepares himself for the upcoming match.

DONALD NELSEN

Up-Close

Q: What are your plans for the future and is golf going to be a part of it?

A: My plans for the future are to go to college and then become a N.J. State Trooper. I'll be playing golf for fun.

Q: How did you gain your interest in golf?

A: My grandfather introduced me to golf. We had nothing to do one day so he decided to teach me to play.

Q: Do you think golf is a competitive or leisure sport? Why?

A: Golf is both a competitive and leisure sport. It is very competitive in high school, college, and on the professional level where they play for hundreds of thousands of dollars. It is also a leisure sport because the majority of people play to relax and have fun.

Q: How long have you participated on the golf team?

A: I have been playing golf for five years, four of them with the high school.

Q: Has your coach had any affect on your performance as a golfer?

A: Mr. Olear, the high school golf coach, has had a great affect on my golf performance. He taught me how to control my game and avoid making mistakes.

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

TO THE CLASS OF 1986,

I should like to take this opportunity to extend to the Class of 1986 my personal congratulations. Your graduation marks your first major step toward adulthood. As you continue on your journey and leave CHS behind, I should like to leave you with a final thought from an unknown writer:

What I am is my gift from God;

What I become is my gift to God.

You will become the future. You have within you the potential to shape that future. Make your loved ones proud as you become the embodiment of good, truth, and justice.

OUR GUIDE

Mrs. Chiravalle lets her pride show through.

Mrs. Marie Chiravalle is a dedicated member of the C.H.S. Guidance Department who has instructed the Class of 1986 for the past 4 years.

She is a C.H.S. graduate herself, and she received her B.S. Degree in Health and Physical Education, with a minor in Biology, from the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. She obtained her first of two masters degrees in Student Personnel Services from Jersey City State College. Mrs. Chiravalle received her second masters degree in school administration at Seton Hall University.

Mrs. Chiravalle was previously a health and phys. ed. teacher here at C.H.S. before becoming a guidance counselor in 1981. When asked to compare the Carteret High School of today to C.H.S. as it was when she attended it, Mrs. Chiravalle had the following to say: "There have been positive and progressive changes which afford the students with more opportunities, not only academically, but personally as well." She also said that the faculty/student relationship is much better today.

When asked to relate her feelings about C.H.S. in one statement Mrs. Chiravalle said, "It's my alma mater, and I'm proud of it."

Mrs. Chiravalle assists Dawn Dohlstrom in making her college plans.

To the class of 1986:

"It has been my pleasure to work with this senior class the last four years. I wish all of you the very best wishes for a healthy, happy, and prosperous future.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Marie Chiravalle

The C.H.S. Guidance Department has helped us through many hard times and for their dedicated efforts, we thank them.

A C.H.S. VETERAN

Mr. Allen Riley, Carteret High's Social Studies Department Head, has a long history in Carteret. Born and raised here, he graduated from C.H.S. in 1960. He then attended Seton Hall University, where he received his B.S. Degree in Secondary Education. He also received his M.A. Degree in History from Seton Hall in 1967. He began working on his Doctoral Degree at N.Y.U. in 1968. This work ceased when he was chosen, along with 19 other teachers from the N.Y. Metropolitan area, to travel to India to study the culture and the people. In the summers of 1967 and 1968, Mr. Riley received government grants to pursue his studies in specific areas. In 1967, he attended Hofstra University and took Far East Studies and in 1968 he attended Rutgers University to study Latin American History.

He began teaching at C.H.S. in September of 1965, and this year is his 21st year here as a faculty member. When asked to compare his perspectives on Carteret High School from when he was a student, C.H.S. was a compact school where everyone knew each other. Now, he states, "The students and faculty work very closely with one another." When asked to sum up his feelings about C.H.S. Mr. Riley said, "It's a very special place to me."

A dedicated Mr. Riley.

A C.H.S. ROOKIE

An enthusiastic Mr. Niccoletti.

Mr. Frank L. Niccoletti has taught English for the past fifteen years at Columbia High School. This year is his first as the Head of the English Department here at the school. When asked what his reactions to the school were, he answered, "Excuse the cliché, all very positive. I think that in Carteret there is still a desire among parents and teachers to develop some very basic and civic virtues."

Mr. Niccoletti graduated from Seton Hall University with a B.A. and M.A. in English. His high school alma mater was Holy Cross in Riverton, N.J. Currently, Frank Niccoletti lives in Montclair.

Out of school, Mr. Niccoletti enjoys riding horses. "In all these years, I have only been thrown once," recalls the rider.

He plays a "lousy" violin, and is fond of baseball and boxing. "I really like knock down, drag out, muddy football and passionate operas," comments the English teacher. He relates the two activities because both football and operas have passion, struggle, discipline, and beauty. Mr. Niccoletti enjoys many of life's activities to their fullest.

POSITIVELY DEDICATED

Mr. Frank Walsh is a very active and dedicated individual who strongly believes education is the key to a stronger and a more promising society.

He entered the field of education because it gives him a great deal of satisfaction. "I look forward to teaching because everyday is a challenge," states Mr. Walsh. Since he entered teaching, he has given a total commitment to his students and to the community in which he serves.

While not teaching, he is very active in the community. He is presently President of the Local Teachers Board. He is the Assistant Director at Holy Innocence of St. Margaret's. He finds great pleasure in being a Eucharistic Minister at St. Margaret's. In our own community of Carteret, he was appointed Commissioner of the Handicapped Office by Mayor Sica. When he finds free time, he enjoys jogging, swimming, and fishing.

Mr. Walsh is a very dedicated man who is committed to education, local organizations, and his religion. He teaches people to strive for excellence and to be the best person possible. Teaching is a rewarding profession and Mr. Walsh has certainly dedicated himself to it.

Mr. Walsh brightens our school with his spirit.

Mr. Fossa shows the school every day just how dedicated he is.

Positively Musical

Mr. Alan Fossa is presently the only faculty member of the music department here in the school. This devoted teacher conducts band class, music theory, choir, and private lessons during the day. "It's a lot of work. In order to have a viable program both vocally and instrumentally, the demands are tremendous, but so are the rewards," states the music teacher. With his close staff, including assistant band director Mr. Tom Makovieki, front advisor Ms. Larissa Huchko, drill advisor Mr. Ralph Fair, and front consultant Ms. Jill Fair, Mr. Fossa has led students into marching band competitions. Going beyond the limits of teaching, Alan Fossa has practice with the band several hours after school and on selected Saturdays. He also conducts other activities such as Jazz Band and Winterguard.

Alan Fossa began playing the trumpet in eighth grade before attending J.F. Kennedy High School in Iselin. He then attended Montclair State College. "My life is inundated with music," remarks Alan Fossa.

POSITIVELY SCIENTIFIC

Dr. Hricko explains a complicated procedure.

Dr. Karl Hricko is the Science Department Head in Carteret High School. He began his education at New York University and furthered his education by receiving a masters degree at Jersey City State College. He reached the pinnacle of his education at Rutgers University, where he received a Doctorate Degree in educational science. He continued to further his education by attending summer courses at San Diego College in California and at Illinois University. "I believe this is important because science keeps progressing and I feel to keep my students interested, up-to-date information should be taught," states Dr. Hricko.

"I enjoy teaching very much and if faced with the same decision again, I would choose the same profession. It creates a balance between fulfillment of the career and the wages," says Dr. Hricko. Besides teaching, he participates on the Planning Committee for the convention of the New Jersey Science Teaching Association. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking on weekends. He also finds interest in listening to a variety of music. He continually furthers his knowledge by reading literature on many subjects besides science. On occasion, he may draw or paint.

Dr. Hricko is a well-rounded person who finds enjoyment in both educating the mind and expressing himself artistically. I believe having knowledge in many areas and not only his specialty is what makes Dr. Hricko a complete person.

1986 CLASS

The class officers of Carteret High School have many responsibilities. The entire class depends on them for a variety of things. The Freshmen officers must begin to build class unity. The Sophomore officers must begin the fundraising activities that will enable the class to participate in the many activities of Junior and Senior year. The Sophomore officers must also arrange the ordering of Class Rings. The Junior officers are in charge of organizing the Junior Prom, a much anticipated event. The Senior Class officers, however, have the most difficult job. It is up to them to organize the the class trip, the Senior Dinner Dance, various fund raisers, and the special gift that the class will donate upon graduation.

FRESHMEN: ROW 1: Mrs. Kushner, Advisor; B. Gillis, Vice-President; K. Healy, Corresponding Secretary; Mr. Simon, Advisor. Row 2: G. Sharma, Treasurer; W. Barlow, President; M. Traina, Recording Secretary.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE

Places! It is at this very moment when Director Mr. Spaldo's announcement to the cast of George Washington Slept Here made the butterflies most noticeable. Actors and actresses pacing nervously back and forth, sound checks by the stage crew, last minute line checks are nothing out of the ordinary seconds before the curtain goes up. This year's cast was an inexperienced one, but was eager to learn. With veterans such as Lynn Hansen, who has been in the past four productions, and Celena Hill coaching on from the sides, it was an easy job. Auditions occurred before the Christmas vacation and parts were announced in January. Practices then began on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays after school. Preparations for a new set were underway in the Industrail Arts Department. The Stage Manager, Patty Osborne, fell ill and had to be replaced by Gerilyn Scerbo, People weren't showing up to rehearsal, cast members were getting sick and were not memorizing lines and Mr. Spaldo was getting uptight. After a thrashing at the cast, they all got together and practice was a lot smoother. By the week of the performance, a few sections were shaky but that would come together. The cast included Anthony Ruela, Debbie Dolan, Lynn Hansen, Mike Starsiak, Celena Hill, John Donovan, Sue Gillis, Sue Hornak, and Steve Plewa in the main roles, our favorite teachers in supporting but surprising roles, and our ever faithful crew led by Anthony Szyzkiewicz.

THE PERFECT HOMECOMING

As always, the selection of a Carteret Homecoming Queen is a process full of excitement for the entire student body. This year the election was sponsored by the Student Council. With the reorganization of this group, there have been many changes. The Homecoming election was one of these changes.

This year, the candidates were nominated as representatives of the various athletic teams and clubs or activities throughout the school. Once this list was compiled, the members of the senior class voted for the five finalists pictured here. The finalists were then presented to the entire student body at a pre-game pep rally. This enabled all of the students to see the candidates and make their decision. Voting took place during the sixth period class after the rally. The results were then tabulated by a very secretive Student Council under the vigilant eye of Mr. Charles Simon, advisor.

At half-time of the November 1 game against St. Peters, the queen was crowned. All candidates were escorted onto the field. The air was filled with anticipation as the Lady-in-Waiting was announced. Michele Semenza was presented with a beautiful bouquet of white mums trimmed with blue ribbons.

The excitement increased as Steve Plewa, Senior Class President, and Tim Hoehler, Treasurer, came forward to crown Celena Hill as the 1985 Carteret Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming Queen candidates Celena Hill, Vicki McDonough, Cheryl McGillis, Denise Scerbo, and Michele Semenza were presented to the entire student body at the pre-game pep rally.

Steve Plewa, Senior Class President, and Tim Hoehler, Treasurer, prepare for the crowning ceremony under the watchful eye of Mrs. Ruth Olear.

Celena Hill graciously accepts the football signed by the 1985 Ramblers as a symbol of her selection as queen.

Michele Semenza and escort Ray Villano are filled with anticipation as they make their way onto the football field.

PERFECT EVENING OF MEMORIES

On April 19, 1985, the Junior Prom was held at the East Brunswick Chateau under the theme "In Search of Excellence." Music was by the band Chelsea who performed the prom song "Can't Fight This Feeling" by REO Speedwagon and the dinner was prime rib.

As the event of the year for the juniors, the girls waited in anxious hope, hoping that their gowns would be unique while the guys grimaced at the thought of donning a tuxedo. But all in all, the night proved to be one filled with laughter, good friends, and many memories.

The cocktail hour was from 7 to 8 during which hot o'rdrorves were served. During this time, the pictures were taken. As the couples arrived, the excitement built to the point of explosion. Nerves overtook most wondering who would be the first to get up and dance.....

Mr. Duncan, Class Advisor of 1985, coaxed and finally the first couple stepped onto the floor. This started an endless night of dancing. The night was, however, monitored under the watchful eyes of Class Advisors Mr. Bradach and Miss Hanley. As Chelsea played the last song "Shout," shouts of "We want more!" could be heard before the realization that it was over could be believed.

The day after brought a variety of activities. Some went to Spruce Run where they barbequed, canoed, or just sat around and slept. Some went to Great Adventure to enjoy the amusements. Some still went to the shore where it was a damp and chilly day, but they still managed to enjoy the boardwalk. Some went to New York City to see what could be encountered there. But then there were still those who stayed home to sleep off the exhaustion of the past evening.

However, the 1985 Junior Prom proved to be a success and a night of cherished memories.

RISING COSTS DECREASE ATTENDANCE

As inflation affects our economy, it also affects the pockets of the students when it is time for the prom. It is hardly believable that five or six years ago a bid could be bought for $25 or $30. Now, prices range from $45 to $55. Gowns cost $30 to $50 while now the average range is $60 to $90. Today's teenager cannot afford to pay these high prices, so many choose to wait till the Senior Dinner Dance. This year's prom just about met the quota needed.

Fundraisers which help to reduce the cost of bids to the students are held by the classes but lack of interest puts the classes in financial stress. So prices rise and attendance drops.

Participate in school fundraisers and next time the prom or dinner dance may not be so expensive!

"Only 36 more turns and then I get my ring locked!" These words are spoken by almost every Junior who buys a class ring. Getting these rings is one of the most exciting and memorable moments of Junior year, since they will last forever as a reminder of high school years.

To make this moment even bigger and better, this year the Junior class sponsored a ring dance. Not only did it give the rest of the school a chance to enjoy themselves, but it also served as the perfect atmosphere for a ring ceremony. The rings, distributed by Junior Class Officers, were eagerly received and almost immediately turned on 175 fingers.

The ring dance was a successful new idea, one which might possibly become a tradition in years to come. This unique activity was just one way of adding a touch of the class of 1987.

POSITIVELY UNIQUE

CLASS OF 1988

OVERCOMING SOPHOMORE BLUES

One of the highlights of sophomore year is being able to say that one is not a freshman anymore. But, it is soon found out that this is quite a radical and unique year. Where do sophomores fit in?

In the second year of high school, what is there to look forward to? The class is no longer new, yet its students are still considered underclassmen. They do not get their class rings, driver's licenses, prom, or dinner dance. Instead there are harder and more challenging classes, more homework, and the dreaded "sophomore slump."

Included in the "sophomore slump" package deal are the pressures of being expected to adapt to the new routine. Greater responsibilities and a very long year lies ahead. All of this is quite a lot to handle at once and unfortunately the sophomores do not get much compassion from freshmen, juniors, and seniors. For the most part, this year can be terribly bland.

The class of 1988, however, has learned to make the best of it. First of all, being better acquainted with the school they are more friendly and less inhibited than they used to be. They have sparked new life into their class by winning the "spirit stick" at a pep rally during the fall season.

This sophomore class has unified through their involvement in school activities such as dances, pep rallies, and other fund raisers. Many students have experienced getting their first job and have ordered their class rings. The outlook for the next two years seems bright. After getting through this year, they are prepared for anything.

POSITIVELY FRESH

CLASS OF 1989

A NEW BEGINNING

Freshman year is an exciting yet anxious time for the students at Carteret High school. The class of 1989 is faced with many new challenges and expectations during this year.

From the beginning, there is the starting out at a larger school and meeting different teachers. There is the initiation of a new routine with waking up earlier and having longer classes. They must get accustomed to opening their lockers without being late to class or be faced with torture by upperclassmen for having to carry all their books around.

As the year goes on, they find that there are opportunities in which to get involved. However, the reality of longer and harder work settles them. The threat of detention (A.K.A. class make-up) stares them in the face. For the first time there are mid-terms and final exams which are to be dealt with. Gradually, the freshmen find themselves growing more independent. Responsibility and decisions have been mounting.

By the end of the school year, these freshmen find positive change. Perhaps there are new friends, recipients of freshman, JV, or Varsity letters, honor roll achievers, or the accomplishments of some goals, they never thought possible. Freshman year: These memories captivate an unforgettable experience.
