THEN...

"The 1942 Loudspeaker Staff is happy to present the first yearbook in the history of Carteret High School... Literally, the class of 1942 buckles on its armor and goes forth to fight real battles in a war-torn world. May the lessons of courage, of good sportsmanship, and of loyalty, that we have learned in school, assist us to carry the torch to victory."

HIGH SCHOOL

NOW...

Welcome! The year is 1992 and the Carteret High School yearbook staff is happy to present the 50th edition of the Loudspeaker. In order to commemorate our golden anniversary, we've gone back fifty years in time. The past will help us show how far we've come along. Now we live in an age where computers and modern technology have become second nature to us. Maybe fifty years from now you'll look at this and reminisce about the "good old days" of 1992.

Clockwise: Kristie Dovener and Brian Lourenco living in the age of computers. Christy Ashley and Jerome Stanford also take advantage of a modern technological invention, the microwave. Joe Drozd, Paul Wojcich, Duvan Sierra, Mr. Tucker, Alex Colon, Danny Shipman, Frank Chelbian, and Luis Santos work in the Woods Laboratory. John Wasiczko and Kristina Bartorillo at a vending machine; unfortunately, modern inconveniences such as waiting in line also exist.

THE CLASS OF 1992

Mrs. Susan Naples
Mr. John Hudak

The Class of '92's faculty advisors worked together to help us through the good and bad times of our high school years. Mr. Toro, Mrs. Naples, and Mr. Hudak were always there for us, and, for this, they deserve our thanks.

Mr. Toro and Mrs. Naples, as our class advisors, were there to hold meetings and start fundraisers. They were as much a part of our class as the students when it came to Spirit Week, the prom, and the Senior Trip.

Mr. Hudak has been a friend as well as a counselor. He's given us guidance in every aspect of life. Whether it be a schedule change, a problem with our grades, or problems in our lives, or a college application, he was always there for us.

One thing is for sure: the class of '92 could never have made it without these three special people. We will never forget you or the memories you helped us create.

Above: Mr. Toro and Mrs. Naples wait in the lobby for the dinner dance committee who are about to go look at locations for the dinner dance. Right: Mr. Hudak reviews transcripts as he prepares to write recommendations for some of his college bound students.

HONORS....

CLASS OFFICERS

Row 1: Jennifer Lisicki, 2nd Vice President; Kristie Dovener, Treasurer; Patty Liu, Recording Secretary; Heather Platt, 1st Vice President. Row 2: Jin Ho Ra, Sargent-at-Arms; Kerri Panza, Corresponding Secretary; Mr. Toro, Advisor; Jennifer Grabowski, Historian; Mrs. Naples, Advisor; Danielle Serio, President.

Center: Heather, Patty, Kristie, and Jennifer prepare the bagels for the first Bagel Breakfast this year. This fundraiser became a trademark of our class.

Below: Jin Ho and Jennifer decorate for the dance.

The Best of Times

Through our path in life we meet others along the way;
Some we'll never see again;
Some will be here to stay.
Those special few we call friends
Will be there till the end.
They'll laugh with us through the good times
And cry with us through the bad.

They make us who we are as we do them.
Without them we'd be no where
We owe it all to our friends.
It takes someone special to make a friend.
It takes someone special to be one.
And in this day and age of hate
It's so damn hard to love someone.

Friends share a special love that can never be torn apart.
The friends we have when we're young
Are the friends we keep in our hearts.
When we leave this place to start anew,
We can't forget the friends we have
Because the best ones last forever and Make the best times we'll ever have.

Goodbyes are always sad. No one said they wouldn't be
But it's harder to say goodbye to a friend
It's like they're shipping off to sea.
So as we say goodbye
In hopes it's not the end
Because while you're gone, I'll be thinking of you
And a life time spent as friends.

WITH YOU ALL THE WAY

Our junior prom, "With You All The Way," was held on Wednesday, April 3, 1991. With the lights low and the music blasting, the Victorian Manor was the place to be. Years from now we will hold the memories of Rosa Cruz's spectacular rendition of our theme song, Frank Chelbian's Vanilla Ice impersonation, and the limbo contest.

You can't put into words the irreplaceable fun that lasted through - out the night. The class of 92's prom was an event that will remain an unforgettable moment because we were together "all the way"!

QUEEN NOMINEES

This year's Homecoming was a time to go down in the history books. With the addition of the king and prince honors, the Student Council managed to change the traditional Homecoming just in time for the Class of '92. In all, there were 31 Queen nominees and 17 King nominees. Of these 48 eligible seniors, the senior class narrowed it down to 5 queen and 5 king finalists. The finalists were for Queen, S. Alling, J. Brucato, R. Cruz, J. Harder, and D. Serio, and for King, F. Chelbian, J. Dreboty, B. Rowley, D. Smith, and J. Welusz.

The finalists were announced at the Homecoming Dance on November 14, 1991. Voting for the King and Queen took place the following morning during homeroom.

KING NOMINEES

The long awaited announcement arrived during halftime of a grueling match-up between Carteret and Monroe on November 15, 1991. Through the misty weather, four convertibles slowly made their way around the track.

After a brief description of all the finalists, Brian Rowley and Jennifer Harder were announced 1991's Homecoming Prince and Princess. Then Don Smith was crowned as CHS's first Homecoming King and Rosa Cruz was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Surrounded by hugs and flowers, this proved to be an unforgettable night for the winners, finalists, and participants who helped make Homecoming '91 a true success.

This is the year; the year they make their move at CHS. Joining clubs, going to dances, and participating in school activities becomes a regularity. They finally get their rings and before they know it, they're dancing at the Junior Prom. Besides this, they hold massive fundraisers in order to deflate the costs.

Generally it is a fun year - the last year before "senior pressures" set in. For many, Junior year is a memorable experience. Next stop: graduation!

What is a Sophomore? Well, a sophomore (wise fool in Latin) is just that - a sophomore. CHS Sophs know their way around so they push around the Frosh. The Sophomore class got used to the ways of CHS and held their Christmas dance. They've ordered their rings and started fund raising for the expenses of the coming year. Sophomore year can leave you with the blues, and the only way to beat those blues is to wait until June.

For freshmen, Sept. 4, 1991 was a day of new clothes, new hallways, new teachers, new friends and (uh oh) upperclassmen!

Our CHS freshmen soon learned there is no pool, no fourth floor and passes to use the elevator for sale. Our freshmen adjusted fairly well; they even learned about Spirit Week and decorated! The freshmen even sponsored a dance, which is pretty good for freshmen. After learning the ropes of CHS, the freshmen only looked forward to one thing - not being itty bitty freshmen anymore. One more thing about freshmen; they do get smaller every year. (written from an upperclassman's point of view)

Every year, right before Thanksgiving break, students are busy with Spirit Week, whether it be the hall decorating, preparing for the pep rally, or playing or watching the Thanksgiving Day football game against our rival team, Perth Amboy. Possibly the most laborious event and one which tries to get all the students' participation and involvement is the hall decorating in which each class is given a designated hallway to decorate one afternoon. Contrary to previous years, there was no competition for the best-looking hallway. However, that didn't stop students from giving the hall decorating their all. An added touch to Spirit Week was the decoration of the stadium the day of the big game. Otherwise, Spirit Week went on as usual, with students showing their school pride and school spirit.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administration is the organization and leadership of this high school. They help make the rules, discipline the students, and keep overall calm in the high school. This year, great changes have taken place with the retirement of Principal Mr. Gilrain, the promotion of Vice-principal Mr. Torre to High School Principal, the promotion of Vice-principal Mr. Siddons to Principal of Columbus School, and the addition of two new Vice-principals, Ms. Sorge and Mr. Barrett. With all of these changes, the administration should be commended for doing such a great job as leaders of this high school.

I would like to congratulate the senior class on their successful journey through Carteret High School during the past four years. On behalf of the staff, I extend a heartfelt thank you for your contributions to your school. You have contributed greatly to Carteret High's successes during the past four years and those contributions are noteworthy and appreciated. Academically, athletically, in service to school and community, and in countless other ways, you have made Carteret High School a better place to be and we are proud of you.

As seniors, you experienced quite a change this year. I'm sure you join me in wishing Mr. Gilrain happiness in his retirement and Mr. Siddons good luck and success in his new role as Principal of Columbus School. But as you will experience throughout life, change is not the exception. Change is on the horizon for you. Your stay at Carteret High School prepared you to deal with change and with future challenges in education, in employment, and in life. I'm confident you will be successful and I'm sure we will be hearing about the accomplishments of this class in future years.

Having ended your journey better prepared to face life's challenges, I wish you the best of luck and success in all you do. I only ask one more thing of you and that is for you to return to us in the future, to share your experiences, successes and failures, to help us meet the challenges that lie ahead for future graduates.

Sincerely,
Joseph Torre

MATHEMATICS

Differentiate $y = 3 \log 5!$ Factor $y = 12x + 4!$ Prove theorem 4.7!? I don't have a clue how to do this! These are just a few of the many problems math teachers face each day. It is their job to decipher what is Greek to students and help to make it easy to understand. It is these math teachers who teach us logic and thinking skills; they form a strong foundation of learning for students to build on. Here, we recognize the math teachers at CHS who do such a wonderful job.

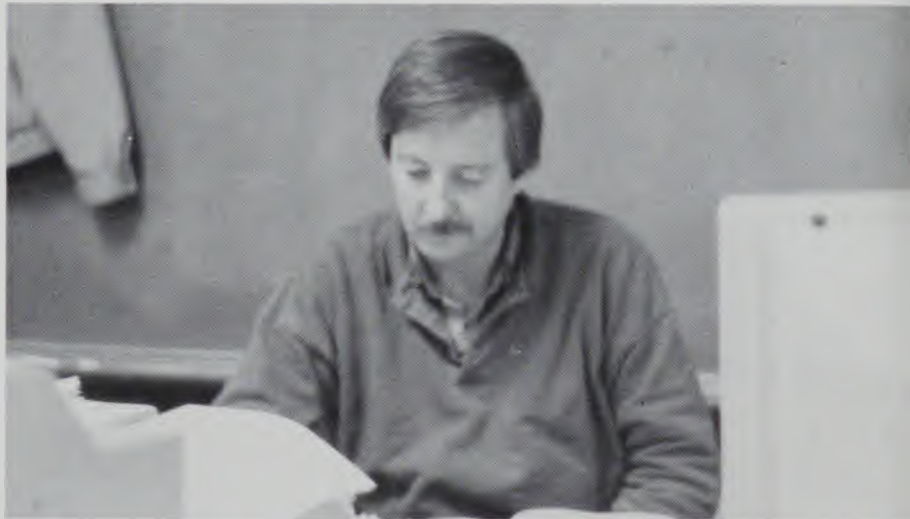

What were your impressions of Carteret High School on your first day? I student taught at CHS, so when I began teaching here I felt familiar with the system. - Mrs. Olear

Mrs. Machos takes her eyes off her study hall students for a few moments.

The people at Carteret High made a lasting first impression on me. The faculty, students, administration, and everybody else at CHS were so friendly and down to earth that I felt very comfortable here right from the outset. Mr. Farrell, in particular, was very helpful.

-Mr. DiSarro, September 1980

I really had no new impressions of Carteret High School on my first day because I attended high school here myself. I enjoyed Carteret High School as a student and I am now enjoying being a teacher here at Carteret High.

-Mrs. Machos, September 1980

ENGLISH

Punctuation, grammar, speech, composition, word usage, writing skills, communication skills, literature: all of these things are taught by English teachers. They are the people who teach us to express our ideas, both verbally and on paper. These people teach us to put our ideas in writing. Think of what an illiterate bunch of fools would be wandering around Carteret if we didn't have our English teachers! These people not only tell us to dot our i's and cross our t's, but also allow us to appreciate the many stories, essays and all literature we have discovered. And yes, we do appreciate it... even poetry!

There were so many kids! I had 35 per class and was completely overwhelmed. Coming from a rural Western Pennsylvania school, the "attitude" and language of the "metropolitan" student amazed me. - Mrs. Grace

HISTORY

History: our heritage, our roots, our background. History is the record of events and people from the past. The history teachers help us learn from and understand the actions of generations and generations of ancestors. From Cro-Magnon to Neanderthal to Sumerian to the Renaissance to the hippies of the 60's, we learn about their past failures and triumphs and use that knowledge to better our lives and the lives of generations to come.

Mr. Garry, Carteret High School's new Afro-American Studies instructor, stops to pose before heading to class.

I don't have any memories of my 1st day of teaching, but certain things stand out about my first year: the mixture of excitement (my 1st full time job!); fears (I was only 5 years older than my students.); and hard work (the textbooks, the material, & the long-term planning as well as the discipline were all new to me). I survived & I like it and the proof is, I'm still here!

Mr. Cowan, who coached soccer for many years, enjoys only having to deal with students during classes.

I saw CHS in a different light: as a teacher. I had formerly been a student at CHS, Class of 1960. It was a chance to work with Carter youth.

Mr. Riley

I remember the faculty and students making me feel comfortable and right at home. I've been "at home" for 24 years!

- Mr. Simon

Mr. Simon began teaching at CHS in 1968.

BUSINESS

The Business Department is a very unique department at CHS. It allows students to learn the practical skills needed for a job before graduation. Business students get the opportunity to take courses like typing, steno, accounting, bookkeeping, and business law which all give them usable knowledge and skills. Students also can work in the school store or go out and work in the afternoons. This gives our business students who may not be planning to go to college the means to get a good job and survive in today's adult world.

Mrs. Cunha, cheerleading and softball coach, and class advisor, shows a great big smile. Must be near the end of the day!

Mr. Nepote assists his typing student, Justin Sroka, with his assignment.

Mrs. Doherty shares her time among the high school and elementary schools where she teaches computer literacy and office simulation.

Mr. Costello, who also coaches golf and is a class advisor, stops for a moment to catch his breath.

Mr. Nelson then and now. He began teaching at CHS in September 1959. "It was just coming home. I had graduated in June of 1954. In fact, the most difficult thing was to have those Juniors and Seniors who knew me stop calling me by my first name."

Mrs. Derillo is busy at her desk, correcting her students' quizzes.

Mr. Scally, Business Department Chairperson, takes a break from helping out and supervising in the school store.

Mrs. Kopko assists her student, Vicky Pinto, in the computer class.

I was a graduate of CHS so most of my impressions were formed as a student. It felt a little unusual to be a part of the faculty, but I really enjoyed teaching and the students.

-Mrs. Derillo

Since I was a graduate of Carters High School, it was very strange coming back as a staff member. I was now a colleague of my former teachers - some of them wanted me to call them by their first names and I just couldn't.

-Mrs. Kopko

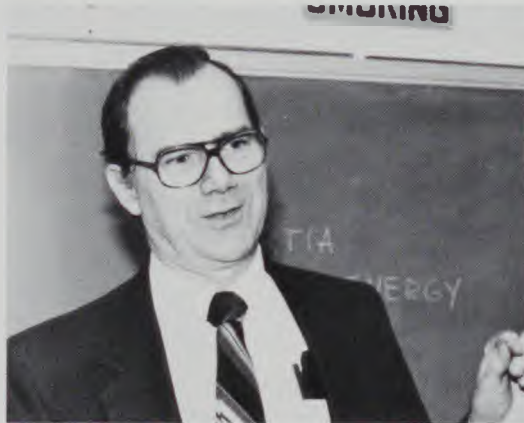

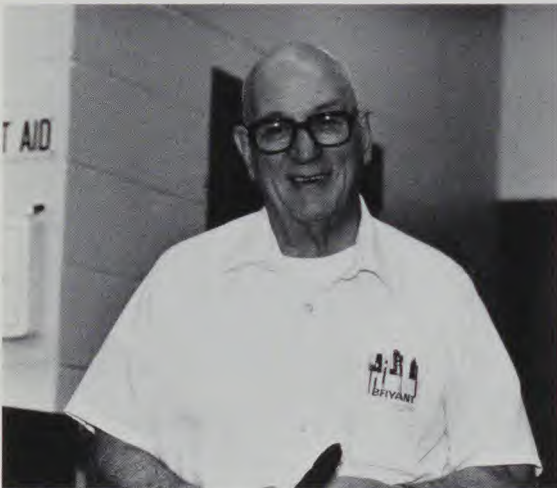

FINE ARTS

Fine Arts teachers are the ones who teach us about the cultured areas of life. They educate us about art and music. They give us the opportunity to acquire skills and knowledge in subject areas other than academic ones. It is fine arts teachers who help us to be well-rounded students and we give them thanks.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Technical Education teachers are responsible for developing our most creative and practical talents. They teach students woodworking, auto mechanics, mechanical drawing and a great variety of other subjects. They provide a basis for us to perform these highly specialized activities, both in school and in the adult world.

Home Economics teachers are responsible for providing us with practical skills needed to survive alone. Students learn clothing construction, foods and nutrition, and parenting skills. Students now also have the opportunity to learn about the chemistry of food in food science class. Overall, life would be much more difficult without the skills taught to us by home economics teachers. They deserve our sincerest thanks.

I graduated from CHS, so I was familiar with the school, but coming in as a new teacher in the middle of the school year (February) was terrible! There were so many things to learn; I didn't think I'd make it to June!

Mrs. Singura, 1983

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Bonjour! Guten Tag! Buenos Dias! Salve! All of these words mean hello in a foreign language. It is the job of the foreign language teachers to help us understand and appreciate the cultures and languages of other countries. They open new horizons of knowledge to students and give us a little taste of how other cultures live.

SCIENCE

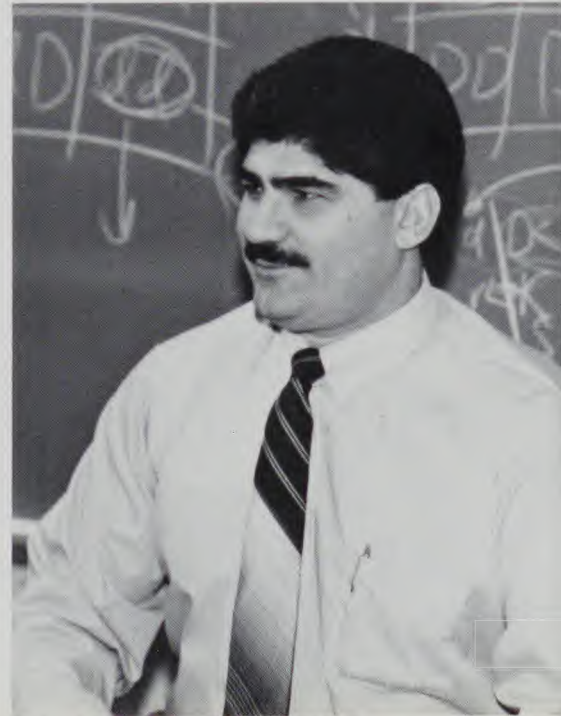

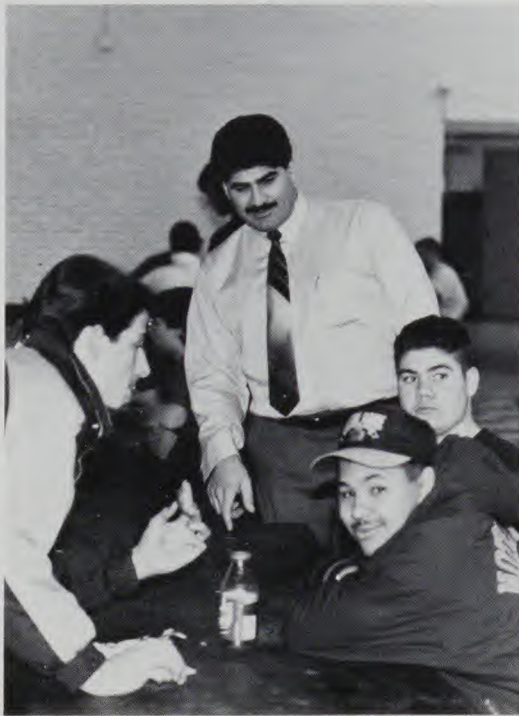

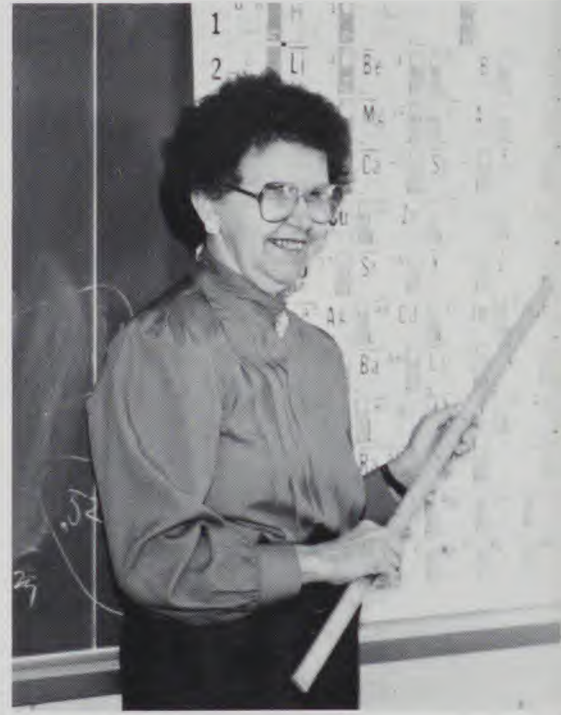

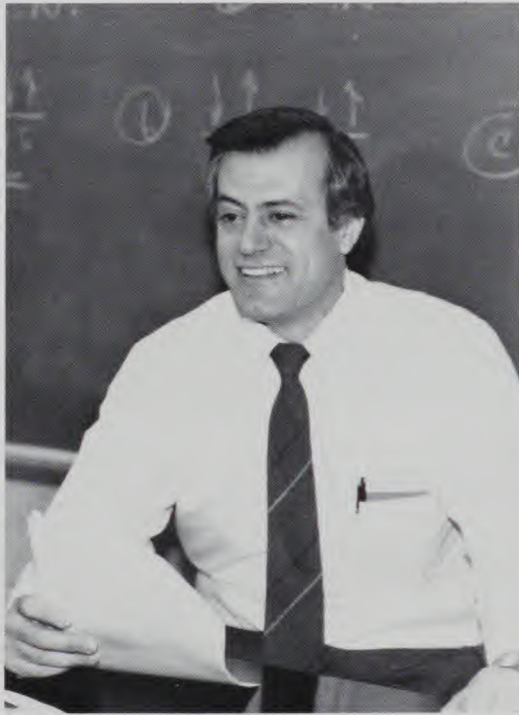

The science teachers play an important role in a student's education. It is their job to help us learn the complex workings of such things as photosynthesis, the human body, chemical reactions, or force, velocity and motion. They decipher formulas that otherwise would be Greek to us: $e=MC^2$, H_2SO_4 , $F=mc$ and many others. We recognize and appreciate the great things that science teachers do for us.

The students and faculty at CHS were very friendly to work with.

Row 2: Dr. Hricko, Science Department Chairperson, explains the human physiology assignment to Katrina; Mr. Picaro, teaching Punnett squares and keeping order in the lounge.

PHYS. ED.

Physical education is one area where there have been many changes over the years. Boys' and girls' gym classes were segregated, and students participated in such activities as archery and wrestling. This year alone, our Driver Theory course has been moved from Junior to Sophomore year, and we have a new Physical Education Head and football head coach in Mr. Weiner. The physical education teachers do a great job of keeping us fit and interested in a class that some people would rather not take. We thank them for their hard work.

A graduate of Carteret High in 1965, I knew that many changes were planned in building structure (The theme for the 1965 yearbook was the construction of the new wing - I was the Art Editor and we used blueprints for section dividers). I was impressed by the boys' gym and locker areas but found that the girls would be restricted to the old gym (girls' gym) for my "all girl" classes. The initial joy turned a bit sad because the girls got all of the old - none of the new! This was well before co-ed gym became a law!

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Carteret High School has so many different courses that people can take. We also have special education classes to assist those who need extra attention in math, English, or social studies. Our special education teachers do a fine job of helping their students keep up and understand what might be quite difficult for them. Their job requires a lot of patience and understanding and we salute them for their hard work.

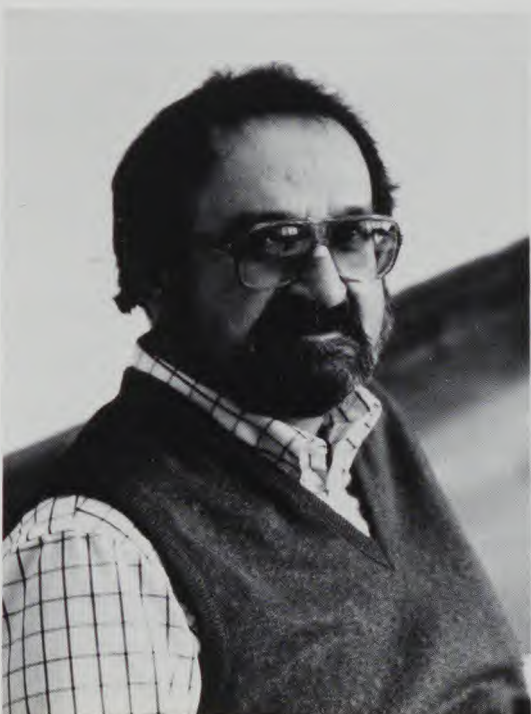

Row 1: Mr. Kalas not only helps his students in the classroom, but on the track as well.
 Row 2: Miss Cerami stops for the camera while helping her student with a history assignment; On and off the baseball field, Mr. Kushner is a very friendly and helpful teacher. Mrs. Prullt checking her students' math assignments while keeping a watchful eye on them.
 Row 3: Mr. Skiba instructs his students in computer use; Mrs. Naples also assists the senior class as their advisor, not just a teacher; Mr. Walsh admiring Carlos Ramos' handwork. Mr. Walsh, CEA President for many years, will be retiring at the end of the year.

Special Services

Special Services is a very crucial part of Carteret High School, but it is rarely recognized for its importance. To most people, Special Services is just where the "shrink" is. Not so. Special Services is made up of dedicated psychologists and social workers. It is their job to talk to us and assist us with any personal problems we may have.

Sylvia Franklin, School Psychologist; Sylvia Hoffman, School Social Worker; Doris Brown, LDT Supervisor.

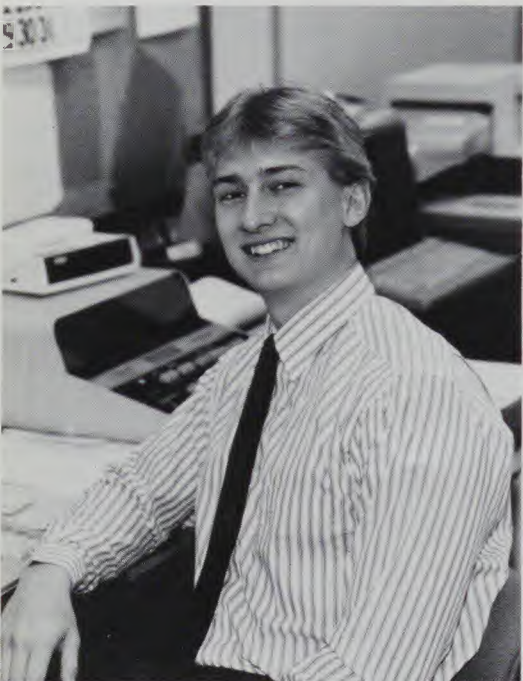

Here we come to a very special section of the yearbook. This is reserved for the faculty members who are in a class by themselves. They do a very unique service for Carteret High School and deserve special recognition.

Center: Mrs. Bodnar, the school nurse, tends to her favorite "customer" Betty Doong. Betty racks up frequent flier miles everyday in the nurse's office, and Mrs. Bodnar takes very good care of her. Right: Mr. Niemiec, Athletic Director, has served many years as one of the baseball coaches. Bottom left: Miss Reilly, school librarian, poses near the hundreds and hundreds of wondrous books that the library has to offer. Right: Mr. Kindzierski taking his watchful eye off the in-school suspension students for just a moment to look at the camera.

SECRETARIES

The secretaries in Carteret High School are the backbone of the school. Without them, much of the efficiency and order that CHS runs on would not exist. Secretaries answer the phones, take messages, type letters, keep records, send out transcripts, organize data, and keep everything in overall good working condition. They all do invaluable work and we thank them for their diligence and dedication.

Row 1: Mrs. Skitka, the library's secretary, busy typing those overdue book notices for all the students.
Row 2: Mrs. Vernachio, main office secretary, getting one of the very few breaks she receives. Smile!; Mrs. Barker, Special Services secretary, busy fielding calls in the office; Mrs. Bonventure, secretary in the nurse's office, busy typing and checking students' records.

GUIDANCE

The Guidance Department and its counselors are the heart and soul of CHS. When students want to talk about problems, discuss college and their future, or just hang out and chat, the guidance counselors are there. They help prepare us for college, make our schedules, fill out applications, and make key decisions that could affect our futures. For this and all the other things they do, we extend our warmest thanks and appreciation.

What were your impressions of CHS on your first day?

I wish I could remember. - Mrs. Checki, 1963

I was overwhelmed. My dream of becoming a teacher had finally come true. At that time there were 1800 students, much bigger than I was accustomed to. I felt very much like a freshman feels coming to school the first day. - Miss Mincieli, 1971.

Everytime someone asked for Mr. Hudak, I thought they were asking for my father. - Mr. Hudak, 1964.

There was a certain amount of pride attached to my first day at CHS. I was thrilled to be working as an educator in my high school alma mater.--Mrs. Chiravalle, 1964.

Carteret High School had to be one of the last schools with a dress code. Women couldn't wear pants. - Mrs. O'Grady, 1970.

SUPERINTENDENTS OF SCHOOLS

Gerald Brown, Retired Assistant Superintendent; Mark Resnick, Assistant Superintendent for Business/Board Secretary; Dr. Robert Hausner, Superintendent of Schools; Louis Panigrosso, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction.

RETIREEES

Another "Sign of the Times" that has greatly affected CHS is the Early Retirement Plan. This plan allows faculty members 55 and over with 25 years or more service to retire.

This year, as a result, there have been many more retirees than usual. Superintendent of Schools Mr. Robert O'Donnell, Assistant Superintendent Mr. Gerald Brown, High School Principal Mr. James Gilrain, Guidance Counselor Mr. William Olear, Math Department Chairperson Mr. Larry Farrell, Special Education Teacher Mr. Frank Walsh, English Teacher Mr. Walter Bihuniak, and Attendance Secretary Mrs. Mary Sosnowski have all retired this year.

These two pages are a dedication to all these very special people. We thank them for their years of service and wish them well as they move on to the next phase of their lives. They will be greatly missed.

Coach Olear was a caring guy, on and off the football field. He was always there for you when you needed him. He tried to help everyone a lot. -- Eric Morgan.

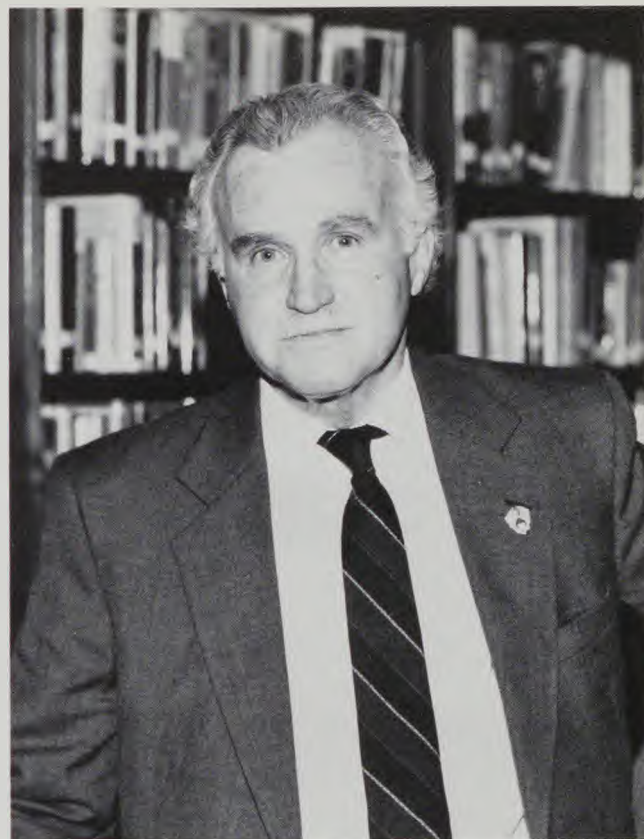

Mr. Gilrain was a hard working man who cared very much about the school. It was a shame that he had to leave early. He was always there for me when I needed him and he always had an answer to my questions. He is great man. -- Mike Del Vacchio.

Mr. Brown is a "unique" individual. He is a caring, patient, and understanding person. I enjoyed working with him these past 4 years. He has been a good employer and a good friend. He was an asset to the Carteret Public School system, and he will be missed by all. -- Mrs. Dean.

I am very fortunate to have known Mr. Brown for more than 26 years and am privileged to have worked for and with him. Although I lost a wonderful supervisor, I have gained a most precious FRIEND!--Barbara Bohanek.

Clockwise Retirees Mr. Farrell, Mr. Gilrain, Mrs. Sosnowski, M. O'Donnell, and Mr. Brown. Mrs. Dean congratulates Mr. Brown on his retirement. Guidance Counselor Mr. Olear. Coach Olear on the job. New Principal Mr. Torrington congratulating retiring Principal Mr. Gilrain.

Mrs. Sosnowski was a dedicated, hard-working woman. She took her job very seriously and always tried to do it perfectly. I enjoyed working with her on her last few days. She taught me well. -- Mr. Chubenko.

Mr. Bihuniak always made time for you when you needed it. He listened and cared about his students. He was a sweet man and I learned a lot from him.-- Tanya Seymore.

Mr. Walsh is a very fine and understanding man. It was a pleasure traveling with him and I wish I could do it again.- Scott Elliott

Mr. Farrell was a supportive department chairman who treated his staff fairly and with respect. He was open and receptive to new ideas and encouraged the development of programs proposed by department members.--Mr. Cender

I had the privilege of working more closely with Mr. O'Donnell in the last two years. He was a driving force behind getting more computers in the high school. He is on top of technology in his approach to education. He greatly helped the high school and district. I feel he must have regretted leaving when such great changes are occurring.--Mr. Torre

Clockwise Dr. McLennand congratulates Mr. O'Donnell. Mr. Walsh. Mr. Bihuniak. Retirees Mr. Farrell and Mr. Walsh enjoy their retirement party. Miss Cerami wishes retiree Mrs. Sosnowski well.

LOUDSPEAKER

A yearbook is a chronicle of the people, the activities, and the events of the school year. It gives you the Who? What? When? Where? and Why? Besides, what else will people be able to sign in at the end of the year?

And this year, the Loudspeaker is having its 50th anniversary. Prior to 1942, the "Loudspeaker" was only an annual pamphlet which seemed to be a yearbook, a newspaper, and a literary magazine all rolled into one. In 1942, the Loudspeaker became a real yearbook. Although many things have changed, the Loudspeaker staff still has pictures to take, the copy to write and type, the layout to draw up, and, of course, the deadlines to meet.

Editors: Row 1: D. Fazekas, Academics; K. Panza, Seniors; M. Kahora, Underclass. Row 2: C. Natividad and I. Sapilak, Co-Editors-in-Chief; K. Kapinos and E. Morgan, Co-sports Editors; B. Doong, Student Life; T. Seymore, Organizations.

The Business Staff of the Loudspeaker is very busy taking orders, soliciting advertising, messages from home, and boosters. This job requires a great deal of organization and tremendous attention to detail.

The most important task is selling yearbooks. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of Advisor Mrs. Kushner and the staff, the yearbook constantly operates in the black.

BUSINESS STAFF

Ethel Kaskiw
Kindzierski
Editor-in-Chief 1942

In 1942, Miss Anne Drew Scott, the school's principal; Miss Powers, an English teacher; Mr. Bareford, a business teacher; and Ethel Kaskiw, a class of '42 senior, made a decision that would affect countless students. They decided that CHS would have a school yearbook. Many schools in the area had already published their own yearbooks, so why couldn't Carteret High have a yearbook. Besides, the yearbook as it existed, was a memorabilia, especially for seniors.

However, since this was their first year, the newly created Loudspeaker staff had a great deal to learn. They didn't know where to begin. They did, on the other hand, have a dedicated staff led by Ethel Kaskiw, editor-in-chief, encouraging advisors, and a supportive student body. It took hard work, cooperation, and a lot of typing, but they finally finished the yearbook and now - 50 years later - the Loudspeaker is in its 50th edition. Taking a look back, Mrs. Ethel Kaskiw Kindzierski, says it quite simply, "It was a pleasure doing."

Clockwise: Sports Editor Keith Kapinos selects photos for the Winter Track layout. Danielle Fazekas and Maryann Kahora, both juniors, discuss the Academics section. Organizations Editor Tanya Seymore and staff Scott Elliott and Stephanie Boscaino are fearful that they may still have more layouts to do. Co-Editor-in-Chief Cristina Natividad spent untold hours at the computer typing copy. Co-Editor-in-Chief Irena Sapilak smiles because all her art work is complete for the division pages.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the most active organizations in school is the Student Council. This group has done much to better our school and will continue to do so in the future. This past year, the council has held dances, fund raisers, and much more.

One of the most important contributions was Homecoming. This year the council introduced the King and Prince in addition to the Queen and her Princess. This was a welcome change from tradition.

The NHS is a prestigious organization for which members are selected based upon their academic average, their service, leadership, and character. Advised by Mrs. Chiravalle, the group, which functions without elected officers, had pursued numerous fund raising activities such as the annual stationery sale, the Thanksgiving Turkey Raffle, and much more. This group of highly talented academics offers their services as tutors to other members of the student body.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

ACADEMIC CLUB

The Academic Club is for any students interested in knowledge and trivia. They compete with various schools in academic competition to match wits. The club participates in the Perth Amboy Decathlon of Knowledge and four members are chosen to compete in "Challenge," a local cable TV show with a format of questions and answers similar to the popular game show, "Jeopardy."

The Math League is a club in which students get to measure their math awareness and ability against students from other schools. Competitions are held once a month at a different high school. Competitions are an hour long. During that hour students have to answer ten questions. The top four scores from each school are added together to comprise the school's score. The school with the highest score wins the competition. However, regardless of which school wins, all the competitors have fun and gain a better understanding of math.

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America, begun by Mr. DiSarro, is open to any students interested in pursuing a career in teaching. It enables students to explore the teaching profession. Members participate in school visits in which the student spends a day with a teacher in one of the grammar schools to see the day in the life of a teacher. Members also devote some of their time to tutoring any other students who may need it. The club, in cooperation with the local PTO, also volunteers their assistance with after-school activities at Nathan Hale School and Washington School 2 or 3 times a week. The FTA also has its annual fundraiser to raise scholarship money for some Seniors. The club is quite busy throughout the year with various activities, but the members gain valuable experience.

FHA (Future Homemakers of America) is advised by Mrs. Singura and Mrs. Lynes. The goal of FHA is to teach its members valuable lessons needed to survive as an adult. Members learn about family life, personal development, and daily nutritional diets. FHA also runs its own business selling "Otis Spunkmeyer" cookies. And every year members have the opportunity to show off their skills and knowledge at a state FHA/HERO competition.

INTERACT

Interact was first started as the youth division of the Rotary Club. It is a service organization which tries to better the school and the community. This year, the club has been under a new advisor, Miss Haase. The club has helped the community in many ways. They have distributed turkeys throughout the town to needy individuals and families for Christmas. The club also holds many raffles in order to raise funds for other helpful activities.

THE ANNE SCOTT NEWS

Volume 44, No.7

The Student Publication of Carteret High School

JUNE, 1992

CHS has its own student newspaper, The Anne Scott News. In every issue there are informative and provocative articles and features.

The hardworking staff of ASN is not afraid to tackle serious issues and reports also on world issues for great journalistic experiences. Under the supervision of Mrs. Grace, the ASN staff pumps out issue after issue to keep the students of CHS and citizens of Carteret well-informed.

Row 1: S. Elliott, K. Sikora, C. Rice, L. Gallo, K. Panza, C. Natividad, M. Del Vacchio. Row 2: Advisor Mrs. Grace, H. Lordi, I. Sapilak, G. Villanueva, W. Wu, V. Chiravalle, E. Morgan, T. Tierney, D. Beyfuss, A. Shah, D. Fazekas, L. Duffy, H. Platt.

Above: Mrs. Grace proofs copy before it is sent to the printer. Right: Heather Platt, Editor-in-Chief, works very hard to stay on top of the news and to encourage her staff to work hard.

Clockwise: Amit Shah ponders the layout of the next edition of the ASN. The many hours spent after school in the Office certainly pay off. Dan Beyfuss, cartoonist extraordinaire, demonstrates for freedom of the press. Grace Villanueva enters a breaking story into the computer. Scott Elliott, Junior Assistant Editor, works hard at preparing the Ramblescopes for press. Eric Morgan and Sports Editor Lisa Gallo argue about the accuracy of Eric's latest article.

FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour! The French Club, advised by Mrs. Holleuffer, is for those students interested in learning about France and her culture. During the year, the club has its annual Christmas party where members snack on donuts, hot cocoa, and croissants. At the end of the year, the club goes to the French restaurant "La Fondue," to sample true French cuisine and to a French bakery for some delectable pastry.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club this year has spent a great deal of time on educational trips. The students in this club attended Classics Competition at Rutgers University where they sat in on Latin classes and participated in a competition. They also visited Princeton University Art Museum and the New Jersey Junior Classical League Convention. The major event of the year is the Saturnalia, a fun induction ceremony of its new members.

DECA I

DECA, short for Distributive Education Club of America, is an organization for students planning to go into the business world after graduation. DECA teaches students various essential business skills, including marketing, social intelligence, effective leadership qualities, and civic awareness.

Deca I is open to Juniors. These students learn the various skills mainly through classwork with lots of book work. They also help run the school store with Mr. Scally.

Ms. Martinez makes a sale to Corey Axon in the school store, a DECA project.

Deca II, on the other hand, is offered only to Seniors. Their learning experiences are more hands-on and less classroom and book work. At 11:00 AM, Deca II students go to work as part of their class work. They are employed in a variety of retail situations gaining valuable on-the-job training and experience. They return to the classroom where they are able to discuss the various aspects of their jobs and evaluate their effectiveness.

C.O.E.

COE (Cooperative Office Education) program, advised by Mrs. Kopko, is for those students hoping to gain experience in an office setting before they go out on their own. Open only to seniors, the club emphasizes business skills and the proper attitude necessary to succeed in a career in business. Students in this program also receive credits for going to work.

Row 1: M. Gomez, K. Pavlichko. Row 2: K. Sikora, Advisor Mrs. Kopko, Y. Delcampo.

VICA (Vocational Industrial Club of America), advised by Mr. Walsh, is offered to any industrial arts student. The club tries to raise business consciousness as well as industrial awareness. VICA members, by running the club on their own, have the chance to develop their management skills while gaining valuable experience.

SKI CLUB

Look out ski slopes! The Ski Club is looking for fun and excitement on the slopes. With the help of Mr. Peters and the officers, they're sure to find it!

Mr. Peters planned a year of skiing at some of the best ski resorts in the East. The club visited areas in New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. All trips are well-organized and a huge success. Every trip is filled with high spirits because the members know there will never be a dull moment.

Row 1: T. Sheerin, J. Dreboty, J. Grabowski, M. Kahora, J. Lisicki, Advisor Mr. Peters, D. Serio, S. Boscaino, K. Panza, J. Kopin, M. Barreto, M. Avila. Row 2: M. Moy, T. Ingram, P. Uribe, P. Liu, L. ON THE SLOPES

Clockwise: Kirk Lippe and Nelson Jiminez prepare to try the "bunny" slope. Tom Tierney and Danny Shipman apparently enjoy night skiing. Kerri Panza and Mike Richert head toward the lodge for some hot chocolate. Stephanie Boscaino and Maryann Kahora seem happy after a successful run down the slope.

METEOROLOGY CLUB

The Meteorology Club, advised by Mr. Grobe, is responsible for the daily weather reports heard over the intercom system. The club's main goal is to learn new methods of observing the weather to receive a more accurate reading of the temperature as well as any precipitation we may be expecting. The club then displays their recordings on various showcases around the school. Members of this club also have the opportunity to visit various observatories.

Officers: Jignesh Patel, Secretary; Shilpa Patel, Vice President. Row 2: Mohin Patel, President; Druhval Shah, Treasurer.

The members of the Environmental Research Club require dedication and perseverance. The club, advised by Mrs. Masterson, is responsible for conducting experiments using collected air and water samples. The test results are then taken to the New Jersey Institute of Technology where the students use additional necessary equipment to compute and analyze the air quality in Carteret. At the end of the year, the club engages in a competition with various other schools.

Chemistry Olympics, advised by Mrs. Masterson, is made up of top chemistry students who also possess the competitive spirit. The basic function of the club is to compete with other schools throughout New Jersey in various scientific areas. These areas include a written research problem, a chemistry oriented computer program, a lab experiment, plus many other difficult areas. Much time and effort is put into these competitive projects and is certainly worthy of recognition!

The Chemistry Club, advised by Mrs. Masterson, is an active club which encourages chemistry students to pursue and understand a greater knowledge of chemistry. The Chemistry Club started the year off with a successful Hot Dog Sale to create funds for field trips. The club visits various chemistry laboratories and intends to make trips to FMC in Carteret and a chemical site in Princeton. Club members also devote some time to tutoring anyone who may have difficulty in chemistry.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

F.B.L.A.

The F.B.L.A., under the advisorship of Mrs. Cunha, has been hard at work. Their annual Candy Cane Sale at Christmas and Carnation Sale for Valentine's Day were once again big successes as well as a few other fundraisers. Competitions at Middlesex County College were also high on the agenda. Members who placed in the regional competitions were eligible to compete in the States that were held in March at Cherry Hill.

CHS's Pre-Engineering Club, advised by Mr. Arnold, is in its 21st year. The club is open to anyone interested in engineering or just willing to learn more about it. Various projects of the club include Housing Construction and Bridge Construction (Bridge Builders). The club goes on various trips, sponsored by the school, including those to the Sewaren Generating Plant and Middlesex College for technology courses for the student's enjoyment and education. According to Mr. Arnold, "Students don't have to have Mechanical Drawing to be in Pre-Engineering. [They] just have to be interested and willing."

AEROSPACE ASTRONOMY

The Aerospace and Astronomy Club, advised by Dr. Hricko, spends most of its time at night hoping to catch the wonders of space through a telescope. You might find the club at various planetariums and observatories where students are captivated by our majestic galaxy. The Star Watch is a major event for this group.

The Science League, advised by Mrs. Poliseno and Mrs. Masterson, is composed of a group of select students who excel in various areas of science. This group competes against other schools by completing tests that are given several times per year. The subjects of study are Biology, Earth Science, Chemistry, and Physics. The club has had exceptional success in the area of Earth Science, placing first at a regional competition held at John F. Kennedy High School. The club's achievements certainly deserve recognition.

INTERNAT'L TRAVEL CLUB

The I.T.C. advised by Mrs. Krugman and Mrs. Walsh, is one of the largest clubs in school. Designed to provide an opportunity for students to experience different cultures, the ITC gives its members a chance to recognize their heritage and appreciate that of others. This year's high light was a Christmas trip to England and France.

The ITC has several luncheons and sponsors its annual fashion show where members of the group model prom and dinner dance attire.

The Human Relations Club had a doubtful start with the retirement of Mr. Robinson, but Miss Mincieli and the club pulled through with a very productive year. The Toy Drive to support the less fortunate in the community of Carteret was a great success. The Human Relations Club gives students a chance to learn about and accept different types of ethnic groups, which brings our students closer together.

S. A. D. D.

Students Against Driving Drunk, better known as S.A.D.D., tries to make others aware of the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. S.A.D.D. started the year with new Contracts for Life. During National Drug Awareness Week, members tied red ribbons on cars to remind drivers not to drink and drive. The club also sponsors guest speakers and members of the club participate in Grim Reaper Day. The purpose of this day is to make students realize the grim reality that drunk driving results in death. This year the club sent a few members to Rutgers University for a Prudential/Rutgers Teen Institute for a counseling session.

BRIDGE BUILDERS

Bridge Builders is a new club that was just started last year. The students in this club participate in a model bridge building competition in which the bridges are judged by the weight that they can hold. Mr. Arnold is the advisor.

This year, the Forensics Club, advised by Mrs. Simon, participated in the Veterans of Foreign Wars scholarship program entitled "Meeting America's Challenge." The school winners were Lisa Duffy, First Place; Kerri Panza, Second Place; and Tanya Singura and Lisa Gallo, Third Place. Their essays were judged for originality and content. Lisa's speech was taped and sent to the district competition. She attended the competition in January and will be attending the Star Landing Post's awards program in the spring.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club, advised by Mr. Anthony Spaldo of the English Department, has been very busy with this year's production. Each year, a play is chosen to be presented by the student body and directed by Mr. Spaldo with the assistance of other students as stage crew.

This year, David and Lisa was selected. It is a dramatic presentation on those with uncommon mental situations. The leads will be performed by Scott Elliott as David and Heather Platt as Lisa. Mr. Spaldo, as well as the cast and crew, are excited about their opening night March 7.

RAMBLER MARCHING BAND

The Marching Rambler Band, directed by Mr. Fossa, does not only develop students' musical talents but also teaches them respect and the joy of competition. Students also develop a strong sense of confidence and a taste of real life. The Marching Ramblers had another great season this year. Besides remaining Chapter X Champions, they have also returned to compete in the prestigious Atlantic Coast Championships.

VARSITY CHOIR

Varsity Choir is made up of a group of students who enjoy spending their time expressing their vocal gifts in harmony by performing for their fellow classmates. The choir performs at the Christmas Music Concert and the Spring Concert. Directed by Mr. Fossa, the group was fortunate to have Junior Shannon Brown selected for the All State Chorus, a distinct honor for Carteret.

CONCERT BAND

Concert Band, unlike jazz band, is a little more reserved. Their repertoire includes "If Thou Be Near" by Johann Sebastian Bach and "Washington Grays March" and "Prelude and Rondo." They will compete in various festivals and will be hosting their Third Annual Concert Band Festival this year. They will be competing in a festival in Myrtle Beach, SC as well. In addition to their regular competitions and performances, they will also hold three concerts this year.

JAZZ BAND

Trumpets, saxes, drums. The CHS Jazz Band comes to mind when you hear these terms.

This year the Jazz Band will be performing various selections including a Natalie Cole medley and "Air Mail Special" and "Almost Like Being in Love." They also compete throughout New Jersey and hold various performances and concerts, one of which will be at Myrtle Beach, SC on the band's spring trip.

SHOW BAND

The Show Band, or Parental Guidance, is different from all other ensembles. It does not perform at competitions. They hold numerous concerts and performances. The music they perform is more popular, contemporary music. The songs are mixes of various recorded songs and even some original pieces of their own. This group has had the unique opportunity of being recorded in an actual studio to gain some valuable recording experience. They can be found in various concerts and amusement parks and festivals.

FOOTBALL

The Carteret Football team under first year coach, Geoffrey Weiner, has improved tremendously since last year's 2-6-1 record. They ended the season 5-3-1, where they were rated 9 in the top 10 of the Star Ledger.

The schedule this year consisted of some of the top teams in the county such as South River, Dunellen, and Monroe. Their losses of the season were against South River (35-6), Dunellen (13-8), and Perth Amboy (14-6). Their traditional Thanksgiving game against Amboy (who has won seven straight Turkey Day meetings vs. the Ramblers and has led this series in wins with a record of 36-26-2) began in 1927 with a 13-0 Amboy win. The last Rambler victory was in 1983 where they scored 30 and Amboy 18.

There were many impressive performances during the Ramblers' winning streaks, which ended in a 0-0 tie with Highland Park. However, the Ramblers came back with a 38-0 win against St. Peter's and a 22-21 victory over Monroe.

The Ramblers were led by a large number of underclassmen, such as junior Dennis Burney who was given Blue Division honors, in both offensive and defensive play. Juniors Ramon Montalvo and Eric Morgan also received Blue Division Honors for their defensive play.

Leading the Ramblers at the snap of the ball was second year quarterback, Keith Kapinos, who led the team with rushing touchdowns totalling 6 in the year.

Defense is not as talked about as offense, but is equally or even more important. "The Wolf Pack," according to Sophomore Rich Sheerin, has been coached beautifully by new-comer coach, Frank Diaco: "He really helps us in practice and makes us work."

Returning next year for Carteret will be all but 11 Seniors. But with the performances of the underclassmen in the past the Ramblers are looking good.

BRIAN TORRE
 What do you think made the winning difference in this year's season?
 Hard work, a whole different attitude, our Defensive Coach Diaco, and the fact that we dedicated the season to Coach Ruela and Tyler Molarz.
 Do you feel that Coach Wiener had a big impact on the team this year?

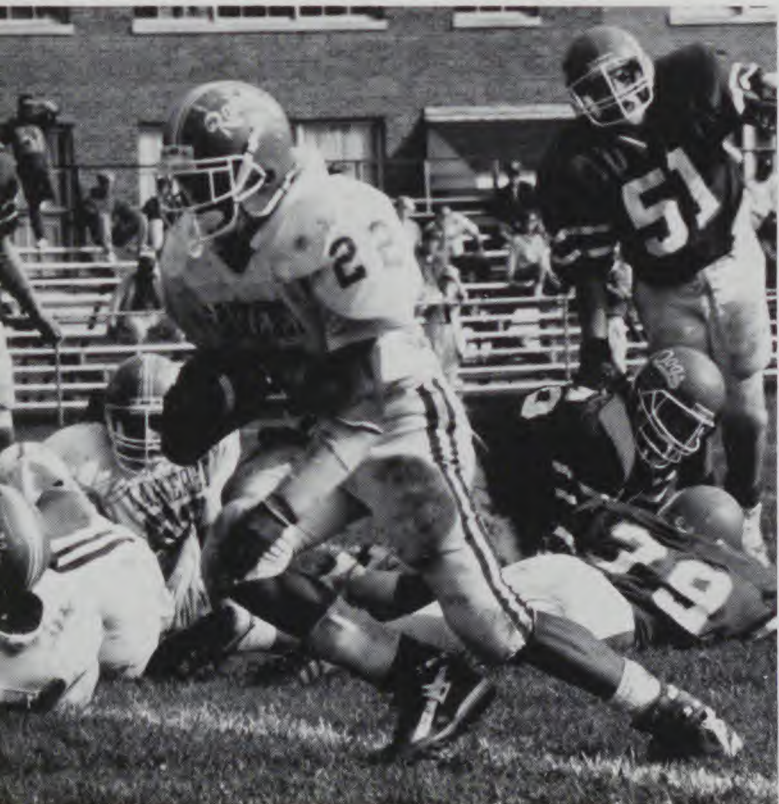

Yes, he influenced the players greatly and he pushed us to the limit.
 Who inspired you most throughout your football years?
 My dad. He taught me to work hard, never give up, and always hustle. Being that he was a former CHS player and coach, his knowledge of the game has helped me in all aspects of the game.

The Carteret Football Cheerleaders added spirit and pride to CHS once again. They helped inspire the school and fans to a unified, emotional football season. By rousing up the students at pep rallies in preparation for upcoming games, their cheers and pyramids gave fans an extra boost.

Coached by Grace Cunha, the squad practiced vigorously and their hard work showed in all of their games. They decorated the locker room before the first game of the season and the Thanksgiving game versus Perth Amboy to end the season.

This year's squad was lead by Senior Tri-captains Jessica Rivera, Kerri Panza, and Janine Brucato. These seniors will certainly be missed, but there will likely be enough underclassmen to fill their new positions.

JESSICA RIVERA
 How many years have you been cheering?
 I've been cheering a total of nine years.
 What is your favorite cheer and why?
 I'd say my favorite cheer is "Bop 'til ya drop." It's bouncy and it gets me really pepped up!

 As captain how did you prepare your team for upcoming football games?
 Practice, practice, and more practice! Other than that, there wasn't much to do. We had a great squad this year!

BOYS' SOCCER

The Boys Soccer has ended another improving season despite a 2-11 record in comparison to last year's 1-8-2 record.

Under 2-year Coach Bob Duncan, the Ramblers battled against such opponents as Spotswood and Matawan. Some of the most dominating teams were Metuchen, Monroe, South

Plainfield, and South River. Carteret's two wins were against Perth Amboy Vo-Tech (6-1) and E. Brunswick Vo-Tech (4-1). Leading the pack at scoring was Junior Co-Captain Duvan Sierra with 9 goals and 3 assists. The other Co-Captain, Senior Armando Prados ended scoring 2 goals and 9 assists. Defensively leading the Ramblers was Junior Goalie Robert Isabella who has helped the team greatly in tough situations when the defensive line was broken through.

Despite some rough games, the Ramblers made great strides and look forward to success in the future.

ARMANDO PRADOS
 What do you feel is the most important part of practice?
 Practice is the most important thing about any sport. There is not one most important thing about practice. The way you work at practice will determine how good you will be. Have you reached any personal goals which you set out to achieve upon entering the season?
 I was hoping to achieve at least a .600 record, this being my last year, but we faced a lot of good teams.

What advice would you give to upcoming players?
 Next year's team looks to be very promising as they have about 12 returning from this year's team. The only advice I can give is to work hard at practice and the season will be determined on how they work together. I want to thank all coaches including Mr. Cowan and Coach Duncan for helping me through the years and showing me what I know today.

The Girls' Tennis team has ended yet another winning season with an overall record of 11-4 (conference 11-3 and divisional record of 10-2). According to Senior tri-captain Heather Platt "The team worked hard during the season and I'm glad to see that we came out with the best record we ever had."

With their only losses to Metuchen twice, Mother Seton and Cedar Ridge once each and a loss in the state tournament to JFK, Carteret displayed a more competitive team than last year's 7-7 record.

During the last 2 weeks of the season, the girls faced darkness causing closer matches than they wished for. Since there were many rainouts during the year, the season was crammed with the make-up of division matches. However, Carteret prevailed; they overcame difficulties and pulled together as a team.

"The last week of the season was crazy. But we managed to come out on top with one of the most successful seasons ever," commented tri-captain Allison Comba.

The seniors will be leaving with a good taste in their mouths by "accomplishing a .500 or better record," said Coach Seaman earlier in the season. Next year's team will consist of a handful of sophomores and upcoming Freshmen with only 3 upperclassmen. According to Senior Kathy Ashley, "They'll have to work extra hard to make up for their inexperience." Coach Seaman enjoyed a great season leading the tennis team capped off by being named Blue Division Coach of the Year.

IRENA SAPILAK

Who is your favorite tennis player and why?

I would have to say Stefan Edberg because he plays a very aggressive game of tennis.

What is your opinion of the team's overall performance this year?

Although we didn't finish first in our division as we had hoped, this still serves as one of our best seasons ever. I consider a record of 11-2 a remarkable feat.

Which year do you feel was the most fulfilling for you as an individual?

Definitely this past year. Four years of hard work finally paid off by making me into a better competitor.

The Carteret Boys and Girls Cross-Country team has ended another remarkable season. This year's team, led by a talented group of underclassmen, reached a mark of 4-2.

Providing leadership for the Ramblers were Jerome Stanford, the only senior runner, and the very experienced junior runners, Doug Walsh and Ed Bittner. In NJCTC Ed Bittner medaled and in Shore Coaches Doug Walsh medaled. These two provided quality running for the Ramblers while Stanford led the team through tough situations to wins against Hoffman, Dunellen, St. Mary's, and South River.

The team hopes for a better season next year; with the loss of only one runner; the underclassmen will have to pull the team and hope to improve daily. A goal of this year's team was to win the Blue Division. According to Walsh, "We did not succeed in winning the Blue due to the fact that we needed more experienced runners. The team did improve over the season though, and we're hoping to improve next year."

JENNIFER GRABOWSKI
 How did it feel to be part of the 1990 Cross-Country Champion team?
 It felt great to be a part of the team because we all worked really hard to win and we did. Cross-country is a team sport and our team showed that we were able to work together and win. Also that was the only championship team I was on and I am very proud of it.
 Do you have any plans of furthering your running career?

 If I attend a college with a cross-country team I will run. I enjoy running cross-country.
 What were your personal goals for the season and were they fulfilled?
 My personal goals for the season were to bring down my times from last year and race well in big meets. My time did improve by almost three minutes and I felt I raced well in the county and state sectionals, finishing 13th in both.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Carteret High School Boys Basketball team had its share of emotional times. The Ramblers battled all year for the title of Blue Division Champs. The division championship came down to the wire at St. Peter's; they fell just short, losing by two. The Ramblers were led by junior Dennis Burney (considered one of the best guards in the county), senior Brian Torre (who was among the best 3-point shooter in the county), senior Don Smith, junior Eric Morgan, and a handful of players that filled the 5th spot, like junior Jason Andrews, junior Rob Wilder, senior Ron Pusillo, junior Randy Evans, and junior Bob Andrijov.

Despite losing the first round of the County Tournaments to South River, 28-45, and then losing the first round of the State Tournaments to South Plainfield, 72-79, the Ramblers have shown a lot of hard work and effort. They plan to come back with a stronger, more experienced team.

Next season, according to Coach Molarz, "Next year's team has the potential of being Carteret's best basketball team ever! Even better than Keith Hughes' senior year!"

How long have you been playing basketball and do you plan to continue in college? I've been playing organized basketball since seventh grade. I don't plan to continue playing basketball in college, but probably baseball.

How do you feel you contribute to the team both offensively and defensively? Offensively, I take the open shots and open things up for the guys in the paint. Defensively, I've struggled but I've always worked at it as much as possible.

Who do you feel has influenced your performance this season? The entire team has influenced me with their work habits and desire to win. I'm glad I was a part of it.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

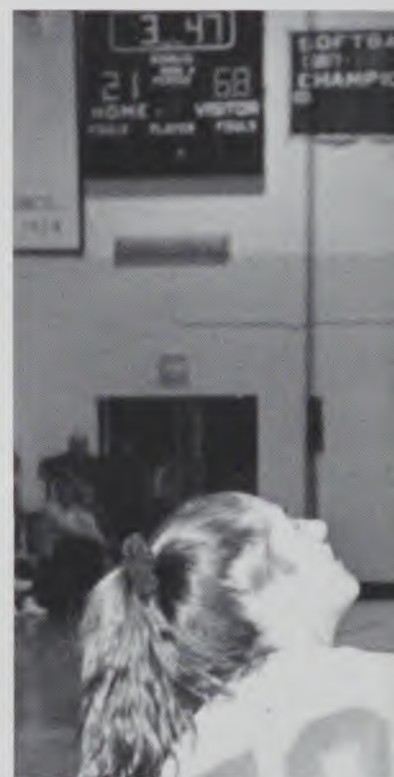

The Carteret Girls Basketball Team ended this season with high hopes for the future. With only two seniors, Tanya Seymore and Kathy Ashley, the Ramblers were very inexperienced. The backbone of the team consisted of junior guard Denise Burney, sophomore Tara Bowers, sophomore Heather Lordi, and freshman Heather Meyer. The squad also benefitted from strong playing from sophomores Cindy Delgado and Manuela Gonzales, junior Christy Ashley, and freshman Michele Lewis.

Although their record wasn't as high as their pre-season expectations, the Lady Ramblers with Varsity Coach Sisko still set a strong foundation for future seasons.

With the help of JV Coach Mr. Dotegowski and 7th and 8th grade coach Mr. Karatz, the girls team practiced hard. And though they didn't have a winning season, they always tried their best and worked their hardest.

How do you think the Lady Ramblers can improve their season? We were a young team this year. Once the team gets a little more experience, they will be unbeatable.

Did you feel that you accomplished what you set out to do as team captain? Yes, everybody on the team really tried their best and we had a lot of fun.

Did you set any goals for yourself at the beginning of the season? I was hoping the team would make it to the county tournament, but because of our tough schedule, we did not get that far.

BASKETBALL CHEERING

The 1991-1992 Basketball Cheering Team successfully enthused the boys and girls basketball teams. Leading the Ramblers are Senior Captains Kerri Panza and Jessica Rivera. The team also consisted of Juniors Jennifer Kopin, Janet Finn, Danielle Fazekas, Danielle Gallone, Jennifer Rios, and Sophomores Kelly McGahan, Jamie Felauer, Marsha Black, Kim Niedermeier, and Robin Nagy.

The team worked hard together at practices to support the teams for a successful basketball season. Their cheers and chants helped to get the fans psyched for the game. According to basketball player Tanya Seymore, "The cheerleaders are very supportive of the girls basketball team. They really help us get psyched for our games."

In addition to cheering for the girls, this group of dedicated cheerleaders also lead the fans in supporting the boys team. Center Eric Morgan said, "The cheerleaders were terrific this season. Their cheers made us want to play hard and win."

KERRI PANZA

Why did you become a cheerleader? I started cheering in fourth grade because my friends and I thought it would be fun. Since it was, I continued cheering when I got to CHS.

As a captain, how do you prepare the team for upcoming games? Most of the girls are psyched when they get to the game already. As captain, I make sure that they all are psyched, smiling, and that they know what they're doing and where they're going.

Having cheered for St. Joseph's grammar school in competition, what do you feel is the most tremendous difference in competition cheering and uncompetitive cheering? In cheering for a team, you're there to urge others to win. It's relaxed and isn't considered a "quote, unquote" sport since you personally don't compete. In competition, the cheering is more serious, requires more gymnastic ability, and stiffer movements, which means more practice. You're out to win for yourself.

WINTER TRACK

The Boys' and Girls' Winter Track Teams ended their seasons on a good note. Both teams accomplished much and showed pride and honor at big weekend meets as well as at dual meets.

The Girls finished with a 3-2 record while the boys held a 4-1 record respectively.

Both teams have accomplished a great deal in dual meets and especially weekend meets. The boys started off the season placing first in the 4 X 800 relay at the East Brunswick Relays and the girls also placed in the 4 X 800. At Seton Hall, the boys placed in the distance medley while Senior Shot Putter Jin Ho Ra placed third individually. In the county relays, the boys won the 4 X 800 and the distance medley and placed 2nd in shot putting. These all helped boost Carteret into 3rd place overall.

At the Shore Coaches Meet, the guys placed 2nd in the 4 X 800 and 2nd in the distance medley while the shot-putters placed third. Moreover, in the state relays at Princeton University, the boys finished first in the shot put, 2nd in the distance medley, and 2nd in the 4 X 800.

Despite the girls rough breaks at current meets, they still maintain much optimism. Senior Jen Grabowski stated, "Our team goals this year were to finish the season with a good record and a good individual time, so that the Spring Season will be better." With this in mind, the girls have a great deal to look forward to next season.

JIN HO RA

After four years of hard work, how does it feel to be a state champion? The State Shot Put Champion is such a prestigious honor that I was overwhelmed. I am deeply touched by this distinction and would like to thank my coaches and teammates for all of their assistance and support throughout my four years.

Throwing for both winter and spring track, what major adjustments do you feel you need to make throwing an indoor (plastic) shot, then throwing an outdoor (metal) shot? Basically outdoor and indoor shot-putting is similar. The only difference is the grip of the shot because an indoor shot is larger. But this adjustment is only a slight one and not a major inconvenience for an experienced thrower.

What does it take to become a good shot-putter? To become a good shot-putter, you need the drive and determination. You have to work hard, lift weights, and practice every day. You can't just come out for track because you are big and strong. You have to work on technique.

BOYS & GIRLS BOWLING

"7-10 Split," "the approach," and "the strike" are some of the terms defined in the sport of bowling.

On the boys' side, Senior Captains Dexter Amistad and Paul Wojcich express good feelings about the team this year. "Everybody is bowling way above average. We improved our average over last year and we've grown to be more competitive," reflected Dexter.

Freshman Tony Valiant is a newcomer to the boy's team who has shown much promise.

When asked about Valiant's progress, Amistad said, "He is a very good bowler. But, it surprises me that when he throws the ball, he doesn't go with it," referring to Valiant's surprising performances this season. "He will be tough in the next few years." On the other side of the lane, the girls' team is also improving. Captains Tanya Singura and Gina Dorak have shown good leadership for the team this year.

"Overall, everyone has bowled about average. Gina Dorak has been the most consistent bowler. Mr. Nelson is very supportive of the team," said Senior Co-captain Tanya Singura.

The starters for the girls' team include Sophomore Lara Hluszczyk, Junior Cindy Lemp and Freshmen Daria Mazan and Chris Derogatis.

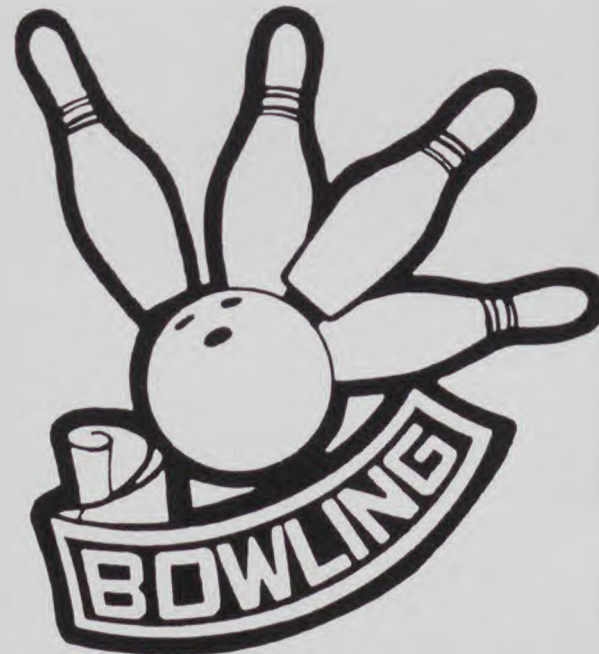

The boys season ended with a 6-16 record and the girls held a 6-12-2 record. With ambition and hard work, the teams will better their records next season.

DEXTER AMISTAD

How would you evaluate yourself as a bowler? As a bowler representing Carteret High School, I have always "Given My Best." I feel discipline and concentration are qualities that a bowler needs in order to bowl well and have fun at the same time. Being one of the two captains of the Carteret team, I had to set goals of applying myself and acting as a role model for next year's bowling team.

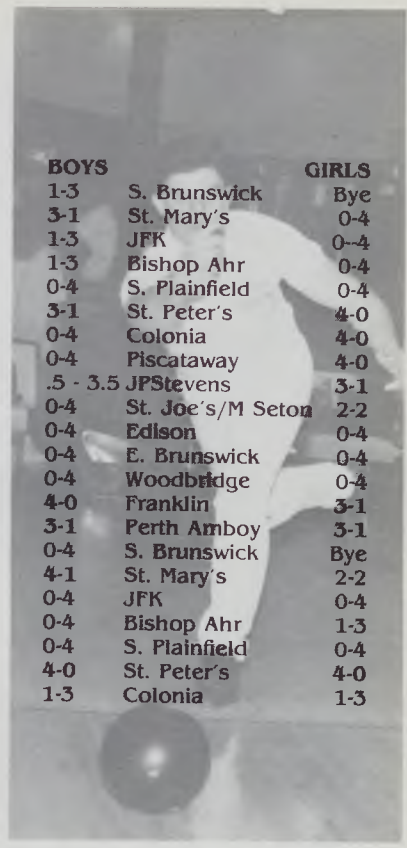

Which do you consider bowling: a relaxed sport or an intense sport? Why? We must consider both cases because it all depends on the situation the individual is in.

Is bowling a new experience for you or have you bowled in the past? I have now been bowling for about 4 years, spending the last two years more competitively by joining leagues.

The CHS Varsity Baseball Team will face tough challenges this season. With the Ramblers losing 6 starters from last year's Blue Division Champion team, they will be looking to rebuild.

The Ramblers are counting on their three captains, Armando Prados, Frank Chelbian, and John Dreboty to carry the team this year. Prados, who started last year at third base, will move over to second, his natural position. Chelbian, when he is not being the ace of the pitching staff, will be at first base. Dreboty, last year's D.H., will go to left field. Other key players are Senior Brian Rowley, who will be at first when Chelbian is on the mound and in the outfield when Frank's at first; Senior Ron Pusillo will be in right field; Junior Matt Caruso moves up from Junior Varsity to play shortstop. Last year's second baseman Keith Kapinos moves over to 3rd base. Behind the plate for the Ramblers is Sophomore Rich Sheerin. Junior Juan Sanisidro is this year's utility man.

The biggest question is this year's pitching staff. Chelbian is the Ace of the staff and is the only pitcher to have seen a substantial amount of varsity innings last season. Battling for the two spot is Junior Joe Colombrita and Junior Lou Perez. Both will see time in the outfield when they're not on the mound. Finishing off the rotation is Sophomore Paul D'Archi.

The Ramblers Head Coach Steve Nelson, a veteran of 27 years, has helped the squad to play respectable ball for many years and hopes to show the younger players that baseball is full of pride and tradition.

BRIAN ROWLEY
As a player, what do you feel makes a winning team?

As a player, I feel that hard work and determination make a winning club as well as working as a team in practice.

Who is your favorite baseball player and why?

My favorite player is Don Mattingly. I am inspired by him because he is a leader. He is a golden glove winner and is a first baseman. I look up to him. I also admire his batting.

How was the transition of moving from the outfield to the infield?

At first it was hard because the last time I had played first base was in Little League. But as time progressed I became adjusted to the position and now I am comfortable with it.

SOFTBALL

The Girls Softball Team are looking for their 7 seniors this season to hold the fort. Being that the Lady Ramblers key will be defense, Coach Scheno has worked extra hard all season on infield practice as well as outfield.

The infield consists of Sophomore Heather Lordi, Junior Jen Kopin, Freshman Heather Meyer, and Seniors Heather Platt, Kim Barker, Lisa Gallo, and Lisa Duffy. Relief pitcher Junior Kelly O'Donnell will be looking for some starting action with Senior new comer Kim Bolger who will start at centerfield.

The outfield will consist of Seniors Jackie Rubino, Kim Bolger, Danielle Serio, Lisa Duffy and Lisa Gallo, and Junior Janet Finn, who will also see some time.

Since Carteret's outfield and infield will rotate quite often, the Ramblers had worked on drills all season with two people basically at every position, especially first base and all outfield positions.

Among some of the teams Carteret will play are Metuchen and JFK who are the better teams in the Greater Middlesex County Conference. Last year, Carteret suffered losses to both teams but hope to pick up their game a notch.

This year, Carteret has a new freshman coach, Mr. Syssock, a teacher in the Carteret grammar schools who will ready the freshmen for upcoming years while former freshman coach Salvatore has moved up to the JV level.

"Next year, the team will be young and will have to rely on Senior leadership with the help of a younger infield. The Lady Ramblers should have their ups and downs," added Senior starter Lisa Gallo.

LISA GALLO

What do you feel is the most important quality of a great softball player?

The most important quality of a great softball player is her ability to work hard. She should be willing to give 100% every time she steps up to the plate or fields a ball. No matter how good the other team is or the situation, she should be confident at all times.

Do you feel you are a better batter or fielder? Why?

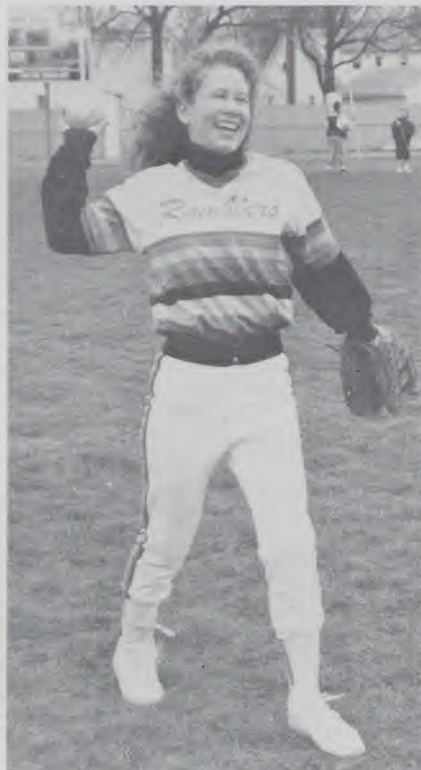

I feel that it all depends on the day and the situation. I bat better against fast pitchers and field better against the tougher teams. Under pressure, I can produce, but if the competition isn't there, I play more relaxed and not as hard on myself.

Who has been the most influential person in your career?

The most influential person I'd say is my father. He's given me confidence and support when I need it and has helped me with my mental part of the game as well.

The Track Teams have come off of some successful seasons and this season looks to be just as successful.

It's always nice to have senior leadership on a team, especially if these seniors are State Champs. Shot putter Jin Ho Ra and the always mentionable Jerome Stanford and Frank Nartowicz will lead the boys team. With the leadership of Jennifer Harder, Tanya Seymore, and Jennifer Grabowski on the girls team, it's obvious that the results are going to be as good.

But of course, it's not always all of the seniors with the talent. The underclassmen always hand in their share of the work. For the guys, it's going to be All-County Junior Distance Runners Ed Bittner and Doug Walsh. The utility man Eric Morgan will bring his share of points by being able to compete in many events. Juniors Dennis Burney, Rob Wilder, and Randy Evans will always hold their own in their events.

Other underclassmen to help bring the Ramblers success are Sophomores Eddie Rivera and Anthony Rogers and many freshmen who will practice their way to the top.

On the girls side, Junior thrower Donna Beres will be helped by Sophomore Maria Brucato and Sophomore runner Natatili Stanford. Freshman Shalon St. Juste will also help the throwing team while the legacy of Stacey Hempel lives on with her sister Shannon now running for CHS. With talented sprinters like Latoya Williams and Long Distance runner Paloma Arunategui, the future looks bright for the Ramblers.

JENNIFER HARDER

What do you feel is the biggest difference between winter and spring track?

The weather is the biggest difference. In the winter, it's sometimes too cold to move and in the spring, it's too hot. But you learn not to let the weather get to you. Also, in the winter we sometimes run indoors on a smaller track. Some people find this a big difference but personally the change doesn't bother me.

How does it feel to have your younger sister on the team? Does it affect your running?

I'm really glad that Julie is my teammate this year. I finally have someone on my team to compete against in the hurdles. It definitely gives me reason to work harder. After all, I can't let my little sister beat me. Julie is better than I was my freshman year. Hopefully she'll continue running and be successful in her efforts. If she does beat my times, it's O.K. as long as it's after I graduate.

The Carteret Boys Tennis Team this year will have a great deal of Senior Leadership. Returning seniors are Dan Beyfuss, Vincent Chiravalle, Dexter Amistad, Amit Shah, and Cassiano Almeida.

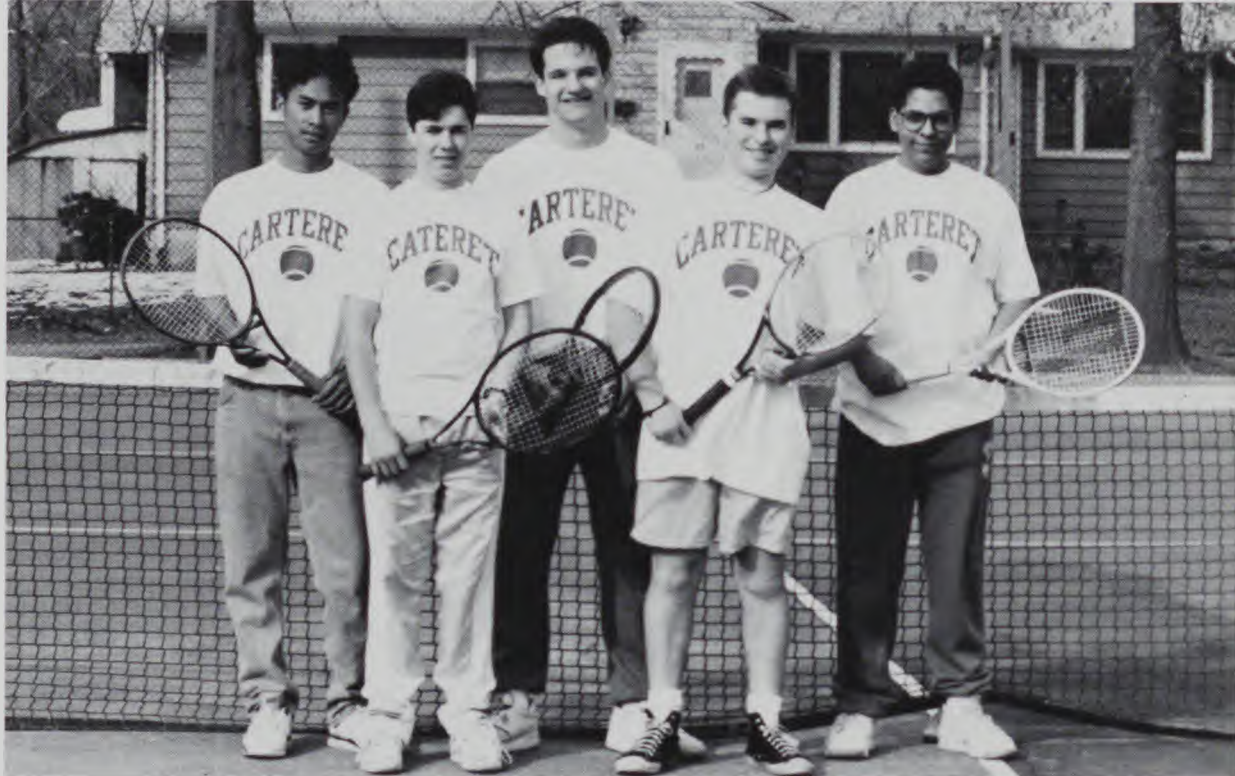

This season's line-up has been juggled around compared to last year. Junior Steven Saccone will hold his own at first singles while second and third singles will be played by seniors Dexter Amistad and Cassiano Almeida. The doubles team will consist of Seniors Dan Beyfuss, Vinnie Chiravalle and Amit Shah and a few underclassmen.

Since the basis of the team next year will be led by a majority of underclassmen, Coach Greg Basza will have to make quite a deal of adjustment. He will be looking for leadership from returning juniors and hopefully will have a handful of freshmen to build upon for future years.

DAN BEYFUSS

Why did you decide to play tennis this year?

I decided to play tennis this year because I enjoy playing the game and I enjoy being on the team.

What are your expectations for this season?

I expect, this year, to have fun, and to play to the best of my ability. Winning would be nice too though.

Which is your preference, singles or doubles?

I prefer to play singles, even though I usually play doubles. Doubles is all right with me if I play well with my partner. I like to play with Amit if I have a choice.

The sport of golf still remains after many changes were made for the 1992 season.

A new coach was added. Mr. Joseph Costello, who replaced Bill Olear, filled the first change. Two new freshmen were added to the team, and two players who are just learning to play the game are starting to improve gradually in the alternate slots.

"The team is improving and we're beginning to concentrate on improving our weaknesses," quoted Senior Captain Mike DelVacchio.

"We didn't start out with many practices this year due to inclement weather, but I'm very surprised that we're doing this well. As long as we improve individually, that's what counts."

MIKE DEL VACCHIO

Why did you decide to try out for the golf team?

Since I was around the age of 10, I have been playing golf with my father. I have always loved the challenge of playing golf courses that are different. I felt that I had improved my game enough to play for the school.

What skills and abilities are necessary for one to become a proficient golfer?

The skills and abilities one needs to play the sport and be proficient are timing, power, practice and the ability to mentally play the game. Patience is a key factor for all golfers. It possibly is the most single handedly important skill one can have to play golf.

Do you plan on continuing your golf career?

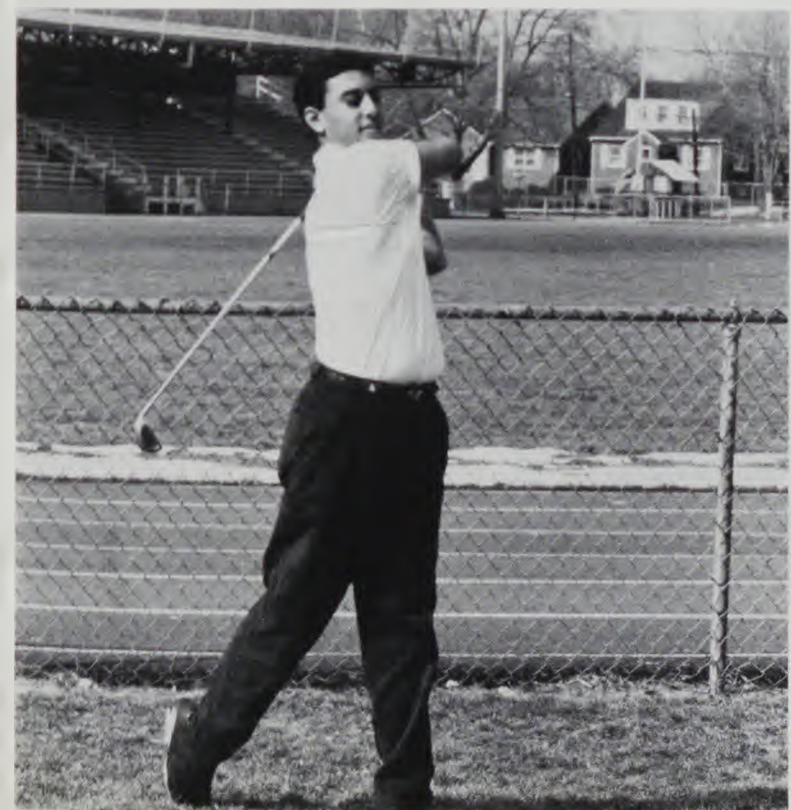

In September, I will be going to St. John's to pursue my goal of becoming a lawyer. Fortunately my father and brothers play, so I will be playing on the weekends and whenever I can. I will never give up an opportunity to play golf!

Senior Class Trip

"I can't wait til we get there...The weather better be nice!"

The senior trip began Tuesday, March 17. And before this crew could gather their luggage and slather on the sun-tan lotion, they were in the middle of Epcot Center staring at a big round golf ball in 80 degree weather. The seniors got a taste of various countries showcased in Epcot as well as getting a glimpse of the future.

"We're going to Disneyworld!" And they did. The Pirates of the Caribbean, Captain Nemo's 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea, Horizons. After riding Space Mountain at least 15 times in one day, and having nightmares about the Wicked Queen in Snow White's Adventure, the seniors came back to their hotel with the announcement of the most unforgettable gift on the trip -- Senior Stacey Alling had a beautiful 6 lb., 12 oz. baby girl named Brittney Michelle.

"Did you put enough sunblock on?" "Did you try this ride, yet?" The seniors went to Wet 'N Wild anxious for a suntan and ready for the rides, whether it be the mysterious Black Hole or the very vertical Der Stuka. The seniors returned tired from the day's activity, nice and tan, or nice and burnt.

"Ouch, ouch, don't touch my shoulders..." You never really know how bad a sunburn can be until the day after (just ask a few of the seniors who didn't put enough sunblock on). Going to Universal Studios that day, people forgot about their burns and enjoyed the day. The Back to the Future ride and the Hard Rock Cafe, Orlando seemed to be the highlights of that day.

"How much did you spend?" "I wish we could've stayed longer." The seniors finally returned home to Carteret with rolls of film to develop, bags of souvenirs, much less money, and ultraviolet radiation. Their 4 night-5 day trip to Orlando, Florida was certainly worth it and left people with memories of a trip they could never forget.

Top: Seniors chant, "Bring in the next remove!" I-R: Lisa Gallo after a shaving cream attack. Lisa on a mission to hunt down the assailant.

Top: Seniors cooling off at Wet-N-Wild. L-R: Helene and Lisa looking quite bashful. Cristina looks for hidden treasures.

DAVID AND LISA

Signs for "David and Lisa," the Drama Club's presentation covered the halls of CHS.

A psychological drama, the play depicts the trust and friendship which developed between two emotionally troubled teens. David was a young bitter man who feared physical contact with other people which, he believed, would result in death. Lisa was a young girl who feared the effects of time - growth and maturity - so she remained child-like in her manners and speech, constantly rhyming. In a moment when Lisa was forced to realize that she was a "big girl," David feared for her safety instead of fearing other people's touch. Together the two overcame their fears.

YEAR IN REVIEW

1991-1992 was truly expressive as the sign of the times. It showed that our world is everchanging, ever advancing, never stopping for those who struggled or refused to follow. The events captured in these photographs exemplify this. Clockwise Ex-Premiere Mikhail Gorbachov resigns shortly after the coup. The Canadian Ice Hockey team moved to be a medal contender. National figure skating champion Kristi Yanaguchi is a heavy favorite at Albertville. World Series champions the Minnesota Twins were underdogs during the regular season. Boris Yeltsin waves the flag of the Republic of Russia as communism falls.

1991

Clockwise Basketball star Earvin Magic Johnson announced that he was HIV positive to the awe and dismay of his fans. Clarence Thomas' nomination to the Supreme Court was threatened by charges of sexual harrasment from Anita Hill. Ecological awarenes and activities grew. Famous actor, director, and producer Michael Landon died from cancer. Jeffrey Dahmer, confessed serial killer faced a trial to determine his sanity when he committed 15 murders. Former KKK Grand Wizard David Duke campaigned for the governorship of Louisiana and lost.

LIFE ON EARTH

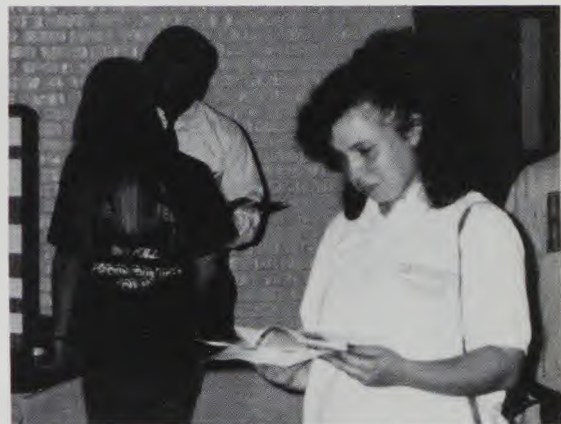

Much may have gone on in the world around us, but Carteret High School has plenty of memories of its own! Clockwise Rosa Crua and Don Smith are this year's Homecoming Royalty. The cast of one of the most popular teen oriented series, Beverly Hills 90210. This phrase becomes a household catch phrase. CHS fans prove that they have more spirit than that of the opposing team! The word FREEDOM proves to be a common link for peace in this world. The annual Human Relations Club Christmas International luncheon again proves to be a success both socially and culinarily.

Clockwise Brian Rowley and Jennifer Harder were chosen Prince and Princess at the Homecoming Ceremony. Incoming freshmen braved entering the high school. Allison Comba shows that the college hunt is a major part of senior year. Bugsey co-starring Annette Benning and Warren Beatty, won the best picture at the Golden Globe Awards. Ms Mincieli's office was filled with gifts for the annual HRC Toy Drive. During the summer of 1991, the girl's gym was set ablaze. Another movie hit was Thelma and Louise, starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis. CHS cheerleaders show much spirit at the pep rally.
