about crime & safety

- What have been the consequences in states that have legalized recreational and medicinal use of marijuana?
- What have been the positive or negative effects in nations or states that have decriminalized all recreational drug use (i.e., not legal but where personal use and possession of small quantity not prosecuted)?
- Research shows detriment of marijuana on children’s brain development. How should children be prevented from use or incentivized to avoid it? Some communities offer teens recreational passes in exchange for clean results from voluntary drug testing. Others increase policing of school zones.
- Should the three strikes rule be changed by federal mandate?
- Should the law allow supervised safe injection sites by non-profits?

drugs

- legalize or decriminalize drugs = no threat of prosecution for personal drug use; social service referrals for addiction

drugs

- drug treatment and fines = prison only for violent crimes

drugs

- war on drugs = zero tolerance and mandatory prosecution for possession and use

drugs

- legalize or decriminalize drugs = prohibit only acts that harm others, not “victimless crimes”
