Subject: Check your voter registration for the upcoming election

Dear Pennsylvania Voter,

Have you recently moved or changed your name? Is your voter registration accurate and up to date?

Pennsylvania's election is Tuesday, November 4, 2025. Now is the time to check your voter registration status and to make sure your information is current.

Whether you plan to vote by mail or vote at your polling place, you can update your information or change your party affiliation by Monday, October 20, 2025, for changes to take effect before the election.

Contact your county board of elections for ballot information: vote.pa.gov/County.

If you are unsure about your voter registration status, go to vote.pa.gov/Status.

For more information about voting and elections in PA, visit vote.pa.gov.

Sincerely,

Al Schmidt
Secretary of the Commonwealth
