WHO WE ARE

SECURELEB is a discreet security and risk management company based in Lebanon, providing both on-ground tactical support and VIP-level services.

We support international journalists, NGOs, executives and expats operating in Lebanon. from urban missions in Beirut to high-risk operations in sensitive border zones.

Our strength lies in combining deep local knowledge, flexible planning, and real-time coordination allowing clients to operate safely and efficiently in any environment.

Mission

To deliver smart, calm, and adaptable security solutions tailored to the realities of Lebanon.

We reduce exposure, support movement, and provide strategic backup — whether you're on assignment in a remote region or coordinating discreet travel across the city.

WHY SECURELEB?

- Tactical mindset + discreet executive support
- Route planning & silent standby for VIPs and expats
- Bilingual driver trained in local risk navigation and emergency fallback
- Embedded fixer/security advisor support for media & NGOs
- Experience in sensitive and high-risk areas
- Red Cross-certified in First Aid & Psychological First Aid
- Trusted by NPR, The Washington Post, Daily Beast & more
- No uniforms. No weapons. Just quiet, professional control.

SERVICES

Whether you're operating in the field or navigating private life in Lebanon, SecureLeb adapts to your mission.

We provide two distinct lines of service:

- Tactical support for journalists, press teams, and NGOs working in high-risk zones.
- Discreet private solutions for executives, expats, and VIPs needing full-spectrum logistical coverage from arrival to secure property oversight.

FOR MEDIA STAFF & NGO TEAMS

For journalists, reporters, and media crews working across Lebanon, especially in unstable or sensitive areas — we offer:

- Threat-informed movement protocols
- Embedded fixer/security advisor coordination
- Local access facilitation and discreet logistical handling
- Emergency fallback strategy and safehouse activation
- Real-time extraction support under deteriorating conditions

FOR EXECUTIVES & PRIVATE CLIENTS

For high-level professionals, expats, and VIPs, SecureLeb delivers full-spectrum support quiet, coordinated, and trusted:

- Secure airport arrival protocols and coordinated city movement
- Standby driver with tactical awareness and low-visibility presence
- Private property readiness checks and secure route mapping
- On-call, trusted maintenance teams for rapid property issues
- Medical coordination and first-response linkage when needed
- Seamless protection with no uniforms, no weapons, and no public footprint
