DAKOTA BLUE is an American Country/Southern rock band hailing from the rural coastal plains of North Carolina. Their music and style comes from an array of influences from Pearl Jam to Waylon Jennings, from the Eagles to Travis Tritt. Writing and performing their own music is one of the things that sets them apart but their covers always bring audiences to their feet. Songs written from their personal experiences that resonate with their fans. Songs about small towns, good times and tributes to love and heartbreak are what makes DAKOTA BLUE a true crowd pleaser.
