Our Policy for Protecting Your Online Privacy

The Website uses methodologies to help analyze how users use the site. We analyze text files placed on your computer to collect standard Internet log information and visitor behavior information in an anonymous form. The information generated about your use of The Website – including your IP address – is transmitted to a safe location within our firewalls and encrypted protection. This information is then used to evaluate visitors' use of The Website and to compile statistical reports on website activity for helping us improve The Website as well as keeping within the spirit of helping you in service and support.

Personally Identifiable Information (PII)

Neither us or a third party will be able to use the statistical analytics tool to track or collect any Personally Identifiable Information ("PII") of visitors to The Website. Our methodology will never allow and will never associate your IP address with any other data held within our database. It is possible that it may link, or seek to link, an IP address with the identity of a computer user. We will not associate any data gathered from The Website with any PII from any source, unless you explicitly submit that information via a fill-in form on this or other Odyssia Learning websites.
