3A Meaning of family member

- (1) In this Act, family member of a person means—
- (a) the spouse or domestic partner of the person; or
  - (b) a person who has or has had an intimate personal relationship with the person; or
  - (c) a person who is or has been a relative of the person; or

- (d) a child who normally or regularly resides with the person; or
  - (e) a child of whom the person is a guardian; or
  - (f) another person who is or has been ordinarily a member of the household of the person.
- (2) For the purposes of the definition of family member in subsection (1)—
- (a) domestic partner of a person means—
    - (i) a person who is in a registered relationship with the person; or
    - (ii) an adult person to whom the person is not married but with whom the person is in a relationship as a couple where one or each of them provides personal or financial commitment and support of a domestic nature for the material benefit of the other, irrespective of their genders and whether or not they are living under the same roof, but does not include a person who provides domestic support and personal care to the person—
      - (A) for fee or reward; or
      - (B) on behalf of another person or an organisation (including a government or government agency, a body corporate or a charitable or benevolent organisation);
  - (b) parent of a child includes a guardian of the child or a person with whom the child normally or regularly resides;

S. 3A(2)(a)
substituted by
No. 12/2008
s. 73(1)(Sch. 1
item 39.1).

(c) relative of a person means—

- (i) a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, step-father, step-mother, father-in-law or mother-in-law of the person; or
- (ii) a son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, step-son, step-daughter, son-in-law or daughter-in-law of the person; or
- (iii) a brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, brother-in-law or sister-in-law of the person; or
- (iv) an uncle, aunt, uncle-in-law or aunt-in-law of the person; or
- (v) a nephew or niece of the person; or
- (vi) a cousin of the person—and includes, in the case of domestic partners, a person who would be such a relative if the domestic partners were married to each other;

(d) spouse of a person means a person to whom the person is or was married.

(3) For the purposes of the definition of domestic partner in subsection (2)—

- (a) registered relationship has the same meaning as in the Relationships Act 2008; and

S. 3A(3)
substituted by
No. 12/2008
s. 73(1)(Sch. 1
item 39.2).

- (b) in determining whether persons who are not in a registered relationship are domestic partners of each other, all the circumstances of their relationship are to be taken into account, including any one or more of the matters referred to in section 35(2) of the Relationships Act 2008 as may be relevant in a particular case; and
- (c) a person is not a domestic partner of another person only because they are co-tenants.

Part 2—The Magistrates' Court of Victoria

4 Establishment of the Magistrates' Court

S. 4(2)
amended by
No. 19/2005
s. 4(1).

- (1) There shall be a court to be known as the Magistrates' Court of Victoria.
- (2) The Court shall consist of the magistrates, the judicial registrars of the court and the registrars of the Court.

S. 4(2A)
inserted by
No. 83/1992
s. 181(a).

- (2A) The Court has an Industrial Division.

S. 4(2B)
inserted by
s. 181(a).

- (2B) The Industrial Division has such of the powers of the Court as are necessary to enable it to exercise its jurisdiction.
- (3) The Court shall be constituted by a magistrate except in the case of any proceeding for which provision is made by any Act or the Rules for the Court to be constituted by a registrar.

inserted by
No. 19/2005
s. 4(2).

- (3AA) Without limiting subsection (3), the Court may be constituted by a judicial registrar in the case of any proceeding for which provision is made by rules of court for—
  - (a) the Court to be so constituted; and
  - (b) the delegation to judicial registrars of powers of the Court to hear and determine the proceeding.

S. 4(3A)
inserted by
No. 83/1992
s. 181(b),
amended by Nos 64/1996
s. 25, 36/2007

S. 4F(1)(d)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.6(b)).

- (d) the accused consents to the proceeding being dealt with by the Koori Court Division.

(2) Subject to and in accordance with the rules—

- (a) a proceeding may be transferred to the Koori Court Division, whether sitting at the same or a different venue; and
- (b) the Koori Court Division may transfer a proceeding (including a proceeding transferred to it under paragraph (a)) to the Court, sitting other than as the Koori Court Division, at the same or a different venue.

- (3) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, if a proceeding is transferred from one venue of the Court to another, the transferee venue is the proper venue of the Court for the purposes of this Act.

4FA Certain matters may be dealt with by Koori Court Division only in certain venues

S. 4FA

- (1) The Chief Magistrate may, by notice in the Government Gazette, specify a venue of the court as a venue at which the Koori Court Division may exercise—
- (a) the jurisdiction conferred on the Koori Court Division by section 4E(a) in relation to—
    - (i) a contravention of a family violence intervention order or an offence arising out of the same conduct as that from which the contravention arose; or
    - (ii) a contravention of a personal safety intervention order under the Personal Safety Intervention Orders Act 2010 or an offence arising out of the same conduct as that out of which the contravention arose; and
  - (b) the jurisdiction conferred on the Koori Court Division by section 4E(b) and (ba) in relation to the contravention or variation of a sentence imposed in relation to a matter referred to in paragraph (a)(i) or (ii); and
  - (c) the jurisdiction conferred on the Koori Court Division by section 4E(b) and (ba) in relation to an offence constituted by a contravention of a sentence referred to in paragraph (b).

- (2) The Koori Court Division must not exercise the jurisdiction referred to in subsection (1) except when sitting at a venue specified under that subsection.

S. 4G(1)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.7).

- (1) This section applies to the Koori Court Division when it is considering which sentence to impose on an accused.
- (2) The Koori Court Division may consider any oral statement made to it by an Aboriginal elder or respected person.
- (3) The Koori Court Division may inform itself in any way it thinks fit, including by considering a report prepared by, or a statement or submission prepared or made to it by, or evidence given to it by—
- (a) a Koori Court officer employed as an Aboriginal justice worker; or
  - (b) a community corrections officer appointed under Part 4 of the Corrections Act 1986; or
  - (c) a health service provider; or
  - (d) a victim of the offence; or
  - (e) a family member of the accused; or
  - (f) anyone else whom the Koori Court Division considers appropriate.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the requirement to observe the rules of natural justice.

S. 4G(3)(e)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.8).

(5) This section does not limit—

- (a) any other power conferred on the Court by or under this or any other Act; or
- (b) any other specific provision made by or under this or any other Act for the making of any report, statement or submission, or the giving of any evidence, to the Court for the purpose of assisting it in determining sentence.

(6) To avoid doubt, Part 3.10 of the Evidence Act 2008 does not apply to the Koori Court Division in considering the sentence to impose under this section, unless the Koori Court Division directs, in accordance with section 4(2) of the Evidence Act 2008, that it applies.

4IA Establishment of Specialist Family Violence Court Division

- (1) The Court has a Specialist Family Violence Court Division.
- (2) The Specialist Family Violence Court Division has such of the powers of the Court as are necessary to enable it to exercise its jurisdiction.
- (3) Despite section 4(3), the Specialist Family Violence Court Division may only be constituted by a magistrate who has been assigned to that Division by the Chief Magistrate by notice published in the Government Gazette.
- (4) Nothing in subsection (3) prevents the Specialist Family Violence Court Division being constituted by a judicial registrar in accordance with section 4(3AA).
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) prevents the Specialist Family Violence Court Division being constituted by a registrar for the determination of an application under Division 4 of Part 7 of the National Domestic Violence Order Scheme Act 2016.
- (6) In assigning a magistrate, the Chief Magistrate must have regard to the magistrate's relevant knowledge and experience in dealing with matters relating to family violence.
- (7) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the Specialist Family Violence Court Division may sit and act only at a venue of the Court specified by the Minister by notice published in the Government Gazette.
- (8) The Minister must consult the Chief Magistrate before publishing a notice under subsection (7).

- (9) Subject to this Act, the regulations and rules, the Specialist Family Violence Court Division may regulate its own procedure.

4IB Jurisdiction of Specialist Family Violence Court Division

inserted by
No. 33/2018
s. 36.

- (1) The Specialist Family Violence Court Division has jurisdiction to deal with any of the following matters if the matter is within the jurisdiction of the Magistrates' Court and arises from or includes allegations of family violence by a person—
- (a) proceedings for or with respect to the following orders under the Family Violence Protection Act 2008—
    - (i) a family violence intervention order under that Act; or
    - (ii) a counselling order or an order under section 137 of that Act;
  - (b) proceedings under the Vexatious Proceedings Act 2014 in relation to intervention order legislation within the meaning of that Act;
  - (c) a proceeding for a declaration under Division 4 of Part 7 of the National Domestic Violence Order Scheme Act 2016;
  - (d) civil proceedings for or with respect to damages for personal injury;
  - (e) matters arising under—
    - (i) the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth; or
    - (ii) the Child Support (Assessment) Act 1989 of the Commonwealth;

- (f) proceedings for or with respect to the trial of a person for a summary offence or an indictable offence that may be heard and determined summarily;
- (g) proceedings for or with respect to the committal for trial of a person for an indictable offence;
- (h) proceedings for an order under Division 1 or 2 of Part 4 of the Sentencing Act 1991 that arise from an offence referred to in paragraph (f).

Note

Division 1 of Part 4 of the Sentencing Act 1991 deals with restitution. Division 2 of Part 4 of the Sentencing Act 1991 deals with compensation.

- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in the Victims of Crime Assistance Act 1996, if the act of violence to which an application under that Act relates is family violence by a person—
  - (a) the Specialist Family Violence Court Division has jurisdiction to deal with the application; and
  - (b) in dealing with the application, the Specialist Family Violence Court Division has the same functions, powers and duties as the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal; and
  - (c) for the purposes of the application and any subsequent review of a decision relating to the application, the Specialist Family Violence Court Division is taken to constitute the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal.

- (3) The Specialist Family Violence Court Division also has—
- (a) jurisdiction to deal with a breach of an order referred to in subsection (1)(a), including any offence constituted by such a breach; and
  - (b) any other jurisdiction given to it by or under this or any other Act.
- (4) Subject to and in accordance with the rules, a proceeding may be transferred to the Specialist Family Violence Court Division, whether sitting at the same or a different venue, but only if the venue where the Specialist Family Violence Court Division is sitting is the proper venue referred to in paragraph (ca) of the definition of proper venue.
- (5) Subject to and in accordance with the rules, the Specialist Family Violence Court Division may transfer a proceeding (including a proceeding transferred to it under subsection (4)) to the Court, sitting other than as the Specialist Family Violence Court Division, at the same or a different venue.
- (6) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, if a proceeding is transferred from one venue of the Court to another, the transferee venue is the proper venue of the Court for the purposes of this Act.

4J Adjournment to seek legal advice

- (1) The Specialist Family Violence Court Division may, on its own initiative or on the application of a party to a proceeding, exercise its power under section 128 to adjourn proceedings to give one or more of the parties a reasonable opportunity to obtain legal advice.

- (1) A child must not be present during, or called as a witness in, proceedings in the Specialist Family Violence Court Division, other than proceedings for a family violence intervention order or a proceeding relating to a recognised DVO, if—
- (a) the child is a family member of a party to the proceedings; or
  - (b) the proceedings arise from or include allegations of family violence and the child is a family member of the alleged victim of that family violence.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if—

S. 4L(2)(a)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.13).

- (a) the child is the accused, defendant or respondent (within the meaning of the Family Violence Protection Act 2008) in the proceedings; or

(b) the Specialist Family Violence Court Division makes an order allowing the child to be present or called as a witness (as the case may be).

- (5) In assigning a magistrate to the Neighbourhood Justice Division, the Chief Magistrate must—
  - (a) have regard to the magistrate's knowledge of, or experience in the application of, the principles of therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative justice; and
  - (b) consult with the President of the Children's Court.
- (6) The Neighbourhood Justice Division must exercise its jurisdiction with as little formality and technicality, and with as much expedition, as the requirements of this Act and the Sentencing Act 1991 and the proper consideration of the matters before the Court permit.
- (7) The Neighbourhood Justice Division must take steps to ensure that, so far as practicable, any proceeding before it is conducted in a way which it considers will make it comprehensible to the parties to the proceeding.
- (8) Subject to this Act, the regulations and the rules, the Neighbourhood Justice Division may regulate its own procedure.

4N Places where Neighbourhood Justice Division may sit and act

Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the Neighbourhood Justice Division may only sit and act—

- (a) at a venue of the Court specified by the Chief Magistrate by notice published in the Government Gazette; and
- (b) if the Minister specifies a municipal district by notice published in the Government Gazette, at any place within that municipal district.

4O Jurisdiction of Neighbourhood Justice Division

- (1) In this section—

close connection means connection involving regular congregation for the purpose of social or community support;

municipal district means a municipal district specified under section 4N(b).

- (2) The Neighbourhood Justice Division has the jurisdiction referred to in this section if—

- (a) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the accused—

- (i) resides in the municipal district; or
- (ii) is a homeless person who is alleged to have committed the offence in the municipal district; or
- (iii) is a homeless person who is alleged to have committed the offence outside the municipal district but who is living in the municipal district in accommodation of the kind referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition of homeless person in section 3(1); or
- (iv) is an Aborigine with a close connection to the municipal district and is alleged to have committed the offence in that district;

- (ab) in the case of a proceeding under the Personal Safety Intervention Orders Act 2010—

- (i) at least one of the parties resides in the municipal district; or
- (ii) at least one of the parties is—
  - (A) a homeless person; or

s. 97(Sch.
item 82.16).

- (1) This section applies to the Neighbourhood Justice Division when it is considering which sentence to impose on an accused.
- (2) The Neighbourhood Justice Division may inform itself in any way it thinks fit, including by considering a report prepared by, or a statement or submission prepared or made to it by, or evidence given to it by—

- (a) a Neighbourhood Justice officer; or
  - (b) a community corrections officer appointed under Part 4 of the Corrections Act 1986; or
  - (c) the Secretary to the Department of Human Services; or
  - (ca) the Secretary to the Department of Health; or
  - (d) a health service provider; or
  - (e) a community service provider; or
  - (f) a victim of the offence; or
  - (g) anyone else whom the Division considers appropriate.
- * * * * *
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the requirement to observe the rules of natural justice.
  - (5) This section does not limit—
    - (a) any other power conferred on the Court by or under this or any other Act; or
    - (b) any other specific provision made by or under this or any other Act for the making of any report, statement or submission, or the giving of any evidence, to the Court for the purpose of assisting it in determining a sentence.

- (1) The Court, at any time before taking a formal plea from the accused in a criminal proceeding which has been referred to the Assessment and Referral Court List, may adjourn a proceeding in that List for the purposes of a clinical assessment of the accused to—
  - (a) identify the accused's needs based on the needs criteria set out in section 4T; and
  - (b) prepare an individual support plan for the accused.
- (2) The Court must fix a return date for consideration by the Court of the proposed individual support plan.
- (3) On the return date, the Court may—
  - (a) subject to subsection (5), approve the individual support plan, with or without amendments;
  - (b) fix bail conditions or any undertakings or other conditions the Court considers appropriate;
  - (c) make any other order the Court thinks fit.

- (3) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, if a proceeding is transferred from one venue of the Court to another, the transferee venue is the proper venue of the Court for the purposes of this Act.

- (4) This section does not limit—
- (a) any other power conferred on the Court by or under this or any other Act; or
  - (b) any other specific provision made by or under this or any other Act for the making of any report, statement or submission, or the giving of any evidence, to the Court for the purpose of assisting it in hearing any criminal proceeding or determining sentence.

4Y Completion of, and participation in, individual support plan

inserted by
No. 12/2010
s. 5.

- (1) On completion of an individual support plan by an accused to the satisfaction of the Court, the Court must hear and determine the criminal proceeding to which the individual support plan related.
- (2) If an accused completes, or participates in, an individual support plan to the satisfaction of the Court, the Court may discharge the accused without any finding of guilt.
- (3) The fact of participation in the individual support plan is not to be treated as a finding of guilt.
- (4) If the accused is discharged by the Court, the fact of participation in, or completion of, the individual support plan and the discharge of the accused is a defence to a later charge for the same offence or a similar offence arising out of the same circumstances.
- (5) If an accused participates in an individual support plan to the satisfaction of the Court and the accused is subsequently found guilty of the charge, the Court must take into account the extent to which the accused participated in the individual support plan when sentencing the accused.

- (6) If an accused fails to participate in an individual support plan to the satisfaction of the Court and the accused is subsequently found guilty of the charge, the Court must not take into account the accused's failure to participate in the individual support plan when sentencing the accused.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the requirement to observe the rules of natural justice.
- (8) This section does not affect the incurring of demerit points under the Road Safety Act 1986 or regulations made under that Act.
- (9) Nothing in this section affects or limits the operation of the Sentencing Act 1991 or the powers of a magistrate or the Court under that Act.

9EA Power to complete matters—magistrates and reserve magistrates

- (1) This section applies to—
- (a) a magistrate whose office ceases under section 12(a) or by resignation;

- (b) a reserve magistrate engaged under section 9C whose engagement expires;
  - (c) a reserve magistrate engaged under section 9C—
    - (i) whose engagement expires; and
    - (ii) whose appointment as a reserve magistrate ceases, other than by way of resignation—but only if at the time of that cessation or expiry the magistrate or reserve magistrate had a matter—
  - (d) that was part-heard before him or her; or
  - (e) in respect of which his or her decision or determination is pending.
- (2) Subject to subsection (4), a former magistrate, reserve magistrate or former reserve magistrate to whom this section applies may give judgment, make any order or complete or otherwise continue to deal with any matters relating to any proceeding that former magistrate, reserve magistrate or former reserve magistrate (as the case may be) had heard, or partly heard, before the cessation of his or her office or appointment or expiry of his or her engagement.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)—
- (a) a reserve magistrate to whom this section applies whose engagement has expired is taken to be engaged under section 9C; and
  - (b) a former magistrate or former reserve magistrate to whom this section applies—
    - (i) holds office as a reserve magistrate by virtue of this section as if he or she had been appointed under section 9A; and

- (ii) is taken to be a reserve magistrate engaged under section 9C; and
  - (c) section 10(2) and Part 2 of Schedule 1 do not apply and that person is not entitled to remuneration and entitlements under that section for the period during which he or she is acting in accordance with subsection (2) after the cessation of his or her commission or appointment or the expiry of his or her engagement, as the case requires; and
  - (d) the person may continue to serve as a reserve magistrate for the purposes of subsection (2) despite having attained the age of 78 years.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), any appointment or engagement of a person under this section ceases on the earlier of—
  - (a) the completion of the matters referred to in subsection (2); or
  - (b) 6 months from the date of that appointment or engagement; or
  - (c) the person being appointed under section 9A as a reserve magistrate.
- (5) A person to whom this section applies may resign his or her office as reserve magistrate under this section by notice in writing to the Governor.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents a person being appointed as a reserve magistrate under section 9A at any time, if he or she is eligible to be so appointed.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 16AB.

- (8) In this section a reference to "proceeding" includes—
- (a) any proceeding or other matter in the Children's Court under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005; and

- (5) The proposed Magistrates' Court Civil Procedure Rules 1989 approved by a majority of the magistrates on 17 March 1989—
- (a) are for all purposes (including the purposes of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1962) to be treated; and
  - (b) have effect; and
  - (c) may be revoked or amended—
- as if they had been made under this Act on the day on which this Act received the Royal Assent.

16A Practice notes

inserted by
No. 64/1996
s. 31.

- (1) The Chief Magistrate may from time to time issue practice directions, statements or notes for the Court in relation to civil or criminal proceedings or any class of civil or criminal proceedings.
- (2) Practice directions, statements or notes issued under subsection (1) must not be inconsistent with any provision made by or under this or any other Act.

16AB Constitution of Court if magistrate unable to continue and constitution of Court in certain circumstances

inserted by
No. 63/2013
s. 46.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), despite anything in any Act or the rules, any power, duty or act which might have been exercised or performed by the Court constituted by a magistrate may be exercised or performed by the Court constituted by any other magistrate if the Court cannot for any reason be constituted by that first mentioned magistrate.

- (2) If this Act or the rules provide that a division of the Court must be constituted by a magistrate assigned to that division, the Court may only be constituted under subsection (1) by a magistrate who is assigned to the relevant division.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt, for the purpose of completion of any matter whether under section 9EA or otherwise, the Court may be constituted or continue to be constituted by a reserve magistrate who is a magistrate without reconstitution of the Court despite any interruption in continuity of his or her tenure, appointment or engagement.

16D Terms and conditions of appointment

inserted by
No. 19/2005
s. 5.

- (1) A judicial registrar is entitled to the terms and conditions including remuneration and allowances that are fixed in respect of him or her from time to time by the Governor in Council.
- (2) Except with the approval of the Attorney-General, a judicial registrar must not engage in legal practice, undertake paid employment or conduct a business, trade or profession of any kind.
- (3) A judicial registrar must disclose to the Chief Magistrate in writing any direct or indirect pecuniary interest that he or she has or acquires that could conflict with the proper performance of the duties of the office of judicial registrar.
- (4) Despite any provision to the contrary made by or under any other Act, a person who has held the office of judicial registrar is entitled to have his or her service in that office taken into account in computing the period of service which entitles public officials (within the meaning of the Public Administration Act 2004) to be granted long service leave or other leave entitlements, whether his or her service in the office of judicial registrar is before or after any period of service as such a public official.
- (5) The following are to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, which is appropriated to the necessary extent—
  - (a) the amounts (including the amount of any non-salary benefits) payable to or for any judicial registrar; and

(1) The rules may provide for appeals from or reviews of a determination of the Court constituted by a judicial registrar—

(a) whether in respect of—

(i) the hearing and determination of any proceeding (whether criminal or civil);
or

(ii) any interlocutory application; and

(b) whether in respect of specified kinds of application or proceeding or generally; and

(c) by specifying whether the procedure is by way of appeal or review or both; and

(d) by specifying the way in which the Court may be constituted for those appeals or reviews.

(2) The powers in subsection (1) are in addition to and do not limit any power to make rules under section 16L.

(3) Unless the rules otherwise provide, a determination of the Court constituted by a judicial registrar may be appealed from or reviewed—

- (a) on application of a party to the proceeding;
or
  - (b) on the Court's own motion.
- (4) If the rules do not provide for an appeal from or a review of a determination of the Court constituted by a judicial registrar, the determination is to be subject to a review or an appeal conducted—
- (a) by way of hearing de novo by the Court constituted by a magistrate; and
  - (b) otherwise in accordance with the rules, if any.

Part 3—Officers of the Court

17 Employment of principal registrar, registrars and deputy registrars

Part 4—Warrants and criminal proceedings

Division 1—Jurisdiction

25 Extent of jurisdiction

(1) The Court has jurisdiction—

- (a) to hear and determine all summary offences; and
- (b) to hear and determine all indictable offences which may be heard and determined summarily; and
- (c) to conduct committal proceedings into indictable offences and either—

S. 25(1)(c)(i)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.25).

- (i) direct the accused to be tried and order that the accused be remanded in custody until trial or grant bail; or

S. 25(1)(c)(ii)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.25).

- (ii) discharge the accused; and

- (d) to make orders to enforce the payment of all fines which are, by any Act, directed to be recovered in the Court or for the recovery of which no provision is made.

(2) The jurisdiction given by subsection (1) is additional to any other jurisdiction given to the Court with respect to a criminal proceeding by or under any Act other than this Act.

S. 25(3)
inserted by
No. 7/2009
s. 426 (as
amended by
No. 68/2009
ss 46(a), 54(l)).

(3) In a particular case, the jurisdiction given by subsection (1)(c) may be exercised concurrently with the jurisdiction of the Children's Court to conduct a committal proceeding if—

- (a) the charges against each accused could properly be joined in the same indictment; and
- (b) the accused who is a child—
  - (i) is of or over the age of 15 years at the time the proceeding against the child for the offence is commenced; and
  - (ii) is charged with murder, attempted murder, manslaughter, child homicide, homicide by firearm, an offence against section 197A of the Crimes Act 1958 (arson causing death) or an offence against section 318 of the Crimes Act 1958 (culpable driving causing death); and
- (c) the Court makes an order under subsection (4) in relation to the accused who is not a child and the Children's Court makes an order under section 516A(2) of the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 in relation to the accused who is a child.
- (4) The Court may order that joint committal proceedings in relation to a particular accused are appropriate having regard to—
  - (a) the age of the child; and
  - (b) the effect on victims of the offence charged if the committal proceedings were not conducted jointly; and
  - (c) the estimated duration of the committal proceedings if conducted jointly; and
  - (d) the number of witnesses that would be cross-examined by both accused; and
  - (e) any other matter considered relevant.

43 Witness summonses

- (1) The Court or a registrar may issue the following witness summonses—
  - (a) summons to give evidence;
  - (b) summons to produce documents or things;
  - (c) summons to give evidence and produce documents or things.
- (2) Any party to a criminal proceeding in the Court may apply for the issue of a witness summons.
- (3) A witness summons may be directed to any person who appears to the Court or registrar issuing the summons to be likely—
  - (a) to be able to give material evidence for any party to the proceeding; or
  - (b) to have in the person's possession or control any documents or things which may be relevant on the hearing of the proceeding; or

- (c) both to be able to give material evidence and to have in the person's possession or control any relevant documents or things.
- (4) A witness summons must require the person to whom it is directed to attend at a specified venue of the Court on a certain date and at a certain time—
  - (a) to give evidence in the proceeding; or
  - (b) to produce for examination at the hearing any documents or things described in the summons that are in the person's possession or control; or
  - (c) both to give evidence and produce for examination any documents or things described in the summons that are in the person's possession or control.
- (5) A witness summons must be served a reasonable time before the day on which the proceeding is listed before the Court.

S. 43(5)
substituted by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.27).

- (5A) A witness summons must be served by—
  - (a) giving a copy of the summons to the person to be served; or
  - (b) if the person does not accept the copy, putting the copy down in the person's presence and telling the person the nature of the summons; or
  - (c) leaving a copy of the summons for the person at the person's last known or usual place of residence or business with a person who appears to be of or over the age of 16 years.

inserted by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.27).

(5B) If the person to be served is a company or registered body (within the meaning of the Corporations Act), a witness summons may be served on the company or body in accordance with section 109X or 601CX of that Act, as the case requires.

S. 43(5B)
inserted by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.27).

(6) A person to whom a witness summons is directed is, subject to subsection (7), excused from complying with the summons unless conduct money is given or tendered to the person at the time of service of the summons or a reasonable time before the return date.

(7) It is not necessary to give or tender conduct money to a person to whom a witness summons is directed if the person will not reasonably incur any expenses in complying with the summons.

(8) The Court may direct that a witness who has attended before the Court in answer to a witness summons is entitled to receive from the party who applied for the issue of the witness summons further conduct money for each day of attendance.

(9) Nothing in this section—

S. 43(9)(a) repealed by
No. 69/2009
s. 54(Sch. Pt 1
item 34.3).

(b) derogates from the power of the Court to certify that a witness be paid his or her expenses of attending before the Court.

44 Production before date for attendance

(1) Unless the Court or the registrar issuing the summons otherwise directs, a summons to produce documents or things or a summons to give evidence and produce documents or things permits the person to whom the summons is directed, instead of producing the document or thing at the hearing, to produce it, together with a copy of the summons, to the appropriate registrar not later than 2 days before the first day on which production is required.

- (2) If a document or thing is produced to the appropriate registrar under subsection (1), he or she must—
  - (a) if requested to do so, give a receipt to the person producing the document or thing; and
  - (b) produce the document or thing as the Court directs.
- (3) The production of a document or thing to the appropriate registrar under subsection (1) in answer to a summons to give evidence and produce documents or things does not remove the requirement on the person to whom the summons is directed to attend for the purpose of giving evidence.

S. 45
amended by
No. 11/2021
s. 55 (ILA
s. 39B(1)).

45 Attendance of witnesses on adjournment

- (1) A person whose attendance before the Court in a criminal proceeding has been required by witness summons must—
  - (a) subject to section 43(6), attend at the time and place specified in the summons; and
  - (b) if the proceeding is adjourned, attend at the time and place to which the proceeding has been adjourned, without the issue of a further summons—until excused by the Court.

- (2) A witness is not required to attend court on the date and time specified in a witness summons under subsection (1)(a), if the criminal proceeding is adjourned prior to the date and time specified in that summons.

- (4) Despite subsection (2), if under subsection (3) a fresh warrant is issued, the fine in respect of which it was issued, together with any associated fees and costs, again becomes enforceable or recoverable as if there had been no cessation.

59 Duplicate warrants

amended by Nos 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 81.1),
s. 52(a).

- (1) If the execution copy of a warrant issued by a registrar, judicial registrar, magistrate or bail justice is lost or destroyed before it is executed, a registrar, judicial registrar or magistrate may issue a duplicate execution copy if satisfied by evidence on oath or affirmation or by affidavit of the loss or destruction of the execution copy of the warrant.
- (2) A duplicate execution copy must bear on its face the word "Duplicate" and may be executed in all respects as if it were the execution copy of the warrant.
- (3) When a duplicate execution copy of a warrant is issued, the execution copy of the warrant becomes null and void and must, if located, be returned to the principal registrar.

s. 10(Sch.
item 101.3(b)).

- (2) On the arrest of a person under subsection (1) by a police officer or on the handing of a person arrested by a protective services officer into the custody of a police officer under subsection (1A), the police officer must bring the person arrested before a bail justice or the Court within a reasonable time of being arrested or handed into the custody of the police officer (as the case may be) and the bail justice or the Court may—

- (a) if a fresh charge-sheet is filed to the effect of the offence or matter alleged in the warrant—
- (i) permit the person to go at large; or
- (ii) admit the person to bail; or
- (iii) in the case of the Court, hear and determine the proceeding for the offence; or
- (b) if a fresh charge-sheet is not filed to the effect of the offence or matter alleged in the warrant—
- (i) permit the person to go at large; or
- (ii) admit the person to bail; or
- (iii) remand the person in custody for a reasonable time pending execution of the warrant.
- (3) If a person has been arrested under subsection (1) and has been remanded in custody pending execution of the warrant and the warrant is not executed within a reasonable time, the Court must discharge the person from custody.
- (4) If a warrant is executed by use of a copy other than the execution copy, the Court must—
- (a) if satisfied that the copy is a true copy of the execution copy—
- (i) proceed as if the person had been arrested on the execution copy; and
- (ii) order that the execution copy be returned to the principal registrar; or
- (b) if not so satisfied, discharge the person from custody.

No. 69/1997
s. 28(1).

- (3B) A warrant issued in accordance with subsection (3A)—
- (a) directs and authorises the sheriff to do all things that he or she would have been directed and authorised to do if a warrant containing the particulars referred to in subsection (3A) and directed to the sheriff had been issued in paper form under section 68(b) by the magistrate or registrar;
  - (b) must not be amended, altered or varied after its issue, unless the amendment, alteration or variation is authorised by or under this or any other Act.

- (4) Subsections (4) to (7) of section 111 apply to a warrant to imprison directed to the sheriff under this Subdivision in the same manner as they apply to a warrant to seize property directed to the sheriff in a civil proceeding.

70 Directions in, and authority of, warrant to imprison

A warrant to imprison—

- (a) authorises the person to whom it is directed to break, enter and search any place where the person named in the warrant is suspected to be; and
- (b) directs and authorises the person to whom it is directed to take and safely convey the person named in the warrant—
  - (i) to a prison; or
  - (ii) if the warrant is issued under section 68(b), either to a prison or a police gaol;

- (i) for the period specified, or in the circumstances described, in the warrant; or
- (ii) until that person is otherwise removed or discharged from custody by due course of law.

71 Reduction of imprisonment by payment of portion of fine

- (1) If before the issue of a warrant to imprison for non-payment of a fine, it appears to the person issuing the warrant that part of the fine has been paid—
  - (a) the reduction in the amount of the fine payable must be stated in the warrant to imprison; and
  - (b) the term for which the person fined may be imprisoned must be reduced by the number of days bearing as nearly as possible the same proportion to the total number of days in the term as the amount paid bears to the whole amount of the fine.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any provision (except section 26) of the Imprisonment of Fraudulent Debtors Act 1958 to the contrary.
- (3) If after the issue but before the execution of a warrant to imprison for non-payment of a fine, it appears to the Court that part of the fine has been paid, the Court must—
  - (a) amend the warrant; and
  - (b) recall the execution copy of the warrant and amend it—in accordance with subsection (1).

- (4) Despite any provision (except section 26) of the Imprisonment of Fraudulent Debtors Act 1958 to the contrary or anything in any warrant to imprison, if a person is imprisoned for non-payment of a fine—
- (a) the whole or any part of the fine may be paid by or on behalf of that person to the officer in charge of the prison or police gaol in which that person is detained; and
  - (b) the officer in charge must receive the payment and forward it without delay to the principal registrar.
- (5) If—
- (a) the whole amount of the fine; or
  - (b) the amount remaining to be paid—
- is paid to the officer in charge of the prison or police gaol by or on behalf of the person imprisoned, the person imprisoned must be discharged if he or she is in custody for no other matter.
- (6) If part of the fine is paid to the officer in charge of the prison or police gaol by or on behalf of the person imprisoned—
- (a) the term of imprisonment for non-payment of the fine must be reduced having regard to the formula set out in subsection (1)(b); and
  - (b) the officer in charge must—
    - (i) amend the execution copy of the warrant; and
    - (ii) receive the payment and forward it without delay to the principal registrar; and

- (c) at the end of the reduced term, the person imprisoned must be discharged if he or she is in custody for no other matter.

72 Provisions extend to detention in youth justice centre

If a person is directed under Subdivision (4) of Division 2 of Part 3 of the Sentencing Act 1991 or under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 to be detained in a youth justice centre or a youth residential centre, the provisions of this Subdivision and of any regulations with respect to warrants to imprison extend and apply, with any necessary modifications, with respect to the issue and execution of a warrant to detain in a youth justice centre or a youth residential centre and with respect to any matter arising out of any such detention.

Subdivision 4—Warrant to seize property

73 Warrant to seize property

- (1) A warrant to seize property may be issued—

- (a) if the accused in a criminal proceeding in the Court fails to comply with an order for the payment of a fine or of any instalment under an instalment order; or
(b) as authorised by any other Act.

- (2) A warrant to seize property may be directed to—

- (a) a named police officer; or

S. 73(4)
inserted by
No. 34/1990
s. 4(Sch. 3
item 8).

- (4) Subsections (4) to (7) of section 111 apply to a warrant to seize property directed to the sheriff under this Subdivision in the same manner as they apply to a warrant to seize property directed to the sheriff in a civil proceeding.

74 Authority conferred by warrant to seize property

A warrant to seize property directs and authorises the person to whom it is directed—

- (a) to seize the personal property of the person named or described in the warrant; and
- (b) if the sums named in the warrant together with all lawful costs of execution are not paid, to sell the personal property seized.

Subdivision 5—Search warrants

75 Search warrants

- (1) A search warrant may be issued as authorised by any Act other than this Act.
- (2) An application for a search warrant must be supported by evidence on oath or by affirmation or by affidavit. S. 75(2)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 81.3).
- (3) An affidavit supporting an application for a search warrant may be a copy of an affidavit transmitted by facsimile machine or other means of electronic communication. S. 75(3)
amended by
No. 3/2016
s. 6.

76 Persons to whom search warrant may be directed

- (1) A search warrant may be directed to—
- (a) a named police officer; or S. 76(1)(a)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.6(a)(i)).
- (b) generally all police officers; or S. 76(1)(b)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.6(a)(ii)).
- (c) any other person authorised by law to execute a search warrant.
- (2) A search warrant directed to a named police officer may be executed by any police officer. S. 76(2)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.6(b)).

77 Endorsing a warrant for bail

S. 77(2)
amended by
No. 28/2023
s. 70(3).

- (1) The person issuing a search warrant may endorse the warrant with a direction that any person arrested must be released on bail as specified in the endorsement.
- (2) An endorsement under subsection (1) must fix the amounts in which the principal and the bail guarantors, if any, are to be bound and the amount of any money or the value of any security to be deposited.

78 Authority conferred by search warrant

S. 78(1)(b)(i)
amended by
No. 25/2009
s. 18(1).

- (1) A search warrant authorises the person to whom it is directed—
  - (a) if the warrant is to search for a person—
    - (i) to break, enter and search any place where the person named or described in the warrant is suspected to be; and
    - (ii) to arrest the person named or described in the warrant; and
  - (b) if the warrant is to search for any thing—
    - (i) to break, enter and search any place or vehicle named or described in the warrant for any article, thing or material of any kind named or described in the warrant; and
    - (ii) to bring the article, thing or material before the Court so that the matter may be dealt with according to law; and
    - (iii) to arrest any person apparently having possession, custody or control of the article, thing or material.

(2) The person to whom a search warrant is directed must cause the person named or described in the warrant, or apparently having possession, custody or control of any article, thing or material named or described in the warrant, when arrested—

- (a) to be brought before a bail justice or the Court within a reasonable time of being arrested to be dealt with according to law; or
- (b) to be released on bail in accordance with the endorsement on the warrant.

S. 78(2)(a)
amended by
No. 49/1990
s. 5(e).

Note

Section 10A or 12 of the Bail Act 1977 applies on a person being brought before a bail justice or the Court at the expiration of the reasonable time referred to in subsection (2)(a).

Division 6—Enforcement

Subdivision 1—Ordinary enforcement provisions

97 Imprisonment in default of payment of fine

- (1) If the Court makes an order in a proceeding imposing a fine and the person fined is not present when the order is made—

- (a) the principal registrar must cause to be sent by post to the person fined, at the address appearing on the charge-sheet or any later address notified to the Court by that person, a notice advising of the order imposing the fine; and
- (b) the fine is payable—
  - (i) within 21 days after the posting to that person of a notice under paragraph (a); or
  - (ii) within such longer period as is ordered by the Court under a time to pay order within the meaning of the Sentencing Act 1991.

S. 97(1)(b)(ii)
amended by Nos 49/1991
s. 119(7)
(Sch. 4
item 13.5), 32/2013 s. 55.

S. 97(2)
repealed by
No. 49/1991
s. 119(7)
(Sch. 4
item 13.6).

- (3) If in any proceeding the Court orders a corporation to pay a fine then, despite anything in this or any other Act, that order may be enforced by a warrant to seize property.

98 Enforcement of fines against corporations

- (1) In this section—

director, in relation to a body corporate, includes any person occupying the position of director of the body corporate (by whatever name called) and includes a person in accordance with whose directions or instructions the directors of the body corporate are accustomed to act;

reciprocating court means a court of a reciprocating State or Territory declared by proclamation under this section to be a reciprocating court;

reciprocating State or Territory means another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth that is declared by proclamation under this section to be a reciprocating State or Territory.

- (2) The Governor in Council may, subject to subsection (3), declare another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth to be a reciprocating State or Territory for the purposes of the enforcement against a body corporate in Victoria of a fine payable under an order of a court having summary jurisdiction in the other State or in the Territory.
- (3) A State or Territory the subject of a proclamation under subsection (2) must have laws providing for enforcement against a body corporate in that State or Territory of a fine payable under an order of the Magistrates' Court or other court having summary jurisdiction in Victoria.
- (4) The Governor in Council may by proclamation declare a court having summary jurisdiction in a reciprocating State or Territory to be a reciprocating court for the purposes of the enforcement against a body corporate in Victoria of a fine payable under a conviction or order of that court.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4) a court may be declared singly or in conjunction with another or others by such description or class or by means of any reference that the Governor in Council thinks fit.

(6) If, under an order of a reciprocating court made in the exercise of its summary jurisdiction—

- (a) a fine is payable by a body corporate having or appearing to have property in Victoria; and
- (b) a registrar of the Magistrates' Court at a venue at or near to a place where the body corporate has or appears to have property, receives a request in writing from a registrar or other corresponding officer of the reciprocating court for the enforcement of the order accompanied by—
  - (i) a certified copy of the order; and
  - (ii) a certificate signed by the registrar or corresponding officer making the request certifying the amount of the fine outstanding under the order—

the registrar must register the order in the Magistrates' Court by filing in the Court a certified copy of the order and must note the date of registration on the copy.

(7) On the registration of an order under subsection (6)—

- (a) the order is deemed to be an order of the Magistrates' Court requiring payment by the body corporate of the amount of the fine referred to in the certificate under subsection (6) as outstanding; and
- (b) the registrar may issue a warrant to seize property of the body corporate for the purpose of recovering the amount of the fine; and
- (c) the warrant issued under paragraph (b) is deemed to be a warrant to seize property issued under this Act and the provisions of this Act, with any necessary modifications, apply and extend to the enforcement of that warrant.

- (8) If the registrar receives, after the request for the enforcement of the order, a notification from the registrar or other corresponding officer of the reciprocating court of payment by or on behalf of the body corporate of the whole or part of the outstanding fine, the registrar must—
- (a) note the particulars of the payment on the certified copy of the order filed in the Court; and
  - (b) arrange for the return of the warrant issued under subsection (7)(b), if it is unexecuted; and
  - (c) if the fine—
    - (i) has been paid in full, withdraw the warrant; or
    - (ii) has not been paid in full, amend the warrant to show the amount still outstanding, and the warrant may be enforced in respect of the altered amount.
- (9) The registrar of the Magistrates' Court must remit to the registrar or other corresponding officer of the reciprocating court which made the order any sum of money received in satisfaction of the whole or part of a fine payable under an order enforced under subsection (7).
- (10) Any sum of money paid to or received by a registrar of the Magistrates' Court from a reciprocating court in satisfaction of the whole or part of a fine payable under an order of the Magistrates' Court enforced by the reciprocating court must be paid to or received by and applied by the registrar as if the sum had been paid to the registrar by the body corporate by which the fine was payable.

s. 276(3)(4).

- (4) On the written request of the registrar, the sheriff or any contractor or sub-contractor supporting the functions of the Court under the Fines Reform Act 2014 or the sheriff, a specified agency may give the person or body making the request access to any information held by the agency that may be of use in the enforcement of court orders and fines.
- (5) A person who obtains access to any information as a result of a request made under this section—
- (a) may use the information to enforce court orders and fines; but
  - (b) is otherwise subject to all the requirements and restrictions concerning the use and disclosure of the information that apply to the person who provided, or granted access to, the information in response to the request.

Part 5—Civil proceedings

Division 1—Jurisdiction

100 Extent of jurisdiction<sup>10</sup>

- (1) The Court has jurisdiction, subject to subsection (2)—
- (a) to hear and determine any cause of action for damages or a debt or a liquidated demand if the amount claimed is within the jurisdictional limit; and
  - (b) to hear and determine any claim for equitable relief if the value of the relief sought is within the jurisdictional limit; and
  - (c) to hear and determine, with the consent in writing of the parties—
    - (i) any cause of action for damages or a debt or a liquidated demand, irrespective of the amount claimed; and
    - (ii) any claim for equitable relief, irrespective of the value of the relief sought; and
  - (ca) to hear and determine applications made under section 57B of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998; and
  - (d) to hear and determine any other cause of action if the Court is given jurisdiction to do so by or under any Act other than this Act.
- (2) The Court does not have jurisdiction in any cause of action—
- (a) in which the effect of, or the validity or invalidity of, any act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by any person or body whatsoever in the exercise or purported exercise of any power or duty conferred or imposed on that person or body or purportedly conferred or imposed on that person or body by or under—

S. 100(1)(ca)

(i) any royal prerogative; or

(ii) any statute—

is sought to be determined or declared; or

(b) in the nature of a proceeding for a prerogative writ; or

(c) brought on a judgment of the Supreme Court or the County Court.

s. 649(Sch. 9
item 24(1)),
substituted by
No. 31/2021
s. 8(2).

(2A) The jurisdictional limit does not apply to any question or matter that the Court has jurisdiction to determine arising out of any of the following—

(a) Part IV of the Accident Compensation Act 1985;

(b) Part 3A of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998;

(c) the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2013.

S. 100(3)
amended by
No. 91/1994
s. 36(7)(b).

(3) For the purpose of determining in a proceeding involving property whether the amount claimed or the value of the relief sought is within the jurisdictional limit, a certificate which purports to have been issued by a valuer and which purports to state the value of the property as at a particular date is admissible in evidence and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, is proof of the value of the property as at that date.

(4) The Court does not cease to have jurisdiction in respect of a cause of action because—

(a) part of the cause of action arose outside Victoria—if a material part of it arose in Victoria; or

- (b) the whole cause of action arose outside Victoria—if the defendant resided within Victoria at the time of being served with the complaint.
- (5) A minor may bring a proceeding in the Court for the recovery of money payable to the minor under a contract of service or a contract for services as if the minor were of full age.
- (6) A party to a civil proceeding (including an arbitration) may appear—
  - (a) personally; or
  - (b) by a legal practitioner or other person empowered by law to appear for the party; or
  - (c) in the case of a cause of action for a debt or a liquidated demand, by a person in the exclusive employment of the party who is authorised in writing to appear for the party.
- (7) Every judgment debt carries interest at the rate for the time being fixed under section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983 from the time the order was made.
- (8) Payment of the interest may be enforced by a warrant to seize property.
- (9) The amount of the interest must be stated in the body of the warrant.

101 Proceedings beyond jurisdiction

S. 101(1)(b)
amended by
No. 43/1991
s. 38(a).

- (1) If a civil proceeding is wholly or partly beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may—
  - (a) amend the complaint for the purpose of bringing the proceeding within jurisdiction; or
  - (b) order that the proceeding be stayed pending the making of an application under Part 3 of the Courts (Case Transfer) Act 1991; or
  - (c) order that the complaint be struck out and award costs as if the Court had jurisdiction and the complaint were dismissed.

S. 101(2)(a)
amended by
No. 43/1991
s. 38(b).

- (2) If—
  - (a) under subsection (1)(b) the Court orders that a proceeding be stayed pending the making of an application under Part 3 of the Courts (Case Transfer) Act 1991; and
  - (b) within a reasonable time after the making of that order the proceeding has not been transferred to another court—the Court may exercise the power conferred by subsection (1)(c).

inserted by
No. 15/1998
s. 9.

101A Court orders relating to administration of children's funds

- (1) If in any civil proceedings before the Court it is adjudged or ordered that money be paid to a child (whether or not that child is a party to a cause or matter) the money—

- (a) is to be paid into court; and
  - (b) unless the Court otherwise orders, is to be paid out to an administrator specified by the Court.
- (2) If any money, not being money to which subsection (3) applies—
- (a) is paid into court—
    - (i) before the commencement of this section; or
    - (ii) after the commencement of this section in accordance with a judgment or order entered or made before the commencement of this section; and
  - (b) the money is being held in court on behalf of a child—
- the Court may by order direct that the money be paid out to an administrator specified in the order.
- (3) If the Court adjudges or orders that property (whether real or personal) be delivered up or transferred to a child (whether or not that child is a party to a cause or matter), the Court—
- (a) may order that the property be delivered up or transferred to an administrator specified in the order; and
  - (b) may give any directions for the service of the order on the administrator as it thinks fit.
- (4) If an order under subsection (3) is served on State Trustees within the meaning of the State Trustees (State Owned Company) Act 1994, State Trustees must accept delivery or transfer of the property to which the order relates and the acceptance of the property is a sufficient discharge to the person delivering or transferring the property.

amended by
No. 30/2004
s. 14(1)(2),
substituted by
No. 13/2019
s. 221(Sch. 1
item 29.1).

- (5) A copy of any order made under this section must be given by the administrator to VCAT and to the Public Advocate within the meaning of the Guardianship and Administration Act 2019.

Division 1B—Transfer and payment of money to the Supreme Court for person under disability

inserted by
No. 30/2004
s. 6.

101B Money held in court for person under disability

- (1) In this section, person under disability means—
- (a) a minor; or
  - (b) a person who is incapable by reason of injury, disease, senility, illness or physical or mental infirmity of managing his or her affairs in relation to the proceeding.
- (2) Unless the Court orders otherwise, money held in Court on behalf of a person under disability immediately before the commencement of section 6 of the Courts Legislation (Funds in Court) Act 2004 must be paid into the Supreme Court by payment to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court to be held in that Court on behalf of the person under disability.

- (3) Unless the Court orders otherwise, in any proceeding in the Court in which it is adjudged or ordered that money be paid for a person under disability, that money must be paid into the Supreme Court (in full compliance with the judgment or order of the Court) by payment to the Senior Master of the Supreme Court to be held in that Court on behalf of the person under disability.
- (4) Money paid to the Senior Master under subsection (2) or (3) is to be held by the Senior Master as if an order had been made in a proceeding in the Supreme Court that the money be paid into court to be held on behalf of the person under disability and as if that money had been paid into court in accordance with that order.
- (5) The Senior Master has the same powers with respect to loss occasioned by delay as the Senior Master would have if an order referred to in subsection (4) had been made.

Note

Rule 79.06 of the Supreme Court (General Civil Procedure) Rules 1996 provides the Senior Master with powers with respect to loss occasioned by delay.

- (6) Nothing in this section affects the operation of section 101A of this Act or section 179 of the Guardianship and Administration Act 2019.

amended by
No. 13/2019
s. 221(Sch. 1
item 29.2).

Division 2—Arbitration

102 Arbitration for small claims

- (1) The Court must refer a complaint under which the amount of monetary relief sought is less than $10 000 to arbitration in accordance with this Division.

S. 102(1)
amended by
No. 68/2004
s. 4.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
  - (a) the complaint is of a class prescribed by the regulations as a complaint to which this Division does not apply; or
  - (b) the Court, in accordance with subsection (3), orders that the complaint be heard and determined by the Court and not referred to arbitration.
- (3) The Court may, on the application of a party or without any such application, order that a complaint be heard and determined by the Court and not referred to arbitration in accordance with this Division if it is satisfied that—
  - (a) the complaint is not disputed; or
  - (b) the complaint relates to the enforcement of an order which has not been set aside; or
  - (c) the complaint involves complex questions of law or fact; or
  - (d) a question of fraud is in issue; or
  - (e) the parties agree that the complaint should not be referred to arbitration; or
  - (f) it would be unreasonable for the complaint to be referred to arbitration having regard to its subject-matter, the circumstances of the parties or the interests of any other person likely to be affected by an award under this Division.
- (4) If arbitration of a complaint is commenced and the Court is satisfied, on the application of a party or without any such application, that the complaint ought to be determined by the Court and not referred to arbitration in accordance with this Division, the Court may, at any time before an award is made in the arbitration—

- (a) order that the complaint be determined by the Court; and
- (b) make such order as to the costs of the arbitration as it thinks fit; and
- (c) give such directions as it thinks necessary about the hearing of the complaint by the Court.

103 Conduct of arbitration

- (1) An arbitration under this Division is to be conducted by the Court constituted by a magistrate or, if the Rules so provide, by a registrar.
- (2) In conducting an arbitration, the Court—
  - (a) is not bound by rules of evidence but may inform itself on any matter in such manner as it thinks fit; and
  - (b) is bound by the rules of natural justice; and
  - (c) is not required to conduct any proceedings in a formal manner; and
  - (d) may exercise any powers that the Court may exercise in hearing and determining a complaint.
- (2A) Nothing in subsection (2)(a) prevents the application of Part 3.10 of the Evidence Act 2008 to the conduct of an arbitration.

inserted by
No. 69/2009
s. 54(Sch. Pt 1
item 34.9).

- (3) Evidence in an arbitration—
  - (a) may be given orally or in writing; and
  - (b) if the Court so requires, must be given on oath or affirmation or by affidavit.

S. 103(3)(b)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 81.1).

- (4) The Court must determine according to law any question that arises for determination in an arbitration.
- (5) If the Court is satisfied that a party to an arbitration does not have a knowledge of the English language that is sufficient to enable the party to understand, or participate in, the arbitration, the Court may allow a competent interpreter to interpret the arbitration.

104 Award

- (1) An award of the Court in an arbitration under this Division must be in writing.
- (2) If the Court includes in an award a statement of the reasons for making the award, only the terms of the award and not the reasons must be in writing.
- (3) An award of the Court in an arbitration under this Division has effect as if it were an order made by the Court in a proceeding heard and determined by it.
- (4) If the Court does not include in an award a statement of the reasons for making the award, the Court must, if requested to do so orally or in writing by a party to the arbitration within 28 days after the making of the award, furnish to that party within a reasonable time after receiving the request a statement in writing of the reasons for making the award.

105 Costs

- (1) If an arbitration relates to a complaint under which monetary relief is sought and the Court awards a party less than $500, the Court must not award costs unless satisfied that special circumstances make it appropriate to do so.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), the Court may, in accordance with the regulations or, if there are no relevant regulations, then in accordance with the Rules, award costs to a party in respect of an arbitration under this Division.

106 Commercial Arbitration Act not to apply

The Commercial Arbitration Act 2011 does not apply to an arbitration under this Division.

S. 107(1)
substituted by
No. 51/2000
s. 6(1).

- (2) A magistrate or registrar must conduct the pre-hearing conference in accordance with the Rules and may—

- (a) if the proceeding or any part of the proceeding is not settled between the parties, refer it back to the Court; or
- (b) at the request of the parties, refer the proceeding or any part of the proceeding back to the Court for arbitration under Division 2; or
- (c) if the proceeding or any part of the proceeding is settled between the parties, refer it back to the Court for the making of an order.

109 Appeal to Supreme Court from final order made in civil proceeding

- (1) A party to a civil proceeding in the Court may appeal, on a question of law, from a final order of the Court in that proceeding—
- (a) in the case of the Court constituted by the Chief Magistrate who is a dual commission holder—to the Court of Appeal; or
  - (b) in the case of the Court constituted other than by the Chief Magistrate who is a dual commission holder—to the Supreme Court.
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1)—
- (a) must be instituted not later than 30 days after the day on which the order complained of was made; and
  - (b) does not operate as a stay of any order made by the Court unless the Supreme Court so orders.

S. 109(1)
substituted by
No. 1/2022
s. 20.

- (3) Subject to subsection (2), an appeal under subsection (1) must be brought in accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court.
- (4) An appeal instituted after the end of the period referred to in subsection (2)(a) is deemed to be an application for leave to appeal under subsection (1).
- (5) The Supreme Court may grant leave under subsection (4) and the appellant may proceed with the appeal if the Supreme Court—
  - (a) is of the opinion that the failure to institute the appeal within the period referred to in subsection (2)(a) was due to exceptional circumstances; and
  - (b) is satisfied that the case of any other party to the appeal would not be materially prejudiced because of the delay.
- (6) After hearing and determining the appeal, the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks appropriate, including an order remitting the case for re-hearing to the Court with or without any direction in law.
- (7) An order made by the Supreme Court on an appeal under subsection (1), other than an order remitting the case for re-hearing to the Court, may be enforced as an order of the Supreme Court.

110 Re-hearing

- (1) If a final order is made by the Court in a civil proceeding against a person who did not appear in the proceeding, that person may, subject to and in accordance with the Rules, apply to the Court for an order that the order be set aside and that the proceeding be re-heard.

- (2) On an application under this section, the Court may set aside the order subject to any terms and conditions that it thinks just and re-hear the proceeding.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), an application under this section does not operate as a stay of the order unless the Court so orders.
- (4) An application under this section with respect to an order for the payment of money operates as a stay of so much of the order as relates to the payment of money.
- (5) If an applicant under this section fails to appear at the time fixed for the hearing of the application and the application is struck out, the applicant can re-apply only if the applicant first obtains the leave of the Court.

inserted by
No. 3/2016
s. 38,
amended by
No. 1/2022
s. 21.

Unless this Act or another Act otherwise provides, an appeal from the Court constituted by the Chief Magistrate who is a dual commission holder, which would be an appeal to the County Court if the Chief Magistrate were not a dual commission holder, shall be to the Court of Appeal.

Division 5—Enforcement

111 Enforcement of orders

- (1) An order made by the Court in a civil proceeding for the payment of money may, subject to and in accordance with the Rules, be enforced by one or more of the following means:
  - (a) A warrant to seize property;
  - (b) An attachment of earnings order;
  - (c) An attachment of debts order.

Magistrates' Court Act 1989
No. 51 of 1989
Part 5—Civil proceedings

(2) A warrant to seize property may be directed to—

- (a) the sheriff; or
- (b) a named police officer; or

S. 111(2)(b)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.9(a)(i)).

- (c) generally all police officers.

S. 111(2)(c)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.9(a)(ii)).

(3) A warrant to seize property directs and authorises the person to whom it is directed—

- (a) to seize the personal property of the person named or described in the warrant; and
- (b) if the sums named in the warrant together with all lawful costs of execution are not paid, to sell the personal property seized.

(4) A warrant to seize property directed to the sheriff may, if the sheriff so directs, be executed by—

- (a) a named person who is a bailiff for the purposes of the Supreme Court Act 1986; or
- (b) generally all persons who are bailiffs for the purposes of the Supreme Court Act 1986; or
- (c) a named police officer; or

S. 111(4)(c)
amended by
No. 37/2014

item 101.9(b)(i)).

- (d) generally all police officers.

S. 111(4)(d)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.9(b)(ii)).

- (5) A direction may be given by the sheriff under subsection (4) by—
- (a) endorsing the execution copy of the warrant with the direction; or
  - (b) issuing a warrant to the same effect as the warrant to seize property but directed in accordance with subsection (4).

- (6) A warrant endorsed or issued by the sheriff in accordance with subsection (5) directs and authorises the person to whom it is directed to do all things that he or she would have been directed and authorised to do by the original warrant if it had been directed to him or her.

- (7) A warrant to seize property directed to a named bailiff or police officer may be executed by any bailiff or police officer, as the case requires.

S. 111(7)
amended by
No. 37/2014
s. 10(Sch.
item 101.9(c)).

- (7A) The person executing a warrant to seize property may serve on—

S. 111(7A)
inserted by
No. 33/1994
s. 15.

- (a) the person against whom the warrant is issued and whose personal property is seized under the warrant; or
- (b) a person who is in possession of any personal property of the person against whom the warrant is issued that is seized under the warrant—a notice in the form prescribed by the Rules informing the person served with the notice that he or she is responsible for the safe-keeping of the personal property seized under the warrant that is described in the notice and also informing him or her of the provisions of subsection (7B).

- (7B) A person who knows that the property has been seized under a warrant to seize property or is the subject of a notice served under subsection (7A) must not, except with the written consent of the person executing the warrant to seize property—

- (a) interfere with or dispose of that property; or
- (b) deface or remove any mark attached to that property indicating that it had been so seized; or
- (c) remove that property from the place at which it was situated when the notice was served.

Penalty applying to this subsection: 25 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment or both.

inserted by
No. 33/1994
s. 15.

(7C) Nothing in subsection (7B) affects the powers of the Court or of the Supreme Court in relation to contempt.

(8) The following orders may, subject to and in accordance with the Rules, be enforced by a warrant of delivery:

- (a) An order for the delivery of goods;
- (b) An order for the delivery of goods or the payment of their assessed value.

(9) An order for the payment of the assessed value of goods may be enforced by the same means as any other order for the payment of money.

inserted by
No. 33/1994
s. 14.

(9A) A person to whom an attachment of earnings order is directed must not fail to comply with the order.

Penalty: 60 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment or both.

(9B) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (9A) for the person charged to prove that he, she or it took all reasonable steps to comply with the order.

inserted by
No. 33/1994
s. 14.

(9C) Nothing in subsection (9A) affects the powers of the Court or of the Supreme Court in relation to contempt of court.

- (10) A person must not dismiss an employee or injure an employee in the employee's employment or alter an employee's position to the prejudice of the employee because an attachment of earnings order has been made in relation to the employee or the employee is required to make payments under an attachment of earnings order.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (11) The Court may order a person convicted of an offence under subsection (10) to reimburse the employee any lost wages and to cause the employee to be reinstated in the employee's former position or in a similar position.
- (12) An amount ordered to be reimbursed under subsection (11) may be recovered from the convicted person in the same manner as the penalty to which that person is liable under subsection (10) and may be included in the same warrant.
- (13) An attachment of earnings order may apply to earnings falling to be paid—
- (a) by the Crown; or
  - (b) by a statutory authority representing the Crown; or
  - (c) out of the Consolidated Fund.
- (14) Nothing in this section takes away from the power of the Court to make, or from the right of a person to apply for, an instalment order under the Judgment Debt Recovery Act 1984.

112 Certificate for Supreme Court

- (1) If—
- (a) an order is made by the Court in a civil proceeding for the payment of money; and

(b) a warrant to seize property has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part—

a registrar must, on the application of the person entitled to enforce the order, give that person a certificate of the order and of the amount remaining unpaid under the order and record the fact of the giving of the certificate in the register of the Court.

- (2) A person who is given a certificate under subsection (1) may file the certificate in the Supreme Court and, on the filing of the certificate, judgment is deemed to have been entered in the Supreme Court for the sum mentioned in the certificate as being unpaid together with all fees paid for obtaining and filing the certificate and the prescribed amount for costs.
- (3) After the issue of a certificate under subsection (1) no further proceedings (other than proceedings under the Judgment Debt Recovery Act 1984) must be taken in the Magistrates' Court but, on the filing of the certificate in the Supreme Court, the judgment deemed to have been entered may be enforced by the same means as any other judgment entered in the Supreme Court, including enforcement under the Foreign Judgments Act 1962.

113 Application of Imprisonment of Fraudulent Debtors Act

Part III of the Imprisonment of Fraudulent Debtors Act 1958 extends and applies with respect to orders for the payment of money made by the Court in a civil proceeding.

114 Enforcement by executors and administrators

If an order is made by the Court in a civil proceeding and the person entitled to enforce the order dies, the executor or administrator of

Part 7—Miscellaneous

125 Business to be conducted in open court

- (1) All proceedings in the Court are to be conducted in open court, except where otherwise provided by this or any other Act or the Rules.

Note

The Open Courts Act 2013 governs suppression orders and closed court orders generally in relation to the Court.

Note to
s. 125(1)
inserted by
No. 58/2013
s. 50.

- (2) The person constituting the Court and legal practitioners appearing before the Court must not robe.

S. 125(2)
amended by
No. 35/1996
s. 453(Sch. 1
item 53.5).

125A Court may determine matter or proceeding without oral hearing

S. 125A
inserted by
No. 11/2021
s. 56.

- (1) The court may determine any matter in any proceeding, or determine any proceeding, without an oral hearing and entirely on the basis of written submissions and without the appearance of the parties—
- (a) if the court is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice to do so; and
- (b) whether or not the parties consent to the court doing so.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a criminal proceeding or a matter in a criminal proceeding.

Note

Section 337A of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 provides similarly for criminal proceedings. See also section 201 of that Act.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), in determining whether it is in the interests of justice to determine a matter or a proceeding without an oral hearing, the court shall have regard to—
- (a) the nature of the matter or proceeding; and
  - (b) the right to a fair hearing; and
  - (c) whether the parties have had the opportunity to obtain legal advice; and
  - (d) whether the parties consent to the court doing so.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects any other power of the court to determine a matter or a proceeding without an oral hearing.

126A Power to bind over to keep the peace

- (1) The Court may, on the written application of a person, order another person to enter into a bond, with or without surety or sureties, to keep the peace or to be of good behaviour.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be supported by evidence on oath or affirmation or by affidavit.

amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 81.1).

- (3) The parties to a proceeding under this section and any other witnesses may be called and examined and cross-examined and costs may be awarded as in any other proceeding in the Court.
- (4) The Court may order that an accused who does not comply with an order under subsection (1) be imprisoned until he or she does comply with it or for 12 months, whichever is the shorter.
- (5) An order under subsection (1) may only be made on an application in accordance with this section unless it is otherwise expressly provided by any other Act.

amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.43).

127 Witness order

- (1) The Court may, and must if required by any party to a proceeding, at any time during the proceeding, order all witnesses other than—
- (a) the informant or the plaintiff; and
- (b) the accused or the defendant; and

- (c) the witness under examination—
- to leave the Court and to remain outside and beyond the hearing of the Court until required to give evidence.

Note

Section 336A of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 provides that a victim of an offence is entitled to be present in court unless the court orders the victim to leave.

s. 97(Sch.
item 82.46).

S. 127(2)
inserted by
No. 15/2005
s. 11(2).

- (2) Nothing in this section prevents the Court from ordering a witness to leave the Court and to remain outside and beyond the hearing of the Court at any time after giving evidence if the Court considers it appropriate to do so.

128 Power to adjourn proceeding

amended by
No. 7/2009
s. 427(1)(g) (as
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 54(m)).

- (1) The Court may, on the application of a party to a proceeding other than a criminal proceeding or without any such application, adjourn the hearing of the proceeding—
- (a) to such times and places; and
  - (b) for such purposes; and
  - (c) on such terms as to costs or otherwise—
- as it considers necessary or just in the circumstances.

S. 128(2)
repealed by
No. 7/2009

item 82.51).

S. 131(3)(a)
amended by
No. 33/1994
s. 27(2).

- (1) The costs of, and incidental to, all proceedings in the Court are in the discretion of the Court and the Court has full power to determine by whom, to whom and to what extent the costs are to be paid.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies unless it is otherwise expressly provided by this or any other Act or by the Rules or the regulations.
- (2A) In exercising its discretion under subsection (1) in a proceeding, the Court may take into account any unreasonable act or omission by, or on behalf of, a party to the proceeding that the Court is satisfied resulted in prolonging the proceeding.
- (2B) The Court must not make an order awarding costs against a party in the exercise of its discretion under subsection (1) on account of any unreasonable act or omission by, or on behalf of, that party that the Court is satisfied resulted in prolonging the proceeding without giving that party a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (2C) If the Court determines to award costs against an informant who is a police officer, the order must be made against the Chief Commissioner of Police.
- (3) If—
  - (a) a charge-sheet containing one or more charges is filed with a registrar; and
  - (b) no filing fee is payable because of an exemption contained in the regulations; and

- (c) the accused is convicted of one or more of the alleged offences and is ordered to pay a fine—

S. 131(3)(c)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.51).

the Court must order the accused to pay by way of costs, in addition to the amount of the fine and any other costs, the amount of the filing fee that, but for the exemption, would have been payable.

- (4) This section and section 132 apply to a purported proceeding in the Court which is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court as if the purported proceeding were within jurisdiction.

133 Contempt in face of the Court

- (1) If it is alleged or appears to the Court that a person is guilty of contempt of court committed in the face of the Court, the Court may—
- (a) by oral order direct that the person be arrested and brought before the Court; or
  - (b) issue a warrant for his or her arrest in the form prescribed by the Rules.
- (2) On the person being brought before the Court, the Court must cause him or her to be informed of the contempt with which he or she is charged and adopt any procedure that the Court thinks fit.
- (3) The Bail Act 1977 applies, with any necessary modifications, to and in respect of a person brought before the Court under this section as if the person were accused of an offence and were being held in custody in relation to that offence.
- (4) If the Court finds that the person is guilty of contempt of court, it may order that the person be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not more than six months or fined not more than 25 penalty units.
- (5) If a person found guilty of contempt of court is ordered to be imprisoned, the Court may order his or her discharge before the end of the term.

S. 133(7)
amended by
No. 63/2014
s. 7(15).

- (6) The Court may accept an apology for a contempt and may remit any punishment for it either wholly or in part.
- (7) Persons who by conduct in the Court or in the precincts of the Court interrupt the proceedings of the Court in circumstances in which it appears to the Court that those persons are involved in the commission of an offence with the object of interrupting the proceedings of the Court may each be dealt with under this section for contempt of court committed in the face of the Court.

Note

Subdivision (1) of Division 1 of Part II of the Crimes Act 1958 deals with complicity in commission of offences.

134 Contempt of court

- (1) A person is guilty of contempt of court if—
  - (a) having been summoned as a witness and having been given or tendered any conduct money required to be given or tendered, the person refuses or neglects without sufficient cause to attend or to produce any documents or things required by the summons to be produced; or
  - (b) having been summoned as a witness and having attended as required, the person refuses to be sworn or affirmed or to answer any lawful question; or
  - (c) being examined as a witness or being present in court and required to give evidence, the person refuses to be sworn or affirmed or to answer any lawful question or, without sufficient excuse, to produce any documents or things that the person has been or is required to produce; or

S. 134(1)(c)
amended by
No. 6/2018
s. 68(Sch. 2
item 81.5).

- (d) being present in court and required to give evidence, the person wilfully disobeys an order made under section 127; or
  - (e) in the opinion of the magistrate the person is guilty of wilful prevarication.
- (2) In the case of a contempt referred to in subsection (1), the Court may direct the arrest of the person and, on the person being brought before the Court, the Court must cause him or her to be informed of the contempt with which he or she is charged and adopt any procedure that the Court thinks fit.
- (3) If the Court finds that the person is guilty of a contempt referred to in subsection (1), it may order—
- (a) that the person be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not more than 1 month; or
  - (b) that the person be fined not more than 5 penalty units and that in default of payment of the fine within a specified time the person be imprisoned for a term of not more than 1 month.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)—
- (a) if a person commits a contempt referred to in subsection (1) at a committal proceeding, the Court may adjourn the proceeding for a period of not more than 8 clear days and section 331 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2009 applies as if the person were an accused in a criminal proceeding; and
  - (b) if at the adjourned hearing the contempt is repeated, the Court may—
    - (i) proceed under paragraph (a); or
    - (ii) punish for the contempt in any manner provided in subsection (3).

S. 134(4)(a)
amended by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.52).

- (5) A person is guilty of contempt of court if—
- (a) having been summoned in accordance with the Rules to attend at a sitting of the Court to be orally examined by the appropriate registrar concerning the failure to comply with an order for the payment of money and having been given or tendered any conduct money required to be given or tendered, the person refuses or neglects without sufficient cause to attend; or
  - (ab) having been summoned under Part 6 of the Fines Reform Act 2014 to attend at the Court to be orally examined by a registrar and having been given any conduct money required to be given or tendered, the person refuses or neglects without sufficient cause to attend; or
  - (b) having been so summoned and having attended as required, the person refuses to be sworn or affirmed or to answer any lawful question; or
  - (c) in the opinion of the appropriate registrar the person is guilty of wilful prevarication.
- (6) In the case of a contempt referred to in subsection (5), the appropriate registrar must report the contempt to the next practicable sitting of the Court constituted by a magistrate at the proper venue and the Court may direct the arrest of the person and may punish for the contempt as in the case of a contempt referred to in subsection (1).
- (7) If a contempt referred to in this section also constitutes a contempt of court committed in the face of the Court, the Court may deal with the contempt under this section or under section 133, as it thinks fit.

135 Enforcement of orders not for the payment of money

- (1) If by or under this or any other Act a power (whether or not expressed as a power to make an order) is given to the Court—
- (a) of requiring any person to do or abstain from doing any act or thing, other than the payment of money; or
  - (b) of requiring any act or thing, other than the payment of money, to be done or left undone—

the Court may exercise the power by an order or orders.

- (2) If the Court makes an order under subsection (1), it may—
- (a) attach to the order conditions as to time or mode of action which are authorised by or under any Act or which the Court thinks just; and
  - (b) suspend or rescind the order on any undertaking being given or condition being performed that the Court thinks just; and
  - (c) generally make any arrangement for carrying into effect the power that the Court thinks just.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a person who defaults in complying with an order made under subsection (1) is for the default liable—

- (a) to pay a fine of not more than 1 penalty unit for every day during which the default continues; or
- (b) to be imprisoned for so long as the default continues.

(4) A person is not liable under this section to—

- (a) imprisonment for a period or periods amounting in the aggregate to more than 2 months; or
- (b) the payment of any sums exceeding in the aggregate 40 penalty units—for non-compliance with the requirement of the Court (whether made by one or more orders) to do or abstain from doing any act or thing.

136 Directions

The Court may, except where otherwise provided by this or any other Act, at any stage of a proceeding, give any direction for the conduct of the proceeding which it thinks conducive to its effective, complete, prompt and economical determination.

136A Court may issue or transmit court documents electronically

- (1) Any order, process or other document that the Court, a magistrate, a judicial registrar, a court official or a bail justice may issue or transmit under this Act or any other Act, statutory rule or other enactment or law may be issued or transmitted by electronic communication.

- (2) If any provision of an Act, a statutory rule or other enactment or law in Victoria permits or requires any order, process or other document to be issued or transmitted by manual means, that requirement is taken to be met if the issuing or transmission occurs by electronic communication.

Example

If an Act or other law requires or permits the Court to sign or seal a document, the Court could use an electronic signature or electronic seal and the requirement is met in the same way as if the document had been signed or sealed by hand.

- (3) Nothing in this section—
- (a) limits the Court, a magistrate, a judicial registrar, a court official or a bail justice from issuing or providing any order, process or other document in paper form; or
  - (b) affects or limits any practice, procedure or rules of court that provide for electronic processes in the Court; or
  - (c) affects or limits the power to make rules of court; or
  - (d) limits any other power of the Court, a magistrate, a judicial registrar, a court official or a bail justice.

137 Forfeitures may be sold

- (1) All property (other than money) forfeited by or recovered in the Court may, except where otherwise provided by this or any other Act, be sold or disposed of or dealt with in any manner that the Court directs.
- (2) The proceeds of a sale, disposal or dealing under subsection (1) must be applied in the same manner as if the proceeds were a fine imposed under the Act on which the forfeiture is founded.

- (c) in any manner in which trust money may be invested by a trustee under the Trustee Act 1958.

- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in any other Act or any rule of law, all income derived from the investment of money under subsection (1) must be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

S. 139
substituted by
No. 68/2009
s. 97(Sch.
item 82.53).

139 Manner of service where none is prescribed

- (1) If by or under this Act a person is required to serve a document and no provision is made, other than in this section, as to how the document is to be served, the document must be served by—

- (a) giving a copy of the document to the person to be served; or

- (b) if the person does not accept the copy, putting the copy down in the person's presence and telling the person the nature of the document; or
  - (c) leaving a copy of the document for the person at the person's last known or usual place of residence or business with a person who appears to be of or over the age of 16 years.
- (2) If the person to be served is a company or registered body (within the meaning of the Corporations Act), a document may be served on the company or body in accordance with section 109X or 601CX of that Act, as the case requires.

143 Effect of declared rights, duties and liabilities

(1) A right, duty or liability to which section 142 applies—

(a) is exercisable or enforceable; and

(b) must be regarded as always having been exercisable or enforceable—

as if it were a right, duty or liability conferred, imposed or affected by an act or decision of a person who validly occupied the office of reserve magistrate.

(2) Without limiting section 142 or this section, the rights, duties and liabilities conferred, imposed or affected by section 142 include the right of a person who was a party to a proceeding or purported proceeding in which a decision was made to which section 142 applies, to appeal against the decision or apply for a review of the decision.

13 Validation of certain past superannuation payments

- (1) Subject to subclause (3), this clause applies to the following persons who hold or held the relevant specified office during the validation period or during any part of the validation period—
- (a) a magistrate other than the Chief Magistrate;
  - (b) a reserve magistrate;
  - (c) a person who was an acting magistrate appointed under section 9 as in force immediately before its repeal by the Courts Legislation Amendment (Reserve Judicial Officers) Act 2013;
  - (d) a coroner appointed under section 94 of the Coroners Act 2008;
  - (e) a judicial registrar.
- (2) Any superannuation contribution made for the benefit of a person to whom this clause applies during the validation period or during any part of the validation period, (as the case requires) which was determined by multiplying the salary of the person during the relevant period by the applicable multiplier for that period is taken to be, and to have always been—

- (a) a validly made superannuation contribution for the benefit of that person to which that person was entitled; and
  - (b) authorised by law to be paid from the Consolidated Fund.
- (3) This clause does not apply to a person referred to in subclause (1)(a) to (e) if the person is, or is taken to be, a member of the new scheme or the revised scheme under the State Superannuation Act 1988.
- (4) In this clause—
- applicable multiplier* means the number specified as the charge percentage under section 19(2) of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth, as in force from time to time, for the relevant period, divided by 100;
- commencement date* means the day that section 21 of the Justice Legislation Further Amendment Act 2016 comes into operation;
- salary* includes the car allowance for magistrates provided for in certificate 1/2008 dated 14 July 2008 issued under section 15 of the Judicial Remuneration Tribunal Act 1995 (as continued in operation under section 43 of the Judicial Entitlements Act 2015), to the extent that a person to whom this clause applies is entitled to such an allowance;
- validation period* means the period from 1 January 1994 to the commencement date.

Section 150

- 1 (1) The Magistrates' Court shall be deemed to be the same Court as the several Magistrates' Courts existing immediately before the commencement of Part 2 and no action, matter or thing shall be abated or affected by the change in the establishment or name of the Court.
- (2) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act or in any subordinate instrument or in any document or writing of any kind whatsoever to a Magistrates' Court or to Magistrates' Courts is to be taken to refer to the Magistrates' Court.
- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act or in any subordinate instrument or in any document or writing of any kind whatsoever to a Magistrates' Court held at a particular place is to be taken to refer to the Magistrates' Court sitting at that place or, if the Magistrates' Court does not sit at that place, to the Court sitting at the place that is nearest to that place.
- 2 (1) Each person who holds office as a magistrate immediately before the commencement of Part 2 holds office as a magistrate under and subject to this Act on and from that commencement without any further appointment.
- (2) Each person who holds office as Chief Magistrate or Deputy Chief Magistrate immediately before the commencement of Part 2 holds office as Chief Magistrate or Deputy Chief Magistrate (as the case requires) under and subject to this Act on and from that commencement without any further appointment.

- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act or in any subordinate instrument or in any document or writing of any kind whatsoever to a police magistrate or to a stipendiary magistrate is to be taken to refer to a magistrate.
- 3 (1) Each person who holds office as a clerk of a Magistrates' Court immediately before the commencement of Part 3 holds office as a registrar of the Court under and subject to this Act and the Public Service Act 1974 on and from that commencement without any further appointment.
- (2) Each person who holds office as a deputy clerk of a Magistrates' Court immediately before the commencement of Part 3 holds office as a deputy registrar of the Court under and subject to this Act and the Public Service Act 1974 on and from that commencement without any further appointment.
- (3) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act or in any subordinate instrument or in any document or writing of any kind whatsoever to a clerk of a Magistrates' Court is to be taken to refer to a registrar of the Court.
- (4) Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act or in any subordinate instrument or in any document or writing of any kind whatsoever to a deputy clerk of a Magistrates' Court is to be taken to refer to a deputy registrar of the Court.
- 4 Unless the context otherwise requires, any reference in any Act (other than this Act, the Evidence Act 2008 or the Evidence (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1958) or in any subordinate instrument to a justice of the peace is to be taken to refer to a magistrate.

Sch. 8 cl. 4
amended by
No. 69/2009
s. 54(Sch. Pt 1
item 34.11).

- 5 If by any Act (other than this Act) or by any subordinate instrument a procedure is prescribed for or in relation to any proceeding in the Court or for or in relation to any step or process in such a proceeding and there is prescribed by this Act or the Rules a procedure that is applicable to such a proceeding or step or process, the procedure prescribed by this Act or the Rules applies despite the provisions of that Act or subordinate instrument.
- 6 A civil proceeding in the Court must, despite anything in any Act or subordinate instrument, be commenced and conducted in accordance with the Rules and not otherwise.
- 7 A criminal proceeding in the Court must, despite anything in any Act or subordinate instrument, be commenced and conducted in accordance with this Act and not otherwise.
- 8 An order made by the Court in a civil proceeding (other than an order made under the Imprisonment of Fraudulent Debtors Act 1958 or the Judgment Debt Recovery Act 1984) must be enforced in accordance with this Act and the Rules and not otherwise.
- 9 If by or under any Act other than this Act any jurisdiction, power or authority is vested in a magistrate—
  - (a) that jurisdiction, power or authority may be exercised in accordance with this Act and the Rules by the Court in all respects as that magistrate might have done; and
  - (b) the Court constituted in accordance with this Act and the Rules has jurisdiction, power or authority co-ordinate with the jurisdiction, power or authority of the magistrate.

- 12 (1) The Magistrates' Courts Act 1971 and the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975 continue, despite their repeal and despite any rule of law to the contrary, to apply to—

- (a) any action or matter pending in a Magistrates' Court immediately before the commencement of Part 2 unless at that commencement—
    - (i) the hearing of that action or matter had not commenced; or
    - (ii) no evidence had been given on the hearing of that action or matter; and
  - (b) any re-hearing or review of, or appeal from, any action or matter—
    - (i) that was concluded before the commencement of Part 2; or
    - (ii) to which, by virtue of paragraph (a), the Magistrates' Courts Act 1971 and the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975 continue to apply; and
  - (c) the enforcement of any order made in any action or matter referred to in paragraph (b).
- (2) Part VIIA of the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975 continues, despite its repeal, to apply to enforcement orders made under that Part before the commencement of section 99 of this Act.
- (3) Section 168 of the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975 continues, despite its repeal, to apply in relation to a proceeding for an offence if, at the commencement of section 130, the hearing of that proceeding had commenced.
- (4) Subclause (1) applies except as otherwise expressly provided by the Rules with respect to civil proceedings.
- 13 All fines imposed before the commencement of section 97 and not recovered before that commencement may be recovered in all respects as if this Act had not been passed.

30 A person is eligible for appointment as a magistrate under section 7 if the person was, immediately before the commencement of section 4(2) of the Courts Legislation (Judicial Appointments) Act 2004, eligible for appointment under section 7(3)(b) as then in force.

Sch. 8 cl. 31
inserted by
No. 68/2004
s. 5.

31 The amendments made to this Act by sections 3 and 4 of the Magistrates' Court (Increased Civil Jurisdiction) Act 2004 apply only with respect to proceedings commenced on or after the commencement of that Act.

Sch. 8 cl. 31A
inserted by
No. 15/2005
s. 12.

31A The amendment made to this Act by section 11 of the Sentencing (Further Amendment) Act 2005 applies to a proceeding for an offence commenced on or after the commencement of that section, regardless of when the offence is alleged to have been committed.

Sch. 8 cl. 32
inserted by
No. 3/2005
s. 13.

32 The substitution of section 9 of this Act made by section 11 of the Courts Legislation (Judicial Appointments and Other Amendments) Act 2005 does not affect an appointment made under section 9 as in force immediately before the commencement of section 11 of that Act and a magistrate who has been so appointed and who holds the office of acting magistrate immediately before that commencement continues in that office subject to section 9 as if section 9 had not been substituted.

Sch. 8 cl. 33
inserted by
No. 3/2005
s. 13.

33 The substitution of clause 11 in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to this Act made by section 12 of the Courts Legislation (Judicial Appointments and Other Amendments) Act 2005 does not affect the remuneration of an acting magistrate applicable immediately before the commencement of section 12 of that Act and an acting magistrate who receives remuneration under clause 11 immediately before that commencement continues to receive remuneration during the period of his or her appointment as if clause 11 had not been substituted.

- 34 (1) Subject to subclauses (2) and (3), the amendments of section 140 of this Act made by section 8 of the Magistrates' Court (Judicial Registrars and Court Rules) Act 2005 do not affect the operation of any regulations made under that section of this Act.
- (2) If, but for subclause (1), a provision of the regulations made under section 140 would cease to have effect because of the repeal of the power conferred by that section to make the provision, the provision continues in operation until it is revoked or the first anniversary of the commencement of section 8 of the Magistrates' Court (Judicial Registrars and Court Rules) Act 2005 (whichever first occurs).
- (3) A provision of the regulations made under section 140 is of no force or effect to the extent that it deals with a matter dealt with by a rule made under section 16(1A).
- (4) Despite the amendments of section 140 of this Act made by section 8 of the Magistrates' Court (Judicial Registrars and Court Rules) Act 2005 and without limiting any other power to make regulations conferred by this Act, the Governor in Council may, until the first anniversary of the commencement of section 8 of the Magistrates' Court (Judicial Registrars and Court Rules) Act 2005, make regulations under that section revoking any provision of the regulations made under a power conferred by that section that is repealed by those amendments.

35 Savings provisions—instalment arrangements and payment plans

- (1) Despite the amendment of Schedule 7 by section 28 of the Investigative, Enforcement and Police Powers Acts (Amendment) Act 2005—
- (a) any instalment arrangement of a kind referred to in clause 3(2A) of Schedule 7 in force immediately before the commencement of section 28 of that Act continues to have effect and may be enforced in accordance with Schedule 7 as in force immediately before that commencement as if those amendments had not been made; and
  - (b) any certificate under clause 4(2) of Schedule 7 provided to a registrar under clause 4(1) of that Schedule which certifies as to a matter referred to in clause 4(2)(da) as in force immediately before the commencement of section 28 of that Act—
    - (i) continues to have effect as if those amendments had not been made; and
    - (ii) is a valid certificate for the purposes of enforcement under Schedule 7 of the infringement penalty and any prescribed costs to which that certificate relates; and
  - (c) clause 3A of Schedule 7 as in force immediately before the commencement of section 28 of that Act continues to have effect in respect of any instalment arrangement to which that clause applied immediately before that commencement as if clause 3A had not been amended by that Act.

- (2) Nothing in this clause prevents an instalment arrangement of a kind referred to in clause 3(2A) of Schedule 7 in force immediately before the commencement of section 28 of the Investigative, Enforcement and Police Powers Acts (Amendment) Act 2005 being cancelled or revoked and a payment plan under Part 5 of Schedule 7 being offered and accepted in respect of any infringement penalty and prescribed costs to which that instalment arrangement applied.

35A An amendment made to this Act by a provision of section 40 or 41 of the Crimes (Sexual Offences) Act 2006 applies only to a criminal proceeding commenced on or after the commencement of that provision.

- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in section 49(1) of the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984, if under or for the purposes of Part 2 of Schedule 7 to this Act as in force immediately before its repeal by section 176(2) of the Infringements Act 2006, any document had been served on a person by post to an authorised address and that document had been returned undelivered to its sender, that document—
- (a) must be taken to have been validly served on the day that is 14 days after the date specified in the document as the date of that document, despite it being returned to its sender as undelivered; and
- (b) any enforcement action taken under that Schedule must be taken to be a valid action under that Schedule.

(2) For the purposes of this section, authorised address means—

- (a) an address recorded in relation to a person in a register kept by a public statutory body (including, in relation to a director, alternate director or secretary of a company within the meaning of the Corporations Act, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission) if by law that person or another person is required to notify that public statutory body of any change in that address;
- (b) in relation to any document in respect of a transport infringement within the meaning of the Transport Act 1983 or a ticket infringement within the meaning of that Act, an address provided by a person to an authorised officer or police member under section 218B of that Act after that officer or that member has requested the person to state his or her name and address because the officer or member believes on reasonable grounds that the person has committed a transport infringement or a ticket infringement, as the case requires.

The long title for the Bill for this Act was "A Bill to establish the Magistrates' Court of Victoria, to provide for the constitution, jurisdiction and proceedings of that Court, to repeal the Magistrates' Courts Act 1971 and the Magistrates (Summary Proceedings) Act 1975, to amend the Bail Act 1977, the Crimes Act 1958, the Evidence Act 1958, the Interpretation of Legislation Act 1984 and certain other Acts and for other purposes."

The Magistrates' Court Act 1989 was assented to on 14 June 1989 and came into operation as follows:

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms

Magistrates' Court Act 1989
No. 51 of 1989
Endnotes

part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).

3 Explanatory details

<sup>1</sup> S. 9 (repealed): The amendment proposed to section 9(10) by section 8(1) of the Courts Legislation (Judicial Conduct) Act 2005, No. 16/2005 (repealed) is not included in this publication as section 9 was substituted by section 11 of the Courts Legislation (Judicial Appointments and Other Amendments) Act 2005, No. 3/2005 (repealed).

<sup>2</sup> S. 58(1): Sections 10–13 of the Magistrates' Court (Amendment) Act 1996, No. 70/1996 read as follows:

10 Payment of fines

- (1) An arrangement made before 14 November 1996—
  - (a) for an extension of time for the payment of a fine referred to in Schedule 7 to the Principal Act; or
  - (b) for the payment by instalments of a fine referred to in Schedule 7 to the Principal Act—with a person authorised to execute a penalty enforcement warrant or a warrant to seize property or a warrant to imprison issued under clause 8(1) of that Schedule is deemed to be an order referred to in clause 7(1)(a) or (b), as the case may be, of that Schedule.

- (2) An arrangement made before 14 November 1996—
  - (a) for allowing time for the payment of a fine referred to in section 62 or 66 of the Sentencing Act 1991; or
  - (b) for the payment by instalments of a fine referred to in section 62 or 66 of the Sentencing Act 1991; or

(c) for a variation of—

(i) the terms of an instalment order referred to in section 62 or 66 of the Sentencing Act 1991; or

(ii) an arrangement referred to in paragraph (a) or (b)—

with a person authorised to execute a warrant to arrest issued under section 62 of that Act or a warrant to seize property issued under section 66 of that Act is deemed to be an order referred to in section 55(a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, of that Act.

11 Transitional

- (1) If, before 14 November 1996, a warrant has been recalled under section 58(1) of the Principal Act and a fresh warrant for the same purpose had purportedly been issued—
  - (a) the recalled warrant is deemed to have been cancelled on the date on which the fresh warrant was purportedly issued; and
  - (b) the fresh warrant and its execution are deemed to be valid despite any lack of power to issue the fresh warrant.
- (2) If, before 14 November 1996, a warrant referred to in section 58(2) of the Principal Act had been executed after its expiry under that section, the warrant and its execution are deemed to be valid despite that expiry.
- (3) If, before 14 November 1996, a warrant referred to in section 58(2) of the Principal Act had expired under that section and after its expiry the amount of the fine in respect of which it was issued or any part of that amount or any amount for associated costs were paid, those amounts are deemed to have been lawfully demanded and recovered.

- (4) If, before 14 November 1996, a penalty enforcement warrant or a warrant to seize property or a warrant to imprison or a warrant to arrest directed to the sheriff was purportedly issued not in paper form, the warrant is deemed to be valid if its issue would have been valid had it been issued in paper form and signed or otherwise authenticated by the person issuing it.
- (5) A penalty enforcement warrant or a warrant to seize property or a warrant to imprison or a warrant to arrest which—
  - (a) was issued under clause 8(1) of Schedule 7 to the Principal Act or under, or in accordance with an order made under, section 62 or 66 of the Sentencing Act 1991 and included an amount for costs of execution or warrant costs; and
  - (b) was executed before 14 November 1996—is deemed to have been lawfully executed.
- (6) If, before 14 November 1996, a warrant was issued under clause 8(1) of Schedule 7 to the Principal Act or under, or in accordance with an order made under, section 62 or 66 of the Sentencing Act 1991 and included an amount for costs of execution or warrant costs, but before execution the amount of the fine and costs were paid, those amounts are deemed to have been lawfully demanded and recovered.

12 No proceedings may be brought

Proceedings, including proceedings—

- (a) seeking damages or compensation; or

- (b) seeking the grant of any relief or remedy in the nature of certiorari, prohibition, mandamus or quo warranto, or the grant of a declaration of right or an injunction; or
- (c) seeking a writ of habeas corpus; or
- (d) seeking an order under the Administrative Law Act 1978— may not be brought in respect of any matter or thing that, by reason of the operation of this Act, is deemed to be valid or lawful or to have been validly or lawfully done.

13 Supreme Court—limitation of jurisdiction

It is the intention of section 12 to alter or vary section 85 of the Constitution Act 1975.

28 Transitional provisions

- (3) The amendments of the Principal Act made by sections 9, 11 and 22(a) to (g) (penalty enforcement warrants) apply to infringement penalties imposed before as well as after the commencement of those sections but if a penalty enforcement warrant is issued with respect to an infringement penalty imposed before that commencement—
  - (a) any warrant to imprison issued with respect to the infringement penalty must be recalled and cancelled in accordance with section 58(1) of the Principal Act; and
  - (b) a fresh demand must be made under clause 8(2) of Schedule 7 of the Principal Act as amended by this Act.

5 Expiry of certain warrants

- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) of section 58 of the Principal Act as in force before 14 November 1996 do not apply, and are deemed never to have applied, to a warrant referred to in those subsections if the warrant was executed before that date or the fine in respect of which it was issued, together with all associated costs, were paid before that date.

12 Transitional provisions

- (1) An amendment made by a provision of this Act to the Evidence Act 1958, the Supreme Court Act 1986, the County Court Act 1958, the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 or the Children and Young Persons Act 1989 applies to a proceeding that is commenced to be heard on or after the twenty-first day after the commencement of that amendment, irrespective of when the proceeding was commenced or when any offence to which the proceeding relates is alleged to have been committed.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) in its application to criminal proceedings—
- (a) a trial is commenced to be heard on arraignment of the accused person; and

- (b) a hearing of a charge for an offence is commenced to be heard on the taking of a formal plea from the accused person.

47 Magistrates' Court Act 1989—transitional provisions

- (2) The amendments made by section 35 to the Magistrates' Court Act 1989 applies to proceedings, whether commenced before or after the commencement of that section.

28 Transitional provisions

- (6) The amendments of the Principal Act made by section 16 (removal of compulsory age retirement for JPs) apply to any person who immediately before the commencement of that section held the office of justice of the peace.
