

BOSTON CITY COUNCILOR AT-LARGE

ERIN MURPHY

Happy Dorchester Day!

After two years without a parade, I am thrilled to march this Sunday and celebrate with our wonderful community here in Dorchester.

PLEASE SIGN UP HERE if you want to march with us on Sunday, June 5th. Meet us on Richmond Street around 12:00pm. We would love to have you join us as we march down Dorchester Ave.

Flashback ☐☐

After raising over $15,000 for the Dorchester Day Parade Committee, I was proud to be named the honorary "Mayor of Dorchester" in 2014. This year will be the 116th annual parade along the 3.2 mile stretch of Dorchester Avenue from Lower Mills to Columbia Road. I hope to see you out along Dot Ave.

Chief Marshal Lou Pasquale

As the Committee Chair of Veteran Services, I was honored to celebrate WWII veteran and Chief Marshal Lou Pasquale at the Parade Committee Dinner last night. Lou Pasquale is truly a hero in our community. His dedication to helping others is inspiring and shall never be forgotten. I strive to live by his motto every day, to work hard and help others. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your service in the military and our community. Have fun leading us all in the Dot Day Parade this year!

Little Miss, Young Miss, Mayor and Chief Marshal

As the former Mayor of Dorchester, I would like to congratulate this year's Mayor, Ryan Collins (shown here with our 2019 Mayor of Dorchester, Gretchen Haase). I know the amount of time and money it takes to run a parade, so I want to acknowledge your hard work and dedication and thank you for raising $10,000 and helping make the parade a success this year.

Also, big congrats to Ryleigh Mahoney, our Little Miss Dorchester and Savannah Washington, our Young Miss Dorchester. Have fun on parade day girls!

Big Shoutout to the entire Parade Committee for your tireless commitment and dedication each year. Thank you for all you do throughout the year, and on parade day. We appreciate you!
