

End of year note from City Councilor At-Large Erin Murphy

I want to wish everyone a joyous Christmas and a Happy New Year filled with family, friends, and laughter. This past year has been challenging, so I hope you are able to take some time and enjoy it with loved ones. I am sending special thoughts to those who are serving in our military and will be away from their families. Thank you for your service and the sacrifices your families make. I also want to thank our first responders who have to work this holiday. Thank you for keeping us safe.

I look forward to the new year and our work together. If you need any help from our office, please reach out at 617-635-3115. Stay safe and have a wonderful holiday. - Erin

The City of Boston is encouraging residents and businesses to help stop the spread of COVID-19, and an important part of stopping the spread is getting more people tested. This will help the City of Boston better understand and control the spread of the virus.
