2026 Brewster Elks Pool Rules

1. Only authorized personnel are permitted in the pool area before 11:30 a.m.
2. Swimming is permitted only while a lifeguard is on duty. When the lifeguard leaves his/her post, the pool must be vacated.
3. The certified lifeguard and/or pool supervisor have full authority to maintain order and may withdraw pool privileges. Any member having a problem may discuss it further with the House Committee.
4. At the first sign of a thunderstorm and/or lightning, the lifeguard and/or pool supervisor will declare the pool closed and post a "Pool Closed" sign.
5. Socializing with or distracting lifeguards while on duty is prohibited.
6. Members and/or guests must sign in daily. Members are permitted no more than five guests per family per day. All guest fees must be given to the lifeguard.
7. Children under 18 must be accompanied by a parent, guardian, or caretaker and may not be left unattended.
8. No running or horseplay is permitted in the pool area.
9. No glass containers are permitted in the pool area.
10. No diving is allowed.
11. Small flotation devices are allowed at the discretion of the lifeguard on duty. Styrofoam pool noodles are not permitted.
12. Persons with infections, open wounds, or bandages covering the same are not permitted in the pool.
13. No diapers are permitted in the pool. Children must use swim diapers only.
14. With the exception of certified service animals, no pets are permitted in the pool area.
15. Everyone using the pool is required to clean up after themselves.
16. Swimming pool rules will be posted and enforced.
17. No alcohol is permitted in the pool area.

I have read the pool rules and regulations and hereby agree to abide by them.
