RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Landlords

Advertising Rentals

Required to disclose screening criteria and application costs
Illegal to discriminate by: race, religion, gender, disability, family status, LGBTQ+ identity
Source of income discrimination is illegal (income from public benefit or subsidy)

Lease/Rental Agreement Essentials

Length of tenancy or month to month
Rent cost and payment schedule
Deposit amount and any additional costs (utilities, parking, etc.)
Walk Through Checklist - inventory and condition of unit and/or furnishings and appliances

Deposits

Walk-through and documented checklist required; lease required
Must return deposit within 30 days
Statement of deductions required if any deposit withheld
Cannot deduct for normal wear and tear

Rent Increases

Requires 90 days written notice
Capped at 7% plus inflation or 10%, whichever is less, 5% for manufactured homes
Some rentals are exempted (units shared w/landlord, subsidized housing, newer construction)

Repairs & Maintenance

Must comply with city, county, and state building and health codes
Maintain electrical, plumbing, heating systems, and appliances in good working order
Provide adequate locks and keys
Provide fire safety information, including smoke detectors and who maintains them
Repair timelines:
24 hours – heat, hot/cold water, life/safety issues
72 hours – plumbing/appliance problems
10 days – other repairs

Early Termination of Tenancy

Legal advice recommended due to complexity
Eviction requires “good” legal reason and written notice

Tenants

Lease Agreements

Must be written, signed, and dated
Month to month lease can be verbal unless a deposit is required
Document rental condition with photos/videos pre-move-in

Rent and Fees

First/Last month payments documented separately from deposit
Additional fees must be disclosed and included in lease
If you pay in cash, request a receipt

Tenant Screening

Landlord must disclose screening criteria and agency used
Right to a free copy of report if rejected
Screening fees can be charged to tenant only if landlord has it in writing before being charged

Deposits

Move-In Checklist required; describe cleanliness of unit, any existing damage, and condition of walls, floors, furniture, appliances, etc
Written disclosure of where deposit is held required
Landlord must provide receipt

Repairs

Send request in writing with description of repairs needed/conditions that are unsafe or unhealthy—keep a copy and take note of date received
Do not withhold rent to demand repairs; Landlord can give you a 14-day pay or vacate notice
Paying rent on time maintains your “right to repair”
If issue is not resolved within required timeframe, options include (seek legal advice before proceeding):

- Send a follow-up written notice
- Initiate legal action (e.g., small claims court)
- Move out
- Repair-and-deduct where legally permitted

Rent Increases

Refer to landlord section

Ending a Lease

Expired lease goes month-to-month by default
Must provide written notice 20 days before end of lease or rental period
Landlord must have just cause to terminate a lease
Deposit must be returned within 30 days of move-out
Written explanation required if deposit withheld
Specific protections apply in domestic violence and harassment cases

Disability Accommodation

Right to reasonable accommodation without additional fees
Tenant may pay for structural modifications if needed

LEGAL DISPUTES

Small claims court resolves financial disputes over rent, deposits, and damages.
