The Sausalito Center for the Arts, in collaboration with the National Sculpture Society (NSS), presents The Art of Form: Perspectives from The West, a juried sculpture exhibition opening May 22 featuring works by 24 accomplished sculptors from across the western United States. Opening May 22, the show presents 39 sculptures alongside additional visual art by several iconic Bay Area artists.

This dynamic exhibition celebrates the power and presence of sculpture—its dimensionality, tactile appeal, and ability to transform space. Jurors include Pati Stajcar, an elected Member of NSS and Lori Shorin, a fellow of NSS, along with SCA Executive Director Shiva Pakdel. The exhibit emphasizes traditional craftsmanship and natural inspiration, a hallmark of NSS's 130-year mission to promote excellence in sculpture.
