Journey through Out

Initiated a single venture in HEALTHCARE with highest enthusiasm with a solo motive to serve humanity with humanity, since years has been developing quality products and trading in APIs, Finished Drug Formulations. And now has developed a dedicated networked team to supply our products from rural to high urban areas around the globe. With growing organisation, MR. SHAH following his passion for travelling branched the organisation with Traveling venture, marked the uniqueness by offering exceptional packages. Ultimately following his commitment for tomorrow developed a Strong IT firm for providing solution with security.

A Reality more inspiring than a Tale

“I am from Ahmedabad, lives with my family. I’ve always wanted to do something meaningful for myself and even for the society. A friend suggested that I can generate money with my own resources through an organisation. So, I started working for them and we were group of women producing sanitary pads for Bluekites, A Small initiative by BLUEKITES given me path to create my own identity in the society. Not only I but numerous women like me working with the organisation, as organisation and we follow the common goal of better hygiene for the woman and we are committed with our duties for the betterment.

Today, my family is proud and now capable enough to provide good education to my children. I’m grateful that today I’m able to inspire the people in my life.”

Bluekites: A copper-bottomed organisation
