The St. Louis Premiere of
Michael Madden's

Red Jasper

Directed by Suki Peters

A heartwarming love story about facing new love, loss, grief and forgiveness.

“The play has its dark moments but Madden's saucy and sarcastic sense of humor lifts those scenes. He also has a knack for writing natural and funny dialogue that doesn't sound scripted. The two-hour play was surprisingly funny, clever, touching and entertaining.”

— Pam Kragen, Theater Critic, San Diego Union Tribune
