

What to do if you think you have been hacked or gotten a virus?

1. Turn off your computer.
2. Isolate your computer unplug it from the network and turn off wireless cards.
3. Change your passwords.
4. Contact Piedmont Technical Experts and let us determine if your computer has been compromised.

How to reduce your risk from being compromised by a hacker or malware?

1. Routinely change your passwords
2. Have a managed centralized anti-virus solution
3. Have active system monitoring
4. Know what to look for in suspicious email
5. Have an enterprise grade spam filter on your email.
6. Have a firewall with enterprise grade security
7. Implement Geo-IP filtering
8. Implement multi-factor authentication

Piedmont Technical Experts

336-900-5906

support@piedmonttechnicalexperts.com

