

PERSONALITIES (Continued)

To Jack Lowe, we send thanks for the new addresses which he has sent in to the Secretary during the last few weeks. This, members, is a service which all can perform.

A letter from P.C. Shadlow has brought two more addresses and the promise of a search for more. Thanks, P.C.

SUGGESTION BOX

We asked for criticism and we got it (but it's all been awfully complimentary!). For news, and we got that too - lets have some more. Anecdotes and literary efforts, yes. And from the same gentleman we received the following suggestions:-

1. How about a badge? Suggest the colours on boomerang symbolising return.
2. Re boomerangs which are my forte, the current Movie-tone News shows my children and self in action. We are working up a good act, and will be available to the Association (free) for open air exhibitions to raise funds on their behalf.
3. Will train members of the Association in throwing, forming teams to compete with other Returned Unit's Associations."

Perhaps the writer (guess who) has got something here, so let's hear some ideas on the subject; it should be interesting.

(Thanks again, Oes. -Ed)

WATT! NO HARRY?

Our Editor is "shooting through" on Monday, 17 June, for a fortnight's well earned holiday at Narrabri. Consequently he will miss the June meeting. Harry has been working very hard for many months at the RSL Employment Bureau, and it was a grand break for him when he was recently appointed Field Officer for the Bureau. Just the "men about town," what?

His Associate, Bob Jackson, (Ex "B" Coy) is also going ~~back~~ two days before the meeting. As a trainee of the NSW Public Library School, he will be having a "look-see" at the libraries in Griffith, Narrandera, Wagga, Young, Goulburn, Moss Vale and Wollongong and will be passing through Junee, Cootamundra and Harden. He is looking forward to seeing some of the boys down that way.

ABOUT THIS PAPER!

There are one or two points which the Editors would like to pass on for information.

Organisation: We have thrashed out now who is going to be what, the results being:

Editor: Harry, L. Watts, 545 George St, RSL Employment Bureau. M 3741.

Associate

Editor: F. R. Jackson, 11 Billyard Ave, Elizabeth Bay. FA5840.

Editorial Committee: There is, as you can appreciate, a lot of work involved in getting (and keeping) this circular going. When "dope" is received it must be collated, drafted, printed, and the circulation (at present 600) requires 600 addressing, stamping and filling of envelopes. For this reason we are keen to hear who is willing to take his place on this committee. We need at least 6.

Contributions: In order to make preparation easier, members are requested to send to the,

Editor: Personal news, suggestions, and letters (for printing).

Associate Editor: Literary efforts, and any ideas or suggestions affecting production.

THE SECRETARY WANTS TO KNOW

Your Address: If there are any changes, and if you hear of any member with whom we have not yet been in contact, and can get his address, please forward to Sec.

Are you a financial Member? If not, please forward Cheque, Postal Note or Money Order for 10/6 to the:-

Honorary Secretary,
R. W. Ellerman,
39 Bent St, SYDNEY.
