ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE — Association of 4th Inf. Battalions.

An Annual Service to Commemorate the laying up of the Queen's and Regimental Colours of the 4th Infantry Battalion (Australian Rifles) was held in the beautiful old St. Anne's Church of England, Strathfield, on Sunday, July 1st. As is usual, the Band of 4 RNSWR was on parade to lead the short march to the Church from nearby Davey Reserve, and to lead the singing of the hymns during the service. After the march and just prior to entering the Church a brief ceremony took place during which your President presented the 2/4th Inf. Bn. medal with clasps to the President of the Association of 4th Inf. Bns. (Lt./Col. Vin Hallinan) for keeping in their museum.

A stirring address was given by Rev. Angus Tipping, the Chaplain of the Assn. of 4th Inf. Bns., whom it was good to see again back from a year's exchange duty in the U.K. with Mrs. Tipping.

Following the service the usual magnificent afternoon tea provided always by the ladies of St. Anne's was enjoyed by all, making it possible for all present to meet and chat in most congenial surroundings. Your Association was represented by Sir Ivan (whom we are pleased to report is looking fit again and younger than ever), Ken & Fi Kesteven, Laurie & Joy Waterhouse, John Copland, Bill Parry, Wal Honey, 'Pom' Cole, Jack Hine, Vera Walsh, Mollie Irvine, and Bill & Gwen MacLennan. Apologies, mostly due to petrol shortages, were received from quite a few members.

ANNUAL RAFFLE Whilst on the subject of finance we trust you will fully support the project for which we are enclosing an insert with this issue, as you did last year. It is a happy way of maintaining the continued solvency of our Association, and we are once again extremely indebted to Ken Kesteven for his generous donation of the beautiful three piece garden setting. Thank you in advance for your prompt return of the ticket sheet (filled in, of course) with your $10.00 to Athol Heath.

IN THE MAILBAG We are happy to have news from Overseas from the following:—

Phil and Glen SMITH have been everywhere in Europe — bought a Bedford Motor Home, which is very comfortable and warm, and have visited France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Austria, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Holland, Luxemburg, Switzerland, etc., roll-call being at 6 a.m. every morning. However, they are pleased to be now back in the U.K. to be able to converse with people again, and where the trees are green again after the severe winter. 'Thank you for sending WOG over'.

Frank MALLETT wrote in April. 'The March issue of W.O.G. has so much news, some good, some sad. It's good news that Sir Ivan is progressing, also the many others whose names are listed in the Welfare Report.

However, they are pleased to be now back in the U.K. to be able to converse with people again, and where the trees are green again after the severe winter. 'Thank you for sending WOG over'.

Frank MALLETT wrote in April. 'The March issue of W.O.G. has so much news, some good, some sad. It's good news that Sir Ivan is progressing, also the many others whose names are listed in the Welfare Report.

'This has been a rather bad winter at times. I have been unable to get out of the main doors, as we have had snow on and off for about three months. The only sunshine has been 'The Sullivans' on television — yes, we have that each week!.

'It's a few days only to Anzac Day — I shall go to the parade as a Commonwealth ex-soldier, but it would be great to be in Sydney with so many old mates. Please give my respects to any who remember me. There are so many people I would like to mention but the list is too long. May I say that have a really good day, a good march, a few 'cups' of tea' and I am sure a few yarns will be exchanged.'

Monty SIEMS wrote in April: 'As you know, we have an election to look forward to — cannot see that the result will make much impact in Aussie as we seem to be bound up in the Common Market whose effect to date has not been so good for consumers here. If they continue their policies its effect will only get worse. People do comment about the loss of Dominion foods, particularly cheese, butter, meat and tinned fruit, but that is our problem, and yours too in another sense.

'We have had a grim winter, and the coast hereabouts has taken a pounding from the stormy weather. About 250 week-end chalets were washed out to sea and the pier has had half a million pounds of damage. The only effect on me is that it has restricted my daily walk along the sea front and I have suffered wet feet when I did go out during the snow storms. Managed to slip over a few times but fortunately escaped injury.

'Was so sorry to read of the death of Teddy Gamble. We were in the same squad prior to the war and he was a most likeable and gentle man and a very good solider.

'Am enjoying my retirement and think that for the first time in my life I am free in most senses of the word and hope that my health holds out for a few years yet. Am hoping to stay the course long enough to come to Aussie on the 50th Anniversary of the forming of the Battalion. Will be knocking on then, but live in hope. Do appreciate getting W.O.G. It keeps me in touch with people and events. I wish all old comrades good luck and especially good health.'

AN EXPERT FROM 'MELBOURNE SUN' —26th April, 1979.

'Dressed in their best suits and keeping their hands warm in pockets, members of the 6th and 7th Divisions, who saw action from Greece to New Guinea, were getting ready for another Anzac Day March. 'Hey!' Gunga, Gunga Din. It's good to see you again!' said retired Lt. Col Claude Raymond. 'That's what we used to call him during World War 2,' he explained. 'He was our water truck driver. By gee, we were glad to see him when we were out in the desert.'

'Mr Raymond, 70, of West Coburg, was shaking the hand of his mate Sidney Valentine, 62 of Glenroy. Both served in 2/4th Battalion of Sixth Division and saw action in Greece, Syria, Lybia and Egypt. 'We originated in N.S.W.' Mr Raymond said. 'But a few of us came south after the war and about 14 of us march every year.'

EDITORIAL Dasher Deacon has still not been able to take over his position as Editor. Since returning from his holiday in the West with Lily he has not been too well, and has had a couple of turns since going up to North Haven in June. He has seen the local doctor in Laurieton and has been twice to Port Macquarie for extensive tests and is hopeful that the Doctor there will be able to do something for him. So to avoid double postage, please send all copy for W.O.G. to 2 Amaroo Ave., Castle Cove., until further notification. We Wish Dasher all the best.

COCK'S COLUMN

Harry HAMBURGER, with whom we lost contact when he moved from Port Macquarie, has now been located by Dasher Deacon living at Laurieton. To ensure continuity of W.O.G. might we suggest to those contemplating moving house in the future that it is a good idea to notify your Editor of your new address? The necessity to do this should require very little explanation, yet we are continually having to remove plates from the addressograph file because of W.O.G.s being returned marked 'Left Address' or 'Not Known at this address'.

Glen ACKERMAN, a well known identity in A Coy. who left the Battalion in Darwin, wants to be remembered to all his old mates. He is now TPI living at No. 1, Flat, Adeline Street, NORTH HAVEN 2445.

Geoff INGS, having trouble with cataracts, having had one removed and one to go, but lined up on Anzac Day nevertheless. Cheers, Geoff.

Bill BUTCHER was also on parade. Informs us he is going into Adelene Retiring Village at Wyoming, via Gosford, at the end of the year. All the best Bill.

Jim FORMAN from Warragamba reports seeing Selby DEAN, Roy DEAN, and Ross SMITH in Inverell recently and all well. Ross is going back into the R.S.L. Memorial Club at Inverell and all are very pleased about the move.

Denny KARANGES is out of butchering and back on deck after a near breakdown in health. Denny has leased his shop and wonders why he stayed so long in the game.

Good to see the Canberra boy, Jack HUSTON, around. He assures us that shovels are on special up his way at present.

Bryan WARING down from Bourke for the first time for years has had four years in Royal North Shore. Good to see you Bryan, and all the best for the future.

Les (one punch) ADAMS still the same reports having seen Jos PARKER at Dora Creek and that he is going well.

Jack HAWKINS reports that son-in-law is in Larrakee Barracks Darwin. Jack and Nell hope to visit during winter.

Two lucky ladies who have recently joined the fast growing ranks of 2/4th Jet-setters are Pat HEATH and Enid LATIMER, both now safely back to their 'ever lovings'. Unfortunately Enid missed the birth of her latest grandson in Canada by only one day, but we hope it won't be long before she can meet Forbes Garrett Latimer.

AN APOLOGY. To Vera PROVIANS on behalf of the Printer, for the omission of the word 'high' after 'heads held' in her rather beautiful little para. on our proudly marching men, (published last month). The heads may have needed holding on April 26th, but certainly not on Anzac Day!
