New York State Alternate Assessment (NYSAA): Essential Information for Families of Students with Disabilities

Hosted by The Long Island Regional Partnership Center and Family and Community Engagement (FACE) Centers

516-589-4562

Center for Community Inclusion at Long Island University
NEW YORK STATE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF SPECIAL EDUCATION

The purpose of this interactive workshop is to educate families of students with disabilities on the essential information regarding NYSAA including, what NYSAA is, and how it will impact a student's postsecondary planning and opportunities.

Families will:

- identify the purpose and structure of NYSAA.
- become familiar with the process for determining whether a student is eligible for NYSAA.
- explore student exit options and how a NYSAA designation impacts students' postsecondary planning, including graduation.
