

RICKI DEREK RETURNS TO THE GRANADA THEATER FOR THE SECOND-STRAIGHT YEAR WITH A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION THE WHOLE FAMILY CAN ENJOY

(DALLAS, TX – December 2016) – Christmastime is just a few weeks away. And with that, the holiday cheer is coming to the Granada Theater for Ricki Derek’s annual “Merry Little Christmas” show. It’s one of the most beloved shows in the area and Granada is excited to host it for the second straight year. On Friday, December 16th, it’s going to look a lot like Christmas inside the theater’s hallowed walls.

A little bit Rat Pack with a tinge of Bing Crosby backed up by a big-band orchestra that’s reminiscent of Sinatra’s glory days – that’s the best way to describe this show. Getting audiences in the holiday spirit is just something that comes naturally to this multi-talented musician. Close your eyes and you’ll hear a combination of Sinatra, Bennett and Darin immediately come to mind. Ricki’s Here’s To Christmas album is a favorite go-to of his featuring the smooth voice that has earned him so much recognition.

The theater is also offering an exclusive dinner package for those that want to enjoy a delicious three-course meal at Sundown at Granada – the theater’s next door neighbor. Executive Chef Jason West has a wonderful meal planned – roasted root vegetable salad with chili pecans, pan-roasted red fish with garlic, parmesan-smashed parsnips and braised mushrooms, and pumpkin cheesecake. A vegetarian option is also available. Enjoy a champagne toast, too! You can find more information here.

What better way to celebrate the season than with one of the area's top performers ringing in the holiday season at one of the city's most treasured venues? The Granada Theater welcomes fans of all ages out for this one-of-a-kind tribute to Christmas. Be careful – you might get caught under the mistletoe. Tickets are available at granadatheater.com.

About the Granada Theater

The Granada Theater has been entertaining Dallas audiences of all ages since 1946. Located in the historic Lower Greenville neighborhood, it was originally built as a post-WWII movie theater house. After periods of neglect and years of alternating between concert venue/ movie house, it re-opened in 2004 under new ownership as a concert hall and has since amassed several awards including “Best Live Music Venue” (Dallas Observer 2007-11, 2015) along the way. Musical acts that have played the theater include Adele, Bob Dylan, Black Keys, Tame Impala, M83, David Crosby, The Avett Brothers, ZZ Top, Graham Nash, TV On The Radio, Leon The Kills, BØRNS, Leon Russell, Dave Mason, CHVRCHES, Wolfmother, Miike Snow, Father John Misty, Spoon, Old 97's, Wilco, OK Go and many more. Now in the building's 70th year at 3524 Greenville Avenue, the Granada Theater is doing what it has done effortlessly over the last twelve years – ushering in a new generation of music fans one concert at a time.
