

Website and Cookies Policy

Transparency. Privacy. Choice. Responsible online services.

Cardan Compliance Services is committed to providing a secure, transparent and accessible website. We protect the privacy of our website visitors and use cookies and similar technologies responsibly, in accordance with applicable UK data protection and electronic communications requirements.

This policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies on our website, the choices available to visitors, and how we manage the information collected.

Our Commitments We will:

Website Transparency

Provide clear, accurate and up-to-date information about our services and our website.

Privacy and Data Protection

Protect personal data and handle information in accordance with our Data Protection and Privacy Policy (ISMS-POL-003).

Responsible Cookie Use

Use cookies and similar storage technologies only for defined and legitimate purposes.

Cookie Choice and Consent

Provide clear information and obtain valid consent before using non-exempt cookies, while allowing users to refuse or withdraw consent.

Website Security

Maintain appropriate technical and organisational safeguards to protect the website and information submitted through it.

Third-Party Services

Identify relevant third-party technologies or services and manage them appropriately.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

Cookies are small files or similar technologies that are stored on your device when you visit our website. They help our website function, remember your preferences and understand how visitors use our website.

We provide clear information about the technologies we use, their purposes, the relevant third parties and the duration for which they are stored. Technologies that are strictly necessary for the operation of our website may be used without your consent, where permitted by law. Non-exempt cookies and similar technologies will not be enabled before valid consent is obtained.

Our Objectives

We will set, monitor and review measurable objectives to support this policy and drive continuous improvement.

Maintain a secure and reliable website.

Provide transparent information to visitors.

Respect cookie and privacy choices.

Continuously review website and cookie compliance.

Our Responsibility

This policy is issued by top management, is communicated to all relevant interested parties, made available to the public and is reviewed periodically to ensure it remains relevant, effective, and aligned with applicable requirements.

Your privacy. Your choice. Our responsibility.

Transparent online services. Responsible data handling. Building trust.
