PalmCon: The Palm Beach County Comic Book and Collectibles Show returns to the Palm Beach County Convention Center for the first time since 2016. After last year's 10th anniversary event at the American Polish Club in Lake Worth (our original location in 2011) there was an amazing amount of support from the local comic scene for the show to grow and expand, so in 2022 PalmCon has answered the call.

There will be over 75 vendors and artists offering a wide variety of merchandise, crafts, original artwork, collectibles, publications, and more. There will be over 25 special guests including comic creators, filmmakers, cosplayers, wrestlers and actors. There will be two raffles, a costume contest, informative panels and discussions, simulated sword combat demonstrations, a fun Mad-Libs Draw Off, and many other activities throughout the day.

This event originally grew out of show promoter Martin T. Pierro's love for the small hotel and mall comic shows that were a staple of his youth growing up in Palm Beach County. Martin believes that PalmCon should continue to remain a community focused show highlighting what Florida and more notably what Palm Beach County has to offer. As with years past PalmCon has partnered with the Palm Beach County Library System and the Mandel Public Library to help promote the arts and literacy on a local level and the Cox Science Center and Aquarium to encourage young people to focus on the sciences. Part of Martin's commitment to the community is reflected in the PalmCon admission pricing, setting out to ensure that a family of four could get a full day of comic con style entertainment for less than $40.
