

In a national survey

40% of people from Saskatchewan found their relationship with animals or pets to help in continuing their recovery from addiction.

