

DT Strategies, Inc. – An SBA 8(a) certified small business

Dino Teppara is an attorney, reserve naval officer, and founder of DT Strategies, Inc.

Dino served two years in the first term of President Donald J. Trump, including one year as a special assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Manpower and Reserve Affairs. Dino continued in this role when the ASN M&RA was appointed Acting Under Secretary of the Navy. Dino also served at the U.S. Department of Education and was appointed to a VA Secretary Commission. He currently serves as a subcontractor supporting the Office of the Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy for Management (DUSN M), focusing on government reform and organizational change management.

Dino spent seven years on Capitol Hill working for U.S. Congressman Joe Wilson (R-SC), supporting his House Armed Services, Foreign Affairs, and Education and the Workforce committee assignments. After five years as a senior policy aide, he was appointed Chief of Staff and Counsel.

In the military, Dino is a public affairs officer in the U.S. Navy Reserve. He has served on active duty with the U.S. 6th Fleet, U.S. 7th Fleet, and U.S. Pacific Fleet. Dino was also a flag aide to three admirals for eight consecutive years, focusing on external engagement.

Dino was elected as a delegate to the 2020 and 2024 Republican National Conventions.

His small business is certified as an 8(a) firm and has 7 years remaining in the program.

DT Strategies website

DT Strategies 2025 Capability Statement